

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

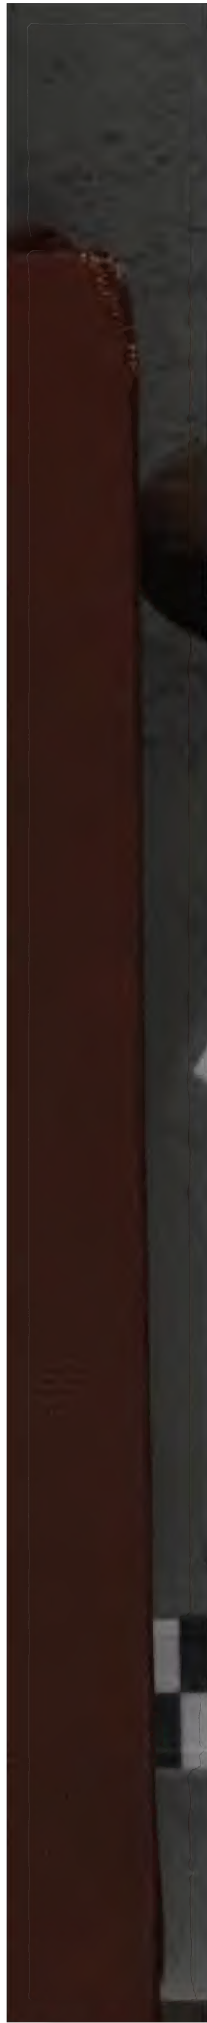

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

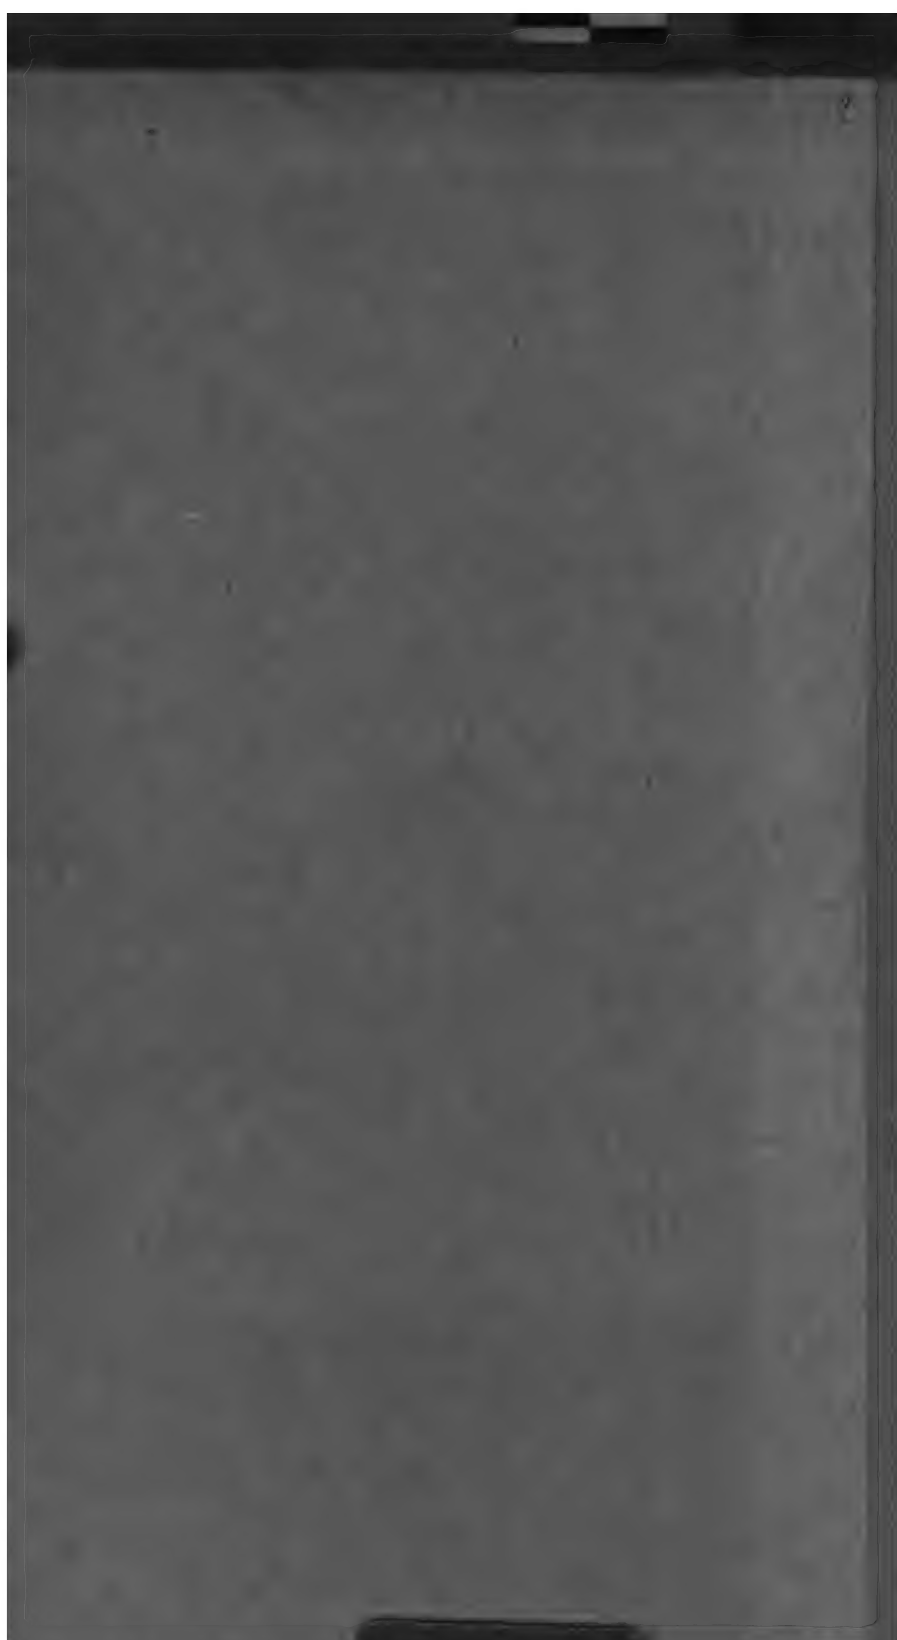

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. JOURNAL.

FIRST DAY.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, AUBURN, }
Tuesday, June 9, 1903. }

This being the day appointed for the meeting of the Thirty-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Central New York, the Right Rev. Frederic D. Huntington, S. T. D., LL. D., L. H. D., Bishop of the Diocese; The Right Rev. Charles T. Olmsted, S. T. D., Bishop Coadjutor, and a number of the Clergy and Laity, assembled in St. Peter's Church in the city of Auburn at 4:30 o'clock P. M.

Evening prayer was said by the Rev. F. T. Henstridge and the Rev. W. E. Tanner. At the conclusion of Divine Service, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The Secretary called the roll of the clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, when sixty-six answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 20.)

The credentials of Lay Delegates were presented and referred to a committee consisting of the Rev. J. A. Staunton, Mr. T. L. R. Morgan and the Secretaries.

On the Report of the Committee on Credentials the roll was called, when forty delegates, representing twenty-five parishes, answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 21.)

Election of Secretary.

A quorum of the Clergy and Lay Delegates being present, the Right Reverend, the President, declared the Convention to be duly organized and ready for business.

The Convention proceeded to the election of a Secretary, when, on motion, the vote by ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. James K. Parker was chosen.

On nomination of the Secretary, the Rev. William Cooke was appointed Assistant Secretary.

The Rev. Mr. Staunton, from the Committee on Credentials, reported that two certificates of Lay Delegates presented, were not signed by the proper officer, and that two parishes presenting certificates had not paid their assessments for the General Fund.

Mr. Charles Andrews offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved. That the informality in the certificates of the Church at Port Leyden, and of the Church at Constableville be waived, and that delegates named be admitted as delegates to the Convention.

The Rev. Mr. Coley offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved, That there be appointed by the Secretary a second Assistant Secretary of the Convention whose duty it shall be to make fair and accurate copies of all resolutions which are referred to any Committee for the use of such Committee, and to deliver them to the chairman of such Committee without delay, that they may be duly considered and reported upon.

Clergy Invited to Seats

Under this resolution Mr. Frank L. Lyman was appointed Second Assistant Secretary.

On motion, it was resolved that the delegates from the two parishes presenting certificates whose assessment for the General Fund had not been paid, be admitted to seats in this Convention.

The Secretary then called the names of the Lay Delegates from these parishes, when two answered to their names and took their seats.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Byron-Curtis, it was

Resolved, That all Clergy of this Church, and of any Church in communion with this Church, not canonically resident in this Diocese, and also Candidates for Holy Orders, and representatives of missionary stations, who may be present, be admitted to honorary seats in the Convention.

Under this resolution there were present the Rev. Frank M. Baum, the Rev. C. W. Hayes, D. D., and the Rev. C. Morton Sills, D.D., of the Diocese of Western New York ; the Rev. William W. Raymond of the Diocese of Michigan City, and the Rev. R. Alan Russell of the Diocese of Georgia.

On motion, an adjournment took place until 7 :30 o'clock this evening.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7 :30 o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese in the chair.

On calling the names of members not present this afternoon, three Clergymen and one Lay Delegate appeared and took their seats. (See pages 20 and 21.)

Bishop's Address—Report of the Bishop Coadjutor.

The Rev. Dr. Lockwood read the Report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. (See Appendix I, A.)

The Bishop read his Annual Address.

The Bishop Coadjutor read his Report.

The Rev. Mr. Coddington offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved. That so much of the Bishop Coadjutor's address as concerns Keble School, Syracuse, be referred to a Committee to be appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese, and to consist of the Bishop Coadjutor, two Clergymen and two Laymen, and that said Committee shall report to this Convention to-morrow morning.

Under this resolution, the Chair appointed the following Committee: The Bishop Coadjutor, the Rev. H. G. Coddington, the Rev. Dr. Lockwood and Messrs. Charles Andrews and J. M. Tilden.

The Convention proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The Chair appointed as tellers to receive the votes of the Clergy: The Rev. Dr. Brainard and Mr. George T. Jack, and to receive the votes of the Laity, Mr. W. C. Stevens and the Rev. G. A. Shaw.

The Rev. Mr. Coley offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Chair appoint a Committee of two Clergymen and three Laymen to consider the method of providing for the salary of the Coadjutor and report the same at the morning session.

On motion of Mr. W. D. Dunning, consideration of the above resolution was postponed until after the reading of the Treasurer's Report.

Change of Name of the Church.

The Secretary read the following communication from the Secretary of the Joint Committee of the two Houses of the General Convention upon the Change of Name of the Church :

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., March 23, 1903.

MY DEAR SIR :—The Joint Committee of the two Houses of General Convention upon the Change of Name of the Church, at a recent meeting instructed me, as its Secretary, to communicate to you certain resolutions then adopted by it, together with the resolution under which that Committee is acting, and to request that you will lay these before the next session of your Diocesan Convention for such action as they may deem proper.

I hand you herewith copies of said several resolutions and beg that you will inform me, in accordance with the terms set forth in them, what action, if any, is taken by your Convention.

Very truly yours,

S. SCOLLAY MOORE,
Secretary of Committee.

COPY OF RESOLUTIONS OF JOINT COMMITTEE UPON
CHANGE OF NAME OF THE CHURCH.

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to communicate to the Secretary of each Diocese and Missionary District a copy of the resolution under which this Committee is acting, coupled with the statement that, in pursuance of the direction contained in said resolution —“to endeavor to ascertain as far as possible the mind of Church people in general” concerning the subject of a proposed change of name—this Committee, before making any recommendation to the General Convention asks that, at the next meeting of the Convention or Convocation of each Diocese or Missionary District, said Convention or Convocation be requested to inform this Committee whether it does or does not desire that the name of The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America shall be changed at this time, and if it does so desire, what name it wishes substituted therefor.

Resolved, That each Diocesan or Convocation Secretary be requested to communicate to the Secretary of this Committee prior to October 1st, 1903, any action of his Convention or Convocation upon the subject, together with a statement of the clerical and lay vote, separately, upon any definite resolution that may have come before said Convention or Convocation.

Committee to Consider the Change of Name.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent by the Secretary of this Committee to every Bishop of this Church.

COPY OF RESOLUTION UNDER WHICH COMMITTEE IS ACTING.

Resolved, That a Joint Committee be appointed, consisting of five Bishops, five Presbyters and five Laymen, to take the whole subject of a change of name of this Church into consideration, to ascertain as far as possible the mind of Church people in general concerning it, and to make report at the next General Convention, with such suggestions as may commend themselves to their judgment.

The Rev. Dr. McKnight offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved, That a Committee consisting of four Clergymen and four Laymen be appointed to report on the Joint Resolution of the General Convention in regard to changing the Legal Title of the Church.

Under this resolution the Chair appointed as such Committee the Rev. Dr. Bellinger, the Rev. Dr. Babcock, the Rev. Mr. Saphore, the Rev. Mr. Staunton and Messrs. F. G. Clarke, C. W. Mott, W. D. Dunning and H. B. Hubbard.

The Rev. Mr. Saphore offered the following resolution, which, on motion, was laid on the table :

Whereas, No action was taken upon the Report of the Special Committee on the Consolidation of the Christmas Fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund, which was submitted at the last Convention and is printed on page 40 of the Journal of 1902 ;

Resolved, That the said report be received and the recommendation adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Duff, from the Committee on the Apportionment of Offerings for General Missions, made a verbal report and offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Proposed Amendments to Canons

Resolved, That the subject of the apportionment for General Missions in this Diocese be referred to the Board of Missions of the Diocese at their annual meeting, and then to the several Convocations of the Diocese at their meetings immediately following the Diocesan Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Egar proposed a Form of Certificate of Delegates to the Convention, which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons. (See Appendix V, at the end of the Canons.)

Mr. S. H. Stone offered the following amendment to Canon XVI, which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons :

SEC. 4. In case of vacancies in office occurring during recess it shall be competent for the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, to fill—ad interim—any position which the Convention, if in session, might fill.

The Rev. Mr. Doolittle offered the following amendment to Canon X, which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons :

Resolved, That that portion of Canon X, Sec. 6 (1), relating to offerings for Domestic and Foreign Missions, be amended so as to read : " For the Board of Missions, Domestic or General, on a Sunday in Advent. For the Board of Missions, Foreign or General, on a Sunday after the Epiphany."

The Rev. Mr. Longley offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved, That all offerings for Diocesan objects—except those for Diocesan Missions—which shall be sent as directed by Canon X, Appointment of Committees.

Sec. 6 (2), shall be sent to Seymour H Stone, Treasurer, 420 James street, Syracuse (See last page of cover.)

The Chair appointed the following Committees :

On the Admission of Churches into Union with the Convention--
The Rev. E. H. Coley, Messrs. W. A. Lull and H. B. Hubbard.

*On Unfinished Business--*The Rev. A. W. Allen and Messrs. W. F. Jenks and A. N. Hollister.

*On the Report of the Missionary Board--*The Rev. W. S. Hayward, Messrs. Alfred Bolger and W. D. Dunning.

*On the Report of the Bible and Prayer Book Society--*The Rev. E. W. Saphore, Messrs. George R. Scovill and C. A. Talcott.

The Convention then, on motion, adjourned until nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

SECOND DAY.

WEDNESDAY, June 10, 1903.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment at nine o'clock A. M. Morning prayer was said by the Rev. Dr. Sills and the Rev. A. B. Rudd, the Rev. A. W. Allen reading the Litany.

The Bishop Coadjutor celebrated the Holy Communion, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Brainard, the Rev. Dr. Lockwood, and the Rev. Dr. Egar.

At the conclusion of Divine Service the Right Rev. the Standing Committee Elected—Report of Treasurer.

Bishop of the Diocese took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

On calling the names of members not present yesterday eight Clergymen and thirteen Lay Delegates appeared and took their seats. (See pages 20 and 21.)

The Tellers presented their report from which it appeared that the following named persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and they were therefore declared duly elected.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Rev. John Brainard, D. D.,	Mr. Azariah H. Sawyer,
The Rev. Henry R. Lockwood, S.T.D.,	Mr. John R. Van Wagenen,
The Rev. Theodore Babcock, D. D.,	Mr. George T. Jack,
The Rev. John R. Harding,	Mr. William D. Dunning.

The Treasurer of the Diocese read his Annual Report (See Appendix I, D.)

The Rev. Mr. Coley offered the following resolution, which was carried:

Resolved, That the report of the Treasurer be accepted and placed on file, and that a sufficient number of copies be printed for distribution in all the parishes and missions of the Diocese.

The resolution offered last night by the Rev. Mr. Coley in reference to the salary of the Bishop Coadjutor (see page 26) was brought up for consideration, and was carried.

Keble School.

Under this resolution the Chair appointed the following Committee: The Rev. E. H. Coley, The Rev. Dr. Lockwood and Messrs. A. H. Sawyer, W. D. Dunning and J. R. Van Wagenen.

The Bishop Coadjutor, from the Special Committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop Coadjutor's report referring to Keble School, presented the following:

REPORT.

The Committee appointed at last night's session of the Convention to consider that part of the Bishop Coadjutor's address which concerns Keble School beg leave to report that in their estimation the interests of the Diocese demand that an earnest effort be made at this time to strengthen the foundations of Keble School and render it a distinctly Diocesan Institution. During its thirty-two years of existence it has made a most honorable record and reflected credit upon the Diocese, and its loss cannot be contemplated without deep regret. Upon investigation it appears that if the sum of $1,300 can be raised the school can be maintained during the coming year, with the hope of a permanent establishment.

The Committee therefore offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor be asked to appoint a Board of fifteen trustees representing the different parts of the Diocese, and to secure an incorporation of "Keble School of the Diocese of Central New York."

Resolved, That the Diocese assume the responsibility of providing the sum of $1,300 for the needs of the school during this year, and that a committee of three (of the prospective board of trustees) be appointed to secure subscriptions from the clergy and laity of the Diocese.

It is believed that among the large number of former and present patrons of the school many will be found who will be glad to assist in putting the school on a firm basis. It is also hoped that one or two scholarships may be provided.

Resolution on Change of Name of the Church.

On motion, the resolutions contained in the above report were adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Saphore, from the Special Committee appointed to consider the communication from the Joint Committee upon Change of Name of the Church, offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that it is inexpedient to change the name of the Church.

E. WARREN SAPHORE,
W. D. DUNNING,
H. B. HUBBARD.

Committee.

The Rev. Mr. Hyde offered the following amendment to the report of the Committee :

Resolved, To amend the Report of the Committee on Change of name of the Church by insertion of phrase, "at this time," after the word "inexpedient."

On motion of Mr. Charles Andrews, the proposed amendment was laid upon the table.

The Rev. Mr. Schwartz offered the following resolution, which was lost :

Resolved, That the whole matter of the change of the legal title of the Name of the Church be placed upon the table.

A vote by Orders being taken on the Resolution proposed by the Committee, resulted as follows :

Clergy—Ayes 29, Nays 37.
Laity —Ayes 26, Nays 8.

Lost through non-concurrence of Orders.

Second Day—The Salary of the Bishop Coadjutor.

The Rev. Mr. Duff offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that it is inexpedient at this time to change the Name of the Church.

On motion, the Convention took a recess until 3:00 o'clock this afternoon.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3:00 o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled, the Rt. Rev. the President in the chair.

The Bishop of the Diocese appointed as Examining Chaplains the Rev. Theodore Babcock, D. D., the Rev. Edwin W. Saphore and the Rev. William M. Beauchamp, S. T. D.

On motion, the vote by ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. Seymour H. Stone was chosen Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Rev. Mr. Coley, from the committee to which was referred the matter of the salary of the Bishop Coadjutor, submitted the following report and moved that it be made a Standing Resolution of the Convention :

Resolved, That the salary of the Bishop Coadjutor be provided as a separate fund to be assessed upon all the parishes and missions of the Diocese in the same method as provided in Canon XI for the assessment of the General Fund. Unless provision for the payment of its assessment shall be otherwise made by any parish or mission, offerings for this purpose shall be taken during the months of June, September, December and March, or until the total amount assessed for the current year has been collected ; and at least one-fourth of the assessment upon each parish or mission shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Diocese on or before the fifteenth day of July, October, January and April of each year.

(Signed)

E. H. COLBY, Chairman.

A vote being taken upon the above resolution, it was carried.

The Rev. Mr. Burd read an abstract of the report of the Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions (See Appendix I, B.)

Mr. W. D. Dunning read the report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund (See Appendix I, G.)

On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for Mr. Robert J. Hubbard, in place of Mr. William Marvin, deceased; Mr. A. C. Chase, in place of Mr. H. G. White resigned, and Mr. A. H. Green, to succeed himself, as Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

The Secretary read the report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, and the report of the Committee appointed to report on the same (See Appendix I, F.)

The Rev. Mr. Longley read the report of the Deaf Mute Commission (See Appendix I, M.)

Mr. J. R. Van Wagenen read the report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund (See Appendix I, H.)

The Secretary read the following Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund:

REPORT.

To the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor and Convention of the Diocese of Report on Van Wagenen Fund.

Central New York:

Your committee appointed at the last Convention beg to report as follows: After due examination, in which the Committee was ably assisted by Mr. Charles W. Brown, Attorney, of Oxford. N Y., they find the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund to be properly secured, the accounts of the Trustee to be correct and the increase for the past year to be most gratifying. As shown by the Report of the Trustee, the Fund now amounts to the sum of $38,829.37 :

Invested securities.....	$38,142.89
Cash on hand.....	686.48
Total.....	$38,829.37
Last year.....	$36,955.59
Total Interest.....	1,899.27
Expense.....	25.49
Net gain.....	$ 1,873.78

In making this report, your Committee would call attention to the able and faithful management of the interests of this Fund. It was started in 1850 by the Van Wagenen heirs with a gift of $1,000, to which was added other gifts from time to time. Mr. John R. Van Wagenen was appointed to the Trusteeship in 1870, at which time the fund amounted to $4,957.54. Mr. Van Wagenen's capable management has brought it up to almost forty thousand dollars.

Pursuant to the wish of the Bishop, the Trustee, and the resolution of the Committee passed by the last Convention, a Missionary, the Rev. Dr. Duff, has been appointed under the provisions of this Fund, and for the purpose for which it was established, and is now at work in the field.

In closing, your Committee would congratulate the Diocese of Central New York on the possession of such a fund for missionary work in one of its counties, and commend to loyal and earnest churchmen the establishment of similar funds in the various Counties or Missionary Districts. When we consider that this Fund started only a little over fifty years ago with but $1,000, and now amounts to so large a sum, it may well be that others, interested in the future of the Church in our Diocese, shall begin the foundation at this time of what will do for the rest of the Diocese what the Van

The Rev. Dr. McKnight, from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, presented the following Report :

The Committee has considered the proposed amendment to Canon X and recommend that it be adopted. (See page 29.)

They have also considered the proposed amendment to Canon XVI, Sec. 4, and recommend that it be adopted. (See page 29.)

On motion, the amendments proposed by the Committee were adopted, two-thirds of each Order concurring therein.

The Rev. Dr. McKnight, for the Committee on Constitution and Canons, reported in favor of the proposed Form of Certificate of Lay Delegates to the Convention, and it was adopted. (See Appendix V, at the end of the Canons.)

Mr. A. H. Sawyer offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved, That it be referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to consider and report at the next Convention, whether it is desirable that the Diocese of Central New York should be incorporated under the "Religious Corporations Law;" and if so, to recommend to the Convention the names of suitable persons to act as Trustees for the Diocese for the purpose of such incorporation.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the sum of $3,045 for the General Fund be assessed, as recommended by the Standing Committee on the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese.

Delegates to Missionary Council—Reports on Christmas Fund.

On motion, the Rev. R. M. Duff, D. D., and Mr. G. J. Mager were chosen delegates to represent this Diocese in the Missionary Council.

Mr. S. H. Stone read the Report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund. (See Appendix I, E.)

The following resolution, offered by Mr. Seymour H. Stone, was carried :

Resolved, That the Convention nominates to the Trustees of the Christmas Fund Mr. H. M. Greeley to succeed himself, Mr. Geo. Howard Avery, Mr. Seymour H. Stone and Mr. George T. Jack to fill vacancies in the Board.

The Rev. Mr. Longley offered the following resolutions, which were adopted :

Resolved, That, beginning with the next Annual Convention, the method heretofore followed of calling the roll of Clergy and Lay Delegates by the Secretary after the primary roll-call, be dispensed with, and that the Secretary be, and is hereby, instructed to mail with other Convention matter, blank forms containing spaces designated—to be filled in by the Clergyman or Lay Delegate and deposited at the time of their arrival, in boxes—one for the Clergy and one for the Laity—to be placed near the Secretary's desk; and be it further

Resolved, That Rule No. 12 of the first day and Rule No. 2 of the second day be rescinded, and the remaining rules for each be numbered consecutively.

Appropriation for Missionary Work—Standing Committees

The Rev. W. DeL. Wilson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the sum of $11,400 be appropriated for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the current year, and that the sum of $10,000 be assessed upon the Districts.

The Right Rev. the President appointed the following:

STANDING COMMITTEES.

On Christian Education—The Rev. J. S. Reed, D. D., the Rev. A. C. Clarke, the Rev. J. E. Johnson, the Rev. E. F. H. J. Masse and Mr. W. Verbeck.

On the Constitution and Canons and Rules of Order—The Rev. G. H. McKnight, D. D., the Rev. J. H. Egar, D. D., the Rev. R. M. Duff, S. T. D., Messrs. Charles Andrews and G. B. Sloan.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese—Messrs. Henry Burden, W. H. Moore and W. P. White.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate—Messrs. T. H. Stryker, T. R. Proctor and Louis Krumhaar.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund—Messrs. R. J. Hubbard, C. W. Mott and D. C. Robinson.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund—Messrs. A. C. Chase, G. J. Mager and John Anderson.

On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund—The Rev. J. H. LaRoche, D. D., Messrs. Seymour H Stone and C. W. Brown.

The Rev. Mr. Hayward, from the Committee on the Report of the Missionary Board, presented the following REPORT.

The Committee to whom the consideration of the Report of the Resolutions on Death of Judge William Marvin.

Board of Missions was committed, respectfully report, that, upon a casual examination of the same, it is suggested that the Report be commended to the perusal of our people throughout the Diocese, that its stirring facts may serve to enliven their missionary interest. All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. S. HAYWARD,

W. D. DUNNING,

WM. G. PECK,

For the Committee.

Mr. J. D. Barrow offered the following minute, which was adopted by a rising vote:

Since our last Convention, Divine Providence has called to Himself our fellow-churchman, Judge William Marvin, who departed this life on the 8th of July, 1902, after a short illness, aged ninety-four years. We desire to express our sense of the great loss we feel, and our sympathy with his surviving relatives.

He was a man of high attainments, and as a jurist, of more than national reputation. He had, in his time, done good and faithful service to his Church and Nation.

Born in 1808, the son of a Central New York pioneer, and one of a large family, it was by his own talents and energy that he was soon a mark, under Providence, for the favors of fortune

About at his majority he was appointed by President Jackson District Attorney for Southern Florida, and immediately entered on the duties of his office at Key West. He subsequently became United States Judge for the same district, and during our Civil War his post was a most arduous and responsible, as well as anxious one. His efforts then were as courageous as they were successful, though he was almost alone for a time in upholding the authority of our Government. After the war he was appointed by President Johnson one of the five provisional governors of recovered states, and when Florida became again a State of the Union he was elected its first Senator. Since 1865 he resided in Skaneateles, where he was known as a devout and humble Christian—a devoted Communicant of his Church and its ever ready and intelligent advocate. Ever the sharer of their joys or sorrows, he was closely endeared to all who came within the circle of his acquaintance.

Printing Journal—Resolution of Thanks—Adjournment.

We will not attempt any further eulogy here than the simple record of his life and our appreciation of one who, having finished his course in faith, does now rest from his labors.

Mr. J. V. H. Scovill offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved, That 1,300 copies of the JOURNAL of this Convention, together with the Constitution and Canons, and various forms and legislative acts of incorporation, be printed under the direction of the Secretary and distributed as directed by Canon V.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss offered the following resolution, which was carried :

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of the members of this Convention be extended to the Rev. John Brainard, D. D , the members of St. Peter's and St. John's Churches, and the citizens of Auburn generally, for their generous hospitality.

The Rev. Mr. Burd submitted the report of the Committee on Sunday School Work (See Appendix I, N.)

The Convention then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the reading of the minutes and the usual devotions.

The minutes of this day's session were read and approved.

The Bishop offered prayers and pronounced the benediction, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

FREDERIC D. HUNTINGTON,

President of the Convention.

JAMES K. PARKER, Secretary.

WILLIAM COOKE, Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop's Address

To the Thirty-fifth Annual Convocation.

On December 9, 1902, at the Church of the Saviour, Syracuse, J. Hamilton Sterling, David Curran and Nathaniel Peterson Boyd were ordained Deacons

Henry N. Hyde, Almon A. Jaynes and George Chalmers Richmond were ordained Priests by me in Syracuse, Trinity Church, March 25, 1903, and Francis C. Smith by Bishop Olmsted at Boonville, May 2.

The candidateship of Edmund B. Gierhart has been discontinued Samuel Macpherson and J. N. Goodrich have been deposed from the Ministry at their request.

I have baptized one infant and conducted the marriage service three times.

I have confirmed 327 persons. The names and places will appear in the JOURNAL.

The event of most prominent and lasting importance to the Diocese was the consecration of the Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, D. D., to the Episcopate, on the second day of October, 1902, in Grace Church, Utica, where he had some years before been Rector. The occasion was observed with universal and cordial interest, and the administration of the Coadjutor, present with us to-day, has been auspiciously and acceptably begun.

Bishop's Address.

September 9, Miss Margaret A. Keenan was transferred from the Diocese of Pennsylvania as a Deaconess, and stationed in Utica at the House of the Good Shepherd.

Clergymen have been transferred by letters dimissory as follows:

Rev John A. McCausland to the Diocese of New York; Henry Knott to Lexington; James A. Skinner to Long Island; Carl G. Heyne to Kansas; W. Harmon van Allen to Massachusetts; William Higgs to California; H. W. Crydenwise to Central Pennsylvania; Nathaniel Peterson Boyd to Long Island; Orrok Colloque to New York.

Clergymen have been canonically received into the Diocese as follows:

The Rev. Allan G. Wilson, October 11, 1902; John Newell Goodrich from Diocese of Albany, Oct. 30, 1902; Jesse Higgins from Pennsylvania, Jan. 28, 1903; Arthur B. Rudd from Massachusetts, Jan. 3, 1903; Thomas Stafford from Milwaukee, Feb. 27.

November 1 an appropriate service of Dedication was held at "The Shelter," when the improvement and enlargement of the buildings were observed, with thanksgivings to Christ for the silent and steady growth of this touching and carefully guarded ministration to erring girls from various parts of the Diocese, for their social happiness and religious training and subsequent safety. It continues to be a matter of sad surprise that so little substantial and expressed sympathy appears in Parishes and disciples in our Diocesan Family for this patient charity, and for the Training School and nobly managed Hospital of the Good Shepherd.

Venerable and sacred as the one body of Christ is, at any time or place, the life of its members in Him is its chief glory. We cannot too often or too seriously remember that, however wide or rapid its extension, however needful its framework and operation, however instructive or impressive the events in its history, all is but secondary to its power and its effect in the personal soul. No reckoning of numerical loss or gain can confuse this sure mark and measure of its real strength. No attention to its organized force or display must be suffered to hide the transcendent and supreme value of human character formed in the faith and grace of the Son of God. This is particularly not to be forgotten when we are engaged in the affairs and institutions of our Ecclesiastical Economy, tempted as we are by eager and urgent social agitations to lose the sense of individual accountability before an individual and final judgment. Over and over we have to be taught that the path of a true and lasting advancement lies rather in a more thorough use of the Apostolical, original and tried Church appointments we inherit than in plausible experiments or florid fashions. May the merciful Lord save us from routine devotions and self-indulgent lives!

Our main concern is naturally and habitually divided between worship and preaching. Both of them furnish subject-matter for constant instruction and plain admonition. Yet every new year of our swift life and shifting scenery, new events or new aspects of events, present fresh occasions for caution and for study. Ideas shape themselves not only into habits, but into principles.

The established principles of personal life and conduct you understand, because they are established and familiar. As Clergy, as intelligent and thoughtful Laymen, you know what they are, but every twelve-month there are newcomers in the congregations of the Church needing to be taught what the Church is and believes. There are also well-taught believers, men of action, students, women, hard-pressed and tempted by the world, in every pursuit and of no pursuit, more or less conscious that they are in danger, are faulty, are needing to be re-established, if they are to grow into the measure of the stature of any completeness in Christ.

We consider then the immediate condition of the Church as to Public Worship. While certain fundamental and universal truths pertaining to it are fixed, continuing unaltered from generation to generation. are often proclaimed, are everywhere acknowledged, are learnt by children and questioned by nobody—there are, related to these and associated with them, religious acts, offices, customs, shaped and colored by the social habits and tastes of what are called "the times." They are not determined as respects their amount or details. Individual and local influences have much to do in directing them. The element of Ritual being de fide, no directory having the least authority, maximum and minimum being determined by no canonical prescription, we are left in a scene of irregularity, if not confusion. There are, however, some comments which this state of things in so serious and sacred an interest seems to justify :

1st. The tendency to unregulated liberty is fostered by a general drift in the affairs and spirit of the age and community where we live. Within the period of modern democracy and Protestantism, the human mind being what it is, that passion for liberty which has fired and impelled the western nations could not fail to reach all classes of people. It's vast gain to mankind, political and social, could not fail, by its power and its contagion, to be attended by excesses and extremes of innovation. Granting all that can be claimed for it in its contrast with the preceding reign of absolutism and despotism, its abuses were as conspicuous in religion as in civil usurpations and political craft. Wherever this reactionary danger is not seen and felt as a religious danger, the prospect, whether in States or in the Church, cannot be otherwise than appalling.

2d. The propensity toward independence and individualism in Ritual is shared in temper and will among all classes of people seeking change and novelty. That this phenomenon has been manifest beyond precedent during the last quarter of a century is attested by every department of modern literature—periodical, economical, philosophical, reflective, critical. Whether in favor or censure, as a boast or a menace, restlessness is a commonplace of the press, as of conversation. Fifty years ago accessions to the Church from dissent were largely due to a widespread conviction that the Church was constant, conservative, immutable, orderly—the same in one time and place as in another. Up to that time this had been its characteristic. It was a refuge from popular agitation. Two “schools,” not violently at odds, each of them tolerably content with its methods, divided the whole body. Going into almost any of our Parish churches one would be able to describe beforehand the order of service, the ministerial dress and even the bodily attitudes and movements of the officiating Clergy. Everybody knows how impossible this would be now. Is the change for the benefit of the devotions, or is it—for curiosity, observation, remark, debate—something quite alien from prayers and praise to God?

3d. These various extra-rubrical and extra-canonical matters are of two sorts and have one of two principal motives. They are voiceless expressions of individual taste, imitative or original, or else they are supposed to be symbols of something religious.

As to the phrases, utterances, gestures, pertaining to

Bishop's Address.

Ritual, but not designated in rubric or canon, lying in the sphere of tolerated freedom, they are yet by no means outside the range of ministerial accountability. Making a generous allowance for a due respect for a Rector's or a Priest's professional position, they commonly pass without unfriendly remark. It is only when the innovation is too venturesome, the copy of an admired pattern in tone or accent, in some pulpit or chancel, is too ludicrous, or the emphasis, twang, pronunciation, attitude, jerk, nod, is singularly eccentric, that devotion is seriously disturbed. At the same time little things may have large meanings and issues. A minister of Christ, in the spirit of his Master, and with a tender conscience, putting every other feeling beneath a disinterested mindfulness of the souls in his shepherding, will set aside even a self-indulgence in non-essential sacred things for a scruple not his own, "but of the other." Is there not among us a too frequent disregard of this fine construction of a high trust?

4th. More momentous still to a true steward and genuine Watchman are such extra-rubrical acts in the chancel as have a symbolic signification. At the basis of them probably most ritual acts have now, or had once, such an origin. They are signs of something. Sometimes they are used without a knowledge of what they signify. There is a charm about the half-hidden sense. They arrest attention. Sometimes they convey more than any other kind of language. They may convey what words would not be allowed by Church-law or public opinion to convey. I have known a clergyman of questionable orthodoxy and still more doubtful sincerity to foist in warily and to continue a "use" which was afterwards successful in leading the people on to the acceptance of a dogma not declared in the Bible or the Prayer-book. If our Ordinal, our Canons of candidates and ordination, our Standing Committees and Episcopal examinations, provide no protection against a moral turpitude and profane trickery like this, our first ecclesiastical undertaking ought to be a radical revision of the whole ecclesiastical system.

Does it follow, then, that the Catholic worship is cast into a mould of such iron rigidity that it admits, or was intended to admit, no alteration whatever—no betterment or “enrichment”? Neither Christian history nor the New Testament furnishes a warrant for a stereotyped “directory” or changeless order. The dissenting multitude that have sought refuge or edification in the Church in the United States within the last half century cannot demand as a right that the Ritual which attracted them should be kept immutable. Some of them wish it might be so; very many wish that the simplicity of the American Fathers might be guarded and preserved. To me this seems to be a reasonable claim. I might, however, personally go farther and say that, for one, I should consider some few recent modifications as a gain to the best ends, if legally authorized—such as the reverent Presentation of Alms, the insertion of the Penitential office, the closer connection of the saying of the Litany with the congregation, the more reverent manual treatment of the material elements at the Sacrament of the Holy Communion or the Eucharist (not the superfluous multiplication of genuflections or a finical attitudinizing), the two lighted candles as betokening the Light of the World in the person of the Christ so commemorated as very God and very man, and the frequent singing of devout hymns. But should it be found that any of these comparatively recent Ritual features has a tendency to materialize the Sacrament, that by theatrical suggestions they endanger at all the divine plainness of the New Testament and Apostolical Ordinance, that they divide the mind of the worshipper between what is of supernatural solemnity as befits a divine and unseen Presence on the one hand and mere human art with an appeal to the senses on the other—then they had better be dispensed with and put out of view altogether; then the august mysteries of the Faith Revealed had better be set forth with even a Moravian or Puritan simplicity. That would at least be in keeping with the venerable dignity of the loftiest office and act of the worship of God as it stands in our Book of Common Prayer. We have, in Central New York, ample tolerance and large room. Let every man use it with large trust honestly.

Here or there an immature student in Orders is tempted to try the experiment of bringing into his own practice some of the Ritual attitudes, or gestures, or garments, not in common use in the Parishes about him, or in his Diocese, and not authorized in the Prayer-book or Canons, or countenanced by older and more judicious clergymen, or his Bishop. The policy is to slip in these acts or phrases one at a time, so as not to cause remonstrance or much comment in the sober and sensible members of the congregation, till he shall have quietly established the new fashion. It is not a very exalted or manly or candid or noble form of self-indulgence in a minister's mind, in relation to the worship of God or to the spirit of sincere and humble devotion. Among us it is not supported by such weight of character, nor is it of such frequent occurrence, as to be regarded as otherwise than pitiable.

There is instruction in the statement of a Presbyter of this Diocese who forsakes the Catholic for the Latin Church, that for sometime he tried to introduce and use certain teachings and practices belonging to the latter while ministering in our Communion, and did so, but that his conscience and reflection convinced him that it involved duplicity if not dishonesty, and that he could maintain an honest and single character only by a renunciation of his Orders.

This man was for a certain time, and might have been

for an indefinite time, a professed and accepted member of the Roman Church while he was a Priest of a Church which the Roman Church declares heretical, or schismatic, or both, The Church of Rome can afford a good deal, but it cannot afford that.

A wholesome effect of such defection ought to be the marking and emphasizing of the actual line of distinction between the organization, standards and worship of the Protestant or Anglican and American Church on the one hand and the Roman Church on the other. This man confesses that "teachings and practices" which he ventured to use under his vows in his ministry in Central New York are not to be honestly recognized as reconcilable with those vows or with a fair conscience—something which the community and our Divinity Schools ought to consider and remember.

The human mind, in men, women and systems, will play almost any prank to get rid of the discomfort of a simple moral obligation. Which is the more dangerous enemy to society—he who sins by a vicious yielding to his senses or he who, in a high position of honor, forfeits his trust and violates his vow? What would that part of the newspaper press which extols the "independence" and "liberality" of the clergyman who breaks his ordination pledge say of the subscriber or trader or banker who should so treat his business contract?

The question here is not at all one of theological consistency or religious belief, but of the inviolability of contracts and personal veracity. This question affects religion as it affects every business interest and the security of our social, industrial and practical state. The popular superficial mind confuses the principles of personal veracity and honor with those of party or political allegiance. Its current maxims are, Think as you please, Believe as you please, Play fast and loose with creeds and covenants, Liberty is the one article; "Give me liberty or give me death." There is more than one kind of liberty; one is that of refusing to promise obedience to God and discipleship to Christ. The Church does not deal with men by compulsion; it pronounces to the world, which is not of it, its invitations, warnings, cries of pity and alarm. Of the sons and daughters in its Household and under its discipline it demands an honest obedience. There are two kinds of peace—one of self-indulgent isolation, the fruit of a narrowing parochialism, the other that of St. Paul's luminous exposition of a Catholic membership, in his twelfth chapter to the Corinthians.

In the frequent expressions of a desire for the healing of divisions and the ceasing of strife and alienation in the Body of Christ, allusion is sometimes made to a possible "center of unity," whether Rome, or Westminster, or Jerusalem, according to the leanings, training and tastes of the hopeful party. If we are guided by the New Testament and the wisest study of Apostolical and historical authority, the "center of unity" is to be found in no city, capital or seat of visible discipline, but in the hearts of Christ's People in all lands and of all tongues, because they are one in Him.

Homiletical Literature has not been discredited in any one of the three great Church eras, nor is it at all likely to decline in comparison with that which is controversial or scholastic or metaphysical. So much has been written and said of Preaching, as to its sphere and methods, and I have been so far moved to participate in the discussion, that I think I need not enter into it unless to remark upon two features of it that strike an attentive observer as just now conspicuous.

An unprecedented breadth and consequent promiscuousness are now given to the subjects and contents of pulpit performances, even in our conservative Household of Faith. A serious Churchman of the last generation who should look at the published list of topics to be treated on almost any given Sunday would be amazed, and the more so as he should compare it with those of any one of the three historic periods. This change might naturally be attributed to the vast variety and intensity of interests crowded into our American living in every department. By sheer dynamic pressure these eager pursuits force their way into the preacher's proper calling. The line of men's ordinary thinking and reading and talking is apt to be the line of their more regular production. Either the secular, literary, commercial, social concerns of life are engrossing excessively the minds of the Clergy, or the distinction generally marked hitherto between sacred and secular is becoming obscure, as a school in philosophy seems glad to believe. The themes of Apostolic Evangelism, whether theological or ethical, are less and less presented or treated. What would happen to the Faith but for the habitual repetition of the Nicene Creed, and what may happen in spite of it, can only be surmised.

Within the time of my own service in the ministry the mode of preparing and preaching sermons in our Church has been noticeably altered, and, so far as I am able to judge, has deteriorated. Only fifty years since preachers without a manuscript were exceptional and few. The memoriter method was nearly as rare. By far the greater number of sermons were written, and were read with more or less independence of the manuscript. Whatever the advantage or disadvantage on the whole, there were two or three evident advantages. The preacher knew when he took his text just what he was going to say, in thought, doctrine, language, grammar and length. So far his self-possession was not disturbed, his mind was not confused by anxiety, and he was not likely to "break down," whatever his elocutionary training or defects might be. On the part of the audience there was a measure of quiet confidence that the ordained servant of the Master had not been hasty, rash, idle, careless, and had not presumed on the indifference or undue patience of his hearers while speaking on the most solemn of all occasions of discourse.

Extemporization has come into fashion and may be said to prevail. It is singularly a favorite venture with young men, while it might be supposed that it would be rather attempted by minds the most mature, most thoroughly disciplined, and most amply furnished by years of study and chastened reflection. Without presuming to go into the actual or possible ways of getting a message from God's Word and spirit into readiness for a devout utterance, I express a deliberate opinion that the language of such a message is a part of it, that the words and ideas cannot be detached from one another, that any theory of rhetoric which allows such a separation is unsound, and that to think or say that it is a small matter what the preacher's "style," or language, or grammatical construction may be, or that his choice of words, as to their force or weakness, their harmony or discord, their grace or awkwardness, their fitness, their suggestiveness through imagination or pictorial vividness—I say that to think or imply this is a deplorable misconception of the greatness and honor and sanctity of the vocation of an ambassador of Christ, and a Prophet of Judgment, and a voice from the spiritual world. The ways in which the preparation for preachers is made are not to be now pointed out. They belong to other fields. Some of them are very subtle. Extempore discourse is not to be trusted for them, even in trained and proved discourses.

Quite adverse to a fastidious criticism, I must nevertheless discharge a duty of admonition laid upon me. When I see an ardent, youthful messenger and steward, having whatever canonical credentials and certificates, launching with self-confidence upon the deep sea of professional accountability in declaring the counsel of God to the souls of men, with small experience, without profound research, in a time of intellectual inquiry and searching scholarship like ours, dashing off in what I hear sometimes seriously called an "off-hand address," a "sermonette," a "little talk," or a "happy effort," I hesitate whether to depart thence or to stay and be dumb. There are hearers to whom the roll of sentences about religion, the easy flow, the fatal facility, is admirable, but it must not be assumed that all who are silent are satisfied. The pulpit itself has a historical and traditional character to be maintained. How do clergymen seeking a settlement really suppose I shall be impressed when they write me that, among other accomplishments, they "preach without notes?" How many volumes of sermons that are worth printing, and prove to be so, were extemporized? Time will reveal an obligation, not only to the soul of the individual hearer, but to the Christian ministry and to Christian literature.

A condition occurs, possible and sometimes actual, in the financial attitude and disposition of a Parish, and, to a modified degree, of a local mission. The Rector or Pastor resigns and removes. No successor is sought for. If there is a competent lay-reader, which is not always the case, he is licensed and employed, sometimes longer than is necessary for the sake of economy; otherwise, the Church building is shut and worship is discontinued. The Bishop, as Chief Pastor, appoints a temporary supply. He is informed, whether by warden, or vestry, or trustee, or parishioner, that there is no money in the treasury for expenses—perhaps there is a debt to be paid—and the Church doors are not opened. The Parish apparently regards itself as an independent, isolated entity, a social company, or a civil corporation, and only that. It is not only that—it is a responsible part of an ecclesiastical system. It got its existence and its privileges by virtue of its membership in a Diocesan organization under a Head. It probably holds a sanctuary duly set apart in good faith by acts and terms of solemn consecration, for the purpose of regular public devotion and sacraments, subject to canon law and well-known usages. Persons in a congregation of both sexes, families and individuals, who have no direct voice in the control of the property, are disappointed and deprived of a right. The Church, if not the community, suffers the obloquy of an edifice forfeiting its dignity and decency, being dumb and useless and inane. It would be an excellent practice for the Parish Clergy to read to the people from the chancel annually, say on the first Sunday in January, several of the practical canons and rubrics (no matter if it should be done instead of that day's sermon), such as our Fifteenth, Tenth and Seventh, taking heed to the latter themselves. We have the privilege of receiving constantly accessions to our congregations, very many attendants coming in from without who know as little of our law and use as if they had lived in the South Sea Islands.

In some parts of the Diocese, where the local conveniences allow it, regular clerical meetings at reasonable intervals are arranged for social and mental interchange. Both their interest and benefit must depend on setting and observing a worthy mark in the conversation—a rule befitting the high calling and habitual self-respect of the ministerial brotherhood; where the talk is not a mere random indulgence or cheap jocularity, but is at once genial and guarded, sensible without stiffness, refined even in jest and anecdote, refreshingly free, and yet neither vacuous nor wholly given over to the mere discussion of the minutiae of public service, to ridicule of the blunders and follies of weak Brethren (where all are weak) or the trivialities of ceremonies and pageants. Our intellects need relaxation, but not abnegation. It is within my knowledge that in some deplorable instances of negligence and flatness, or waste of time and opportunity in these respects, conscientious gentlemen here and there have found they could make a better use than the Clericus of their rare hours of recreation, and quietly dropped out.

It seems rather ungracious, what is due me being regularly paid, to remind you that debts of the Diocese continue to be disregarded. I have, however, a full share in the honor or dishonor of the Family, and there are creditors who suffer. "There is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty," not to say to meanness.

We find it to be occasionally expedient to recognize the obvious fact of the absolute independence and ecclesiastical equality of each and all Dioceses in Diocesan legislation, territorial boundaries, nomenclature and all Diocesan affairs.

Our faithful Brother, James B. Murray, D. D., was stricken and removed from us and his earthly ministry at Constableville and Greig, on June 18, just after our last Convention, at the end of a long and unassuming ministry as a Priest in this Diocese. Without personal ambition, without a family, with few intimacies, he had become known for scrupulous pastoral work and for carefully written and superior sermons wherever he had charge. His body was buried in Auburn from St. Peter's Church.

As Coadjutor, Bishop Olmsted presents the following :
Ordained 2 (1 Priest and 1 Deacon); instituted 1 Rector; confirmed 959 (for this Diocese 802, for New York 109, for Albany 48—959.) Baptized 9 (6 adults and 3 children); officiated at 5 funerals.

The whole number confirmed during the year is 1,125.

Report of the Bishop Coadjutor.

To the Bishop and Convention of the Diocese of Central New York, assembled in St. Peter's Church, Auburn, June 9th, 1903.

Brethren:

A list of all my official acts since the day of my consecration, together with the dates and the names both of the Churches and of the places in which they were performed, has been put into the hands of the Secretary of the Convention. From that list it will appear that I have ordained one Deacon and one Priest, instituted one clergyman as Rector of a parish, confirmed 959 persons, of whom 802 were of this Diocese, 109 for the Bishop of New York and 48 for the Bishop of Albany; celebrated the Holy Communion 44 times, baptized 9 persons—6 adults and 3 infants, and officiated at 5 funerals. I have also given canonical consent to the consecration of two Bishops (Alabama and Salina), taken part in the consecration of one (Salina) at All Saints' Cathedral, Albany, and attended the meeting of the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary in New York on April 16th.

According to the arrangement between the Bishop and myself, he was to take the Confirmations in the Fourth District and leave the rest to me. Consequently I have visited most of the parishes and missions in the other five Districts, and have appointments for three not heretofore visited, during the present month.

By invitation, I have also preached in eleven Churches in the Fourth District, and at the several Convocations throughout the Diocese. In 31 of the Churches visited no candidates for confirmation have been presented. The reasons for this were various. In some cases the Bishop of the Diocese had been there not very long before; some Churches had no regular pastors; while most of them are in those quiet country places where the population is receding rather than increasing, and where the pastors have all that they can do to hold the little flocks, without much hope of being able to add to their numbers.

Generally speaking, the work of the Church seems to be prospering fairly well throughout the whole region, under the hands of the faithful Clergy, and while there is room for improvement in many places, we have, on the whole, much reason for encouragement.

There is one matter which calls for particular mention at this time, and that is the work of Christian education which has been carried on in the Diocese, under the fostering care of our revered Bishop from the earliest years of his Episcopate. St. John's School, for boys, at Manlius, which has successfully survived the fire of April, 1902, is in a flourishing condition. The new building is finished, and is about to be formally opened this week.

The other educational institution in which this Diocese ought certainly to be interested, to which I would call your special attention, is Keble School, for girls, in Syracuse. For thirty years and more this school, though really the individual work of its well-known and highly-esteemed Principal, Miss

Report of the Bishop Coadjutor.

Jackson, has been generally regarded as a Diocesan institution, and, being under the general supervision of the Bishop, it has reflected upon the Diocese the credit of the splendid work that it has done among the young women of the land. The time has now come, however, when Miss Jackson would be glad to have the Diocese assume a more direct responsibility for its continuance if, in its wisdom, the Convention thinks best to have it continued. She asks no favors for herself personally; but she offers the good will of the school, with its well-established reputation for excellence, to the Diocese of Central New York, and requests that for the ensuing year the rent of a building be provided, and that steps be taken during the year to secure for the school a permanent home. This, in my estimation, is a most generous offer, and one that it is our duty to accept with alacrity. These are not days in which the Church can afford to throw away any opportunities of promoting the education of the young under the auspices of religion—nor are these institutions which this Diocese can allow to fail through any indifference, or any lack of effort to establish them on lasting foundations.

And now, in closing these brief remarks, let me make two requests of the Clergy—first, that they prepare their lists of Candidates before the visitation of the Bishop and have them ready to deliver to him after the Confirmation; and, second, that they spare no pains to have their parochial reports made out before the Convention, so that the Secretaries may be spared the inconvenience to which they are often put by the delay in those reports, and that the printing of the JOURNAL may not be retarded. And finally, let me ask of you all that you will pray for me, that I may be enabled to perform, with faithfulness and loving kindness, every duty which the Lord, through your instrumentality, has laid upon me, and for you I shall not cease to ask every blessing.

Report of Officers and Committees

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee

FOR THE CONVENTIONAL YEAR 1902-03

The Standing Committee respectfully report that during the Conventional Year 1902-03, they have held eight meetings, all in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, excepting the eighth, held in St. Peter's Church, Auburn.

At the first meeting, held June 11th, 1902, and attended by all the members, the committee was organized for the year by the election of the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., President, and the Rev. H. R. Lockwood, S. T. D., Secretary. Papers of a candidate for Holy Orders asking to be recommended for admission to the Diaconate were in view of the canon regulating the period of Candidateship ordered on file for consideration at a later meeting.

At the second meeting, held July 24th, 1902, all the clerical members and Messrs. Jack and Dunning were present. The office of Treasurer of the Diocese having been made vacant by the death of Mr. George J. Gardner, Mr. Seymour H. Stone, of Syracuse, was unanimously chosen to fill that office during the remainder of the Conventional Year, and it was ordered that all clergymen in charge of parishes, all vacant parishes, and all treasurers of Diocesan or Missionary Funds be notified immediately of this election. A suitable memorial of the late Mr. Gardner was ordered to be recorded among the minutes of this Committee, and copies of the same to be sent to Mr. Gardner's family and to the Gospel Messenger.

At the third meeting, held September 22nd, 1902, all the members being in attendance, it was resolved that the Syracuse members be a committee to act with the Treasurer of the Diocese in securing the examination and balancing of the late Treasurer's books with a view to their transfer to the present holder of the office. It was ordered that an additional assessment of $1800 be made upon the parishes and missions for the salary of the Coadjutor Bishop, and for other expenses of the Diocese chargeable to the General Fund. The following resolution was unanimously adopted. "Upon reading the Communication of the Bishop bearing date September 13th, 1902, it appearing that the failure to reach the Committee of the proper papers in the application of Mr. George C. Richmond for admission as a candidate for orders, was owing solely to the inadvertance of the Bishop in that regard, and that it is very desirable that the Committee should now act upon such papers as if duly presented, as intended, at the meeting in September, 1901: it is, therefore, resolved, that the papers of Mr. Richmond be approved as if presented at that date and that his ordination to the Diaconate be now recommended."

At the fourth meeting, December 2d, 1902, all the members excepting Dr. Brainard, and Mr. Van Wagenen being present, the special committee on the late Treasurer's accounts presented a report which was accepted, and the Committee's action recorded therein was approved. On presentation of the proper testimonials, consent was given to the consecration of Rev. Charles M. Beckwith, D. D., to the Bishopric of Alabama, and of the Rev. Sheldon Munson Griswold, D. D., to the Bishopric of the Missionary District of Salina; Messrs. J. H. Stirling, David Curran, and Nathaniel Peterson Boyd were recommended for ordination to the Diaconate; and Messrs. Alfred A. S. Moore and Edmund B. Gearhart for admission as candidates for Holy Orders.

At the fifth meeting, held February 23d, 1903, all the members excepting Mr. Jack being present, and the canonical testimonials having been received, it was recommended to the Bishop that Mr. Arthur J. Schrader be admitted to the Order of Deacons, and the Rev. Messrs. Almon A. Jaynes, Henry N. Hyde, Francis Curtis Smith, and George Chalmers Richmond be advanced to the Priesthood. The Treasurer presented a statement regarding the finances of the Diocese, with particular emphasis on the embarrassment arising from the non-payment by the parishes of assessments for the General Fund. A Committee was appointed to prepare a notice on this subject to be sent out as soon as possible, to all parishes delinquent in their payments to this fund.

At the sixth meeting, held April 4th, 1903, all the clerical members, and Messrs. Jack and Dunning were present. An application was received from the vestry of the church of the Evangelists, Oswego, for the consent of the committee to the sale of certain real estate, belonging to that parish, and formerly, but not now, used as the parish rectory. The Bishop was present and advised with the Committee in regard to several matters connected with the administration of his office and the interests of the Diocese.

At the seventh meeting, held May 11th, 1903, all the members, excepting the Rev. Mr. Harding being in attendance, Mr. Harrison W. Foreman, having presented the required testimonials, was recommended to be admitted a Candidate for Orders. Action upon other papers received at this time was put over to a subsequent meeting. A communication from the Bishop officially announced that, in accordance with canonical provisions, he had deposed from the Ministry, the Rev. Samuel McPherson and the Rev. J. N. Goodrich.

The following testimonial was unanimously adopted. "Resolved, that among the published records of this Committee, there be placed an expression of their grateful appreciation of the services of Mr. Seymour H. Stone, as Treasurer of the Diocese during the past year. The sudden death of Mr. Gardner left the accounts of the Diocese in a very complicated and almost unintelligible condition. Numerous records of receipts and expenditures in the several funds were entered only upon disconnected slips of paper, and often with references and abbreviations very difficult to decipher. The disentanglement of this confusion, while it showed that the accounts had been exactly kept, required an immense amount of time and labor, and the skilfulness of an expert and patient accountant. With some assistance from a professional examiner of accounts, this task has, after many months of work, been accomplished, and the present state of the several funds determined, and duly indicated in the Treasurer's books.

For this arduous and valuable service, rendered without pecuniary compensation, the Diocese is indebted to Mr. Stone, to an extent which the Committee feel can be only inadequately expressed in words, and imperfectly recognized by the appreciation and gratitude of the Diocese."

Report of the Standing Committee.

An estimate of the amount required for the expenses of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and payable from the General Fund was submitted, as follows: Printing of Journal of Convention and other printing, \$500; Rent of Episcopal residence, \$600; Salary of Secretaries, \$250; $\frac{1}{3}$ of Expenses for General Convention, \$220; Expenses of Registrar, \$25; Annuity as provided for in Canon XXI, \$500; Office expenses of Treasurer, \$150; Salary of Treasurer, \$300; Indebtedness of Diocese, not otherwise provided for, \$500; making a total of \$3045. For the raising of this amount, it was voted to recommend to the Convention an assessment upon the several parishes and missions, at the rate, in each case of two and three tenths per cent of the last reported current expenses.

At the eighth meeting, held June 9th, 1903, all the members excepting Mr. Harding being present, a resolution was adopted instructing the Secretary of the Convention to publish in the Journal of this Convention all documents, including the sermon of the Bishop of New York, pertaining to the Consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor. On receipt of the proper testimonials, it was recommended that Mr. Walter E. Jones, be admitted a candidate for Holy Orders, Mr. Albert A. S. Moore, be ordained to the Diaconate, and the Rev J Hamilton Stirling, Deacon, be advanced to the Priesthood. Consent was given to the Consecration of the Rev M. Edward Fawcett, Ph. D. Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Quincy, and of the Rev. Theodore DuBose Bratton, D. D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Mississippi. The Secretary's report of the transactions of the Committee during the past year was read and ordered to be presented to the Convention.

All which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

H R. LOCKWOOD,

Secretary.

Report of the Board of Managers—First District.B. Missions of the Diocese.(I.) Report of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully submits the following report :

At a meeting of the Board in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, on Wednesday, June 11, 1902, the thirty-fourth Annual Convention of the Diocese, then in session, having authorized the appropriation of $11,400 for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the current year, on motion, the assessments and appropriations for the Districts were made the same as last year, as follows :

First District. Assessed....	$1,450	Apportioned....	$1,900
Second District, "	2,550	"	2,300
Third District, "	1,600	"	1,500
Fourth District, "	2,100	"	1,800
Fifth District, "	1,200	"	1,700
Sixth District, "	1,100	"	2,000
	$10,000		$11,200

The sum of $200 was also appropriated for the Church Mission to the Deaf Mutes of the Diocese.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers in the Chapel of St. Peter's Church, Auburn, Tuesday, June 9, 1903, the following reports were read, and the following day were presented to the Convention :

FIRST DISTRICT.(JEFFERSON AND LEWIS COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Anson J. Brockway, Dean; the Rev. English Crooks, Ph. D., Secretary; Mr. John M. Tilden, Treasurer; the Rev. F. P. Winne and Mr. William E. Hart, members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are—in Jefferson County: Adams, Alexandria Bay, Antwerp, Brownville, Cape Vincent, Chamblon, Clayton, Dexter, Evans Mills, Ellisburgh, Frederick's Corners, Irgenville, Millen's Bay, Church of the Redeemer in Watertown, Wood, Sackett's Harbor and Theresa.

Missions of the Diocese—First District

In Lewis County: Constableville, Copenhagen, Greig and Port Leyden.

Our Churches have been cared for, this year now closing, by patient labor, with as much success, in most of them, as we have any right to expect. There is hardly a vacancy in the District, though the Rev. Mr. Crydenwise has gone from Copenhagen and Champion to a Parish in Central Pennsylvania

Our Treasurer's Report will speak for itself.

We have had three good Convocations—in May, at Sackett's Harbor; in September, at Carthage, and in January, at Trinity Church, Watertown.

The Report of the Treasurer of the District, in detail, will be found in the Report of the Treasurer of the Board.

The financial summary is as follows:

Amount assessed upon the District.....	$1,450.00
Amount assessed by the District.....	1,462.48
Amount paid by the District.....	1,504.33
Amount apportioned the District.....	1,900 00

SECOND DISTRICT.

(ONEIDA COUNTY AND PART OF MADISON COUNTY.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Wm. Cooke, Dean; the Rev. J. W. Clarke, Secretary; Mr. J. Francis Day, Treasurer; the Rev. W. W. Bellinger, D. D., and Mr. J. T. A. Doolittle, members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are—in Oneida County: Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Bridgewater, Camden, Clark's Mills, St. Joseph's, Rome, Whitesboro, Oriskany, Paris Hill, Clayville, Westmoreland, Durhamville, Holland Patent, New York Mills, Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

Forestport, Chadwicks, and Deerfield. In Madison County: Brookfield and Earlville.

Four meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year—two in Utica, one in Rome and one in Boonville.

Services are maintained in all the Mission Churches in the District with the exception of Brookfield, where occasional services are held.

The Rev. B. T. Stafford took charge of the field embracing Augusta and Oriskany Falls on the Fourth Sunday in March, and reports that the services are well attended and the outlook in both places encouraging. This field has lost, by removal, its faithful and effectual Lay Reader, Mr. D. B. Hamlin.

The Rev. F. C. Smith, in charge of Trinity Church, Boonville, and Christ Church, Forestport, reports that services are held regularly on Sundays in both Parishes, and in Boonville on Feast and Fast days. The work in Boonville shows many good results. There has been a noticeable increase in the regular attendance and in the number of Communicants. A Sunday School has been started, which, although small, has been successful. To the Woman's Guild is due the continuation of the work in the Parish. There has also been an increase in Missionary interest. All obligations have been met. Christ Church, Forestport, has had a prosperous year, but owing to the continual shifting of the population, it is almost impossible to do more than maintain regular services.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks reports St Paul's, Paris Hill, ends the year with all its regular financial obligations met. The attendance at services has been good, and the Parish continues united in its work. All Diocesan assessments have been paid.

The Rev. A. W. Allen, in charge of St. James', New York Mills, and Gethsemane, Westmoreland reports that services are maintained in regular order at both stations. The attendance has been good, and owing to the use of a pledge-envelope system, the offerings have increased. Regular Lenten Services were held at both stations, with a weekly Celebration at New York Mills. All Holy Days and Fridays are now observed at the latter Mission by an early Celebration of the Holy Communion. A good Sunday School has been maintained in each Mission. All assessments have been paid.

The Rev. Jesse Higgins reports that regular services were held at Holland Patent and Clayville during Lent. Bridgewater has had special week-day visits for Holy Communion. The work at Holland Patent is in a healthy condition. The attendance at the Lenten Services was large. Clayville has suffered from the removal of several faithful communicants. When the contemplated sale of the Church and the erection of a new one is consummated, it is expected to result in larger attendances and a more general interest in the community. At Bridgewater the membership is small, but the attendance of outsiders often outnumber our own people. All the stations are living up to their financial obligations.

The Rev. Oliver Owen reports that St. Mark's Church, Clark's Mills, has had the most prosperous year in the memory of those identified with it. The congregations have increased and all the statistics show an unprecedented interest. Measures are being taken to extinguish the debt by small payments each year. All assessments have been met, except for General Missions, and that is likely to be met before September.

The Rev. John Arthur, in charge of St. Andrew's, Durhamville, reports the usual number of services and celebrations, six memorial windows placed, the property in good condition and insured, all expenses and assessments paid, including the amount asked under the apportionment plan for General Missions. Mr. A. D. Hamblin, Lay Reader, is both faithful and acceptable, and the Sunday School and Ladies' Guild hold regular sessions throughout the year.

The Rev. A. E. Dunham reports that the work in Trinity Church, Camden, is progressing steadily. The attendance at services and Sunday School remains about as heretofore. Owing to the losses of many adults, the congregations are largely made up of young people. Notwithstanding financial drawbacks, a new slate roof has been put on the Church and other repairs and improvements made. The children's Lenten offering was larger than in many years. The Ladies' Guild and Junior Auxiliary did good Lenten work. The Parish feels deeply the loss by death of a worthy Churchman and Senior Warden, Anthony W. Abbott.

The Rev. W. B. Coleman, in charge of St. George's, Chadwicks, reports that the year's work has been marked by steady progress. A Reading Room and Club has been established for young men of the Church. The new members, which outnumber the faithful older communicants, are all interested in some part of the Parish work. A plain-song Male Choir has been added to the new life of the Mission. The zeal of the new converts to the Church—none of them of Episcopalian training—has softened the old prejudice against the Mission.

The Rev. A. W. Rogers, in charge of Grace Church, Earlville, reports that services have been continued regularly on each Sunday afternoon, with variable attendance. Frequent visits have been made between Sundays.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtis reports that the year has been one of great blessings and pronounced manifestations of prosperity in St. Joseph's Church, Rome. The people are united in work and worship. A week's Fair netted sufficient to pay all floating indebtedness, an accumulation of some three years. For the first time, the "budget" is covered by pledged subscriptions. By a legacy in the will of the late John Fischer, one of the founders of the Church, and the oldest Churchman in the city, the Mission will receive $300 for windows. Altogether, the affairs of the Mission for effective work and worship are as bright as they ever were in the past.

The Rev. Wm. Cooke, in charge of St. John's, Whitesboro, and St. Peter's, Oriskany, reports that services have been maintained regularly in both places during the year. The Sunday School at St. John's is the largest in the history of the Parish. The great need of the Parish is regular morning and evening services. Assessments for Diocesan Missions have been paid in full.

Occasional clerical services have been held in St. Timothy's Church, Brookfield, during the year, with fair attendance. So long as his health permitted, the late Captain Mayne held regular Lay Service. The Mission will greatly miss his faithful services.

The Rev. J. W. Clarke, in charge of St. Paul's, Deerfield, reports that regular services are held on alternate Sunday afternoons, and occasional week-day services during Lent. The Sunday School, under the charge of Mr. George M. Weaver, meets every Sunday afternoon and is in a very prosperous condition.

The Rev. J. K. Parker, Rector of Grace Church, Waterville, reports that during the past year, as for several years previous, he has held services in the Union Church at Stockwell. Several years ago this was a Mission of the Diocese, and there are several Church families residing in the neighborhood. These services are the only ones held in the place and are usually well attended. With the aid of a physician, forty copies of the Parish Visitor are distributed every month, and a good many copies of the Prayer Book have been given away. A Christmas Tree is held every year for the children of the neighborhood.

During the year the Dean has prepared a class of three persons for Confirmation, Baptized one infant, attended one funeral, celebrated the Holy Communion four times and held evening service twice at Holland Patent. He has celebrated the Holy Communion four times at Boonville and four times at Forestport, visited Bridge-water and Clayville on two occasions, attending a funeral at the latter place; held two services and administered the Holy Communion at Brookfield; celebrated the Holy Communion twice at Oriskany Falls and twice at Augusta.

The Report of the Treasurer of the District, in detail, will be found in the Report of the Treasurer of the Board.

THIRD DISTRICT.

(BROOME AND CHENANGO COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. George G. Perrine, Dean; The Rev. Henry E. Hubbard, Secretary; Mr. William J. Russell, Treasurer; the Rev. J. H. LaRoche, D. D., and Mr. John Anderson, members of the Board of Managers; the Dean, Secretary, Rev.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

H. S. Longley and Mr. Joseph E. Packard, the Finance Committee.

The Third District embraces seventeen Parishes and Missions, of which the following have received assistance from the Board during the past year: Harpursville and Afton, Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point, Bainbridge, Guilford, Mr. Upton and Windsor.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, namely: In Emmanuel Church, Norwich; Church of the Good Shepherd, Binghamton, and Christ Church, Sherburne.

The Rev. Henry M. Brown retired from the charge of Harpursville and Afton July 1, 1902, and was immediately succeeded by the Rev. J. N. Goodrich, who, after a brief service of nine months, gave up his office and ministry in the Church April 1, 1903. Before he left an engagement was made with Dr. C. W. Hakes, a licensed Lay Reader residing at Afton, to continue the Sunday services at Harpursville until a clergyman could be secured. He began his work on Sunday, the 5th of April, and was well received, his services being very acceptable to the people. He also conducted the Sunday service in Afton until relieved by the Rev. Wilson Tanner of Bainbridge.

The Rev. Edwin Lee Tanner has since been appointed to the charge of Harpursville and Afton, and began his work there the first of this month.

Bainbridge—The Rev. A. H. Grant having accepted a call to Zion Church, Fulton, the Church in Bainbridge was without a minister from August 1, 1902, until April 12, 1903, being Easter, at which time the Rev. Wilson Tanner was placed in charge. He also conducted service each Sunday in Afton until relieved of that duty by the Rev. Edwin L. Tanner.

Chenango Forks—The connection of the Rev. W. G. Coote with the Church in Chenango Forks having been dissolved at the end of February last, the Rev. Henry E. Hubbard, Rector of Zion Church, Greene, was placed in charge by the Bishop, and began holding Sunday services there on the 15th of March. There are 39 Communicants and about 30 families connected with the Mission and congregations range from thirty to seventy-five. While insurance on the Church property has been kept in force, arrearages amounting to about $50 have accumulated, but it is hoped this amount will be paid. The Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

Finance Committee, consisting of Mr. Charles Willard, Mr. Fred Pierce and Dr. Z. A. Spendly, have undertaken to raise the amount needed to pay $117 to the Missionary and to meet arrearages due the General Fund and Missions of the Diocese. The Church in Chenango Forks mourns the loss of one of its most faithful members, Mrs. James Smith, who for several years had cheerfully given her services as organist.

Guilford—Church life and interest in Guilford continues and increases. The attendance at the services, especially during Lent, has been unusually good, and the offerings at these services and at Easter amounted to something over $141, and was mostly for objects outside of the Parish. This Church is to be congratulated, not only on having successfully met all its financial obligations during the past year, Parochial, Diocesan and General, but also in having been the recipient of a gift from a parishioner of beautiful cushions for the pews, which add greatly to the appearance of the Church. Seventeen names have been added to the list of Communicants during the past year, and more are ready to be added, but the strength of the Parish is constantly depleted by removals, spending and being spent to add to the welfare of other Churches. The Endowment Fund is nearly $1,400 at present and steadily increasing something more than $100 a year. The greater part of this fund is invested by the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

Mount Upton,—The services in Mt. Upton are subject to considerable interruption because of the lack of a convenient and suitable place of worship. There is a small but increasing number of faithful church workers here, who during the past year have, by their labors, added fifty dollars to the fund for building a church. This fund at present is $695.73 and a few hundred additional will be sufficient to build a church suited to the needs of the congregation.

The Rev. R. M. Duff, D. D., has been appointed Missionary at large for Chenango Co., on the foundation of the Van Wagenen Fund, and began his work about the first of May. His residence is in Norwich.

Whitney's Point,—The minister in charge reports regular Sunday services with good attendance, especially during Lent. The Church has been deprived by death of one of its most devoted members, Mr. Stickney, and has gained by the addition of one church family lately come to the village. The Rev. Mr. Coots gave up his charge at the beginning of May.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

Windsor—The Rev. John J. Andrew's charge of the Church in Windsor dates from the 20th of April, 1902. As far as can be learned his administration appears to be satisfactory to himself and his people, and no event to disturb the peace and harmony of the parish, or worthy of record, seems to have occurred.

The Report of the Treasurer of the District in detail will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board.

The financial summary is as follows :

Amount assessed upon the District.....	$1,600.00
Amount assessed by the District.....	1,659.00

HENRY E. HUBBARD, Secretary.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

(ONONDAGA, OSWEGO AND CORTLAND COUNTIES, AND THE TOWNSHIPS OF MADISON COUNTY not included in the Second District.)

The officers of the Fourth District are: The Rev. William De Lancey Wilson, Dean; the Rev. Herbert G. Coddington, Secretary; Dr. Charles J. Peters, Treasurer. The officers and the Rev. John T. Rose and the Rev. Henry S. Sizer compose the Executive Committee.

The Secretary is the elected member of the Board of Managers. The death of Mr. George C. McWhorter leaves the lay membership on the Board vacant at this writing. The Mission stations in the Fourth District are: East Syracuse, Manlius, Jamesville, Marcellus, Cleveland, Constantia, Lacona, Redfield, Altmar, Mexico, Warrens, Memphis, Pulaski, Canastota, Chittenango, St Philip's Church for colored people, Syracuse; St. Luke's Mission, Syracuse; St. Andrew's Mission, Syracuse; St. John's Mission, Phoenix; Church of the Good Shepherd, Onondaga Reservation.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

Stipends are given to all of these except Constantia, Canastota, St. Andrew's Mission, Syracuse; St. John's Mission, Phoenix; Church of the Good Shepherd, and the Onondaga, Reservation (maintained by the W. A.)

Three meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year—in the Church of the Evangelists, Oswego, May 6 and 7, 1902; in St. Paul's Chapel, Syracuse, July 7, 1902; and in Christ Church, Jordan, October 7 and 8, 1902

Memphis—Services are held in Emmanuel Church every Sunday afternoon with an average attendance of twenty persons. All assessments have been paid and Contributions have been made for General Missions. The Holy Communion is celebrated monthly. The Rev. Frederick B. Keable, of Jordan, is in charge.

Warners—The Warner Cement Company has resumed operation and the Church shares in the prosperity of the Community. A number of improvements have been made in the furnishings of the Church. The Rev. J. E. Ramsdell, of Baldwinsville, is in charge.

Onondaga Castle—Three services are conducted in the Church each Sunday. There is also a service each Friday evening. The work is unique and difficult, and the faithful ministrations of the pastor, the Rev. Wm S. Hayward are appreciated Altmar—"During the past two years Congregations and offerings have increased 50 per cent." A number of the leading men in the village are interested. The Rev. B. E. Whipple is the rector.

East Syracuse and St. Luke's Mission, Syracuse—The Rev. J. E. Johnson having resigned his position in Calvary Church, Syracuse, is now in charge of Emmanuel Church, East Syracuse, and St. Luke's Mission, Syracuse. A Sunday afternoon service is maintained at the latter station. The attendance and offerings are small in both of these places but it is hoped that by regular pastoral work the organizations will be strengthened and new people reached Lacona and Redfield—These Missions are in charge of the Rev. Daniel Daly whose faithful ministrations have continued for a number of years.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District

Jamesville—Since the removal of the Rev. W. E. Tanner, the Rev. Dr. Theodore Babcock, the rector, has with the assistance of the Rev. Dr. Jas. A. Harrold and others, provided the regular services.

Chittenango—The Rev. Prof. Geo. H. Ottaway, in addition to his work as principal of the Canastota High School conducts Sunday services in St. Paul's Church, Chittenango.

Cleveland—St. James' Church, Cleveland, has been closed since the removal, in April, 1903, of the Rev. B. T. Stafford. The growth and prosperity of the village depend upon the glass making industry, and at present the glass factory is closed.

Constantia—No services have been held at this point during the year.

Marcellus—St. John's Church, Marcellus, continues to prosper under the direction of the Rev. E. B. Mott. In October, the parish asked that its stipend be reduced from $200 to $150.

Manlius—At the beginning of the Conventional Year the authorities of Christ Church, Manlius, requested that the stipend, of $200 be reduced to $100, as a corresponding increase had been made by the parish in the salary of the rector. The parishes of Manlius and Marcellus have set a commendable example.

Mexico and Pulaski—These stations are now, by the Bishop's appointment, in charge of the Rev. Willett N. Hawkins, who resides at Pulaski and is assisted by his father, Dr. J. M. Hawkins, a lay reader. This arrangement appears to be advantageous.

St. Andrew's, Onondaga Valley—For nearly a year the Rev. D. C. Huntington has conducted Sunday afternoon services and a Bible school in a vacant store at Onondaga Valley, with great success and the apparent promise of permanency.

St. Philip's Church, Syracuse—St. Philip's Church (for Colored people) has grown during the past year. The Curate, the Rev. N. P. Boyd, resigned May 1st, 1903, to accept similar work in Brooklyn. A successor will be secured as soon as possible.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

St. John's Mission, Phoenix—This work was begun by the Rev. H. G. Coddington in February, 1903. Sunday afternoon services have been conducted, without interruption, first in a hall, and lately in the house of worship kindly placed at our disposal by the Congregationalists.

Syracuse—In the Fourth District there are about 100 hamlets, and villages, and four cities, Syracuse, Oswego, Fulton and Cortland. The total population of the district at the last census was 256,787. In this territory we have 37 parishes and missions, of which 20 are self-supporting. We report about one communicant in 50 of the population.

The need for more aggressive work, for the establishment of many new Missions, for larger offerings and the appointment of a General Missionary is thus made plain.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

(COUNTIES OF CAYUGA AND SENECA.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Wm. Bours Clarke, Dean; the Rev. Charles W. MacNish, Secretary, and Mr. A. N. Hollister, Treasurer, the two latter being also members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are—in Cayuga County: Aurora, Cayuga, Union Springs, Port Byron, Weedsport, Moravia and Northville.

In Seneca County: Dey's Landing, Hayt's Corners, Romulus, Kidder's Ferry, Willard and Willowdale.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, viz: At Cayuga Lake Park, Monday, July 7, 1902; St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, October 28 and 29, 1902, and St. Stephen's Church, Romulus, May 11 and 12, 1903.

St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, is in charge of the Rev. G. P. Sommerville, D. D.

Weedsport and Port Byron—These two Missions received ministrations from the Rev. F. B. Keable, the Rector of Christ Church, Jordan, during the season of Lent; other than this there is no report.

Aurora, Cayuga and Union Springs are in charge of the Rev. W. H. Casey, M. A., who reports that during the past year he has met with about the usual number of gains and losses, of discouragements and disappointments.

There has been no interruption of the Sunday services in any of his three Parishes except Cayuga, and then for a few weeks only, when the winter and the roads were the worst. During no small part of the late spring the only way possible to reach either Aurora or Cayuga was by the railroad track and on foot. Though the offerings for Diocesan Missions have not come up to the amount assessed, yet, taking the three Parishes as one charge, the amount contributed will not fall far short of the old quota of $1.00 per Communicant.

Among the improvements noted is a handsome hard-wood floor in the Church at Aurora. The vested Choir at this place has added much to the attractiveness and orderliness of the service. There was a very marked increase, and especially in Aurora, in the number of worshippers at the Lenten Services. On Good Friday the Church in that village was full, many of those present being not of the Church.

In addition to his duties in ministering to the people of his three Parishes, Mr. Casey has prepared and delivered many lectures, all of them in the interest of Christianity, to a number of educated men and women, whose attitude toward it is, at the best, one of neutrality.

Calvary Church, Northville, is remote from any other Parish or Mission, yet, through the zeal of a resident Churchwoman, and with the assistance of the Bishop, the Dean, and some of the Clergy, the Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

Church was opened and services held twice each Sunday, with a goodly attendance, during the month of August, as has been the custom for the three years last past.

Grace Church, Willowdale, is truly "Like leaven which a woman hid in three measures of meal," and year after year the leavening powers of the Gospel are extended and the blessed influence is manifested more and more, not only in the immediate neighborhood of the church, but in the surrounding country.

The amount apportioned for this Mission and for St. Andrew's, Hay's Landing, has been paid in full and amounted to $40. All other offerings, $143.82.

There have been twelve Baptisms, three of which were adults. There have been Confirmed 68. Services have been held on Sundays (often on week-days). The Holy Communion has been celebrated twelve times in public and once in private.

There are no debts except that of great gratitude to the Giver of every good and perfect gift, as well as to the several Priests who have kindly ministered from time to time. Mr. William C. Compton, Lay Reader, has rendered faithful and valuable service both here and at Hay's Landing. At this latter place 23 Sunday services have been held and offerings made to the amount of $5.37.

St. Stephen's Church, Romulus, is faithfully served by Mr. Walter Jones as Lay Reader, and the prospects of the Mission were never more encouraging. Mr. Jones reports that during the past Conventional year there have been 6 Baptisms (4 adults). Four were Confirmed. The Holy Communion has been administered six times; 6 Sunday services and 8 week-day Lay services have been held. The offerings for Diocesan Missions amount to $35, and for General Missions $20.65.

Since May 1, and before making up this report, 11 more persons have been added to the Communicant list—8 of these by Confirmation, and 3 were received from the Roman Communion.

Christ Church, Willard, and Calvary Church, Hay's Corners, are in charge of the Secretary. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the former was duly celebrated in January last.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

Hitherto but one service on each Lord's Day had been held, though many requests had been made for a second service to provide for the many employes of the Willard State Hospital, whose duties prevented their being able to attend the Sunday morning service. The Silver Jubilee of the Parish seemed a fitting time for beginning Sunday evening services, which was done, and has been continued to date, with the assistance of a Lay Reader, and since which there has been as large a congregation at the Sunday evening service as in the morning, and mostly of a class of people who had been unable to attend previously.

The repairs and improvements on the Church property have been many. Not only has the Church been repaired outside, but the interior has been thoroughly renovated and recarpeted. In addition to this, a lot adjoining the Church property on the west has been purchased and nearly paid for, with the hope and expectation of building a Parish House thereon sometime in the future.

In addition to its full assessment for Diocesan Missions, the Parish has made goodly and increased offerings for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

Calvary Church, Hayt's Corners, has gone on in the even tenor of its ways as a faithful "little flock," ever striving for something better and higher. A new carpet has been provided for the Church. The assessment for Diocesan Missions has been fully met, and more has been paid toward Domestic and Foreign Missions than was apportioned for it to raise.

The Rev. R. M. Duff, S. T. D., who has recently resigned the Parish at Waterloo, reports several Mission services within the bounds of the Parish and some three or four outside the Parish.

The Dean reports that he has officiated three times in St. Stephen's Church, Romulus, administering the Holy Communion on all three occasions, and also Baptizing one adult and one infant; also having made several visits to the County House, reading prayers with the inmates.

The Report of the Treasurer of the District, in detail, will be found in the Report of the Treasurer of the Board.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

(COUNTIES OF CHEMUNG, TIOGA AND TOMPKINS.)

The officers of this District are: The Rev. T. Ainslee Stevenson, Dean; the Rev. Charles H McKnight, Secretary; Mr. H. V. Bostwick, Treasurer.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are—Chemung County: Emmanuel Mission, Elmira; Big Flats, Millport, Horseheads, Wellsburg and Van Etten. Tioga County—Candor, Spencer, Waverly and Smithboro. Tompkins County—McLean, Slaterville Springs, Speedsville, Dryden, Groton and Trumansburg.

Three meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year. In June the meeting was at Van Etten; in October at Slaterville Springs, and February at Trinity Church, Elmira.

Emmanuel Mission at Elmira has been under the charge, for the year, of Rev. N. S. Boardman, and affairs have been in a progressive condition Trumansburg was under the charge of the Rev. Mr. Stirling during the winter months. Mr. Cooke of the General Theological Seminary will take charge during the coming summer. His work of last summer was well rewarded.

Waverly has met all its assessments fully. No Sunday or week-day service has been omitted during the past year. All financial obligations paid under our system, for the third year, of pledges, without resorting to fairs or socials; and the Ladies' Parish Aid, besides generous help to the W. A., has raised over $200 for a substantial stone walk on the north side of the Church lot.

Smithboro has been served regularly, with the usual fair attendance of the members. The Church building is sadly in need of repair, with no ability to do it.

Wellsburg, Chemung County, has the first Sunday afternoon and the fourth Sunday morning of each month of my ministry, with an occasional week-day. The Church property is in excellent condition. Attendance on service has much improved, but increased liberality and growth seems out of the question.

The self-supporting Parishes of the District are doing work in the way of maintaining Sunday Schools and Mission services within their borders.

The Report of the Treasurer of the District, in detail, will be found in the Report of the Treasurer of the Board.

If one had time to carefully analyze these reports they would suggest many interesting conclusions. Generally speaking, they show that faithful, persevering and successful work is being done throughout the Diocese in these Missionary fields; although the work seems almost altogether confined to Parishes and Missions already established, in the planting of the Church in new places scarcely anything is being done.

Missions of the Diocese - Sixth District

The reports generally give careful details. One report, however, gives practically no details, but a simple general statement that everything is going along as well as could be expected. This may be true, without doubt, but such a report cannot satisfy the Diocese. At least we ought to be told in brief what each Parish and Mission Station receiving stipends is doing or trying to do for the extension of the Kingdom of God. If the individual members of a Parish need to be given missionary facts in order to arouse and increase their interest in missionary work, so, too, does the Diocese need the same for the same worthy object.

The reports of the several Treasurers of the District are suggestive. A few facts may be of interest.

The First District was assessed by the Board $1,450; raised in offerings $1,504.33, and paid in stipends $1,843.45—the Diocese, therefore, contributing to the Missionary work in this District $393.45; that is, $56.55 less than its apportionment.

Eight parishes or Mission Stations in this District contributed in offerings in excess of their assessment by the District $147.77; of which the excess of one parish was $140.24; and six parishes or Mission Stations gave $105.14 less than their assessment.

DISTRICT No. 2.

This District paid its full Board assessment of $2,550; and as it distributed in stipends only $2,300, it contributed to the Missionary work of the Diocese $250.00 being the difference between its assessment and apportionment, 28 parishes and missions paid their assessments in full; 3 paid theirs in excess to the amount of $5.73; and 2 paid less than their assessment to the amount of $5.79; one of them where services are held only occasionally, assessed $3.00 paid nothing.

DISTRICT No. 3

The offerings from this District amounted to $1506.55. Six parishes or Mission Stations contributed in excess of their assessment $17.22; and seven less than their assessment to the amount of $170.99, $1,349.19 were paid in stipends; the District thus contributing to the Diocese $157.36 for its Missionary work; that is $57.36 in excess of the difference between its assessment and apportionment.

Summary of Report

The Dean reporting that the balance in favor of this District was owing to vacancies in some stations.

DISTRICT No. 4.

The assessment on this District is $2,100.00.

The amount raised was $2,074.18

22 Parishes and Missions paid their assessments in full ; one not assessed did not pay anything; 4 Parishes and Missions paid in excess to the amount of $32.49; 9 paid less than their assessment to the amount of $206.31; and one of these assessed $6.00 did not give anything.

This District contributed to the general Missionary work of the Diocese $274.18 that is $25 82 less than the difference between its assessment and apportionment.

DISTRICT No. 5.

Two parishes or Mission stations contributed in excess of their assessments to the amount of 9c. Ten contributed less than their assessments to the amount of $231.21, while three others assessed for $21.00 paid nothing. The offerings amounted to $987 23. The amount paid in stipends was $1,658.34. Thus the contribution of the Diocese to the Missionary work of this District was $671 11: that is $171.11 in excess of its apportionment for the same.

DISTRICT No. 6.

Assessed by the Board $1,100; offerings $915.19; paid in stipends $1,916 67. Six Parishes and Missions paid District assessments in full; six paid in excess of their assessments to the amount of $35.49; and eight others paid less than their assessments to the amount of $120.50. The Diocese contributed to this District $1001.46; that is $101.46 in excess of the Board's appropriation for the same.

Respectfully submitted by the Board of Managers.

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

D. Treasurer of the Diocese.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., MAY, 1903.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

Following, generally, the familiar form of Reports in the Convention Journal, the Treasurer presents the following summarized statement of Receipts and Disbursements for the past year as shown by the records of his office.

Summoned unexpectedly to the duties of the position, without knowledge of its complications, and no teacher or guide available,—it has not proved to be a bed of roses. Thanks, however, to the accuracy of the work hitherto done, patient investigation and labor has resulted in a sufficient mastery of details to warrant the presentation of this report. The constant and embarrassing necessities of the current work so retarded the result that although accepting responsibility August 1st two months were needed, with excellent professional supervision and assistance, to prepare and present to the Standing Committee, a clear and accurate report of the former business of the office and transfer the same to a new set of books.

The death of Mr. Gardner, leaving a Will which was promptly contested and has not yet been probated and the resulting technical entanglement of his personal affairs with our finances, has proved to be a very annoying element, and although his estate is sufficiently large to guarantee that no loss to the Diocese can result, it has required the making of temporary loans to carry on our business. We are assured by the Executrix of the estate, who is also the residuary legatee, and also by her Attorney, that so soon as legally permitted to act, full settlement will be made in accordance with our books as kept by Mr. Gardner.

In addition to the above complications your Treasurer has experienced the chronic trouble, so often reported by his predecessor, of the remissness, by a large proportion of the Parishes, in the duty of paying their assessments for General Fund quarterly,—in accordance with Canon XI, Sec. 3. Those assessments are not simply calls for a convenient share of an idle surplus, but notices of an equitably apportioned business obligation. Without their prompt and regular payment the Treasurer has no legitimate means of paying the expenses and appropriations of the Diocese. The maxim "Be just before you are generous" seems to apply here. Owing to this delinquency I have been unable to pay the quarters salary of the Coadjutor Bishop, due since April 1st, although the arrearages due to the General Fund—charged with that payment—would have provided the needed sum had they been paid quarterly as required by the Canon. A better understanding of this subject by Parish officers, as well as by the Clergy, would, I am sure, put the finances of the Diocese in a far more creditable position.

The tabulated report herewith presented was prepared for record in the Journal substantially in form like those hitherto published, but, like its predecessors, it is misleading, in that it gives the impression that the Diocese is in a healthy financial condition,—when in fact it is unable to pay its honest debts and meet its current liabilities. The familiar closing phrase of these reports "Balance to new account" at first seems to mean that the Diocese, at present, has nearly $12,000, available funds, and one year ago had over $4,600. Would it were true! but the fact remains that those amounts only represent credits to various Funds in the official custody of the Treasurer and Offerings designated for specific uses, and not subject to his discretion. The Canon requires the closing of the Treasurer's books April 30th and the report correctly states the condition at that date, but within the eleven succeeding days more than $4,600., was disbursed, reducing the cash balance considerably, at least $1000., below the aggregate of the various Funds entrusted to the care of the Diocese and leaving the Coadjutor Bishop unpaid.

The apparently unpopular General Fund is the only purse from which we may draw for Diocesan needs, and at present, as well as for an indefinite past, it is simply inadequate. This fact should have thoughtful consideration at this Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

SEYMOUR H. STONE, Treasurer.

On behalf of the committee for auditing the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, I have gone over with Mr. Stone all the books and accounts and would say that the financial condition of the Diocese is clearly represented in his records and report.

.I., Report of the Trustees.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May, 1903.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

The Trustees of the Christmas Fund present the following report for the year ending April 30, 1903, referring to the appended Report of the Treasurer for financial details :

At a meeting of the Trustees held September 25, 1902, the nominations of the Convention to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees were confirmed by the election of Mr. Horace M. Greeley to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Trustee Wm. S. Andrews, and Wm. H. H. Neal for full term, to succeed himself. The death of Trustee and Treasurer George J. Gardner was announced and an appreciative resolution passed and placed on record. Trustee Neal reluctantly accepted the position of Treasurer until the next session of the Convention.

Christmas Fund—Report of the Treasurer.

There has been no change in the personality or the number of beneficiaries of the Fund, nor in the stipends paid to the three Clergy and eleven widows.

One loan of $2,500 has been paid, and of course a slightly decreased income will result.

The Convention is now called upon to nominate four Trustees to fill vacancies—one owing to the death of Mr. Gardner, one to fill the place of Trustee Greeley, whose term expires this year, and two owing to resignations accepted to take effect on the election of successors to Trustees Hawley and Neal.

It will be noted in the Treasurer's report that two Savings Bank deposits now stand in Mr. Gardner's name and not officially as Treasurer, and although drawing interest for the year, cannot be transferred to our official custody until the termination of the contest over Mr. Gardner's will; but which, we are assured by both the executrix and her attorney, so soon as legally permitted to act, will be promptly done. The Permanent Fund remains the same as last year, and although Parish offerings are not quite equal to those of last year, the total income seems to warrant the same stipends again this year.

Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

The Committee appointed for the examination of the report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund by Mr. A. H. Green, Treasurer, beg leave to say that I secured the services of an expert accountant from the Syracuse Savings Bank to examine the book and accounts carefully, and find them correct.

B. Van Wagoner Fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The following loans have been disposed of by payment in full of principal, viz: Lamb, Horton ($150), Brown and Hathorn, while the principal of the Rogers loan has been reduced $50, and that of the Davis loan $100.

In the foreclosure of the Hathorn mortgage the principal of the loan was recovered and $50 of the $135 accrued interest, the sale failing to realize the full amount of principal, interest and expenses.

Van Wagenen Fund—Report of the Trustee.

New loans have been taken as follows :

Seraph A. Horton, $1,150, secured by lien on her home, upon which the Fund already has $640, and in addition, on 27 acres of pasture and orchard lands adjoining, for the purchase of which this is part payment. Mortgage recorded Sept. 15, Book 127, page 184.

George A. and Lucy E. Mallory, $600, secured by lien on their home on Merchants Street in Oxford Village; house insured for $800; mortgage recorded Sept. 10, Book 131, page 144.

John Hagaman, $1,113, secured by lien on his farm of 188 acres in the town of Greene. Recorded Feb. 2, 1898, Book 114, page 461.

John Shapley to Executors of Henry R. Mygatt, deceased, (with sundry assignments.) The lien is on 134 acres farm land in the town of Oxford, now owned by and in possession of Eugene B. Ryan. Recorded March 25, 1876, Book 78, page 570.

The Dickinson loan of $100 and O. Shapley of $300 are additional liens to those already held by the Fund on the same properties, respectively.

I paid Rev. Dr. Duff his expenses and disbursements in two trips of investigation which he made to Chenango County at the request and with the knowledge of the Bishop of the Diocese.

I also paid the expenses of Mr. Parker (expert), and the Trustee in the investigation of contemplated loans in and about Binghamton.

There are but three loans where their interest is not paid to a date within the current year. But one of the latter gives me any anxiety, viz., the Fritz contract, $400. I think it abundantly secured but difficult to handle.

I. Registrar's Report.

During the past year the contributions to the Diocesan Library have been as follows:

From the Bishop of the Diocese: 110 Convention Journals and 6 pamphlets.

From the Secretary: Convention Journals of this and other Dioceses.

From the Secretaries or Registrars of other Dioceses: 20 Journals.

From the late W. W. DeAngelis of Holland Patent: Files of the Living Church.

Various Parish Papers, Addresses, Year Books and Catalogues have been received from different sources; also the Record Book of the Choir Guild of the Diocese of Central New York.

The Central New York Journal of 1901 was sent to the Rev. F. F. Johnson of Redlands, Cal., and a complete set of the same to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The financial report is as follows:

R. Work Among Deaf Mutes.

Report of the Deaf Mute Commission to the Diocese of Central New York:

The Deaf Mute Commission hereby submits its second Annual Report.

During the year we have been working along the same lines as those indicated in our last report. Our annual appeal for offerings was sent out several weeks previous to the Sunday next before Advent, and has, we are glad to say, met with satisfactory results. A larger percentage of the Parishes have responded this year than last, so that we have again closed our accounts with a balance in the treasury. The Missionary Board has sent us $200, and the Junior Auxiliary $100. These sums, with the amounts received from the Parishes, have enabled us to give the Missionary, the Rev. Harry Van Allen, $500 for his services, and this has been sent, almost without fail, in monthly instalments. Considering the irregularity and uncertainty which characterized the payments of his salary before the Commission was appointed, it has thus far amply justified its existence.

We wish to express our appreciation to all those who have aided us in this good work, and trust that they will continue their assistance in the future.

As seen by Mr. Van Allen's report, he has added several regular appointments in the Diocese to those of past years, and we believe that the work is being faithfully and satisfactorily accomplished under his administration. His residence in Utica since May, 1902, by bringing him into the center of his large field, has greatly enhanced the ease and efficiency of his visits, not only in this Diocese, but in those of Albany and Vermont, to which he gives about half of his time. We trust that all will carefully read his report, so as to be fully informed on what is being done for our deaf mute brethren.

Begging an ever-increasing interest in him and the Mission, we remain,

The Committee—

Report of the Missionary to Deaf Mutes.

(2.) Report of the Missionary to Deaf Mutes.

To the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf and Dumb in the Diocese of Central New York.

GENTLEMEN: During the year just closed the work of the Mission to the Deaf and Dumb of the Diocese has been carried on as actively and energetically as circumstances have permitted, and a survey of what has been accomplished is both gratifying and encouraging. To summarize briefly, the Mission has now been extended to all of the important cities and towns of the Diocese which present any opportunity for work among the Deaf and Dumb; the number of services held has been considerably increased over last year, and the attendance of the deaf people thereat has generally improved; the interest of the deaf in the work has steadily grown, as is shown in the very practical way of a substantial increase in the amount of their contributions, which are now sufficient to defray the traveling and incidental expenses of the Missionary; and, finally, there are many most hopeful indications of that growth in spiritual earnestness and desire for higher and better things which must be the ultimate test of success or failure of missionary work. In every respect, I venture to believe, I am justified in feeling grateful for the past and hopeful for the future.

In considering the contributions of the deaf, it may be proper to say a few additional words. During the last two months of the year just ended an effort was made to systematize the offerings by the introduction of the envelope system. While it is yet too early to speak of results, I am inclined to think that a larger aggregate of contributions will be received in the future. It should, however, be borne in mind, not only that the deaf are, as a rule, in very moderate financial circumstances, but also that the communicants among them (from whom, naturally, the larger part of the offerings must come) have been constantly encouraged to take, and in many cases actually do take their places in the Parish with their hearing brethren, and consequently contribute to the support of the Parish in which they reside, as well as to the support of the Mission.

I have held services as follows: At Syracuse, 23 (of which 7 were celebrations of the Holy Eucharist); at Utica, 21 (of which 7 were celebrations); at Rome, 12; at Watertown, 10; at Binghamton, 9 (of which 1 was a celebration); at Oneida, 8; at Oswego, 5; at Fulton, 4; at Auburn, 4; at Elmira, 3; at Owego, 2; total 101. Other services have been: Marriages, 3; burials, 5; baptisms, 4; confirmations, 2; communion of the sick, 1. Total services of all kinds, 116.

Report of the Missionary to Deaf Mutes

During the year I have made 146 personal calls upon deaf people at their homes, in the course of which I met 290 individuals. With a people so widely scattered as are the deaf and dumb, such visits are often the only means of reaching them at all, and this part of my work I believe to be of great importance.

There have been four baptisms, one infant and three adult, one of the latter being that of a man eighty years of age. I am now preparing a class of eight persons and hope to present them to the Bishop for Confirmation in the middle of May.

I have attended two meetings of the Convocation of the Second Missionary District and one of the Third, at all of which I made a brief viva voce address. I have also addressed the members of the Junior Auxiliary in regard to our work, at its annual meeting at Utica in June. I have attended the commencement of the School for the Deaf at Rome, and also the meeting of the Alumni Association, of which I am a member. I have delivered a lecture in Syracuse, in Utica and in Binghamton. I have arranged and been present at festivals in Binghamton, in Syracuse and Utica. In May there was a social gathering at my home at which practically all of the deaf people of the city were present, and when I was most generously presented with a fine roll-top office desk. I have also attended social gatherings elsewhere in Utica and in Rome. The deaf people of Utica have also had the pleasure of meeting Bishop Olmsted personally at a reception generously arranged by the ladies of Trinity Church. The fact that the Bishop uses the manual alphabet with facility and was able to speak to the people in their own language greatly heightened the pleasure of the occasion.

At Troy, in August, I attended the meeting of the Empire State Association of Deaf Mutes, whose membership includes deaf people from all parts of the State. The meeting was most pleasant and profitable, though little business of importance was transacted. During the same month I attended the annual picnic of the graduates and friends of the school at Rome and had the pleasure of meeting over one hundred of my people.

During the past year the work among the deaf and dumb of the country has suffered a great loss in the death of the Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, D. D., L. H. D. To Dr. Gallaudet is due the beginning of religious work among the deaf in this country, and he lived to see the work which he founded grow to unhopd for proportions. His connection with the Mission in this Diocese was intimate, and his death deprives the deaf of a friend who stood in an absolutely unique relation to them. He is mourned by all, but by none more than his younger co-workers, who have long depended upon him for counsel and encouragement. During his last illness I took service for him on two occasions at St. Ann's, New York, and in October I took part in a service in his memory in the same church, when nearly four hundred deaf people of all nationalities and creeds gathered to testify their gratitude to and affection for their great benefactor.

The offerings at services have amounted to $127.09. My expenditures have been as follows: For postage, stationery, etc., $20 64; for traveling expenses, $100.59; expense of festivals, $5.25; total, $126.48.

With very grateful acknowledgments of the consideration shown me on every hand by Clergy and Laity alike, and especially of the uniform kindness of the members of the Commission, I am,

Very respectfully yours,

H. VAN ALLEN.

UTICA, April 30, 1903.

R. Report of the Committee on S. S. Work.

To the Convention 1903.

The present Committee on S. S. Work was appointed by the Convention of 1900. They brought in a report to the Convention of 1901, which was ordered printed and distributed, and which was so done—the reports being distributed with the Journals. In that report the committee stated that they purposely confined themselves to an inquiry into the general condition of the Sunday Schools of the Diocese, (although some found fault because they did not bring in some definite schemes of reform,) leaving to subsequent Committees the task of dealing with particular departments of S. S. Work. The convention did not call for the report of the S. S. Committee last year.

In the fall of 1901, an earnest effort was made by the Committee, with the hearty co-operation of the then Dean of the 2nd District, to arrange for a S. S. Convention. With this object in view we advised with the Bishop and some of the prominent S. S. workers in the Diocese by letter, outlining a programme, and suggesting Utica as the place of meeting. These cordially approved of the project, but as some feared that Utica was not central enough to secure a large attendance, among which were some members of the Report of the Committee on S. S. Work.

Committee, it was deemed best not to make any definite plans before consulting the whole Diocese. Therefore in November, 1901, a brief printed statement was sent to the clergy in charge of every Parish and Mission station in the Diocese explaining our desire, and asking for their co-operation. An addressed postal card for reply was enclosed, with the following questions therein, to which prompt answers were requested:

Are you in favor of holding a Sunday School Convention ?

Where should it meet ?

When should it meet ?

Many of the clergy paid no attention to this Communication; some replies were received too late to be of any use; and of those received some were unfavorable strongly so, but a fair majority approved of the project; some of those on the distinct understanding that they were not to be asked to take part in the programme:—the majority signifying Syracuse as their preference for place of meeting. With this very encouraging (?) experience the Committee thought they could report progress. Later the chairman of the Committee went to Syracuse and met by appointment a number of the Clergy of Syracuse and neighborhood, and laid the project before them. After considerable discussion it seemed best to drop the whole matter as these brethren did not think that a Sunday School Convention held there would be productive of much good, or worth the trouble and labor of getting together. Your Committee, therefore, suggest that if anything is to be attempted or done to unify and improve our Sunday School methods it must be done, they think, first, at least, by each Convocation for itself. As the Committee is at present constituted the members are too far distant from one another, and have too little authority, to do any satisfactory work in this direction, and therefore respectfully request to be discharged

Indebtedness, $13,100; Insurance, $19,350.

In this report the Parish debt appears to have increased $600 over the indebtedness reported last year. This is due to the fact that the Parish assumed a debt of $600 incurred by individuals who were allowed by a former Vestry to place an organ in the Church with the understanding that the Church would not be responsible for any part of the work. The parties having the work done failed to secure the above sum, and after several years, the Parish has finally agreed to pay the debt. Actually, the debt has been reduced, $2,100 having been received by the Treasurer too late to appear in this report, and a committee having the above-mentioned debt in hand report the money about half raised. Last summer the exterior of the Church was completed by building the spire set forth in the original plans. This addition has greatly beautified and dignified the building. The spire was the gift of the Hon. J Stewart Wells, for many years a faithful Vestryman of this Parish, and the contractor, fifty years ago, when the building was erected.

THE REV. THEODORE BABCOCK, D. D., reports his Official Services as follows:

The services at St. Mark's, Jamesville, regularly supplied under his pastorate, are given in the Parochial Report printed in this journal.

As Dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School he has supervised the instruction of five students in the regular theological course, and five others in preparatory studies. As Chaplain of the Shelter he has supplied in full the usual Sunday services held there, baptized twelve of its inmates, prepared seven for confirmation and administered Holy Communion on two Holy Days. As Examining Chaplain with his associates on the Board, he has conducted seven canonical examinations of ten separate candidates, presenting five of them for ordination. He has attended eight meetings of the Standing Committee, discharging numerous outside duties connected with it. Finally he reports eight other services held in different Churches to relieve his brethren of the Clergy.

The REV. W. M. BEAUCHAMP, S. T. D., residing in Syracuse, reports as follows:

In addition to his stated work he has officiated and preached on many Sundays and weekdays during the year, and could have done more had it been required. He has officiated at several funerals and attended theological examinations, besides lecturing on various subjects.

The REV. H. M. BROWN, residing at Binghamton, reports that during the year he has officiated as supply at St. Andrew's Church, Bradford, N. Y., has also assisted the clergy of Binghamton on several occasions, and held services at Sherburne, Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point.

THE REV. JOSHUA L. BURROWS, residing at Ashtabula, Ohio, reports as follows:

During the past convention year he has read prayers and preached once at St. Peter's Church, Ashtabula, has read prayers and preached at "The Harbor," O., once, and baptized one person, married one couple and officiated at five funerals.

The REV. S. D. DAY reports that during the year he has officiated at the Church of the Holy Cross, Sanford, Florida, at St. Mary's, Lake Mary, and at All Saints' Church, Enterprise, in the same jurisdiction.

The REV. O. E. HERRICK, D. D., residing at Watertown, reports that during the year he has officiated on several occasions reading the prayers and assisting in the administration of the Holy Communion. He has celebrated the Holy Communion twice, preached several times, officiated at two marriages and at nine funerals.

The REV. ROBERT HUDSON, Ph. D., reports that he was compelled, on account of ill health, to resign the Rectorship of Trinity Church, Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 1st, 1903. Since that time he has officiated at four marriages.

The REV. E. W. MUNDY, residing at Syracuse, reports that during the year he has administered the Holy Communion twice and read the burial service once.

The REV. GEO. L. NEIDE, residing at Ossining, N. Y., reports that owing to extreme bodily weakness, added to the burden of four score years and more, he has been unable to officiate in the office of the Holy Ministry.

The REV. JOHN A. STAUNTON reports that he is at present residing in Philadelphia, Pa., and that from January 1st to April 15th, 1903, he officiated as Priest in Charge of Epiphany Chapel in that city in the absence of the Vicar.

The REV. H. C. STAUNTON reports that since his ordering he has been studying in Columbia University, New York City, by permission of the Bishop, for the higher educational degrees. He has assisted once as a supply.

The REV. S. W. STROWGER, residing at Webster, N. Y., reports that since May, 1902, he continued to hold Sunday services with monthly administration of the Holy Communion at St. Andrew's Mission, near which he resides, until October, when a severe illness incapacitated him for any clerical work until Trinity Sunday, when he was sufficiently recovered to resume it tentively.

The REV. C. H. TINDELL reports that on account of physical disability he has been unable to perform the duties of his ministry.

The REV. F. P. WINNE, Assistant Minister of St. Paul's Church at Watertown, reports that since the first of September last he has, at the Bishop's request, served the Parish of St. Peter's, Redwood.

He has held one service and preached each Sunday, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On each Friday evening of Lent he gave a service with a lecture.

He also served the Church of St. James, Theresa, during September and October, held a service in that place on the evening of Easter Day and celebrated the Holy Communion on Easter Monday. He has baptized 9 infants, administered the Holy Communion in public 23 times, and in private once. He has officiated at 18 burials and married 10 couples.

These acts are included in either the report from St. Paul's, Watertown, or in that from St. Peter's, Redwood.

Matron—Sister Margaret.

Chaplain—The Rev. J. J. Burd.

The institution is still greatly in need of larger quarters.

It is the aim of this institution to supply to the little ones entrusted to its care a good home, together with the much needed influence of a pure family life. Religious education is, of course, the primary object, and besides the daily devotions, it is the rule to have a weekly service and a catechetical instruction by the Chaplain. The House is grateful to the Bishop for his kindly interest shown in many ways.

Sixty-four children have been cared for during the past year.

Ground was broken for a new building in October and work was resumed early in the spring but it has been delayed by the strikes.

House of the Good Shepherd, Binghamton.

A home for old ladies. Opened November 1, 1870. Endowment, $5,000. Receipts from June, 1902 to June 1903, $1,258 86. Disbursements, $1,177.35.

Shelter for Unprotected Girls, Syracuse.

Opened February 21, 1877. Incorporated 1878.

Trustees—The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese; Mrs. H. L. Elsner, Secretary; Miss A. S. Huntington, Treasurer; Dr. Juliet E. Hanchett, Miss J. E. McIntosh, Mrs. F. R. Hazard, Mrs. I. G. Vann, Dr. J. C. Carson, W. T. Hamilton, W. S. Andrews, Charles W. Snow, Mrs. E. Bourcard, Miss Lizzie Gill.

Superintendent—Miss A. A. Kendall.

Chaplain—The Rev. Theodore Babcock, D. D.

The object of this institution is to train young and neglected girls in the ways of purity, industry and self control. They are taught sewing, laundry and housework, and instructions in the elementary branches of education. Pains are taken to procure respectable situations at service for those who leave the house. The income is dependent upon annual subscriptions, occasional gifts, and a small sum for board from friends or the poor authorities.

Hospital of the Good Shepherd, Syracuse.

Organized February, 1872

Miss Lina Lightbourne is Superintendent of the Hospital and Nurses' Training School connected with it. There are thirty-four nurses in the school. Seven graduated during the year.

There is a maternity department for mothers and children.

There are rooms that are furnished as memorials; three in the Hospital and four in the Training School. Also one memorial bed. Other gifts for rooms and beds are greatly needed.

The Bishop frequently visits and officiates at the House, which has his constant interest and supervision.

With its lately enlarged capacity and facilities and its increased equipments every way, through the signal liberality of a citizen of Syracuse, this Institution has grown into one of the most complete hospital establishments in the country.

(B)

Educational Institutions.

St. Andrew's Divinity School.

A Seminary for the training of Candidates for Orders, under the immediate supervision of the Bishop of the Diocese. Established in 1876.

THE FACULTY.

The Right Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese: Chair: The Sacraments and Sacramental Offices; Preaching The Spiritual Life.

The Rev. Theodore Babcock, D. D., Dean. History, Contents and Interpretation of the Old and New Testaments; Evidences; Ethics, Dogmatic Theology.

The Rev. E. Warren Saphore: Church History; Homiletics; Pastoral Service.

The Rev. J. Everett Johnson: History, Contents and right use of the Book of Common Prayer; Ecclesiastical Polity.

The Curriculum includes a full and complete Theological Course, as the Canons require. At the same time constant attention is given to preparing the students for the practical work of the Ministry by having them serve as Lay Readers, in nearby Missions, members of the Faculty having Pastoral oversight and direction. Special instruction also is given to young men preparing for candidateship, and to others seeking the Ministry of the Church but needing education in its basic principles and doctrine.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

On June 11th, 1902, after the adjournment of the Convention in Syracuse, twenty-two of the graduate members of the School met, and with hearty enthusiasm organized "The Alumni Association of St. Andrew's Divinity School." The Rev. John Arthur of Oneida, C. N. Y. was chosen President, and the Rev. Frederick B. Keable of Jordan, C. N. Y., Secretary. The last meeting was held June 10th, 1903, with unabated interest.

St. John's School, Manlius.

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, President of the Board of Trustees; Col. William Verbeck, President; the Rev. A. C. Clarke, Chaplain.

Educational Institutions.

St. John's School was founded in 1869 by the Rt. Rev. Frederic D. Huntington, S. T. D., Bishop of Central New York, and has ever since been a successful Church School of the highest grade. It is located at Manlius, N. Y., ten miles from Syracuse, on the line of the Syracuse, Ontario and New York R. R.

The Chaplain conducts all religious worship and instruction. The services are arranged and conducted, with the advice of the Bishop, as will best promote moral and religious growth.

There are five courses of study, a course in Civil Engineering, a Classical Course, a Special Course and a Grammar Course.

The President, Chaplain, Headmaster, Commandant, detailed by the War Department, and nine masters, constitute the Faculty.

Keble School for Girls, Syracuse.

Under the supervision of the Bishop of the Diocese. Founded in 1871.

Incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, in December, 1878, and a Board of Trustees chosen, of which the Bishop of the Diocese is President.

Principal—Miss Mary Jackson, who has ten assistants in the various departments. Number of pupils one hundred.

This is a Boarding and Day School, designed to furnish the best facilities for the sound and thorough education of girls in all scholarly attainments, womanly graces and Christian character. The situation of the school is in a beautiful locality, on a wide, pleasant and attractive street, with a commodious house and ample grounds open to the light and air.

Constitution and Canons.

Constitution.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the Second Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committees shall be appointed.

Sec. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop or in the case above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, if he be present, and the officiating Ministers regularly admitted and settled in some Church within the Diocese, which is in union with the Convention; and of Lay-members, not exceeding three delegates from each parish or congregation in union with the Convention.

Sec. 2. All other Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese for the space of six months, and not under discipline, may be members of the Convention.

Sec. 3. The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

Sec. 4. But in case of Churches or Congregations organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

Sec. 5. The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the convention and the conditions under which union or representation shall be forfeited, may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention at its first morning session shall be opened with prayers and the Holy Communion, and the Bishop may at this time deliver his Annual Address or Charge.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Annual Convention from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Annual Convention, and until a successor be appointed. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of each Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1. In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and, except as provided in the next Section, may vote in one body; but if in any case it shall be required by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy as individuals, and the Laity as Parishes; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

Constitution.

Sec. 2. In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately by ballot, and according to the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering the Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing, and considered in the Convention; and if approved of, shall lie over till the next Annual Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

ARTICLE IX.

No amendment of the Canons shall be made during the session of the Convention in which the same shall be proposed, unless two-thirds of each order shall concur therein; but any amendment, if approved by a majority less than two-thirds, shall lie over for the consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Canons.

ADOPTED IN CONVENTION, 1869.

CANON I.

Of a List of Ministers in the Diocese.

Section 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures, Parishes, Stations, or places of residence, designating those who are entitled to seats in the Convention; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry, shall have a place on the said list. And such list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and be prefixed to the Journal.

Sec. 2. The right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

CANON II.

Of the Members and Organization of the Convention

Section 1. The evidence of the regular admission of a Clergyman into this Diocese shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention of a compliance with Section VII. of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest of the Canons of the General Convention; and the evidence of a settlement in a Church thereof shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention, of a compliance with the first and second sections of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest.

Sec. 2. The appointment of a Lay Delegate to the Convention of this Diocese shall be certified in writing by the Rector of the Parish or Church of which he is a delegate, or by one of the Wardens, or by the Clerk of the Vestry, or Trustees. This Certificate shall state in all cases that the person so certified is entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen—or would be so entitled if the Church which he is appointed to represent were not otherwise organized or incorporated—and that the said Parish or Church is not in arrears in payment of its assessment for the General Fund of the Diocese, or (if it be in arrears) that it prays the Convention to remit the sum in arrears for the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

Sec. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

Sec. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President Pro Tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

Sec. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. Notice shall then be given to the Lay Delegates to place their certificates on the table. They shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members to be appointed by the President. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called and the names of those who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

Sec. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

Sec. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

Sec. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Sec. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

Section 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

Sec. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention

Section 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

Sec. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section IV, Canon 20, Title I, of the Digest, a certificate to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary; together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

Sec. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Sec. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese

Section 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his offices.

Sec. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

CANON VII.

Of Registers, Parochial Reports, and the Removal of Communicants from one Parish to Another.

Sec. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies between committees shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an election is made by the Convention. The Treasurer may be removed at any time from his office by the Standing Committee for any neglect or misconduct, of which they shall be judges.

Section 1. The Parish Register, required by Section V, Canon 13, Title 1, of the Digest, shall specify the name and the time of the birth of the child baptized with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the parties married, and of two or more special witnesses of the same, and the place where the marriage was solemnized; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the Records of the Church.

Sec. 2. The Parish Register shall contain a list of the families and adult persons in the Cure as far as practicable, and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed from time to time.

Sec. 3. In every Parish and Missionary Station a list of the Communicants shall be kept which shall retain the names of all persons who shall have been admitted to the Holy Communion in that Parish or Station until they shall have ceased to be Communicants in the Cure by either (1) death, (2) removal or (3) repulsion and suspension or excommunication by competent authority. In the Annual Report of the Parish discrimination shall be made by means of separate items between those who shall have received the Holy Communion at least once within two years preceding such report, and all others whose names are on the list as above provided, but who shall not have received the Communion either in public or in private during the two years preceding the report, whatever may have been the occasion or cause of their neglect of their privilege and duty.

Sec. 4. The Annual Report shall also indicate all the additions to the list of Communicants during the past year, as well as the losses by death, removal, repulsion or suspension, as required by Section V, Canon 18, Title 1, and Section I, Canon 20, Title 1, of the Digest, and shall also contain, in addition to the value of churches and rectories, the amount of insurance thereon. Under the head of rector's salary and current expenses shall be included salary of ministers, choir expenses, wages of sexton, fuel and lights.

Sec. 5. In every case where a Parish is destitute of a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by the Wardens, or by some person appointed by the Vestry, whose duty it shall also be to prepare and forward to the Bishop the Annual Parochial Report.

Sec. 6. Communicants removing from one Parish to another, in the Diocese, shall procure a certificate as provided for in Canon 12, Title 2, Sec. 1, of the Canons of the General Convention.

Sec. 7. The same rule shall apply in this Diocese to Communicants who may wish to be transferred, without changing their residence from the list of Communicants in one Parish, so as to be received as Communicants in any other Parish or in any other place of worship where the Holy Communion is habitually celebrated.

Sec. 8. No Rector or other Minister in charge of any Parish in this Diocese shall receive as an habitual Communicant, or enter upon the list of Communicants under his charge, the name of any person who has been a Communicant in any other Parish in this Diocese without such a certificate or Letter Dimissory from the Parish to which said Communicant last belonged.

Canon VIII, IX

Sec. 9. Any communicant, not under censure or ecclesiastical discipline, shall be entitled to such a certificate or letter on application therefor to the Minister in charge of the Parish to which said Communicant belongs, and in case of a vacancy in the pastoral care of a Parish, and in case of any person under discipline the application shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese, or in the vacancy in the Episcopal office, to the President of the Standing Committee, and the answer and decision of the Bishop or of the President of the Standing Committee, as above provided, shall be final and conclusive.

CANON VIII.Of Deputies to the General Convention.

Section 1. The Convention shall, at its regular annual meeting next preceding the regular session of the General Convention, elect by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, four clergymen and four laymen, who shall be Communicants of the Church and residents of the Diocese, to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. The Deputies so chosen shall hold their office during the term of three years.

Sec. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies between the stated times of election may be supplied by any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to signify to the Bishop, on some day within three weeks of the meeting of the General Convention, and at least one week before such meeting, the acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which, and in case of their inability or unwillingness to perform the duties of the appointment, all vacancies so occurring by declensions, sickness or death shall be filled by the designation of the Bishop, from the list of the Clergymen and Laymen actually belonging to the Convention in which the Deputies were appointed, and such person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

Sec. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the President of the Standing Committee.

CANON IX.Of the Standing Committee.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention an election of a Standing Committee shall be made; which Committee shall consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of each order, each Parish having one vote by its delegates. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical Members and Lay Members of the Committee.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical Members of said Committee; in which case such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical Members alone; provided that no sentence shall be pronounced upon a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a true record of their proceedings and report the same annually to the Diocesan Convention. He shall preserve all books, journals and papers belonging to said committee, and transmit the same to his successor in office.

CANON X.

Of the Diocesan Missions and Offerings.

Section 1. All members of the Church in the Diocese of Central New York constitute its Diocesan Missionary Society; and the Convention of the Diocese shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Sec. II. For Missionary purposes the Diocese shall be divided into six districts, as follows:

First District—Jefferson and Lewis Counties.

Second District—Oneida County, the Village of Oneida, and all the rest of Madison County except the townships including the Parishes of Cazenovia, Canastota, Chittenango and Perryville.

Third District—Broome and Chenango Counties.

Fourth District—Onondaga, Oswego and Cortland Counties, and the townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.

Fifth District—Cayuga and Seneca Counties.

Sixth District—Chemung, Tioga and Tompkins Counties.

Sec. III. 1 The principal officer of said Missionary District shall be called the Dean of the District. He shall be appointed every four years by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, after nomination in a regular Convocation of the same. Under the Bishop he shall have the oversight of all Missionary work in his District.

2. Each Missionary District shall annually elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, at its first regular Convocation after the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

3. If the office of Dean of any Missionary District become vacant, by removal or otherwise, the Bishop shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term.

Sec. IV. 1. In the general Missionary work of the Diocese, the Bishop shall be assisted by a Diocesan Board of Managers, consisting, together with the Bishop, of the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall also be the Treasurer of the Board, the six Deans, and six Clergymen and six Laymen, one of each from each Missionary District, to be elected severally by the Convocation of the District entitled to this representation. In any vacancy of the Episcopate, the Board of Managers shall elect one of its members to preside.

Constitution and Canons.

Constitution.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the Second Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committees shall be appointed.

Sec. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop or in the case above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, if he be present, and the officiating Ministers regularly admitted and

Canon XI

5. At least two weeks before the Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Secretary of each Missionary District shall make report of the year's work of the District to the Secretary of the Board of Managers, including the items called for in Section IV, 4, of this Canon.

6. Any missionary District may with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special Missionary work, provided it shall first have complied with all canonical requirements, and shall be free to make its own regulations and conduct its own Missionary work in all ways not conflicting with the provisions of this Canon.

7. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman in charge of a Parish or Mission to attend all Convocations of his District, and to report to the same the Missionary work done in his Cure.

Sec. VI. 1. Offerings shall be made systematically in the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese as follows:

For the Communion Alms on the first Sunday in each month.

For the Board of Missions, Domestic or General, on a Sunday in Advent.

For the Christmas Fund, on Christmas Day.

For the Board of Missions, Foreign or General, on a Sunday after the Epiphany.

For the Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York, or the Bible and Prayer Book Society of New York, in the discretion of the Minister, on Whit Sunday.

For the increase of the Ministry, on Easter, or some other near and convenient Sunday.

For Deficiency in Income from the Episcopate Fund of the Diocese, on the fourth Sundays in March and September.

For the Mission among the Deaf-Mutes in the Diocese, on the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, or on the Sunday next before Advent.

2. Offerings for Diocesan Missions shall be made in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese on the third Sunday of each month, when one of the above named Sundays is not the third Sunday. All such offerings shall be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the District.

It is also recommended that the Minister of each Parish or Congregation, at the Episcopal visitation, ask an offering which shall be placed in the hands of the Bishop, to be used at his discretion for the benefit of needy persons, and which shall be called Bishop's Relief Fund.

CANON XI.

Of the General Fund.

Section 1. In order to provide for what has hitherto been known as the general Fund, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Constitution.

Sec. 2. In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately by ballot, and according to the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering the Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing, and considered in the Convention; and if approved of, shall lie over till the next Annual Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

ARTICLE IX.

No amendment of the Canons shall be made during the session of the Convention in which the same shall be proposed, unless two-thirds of each order shall concur therein; but any amendment, if approved by a majority less than two-thirds, shall lie over for the consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Canon XIII.

Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the Congregation, and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

Sec. 3. All appropriations for the Relief of Disabled Clergy shall be made by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, on the certificate of the Bishop that the individual has labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than three years, (except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese and having never removed therefrom), and is disabled by age or physical infirmity from having a parochial charge; but no appropriation shall be made for a larger sum than five hundred dollars per annum, and it shall be paid semi-annually, on the first of January and July.

Sec. 4. All appropriations for the benefit of the widow or children of a deceased Clergyman shall be made by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund on the certificate of the Bishop, that the person or persons is the widow or minor child or children of a deceased Clergyman who was a canonical resident of the Diocese at the time of his death, and who had labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than one year, (except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese and having never removed therefrom), but no appropriation for this purpose shall be made for a larger sum than three hundred dollars per annum, to be paid semi-annually, on the first of April and October; and no appropriation shall be paid to the widow after she is married again, or to orphan or orphans after having attained the age of majority.

Sec. 5. The Trustees of the Christmas Fund shall have power to appropriate a sum not exceeding fifty dollars towards the funeral expenses of a deceased beneficiary.

Sec. 6. All moneys belonging to the Fund and not needed for present relief shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security upon real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings, the appraisal to be made by an appraiser appointed by the Trustees for the purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State, or of the United States; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of said Trustees and their successors in office, as Trustees of the Fund; and they shall have the power from time to time to change such securities or investments.

Sec. 7. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees of the Christmas Fund, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate committee according to Canon XIV, signed by said Trustees or a majority of them.

CANON XIII.

Of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate.

Section 1. There shall be five Trustees appointed by the Convention to whom the management and care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate in this Diocese shall be entrusted. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to appoint a President and Secretary; and no act of said Trustees shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees by a majority of the same and recorded by their Secretary in a book to be kept as the record of their proceedings, and to be opened to the inspection of the Convention. The said Trustees shall hold their office during the pleasure of the Convention; and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees shall from time to time be filled by the Convention.

Sec. 2. All moneys belonging to the Fund for the support of the Episcopate shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon securities on real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings; the appraisal to be made by one appraiser, appointed by the Trustees for that purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State or of the United States; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said Trustees and their successors in office as Trustees of said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities and investments.

Sec. 3. The salary of the Bishop shall be paid quarterly, by the Treasurer of the Diocese, on the first days of July, October, January and April, in each fiscal year, and the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund shall remit quarterly, in anticipation of such payments, all sums received by them as income of said Fund, and the receipt of said Treasurer shall be a proper voucher for said Trustees in rendering their annual report to the Convention of this Diocese.

Sec. 4. With a view to the further increase of the principal of the said Fund, such portions of the contributions of the Diocese as may be given or appropriated for that purpose shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the order of the said Trustees, to be invested by them for accumulation and without diminution, until the further order of the Convention; and all moneys remaining in the hands of said Trustees for investment shall be deposited in some safe bank in this State, to the credit of the President and Secretary of the Board.

Sec. 5. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate Committee according to Canon XIV.

CANON XIV.

Of the Fiscal Year and Financial Reports.

Section 1. The fiscal year of the Diocese shall begin on the first day of May annually, and end on the thirtieth day of April following. And the Treasurer of the Diocese and all Trustees having in charge any funds belonging to the Diocese shall annually make their reports to the appropriate Standing Committees on or before the fifteenth of May in each year.

Sec. 2. Standing Committees shall be appointed at each Annual

Canon XV, XVI.

Convention to consider and report to the Annual Convention next ensuing, as follows:

1. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, consisting of three Laymen.
2. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, consisting of three Laymen.
3. On the report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, consisting of three Laymen.
4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, consisting of three Laymen.
5. On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, consisting of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of each of these several committees to meet in each year at some time between the fifteenth of May and the meeting of the next Annual Convention, at the place where the Treasurer resides, or where the funds are held, and make an examination into all books, papers, vouchers, etc., relating to the respective funds held by the Treasurer or Trustees, and prepare a report to be presented to the Annual Convention next ensuing. An abstract of each report with such resolutions as may be proposed, and the reports of the Standing Committees constituted by this Canon shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Convention in time to permit him to cause the same to be printed, and sent to the Clergy and Lay Delegates, one week before the meeting of the Convention.

CANON XV.

Of Vacant Churches.

Section 1. Whenever a Church becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Bishop.

Sec. 2. The Bishop shall appoint those of the Clergy in the Diocese, who can with most convenience discharge the duty, to supply such vacant Parishes as have been reported to him, at such times as may be deemed convenient and proper. It shall be the duty of such vacant Churches thus supplied to defray all the expenses incident to such occasional services.

CANON XVI

Of Elections.

Section 1. All the Officers of the Convention shall be elected by ballot. Election by ballot may be dispensed with by an unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

Sec. 2. To facilitate the stated election by ballot, the Secretary shall provide sheets of paper with printed headings, containing the titles of the various offices to be filled by ballot, for the use of the members of the Convention; and all such officers may be voted for at one balloting. No printed ballots shall be allowed.

Canon XVII, XVIII.

Sec. 3. In all cases of failure or omission to elect officers by the Convention, the persons last elected shall continue in office until others be chosen.

Sec. 4. In case of vacancies in office, occurring during recess, it shall be competent for the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, to fill ad interim, any position which the Convention, if in session, might fill.

CANON XVII.

Of Attending the Meetings of the Convention.

Section 1. Whereas, the regular attendance of the Clergy and Laity at the meetings of the Convention is of essential consequence to the interests of the Church, this duty is hereby enjoined upon them.

Sec. 2. And whereas it is often necessary to travel a considerable distance to the place of meeting of the Convention, it is hereby made the duty of the different Parishes to make provision for the expenses of their Clergy in attending the Convention, either by a collection in Church on Sunday, or by some other mode.

Sec. 3. No member of this Convention shall leave the same during its session without having applied for and received leave of absence.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of the Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceedings in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

Section 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever from public rumor, or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case—a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is, in their opinion, sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

Sec. 2. A presentment being made in any of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as to constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts some of which do, and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time and from place to place, (but always within the Diocese,) as they shall think necessary.

Sec. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

Sec. 4. If at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if after one adjournment or more it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

Sec. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial as before mentioned he shall be considered as denying them.

Sec. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn until another day.

Sec. 7. When the Board proceeds to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced; which evidence shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer authorized by law to administer oaths may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses, that they will testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

Sec. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness can not be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a commissary to take the testimony of such witness. Such commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness; and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the commissary and enclosed under his seal and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

Sec. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by them or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be without delay communicated to the accused; and the original decision, together with evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some Church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

Sec. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the fact shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

Sec. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Sec. 12. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee; and for that purpose shall, after final decision be delivered to their Secretary.

CANON XIX.

Of the Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Bishop may nominate for the approval of the Convention a person skilled in ecclesiastical and civil law to be the Chancellor of the Diocese, whose office shall be to act as legal adviser and counsellor to the Bishop, the Standing Committee, ecclesiastical courts and the Convention, when called upon to do so.

CANON XX.Of Parochial Limits.

No Parish of this Church shall be organized in any town, city or village where one already exists, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, and no edifice for public worship shall be erected by said Parish within one-half mile of the Church building already in existence.

CANON XXI.Of the Retirement of a Minister from the Active Duties of his Office

Any Clergyman of this Diocese, in good standing who has reached the age of sixty-five years, and desires to retire from the active duties of the Ministry by reason of disability and who is in need of assistance, shall, on the recommendation of the Bishop, be entitled upon his retirement, to receive a pension of $500 per annum, payable quarterly by the Treasurer, provided he has been engaged twenty-five years in the work of the Ministry in this Diocese. The amount needed for such pension shall be added to the General Fund.

Canon X.

2. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall consult for the promotion of the Missionary work of the Diocese. It shall, each year, through its Secretary, present to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual session, a report of the Missionary work of the Diocese during the Conventional year.

3. At each Annual Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall submit to the Diocesan Board of Missions for its action, an estimate of the sum required for the Missionary work of the Diocese during the current year. Immediately after the adjournment of the Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall meet and determine how much of the money voted by the Diocese for its Missionary work during the year shall be assessed to each District, and what part of it shall be given to the same for apportionment among its stipendiary Clergy. And this determination shall be published in the Journal of the Convention.

4. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall, through its Treasurer, prepare for publication in each Journal of the Convention, a table by districts, of all the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, the sum assessed to each District to be raised for Diocesan Missionary work, the amount assessed by the District to each Parish and Mission for the same, and the sum actually given for this purpose by each Parish and Mission. It shall also contain the amount of Stipendiary Funds given to each district, together with the sum apportioned to each of its Stipendiary Parishes and Missions.

5. Other meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at the call of the Bishop, or in a vacancy of the Episcopate, of four Deans. Eleven members of the Board, including three Deans, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but no action of the Board shall be valid without the approval of the Bishop.

Sec. V. 1. Each Missionary District shall hold no less than two stated Convocations yearly. At the first of these, which shall be held as soon after the adjournment of the Annual Convention as the District may determine, appropriations shall be made by it in aid of the Missionary work in the said District under the advice or direction of the Bishop.

2. Each Parish and Missionary Station seeking aid from the Convocation shall make written application through its Vestry or Committee, stating the facts necessary to full understanding of the case, particularly the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the Parish or Station for the support of the Minister.

3. Each Missionary District shall be represented in its Convocation by the Clergy canonically resident, and by two Lay Delegates from each of its Parishes and Missions.

4. Each Missionary District shall have power to assess upon its own Parishes and Missions whatever sum may canonically be required of it for the Missionary work of the Diocese, and all monies raised or collected for Diocesan Missions shall be promptly paid by the Treasurer of the District to the Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Managers, and by him paid to the Missionaries on the order of the Treasurer of the District.

Rules of Order.For Conducting the Business of the Convention of the

I. On the first day the order of business shall be as follows:

1. After Divine Service, the President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats, and enter on the record the names of those who are present.
2. The Secretary shall then call the names of the Parishes entitled to representation, and the Lay Delegates of each Parish shall place their certificates on the table.
3. The President shall then appoint a Committee, consisting of two members and the Secretary, to examine the certificates and report thereon.
4. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared.
5. The names of the Lay Delegates reported by the Committee on Credentials as duly appointed shall then be called, and the result noted in the record.
6. If a quorum be found in attendance: viz:—twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and twenty delegations from the Parishes, the President shall then declare the Convention duly organized for business.
7. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary to be appointed by the Convention.
8. The following Committees shall then be appointed by the President:
 - I. On the Admission into Union with this Convention of Churches applying for the same—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.
 - II. On Unfinished Business—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.

Canon XII.

Diocese to present to the Standing Committee on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, an estimate of the amount of money that will be needed during the ensuing year to meet the current expenses and expenses of the Convention, adding thereto the liabilities of the Diocese chargeable to said fund, if there be any.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said Committee, upon receipt of this estimate, to assess this amount upon the Parishes and Churches of the Diocese, at the rate of an uniform per-cent. upon the amount last previously reported to the Convention and printed in the Journal under the head of "Rector's Salary and Current Expenses" as defined in Canon VII, Sec. 4, not including any amount that may have been given to the Parish or Church, or its Minister, by the Missionary Board of the Diocese, or by any other Missionary organization. And it shall be the duty of said Committee to report to the Convention the schedule of assessments thus apportioned and when the Convention shall have adopted the same, with such amendments as it may deem necessary, it shall be binding upon the Parishes and Churches, and shall be printed as an appendix to the Journal.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall notify each Parish and Church of the quota thus assigned to it, and it shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of each Parish or Church, or the Minister and Trustees—if there be no Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen—to see that the amount thus due the Diocese, be forwarded to the Treasurer in quarterly installments, so that the whole amount be paid before the first day of May in each year.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present to the Secretary of the Convention, at the opening of each Session, a list of such Parishes or Churches as are in arrears to the General Fund, with the amount of such arrears, that the same may be placed in the hands of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, and each such Parish or Church, shall be excluded from representation in the Convention, until such arrears are paid in full, unless the sum in arrears be remitted by the Convention itself, for reasons which are satisfactory to the Convention.

CANON XII.

Of the Christmas Fund.

Section 1. All moneys raised or contributed for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy, shall be paid to the Corporation known as "The Trustees of the Christmas Fund of the Diocese of Central New York." And it shall be the duty of the Convention at each of its annual meetings to nominate by ballot one person to act as Trustee in the said corporation to fill the vacancy which by the by-laws of said corporation will then occur, and to nominate in like manner other persons to fill any other vacancies in the said board that may have occurred during the year since the last Annual Convention.

Sec. 2. In every Parish in the Diocese there shall be made annually, on Christmas day, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy of the Diocese, and for the benefit of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy of the Diocese. It shall be the duty of every

11. Miscellaneous business.

THIRD AND SUBSEQUENT DAYS.

- III. On the third and any subsequent day, after Morning Prayer, the Order of Business shall be as follows:
 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes of the preceding day.
 2. The disposal of the Unfinished Business of the Convention in the order above prescribed for the Second Day; the business, if any, however, which was under consideration at the time of adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

GENERAL RULES.

IV. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

V. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded it shall be stated by the President before the debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing when required by the President or any member.

VI. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

Rules of Order.

VII. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received, except to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order here named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

VIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate; but any matter thus laid on the table may be called up again during the same session on the motion of any member who voted in the affirmative.

IX. On the question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members and the Churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journal.

X. Any five votes may require the ayes and nays to be taken by orders, and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XI. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XII. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention; nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XIII. All Reports of Committees shall be in writing, and shall, upon reading or presentation of the same, become the property of the Convention without any motion for acceptance, and any report recommending action by the Convention shall be accompanied with a Resolution.

XIV. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XV. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect, unless by the vote of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XVI. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XVII. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 6 to 7:30 in the evening.

7. The names of the Churchwardens elected at such meeting, and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the Clerk of the County, so specified therein, the Churchwardens and Vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the Rector, when there is one, shall form a Vestry and shall be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its govern*ance.

Such corporation shall be an Incorporated Church, and may be termed also an Incorporated Parish.

Sec. 3. Section thirty-two of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—No meeting of the Vestry or Trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church, shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the Rector in writing either personally or by mail; or, if there be no Rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the Churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the Vestry or Trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient, provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the Vestry or Board of Trustees there must be present either:

1. The Rector, at least one of the Churchwardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen, or

2. The Rector, both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen, or

3. If the Rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the Rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one Churchwarden and a majority of the Vestrymen, or both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen,

But if there be a Rector of the Parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

The presiding officer of the Vestry or Trustees shall be the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the Churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the

- I. On the first day the order of business shall be as follows:
1. After Divine Service, the President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats, and enter on the record the names of those who are present.
 2. The Secretary shall then call the names of the Parishes entitled to representation, and the Lay Delegates of each Parish shall place their certificates on the table.
 3. The President shall then appoint a Committee, consisting of two members and the Secretary, to examine the certificates and report thereon.
 4. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared.
 5. The names of the Lay Delegates reported by the Committee on Credentials as duly appointed shall then be called, and the result noted in the record.
 6. If a quorum be found in attendance: viz:—twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and twenty delegations from the Parishes, the President shall then declare the Convention duly organized for business.
 7. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary to be appointed by the Convention.
 8. The following Committees shall then be appointed by the President:
- I. On the Admission into Union with this Convention of Churches applying for the same—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.
- II. On Unfinished Business—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.

 - 16. Motions, resolutions and Notices.

SECOND DAY.

II. On the second day, after Divine Service, the Order of Business, which shall not be departed from without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, shall be as follows:

- 1. The reading, correcting and approving of the minutes of the preceding day.
- 2. The Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he shall prefer another time for its delivery; if so, it shall be in order at any time.
- 3. Reports from Special Committees.
- 4. Motions, Notices and Resolutions shall then be in order.
- 5. The election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and of the Deputies to the General Convention, and the nomination of Trustees of the General Theological Seminary.

Rules of Order.

6. The election of the Treasurer of the Diocese.
7. The supplying of vacancies, if any, in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate; in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund; in the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
8. The appointing of the following Standing Committees:
 - I. On Christian Education—Consisting of Three Clergymen and Two Laymen.
 - II. On the Constitution and Canons and Rules of Order—Consisting of Three Clergymen and Two Laymen.
 - III. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese—Consisting of Three Laymen.

 - VI. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - VII. On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.
9. The appointment of the Deans of the Missionary Convocations and the supplying of vacancies, if any, in the list of Deputies to the Federate Council.
10. Unfinished Business.
11. Miscellaneous business.

THIRD AND SUBSEQUENT DAYS.

- III. On the third and any subsequent day, after Morning Prayer, the Order of Business shall be as follows:
 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes of the preceding day.
 2. The disposal of the Unfinished Business of the Convention in the order above prescribed for the Second Day; the business, if any, however, which was under consideration at the time of adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

GENERAL RULES.

IV. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

V. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded it shall be stated by the President before the debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing when required by the President or any member.

VI. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

Rules of Order.

VII. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received, except to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order here named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

VIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate; but any matter thus laid on the table may be called up again during the same session on the motion of any member who voted in the affirmative.

IX. On the question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members and the Churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journal.

X. Any five votes may require the ayes and nays to be taken by orders, and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XI. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XII. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention; nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XIII. All Reports of Committees shall be in writing, and shall, upon reading or presentation of the same, become the property of the Convention without any motion for acceptance, and any report recommending action by the Convention shall be accompanied with a Resolution.

XIV. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XV. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect, unless by the vote of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XVI. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XVII. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 6 to 7:30 in the evening.

APPENDIX VI.

(A)

Organisation of Parishes.

- (1.) An Act in Relation to Religious Corporations, Being Chapter Three Hundred and Fifty-eight of the General Laws.

Special Provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches.

Section 30. The Meeting for Incorporation.

31. The Certificate of Incorporation.
32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.
33. Annual Elections.
34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of parishes hereafter incorporated.
35. Changing date of annual elections, number and terms of Office of Vestrymen and terms of Churchwardens of Parishes heretofore incorporated.
36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.

Section 30. The meeting for incorporation.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Congregation, and of electing the first Churchwardens and Vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Organization of Parishes.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such Parish or Congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such Parish or Congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating Minister, or if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the Chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated Parish or Congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the Vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are Communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be Churchwardens thereof; one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

Sec. 2. Section thirty-one of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 31. The Certificate of Incorporation.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county and the town, city or village in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;

Organization of Parishes.

6. The names of the Vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;

7. The names of the Churchwardens elected at such meeting, and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the Clerk of the County, so specified therein, the Churchwardens and Vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the Rector, when there is one, shall form a Vestry and shall be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its govern*ance.

Such corporation shall be an Incorporated Church, and may be termed also an Incorporated Parish.

Sec. 3. Section thirty-two of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—No meeting of the Vestry or Trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church, shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the Rector in writing either personally or by mail; or, if there be no Rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the Churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the Vestry or Trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient, provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the Vestry or Board of Trustees there must be present either:

1. The Rector, at least one of the Churchwardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen, or

2. The Rector, both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen, or

3. If the Rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the Rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one Churchwarden and a majority of the Vestrymen, or both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen,

But if there be a Rector of the Parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

The presiding officer of the Vestry or Trustees shall be the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the Churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the Churchwardens be present; or the Churchwarden present if but one be present.

At each meeting of the Vestry or Trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The Vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a Churchwarden or Vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The Vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the Parish or Church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a Rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the Rectorship of the Parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the Rector.

Sec. 4. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 33. Annual Elections of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the Rector of the Parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating Minister or by a Churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the Parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and Vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The meeting for such annual election shall be held immediately after morning service.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the Rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Churchwarden be present, a Vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the Parish, who have been

Organization of Parishes.

Regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such Parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as Churchwarden unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as Vestryman unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the Vestrymen of the Parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated, two Churchwardens and the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one Churchwarden or of but one-third of its Vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each Churchwarden and Vestrymen shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

Sec. 5. Section thirty-four of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of Vestrymen of such Parish be changed to either three, six or nine Vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual meeting of such Parish and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer hereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of Vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of Vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of Vestrymen to be elected at such annual election one-third of such increased number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not effect the term of office of any Vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

Sec. 6. Section thirty-five of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of Vestrymen and terms of office of Churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the Annual Election be changed to a secular day in the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of Vestrymen be changed to three, six or nine, and that the terms of office of the Churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next Annual Election of such Parish and be submitted to such meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified at such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the Parish; the number of Vestrymen so decided on, and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect Churchwardens so that the term of one Warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning, with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the Vestrymen and Churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election, shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of Vestrymen and manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years, one-third thereof to hold office for two years, and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one Churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of Vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one Churchwarden.

Sec. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

tions of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish heretofore incorporated shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of sections thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

Sec. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2.) An Act to Amend the Religious Corporations Law.

Became a Law April 19, 1900,

Section 1. Section eleven of Article one of Chapter seven hundred and twenty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act in relation to religious corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws," and known as the religious corporations law, as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Sale, mortgage and lease of real property of religious corporations.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale mortgage or lease of its real property unless the Rector of such Church, if it then has a Rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese to which such Church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the Standing Committee, with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. * * * The petition of the Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church * * * shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

(3.) Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

To all to whom these Presents may Concern:

We, the undersigned, whose names and seals are affixed to this instrument, do hereby certify, that on the [Second] day of [June] in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and [ninety-five], the men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York worshipping in [the School House of School District Number (3) in the Town of Verona in the County of Oneida, in the State of New York,] not already incorporated, met at their usual place of worship aforesaid, for the purpose of incorporating themselves under the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An Act in relation to Religious Corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws, in pursuance of notice duly given specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof which had been publicly read in the time of morning service, on two Sundays next previous to such meeting, by * [the Rector] at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, and which was also posted in a conspicuous place on the outer door near the main entrance to such place of worship.

And we further certify that at such meeting, not less than six men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation aforesaid, and not already incorporated, and duly qualified to vote at such meeting, met for the purpose aforesaid.

And we further certify that † [the Rev. John Williams, the Rector of the said Church or Congregation] presided at the said meeting and received the votes.

And we further certify that the number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting was [three, six or nine]

And we further certify that at the said meeting the following persons were elected Churchwardens and Vestrymen, for the term of office set opposite their names respectively, by a majority of the votes of the persons present at the said meeting qualified to vote, viz.:

[William Smith.]	[SEAL.]

This certificate thus made out, and signed and sealed, must be duly acknowledged by the parties signing and sealing the same, before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgement, or proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate, to be recorded in the County where the Church or place of worship is situate.

Being thus signed, sealed and acknowledged, the certificate must be recorded by the Clerk of the County or by the officer whose duty it is, or may hereafter be made, to record such instruments in the County in which the Church is situate.

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(B)

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(1.) An Act for the Incorporation of Societies to Establish Free Churches. Passed April 30, 1854.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows :

Section 1. Any seven or more persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of them being residents of this State, who shall associate themselves for the purpose of founding and continuing one or more Free Churches, may make, sign and acknowledge, before any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds of land to be recorded in this State and may file in the office of the Secretary of State, and also of the Clerk of the County in which any such Church is to be established, a certificate in writing, in which shall be stated the name or title by which such society shall be known in the law, the purpose of its organization, and the names of seven trustees of whom not less than five shall be persons who are not Ministers of the Gospel, or priests of any denomination, to manage the same; but such certificate shall not be filed unless with the written consent and approbation of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the district in which any such Church shall be intended to be established, or in the city of New York, of a Judge of the Superior Court of the said city, to be indorsed on such certificate.

Sec. 2. Upon the filing of such certificate, the persons named therein as trustees and their successors, being citizens of the United States and residents of this State, shall be a body politic and corporate, with all the rights, powers and duties, and subject to all the restrictions and obligations and other provisions, so far as the same may be applicable and consistent with this act specified and contained in the act entitled "An Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies," passed April 12, 1848, and the act amending the same passed April 7, 1849, except that the limitation in the first of the said acts of the value of the real estate that may be held by any society in the city or county of New York, incorporated under this act, shall not be applicable to any Church edifice erected or owned by such society, or the lot of ground on which the same may be built, and except that the provision in the first of the said acts, in relation to the personal liability of the trustees, shall be applicable only to the trustees who shall have assented to the creation of any debt.

Sec. 3. Any vacancies occurring in the said Board of Trustees shall be supplied by the remaining trustees at any legal meeting of the members; but there shall always be at least five members of the Board who are not ministers of the Gospel or priests of any denomination.

Sec. 4. The seats or pews in every Church building or edifice owned or occupied by any corporation organized under this Act shall be forever free for the occupation and use during public worship, of all persons choosing to occupy the same, and conducting themselves with propriety; and no rent, charge or exaction shall ever be made or demanded for such occupation or use; nor shall any real estate belonging to such corporation be sold or mortgaged by the trustees thereof, unless by the direction of the Supreme Court, to be given in the same manner, and in the like cases, as provided by law in relation to religious corporations.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2.) Certificate of Incorporation of Free Churches.

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, male persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are residents of the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have associated ourselves together for the purpose of founding and continuing a Free Church in the City [or town] of——, State of New York that the name or title by which such society shall be known in law was determined to be the Free Church of the——, in the—— of——. That the purpose of its organization is the ministering of the Word and Sacraments according to the doctrines and worship and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. That the following are the names of seven trustees who are to manage the affairs of the said Church and body corporate, five of whom are not Ministers of the Gospel or Priests of any denomination, namely:

[Signed in duplicate by all, and to be acknowledged, not proved, and to be approved by a Judge of the Supreme Court of the district, and filed in the office of the County Clerk, and a duplicate in the office of the Secretary of State.]

Acts relating to the incorporation of the Trustees of the Episcopate, Parochial and Christmas Funds, and the Bible and Prayer Book Society may be found in any Journal of the Convention prior to 1896.

TESTIMONY FROM THE CONVENTION

OF THE

AS TO THE

Reverend CHARLES TYLER OLMSTED, S. T. D.

BISHOP COADJUTOR ELECT.

We, whose names are underwritten, fully sensible how important it is that the sacred office of a Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the REVEREND CHARLES TYLER OLMSTED, S. T. D., is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion or for viciousness in life; and that we do not know or believe there is any impediment on account of which he ought not to be consecrated to that Holy Office. We do, moreover, jointly and severally declare that we do, in our conscience, believe him to be of such sufficiency in good learning, such soundness in the faith, and of such virtuous and pure manners and godly conversation, that he is apt and meet to exercise the office of a Bishop to the honour of God and the edifying of His Church, and to be a wholesome example to the flock of Christ.

Acceptance of the Bishop Coadjutor Elect.

(E)

Acceptance of the Bishop Coadjutor Elect.

WILLIAMSTOWN, MASS.,

June 28th, 1902.

to the REV. JAS. K. PARKER,

*Secretary of the Convention of the

MY DEAR MR. PARKER: Permit me to acknowledge with thanks the receipt, at the hands of the Rev. Mr. Cooke, Assistant Secretary, of the official announcement of my election as Bishop Coadjutor of Central New York.

It is needless to say that I appreciate the high honor which the convention has conferred upon me; enhanced as it is by the fact that it comes from a Diocese in which I had the privilege to serve for fifteen years as Rector of a parish.

No one can be more conscious than I, of the truth of a statement recently made in one of the Syracuse journals, that it will be difficult to follow Bishop Huntington without emphasizing his superiority; and I have tried to find some good reason for avoiding such a result in my own person. But there is one Voice that sounds in my ears above all others "Go and surely I will be with thee!" and I can follow no other.

In the event, therefore, of the approval of my election by the Bishops and Standing Committees, I shall accept it, depending upon His grace and the loving cooperation of the Clergy and lay people of the Diocese to aid me in the arduous duties which shall be laid upon me.

Faithfully your brother in Christ,

CHAS. TYLER OLMSTED.

Certificate of Election

Reverend CHARLES TYLER OLMSTED, S. T. D.,

TO BE

Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Central New York.

This is to Certify that, the Bishop of Central New York having requested in writing, on the ground of his physical infirmity, that a Request for Consent.

Bishop Coadjutor be elected, and having in such request stated the duties which he would assign to the Bishop Coadjutor when duly elected and consecrated, the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Central New York assembled in Saint Paul's Church, Syracuse, on Tuesday the tenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, did unanimously elect the REVEREND CHARLES TYLER OLMSTED, S. T. D. to be Bishop Coadjutor of the said Diocese, in accordance with the Constitution of the Diocese, and the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

Request for Consent

TO THE CONSECRATION OF A BISHOP COADJUTOR FOR THE DIOCESE OF
CENTRAL NEW YORK.

TO THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE OF

The Church in the Diocese of Central New York is desirous of the Consecration of the REVEREND CHARLES TYLER OLMSTED, S. T. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the said Diocese; and the Standing Committee of the same by its President, hereby communicates the said desire, together with the evidence of the Election of the said Bishop Coadjutor-elect, and also a copy of the Canonical Testimonial in his case, and respectfully asks your consent to the proposed Consecration.

JOHN BRAINARD,

President of the Standing Committee.

Certificate of Consent of the Standing Committees.

Certificate of Consent of the Standing Committees.

I hereby certify that in response to a request from the Diocese of Central New York to the Standing Committees of the several Dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church, asking consent to the consecration of the Reverend Charles Tyler Olmsted, S. T. D., to the office of Bishop Coadjutor of said Diocese, such consent has been granted by the Standing Committees of the Dioceses underwritten as follows:

We, whose names are underwritten, fully sensible how important it is that the sacred office of a Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the Reverend CHARLES TYLER OLMSTED, S. T. D., is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion, or for viciousness of life; and that we do not know or believe there is any impediment, on account of which he ought not to be consecrated to that holy office, but that he hath, as we believe, led his life for three years last past piously, soberly, and honestly.

The Standing Committees consenting are those of the following Dioceses:

To the RIGHT REVEREND WILLIAM DAVID WALKER, D. D., LL. D., D. C. L., Bishop of Western New York,

Brethren Beloved in the Lord :

In accordance with the provisions of Title I, Canon 19, Section 3, [I] of the Digest of the Canons, I herewith communicate to you the testimonials of the Reverend CHARLES TYLER OLMSTED, D. D., Coadjutor Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Central New York. And I do further make request that you, associating with yourselves such other Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America as to you may seem good, will proceed to ordain and consecrate the said Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, D. D., Bishop-elect, at such time and place as to you may seem good, after consultation with the said Bishop-elect, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God, according to the "Form of Ordaining and Consecrating a Bishop," established and used in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

IN TESTIMONY of all which I have hereunto set my hand and caused my official seal to be affixed, at the City of Providence, in the State and Diocese of Rhode Island, this twelfth day of September, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and two.

THOMAS MARCH CLARK,
Presiding Bishop.

Certificate of Consecration.

Certificate of Consecration.

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

To all the Faithful in Christ Jesus Throughout the World, Greeting

Be it known unto you by these presents, that we, Frederic Da Huntington, D. D., LL. D., L. H. D., Bishop of Central New York; Henry Codman Potter, D. D., LL. D., D. C. L., Bishop of New York, and William David Walker, D. D., LL. D., D. C. L., Bishop of Western New York, assisted by the other Right Reverend Bishops whose names are hereto subscribed, under the protection of Almighty God, did, on Thursday, the second day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and two, in Grace Church, Utica, in the Diocese of Central New York, in the presence of a congregation of the Clergy and Laity, and according to the due and prescribed order of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and in conformity with the Canons thereof, ordain and consecrate our well beloved in Christ, the Reverend of whose sufficiency in good learning, soundness in the Faith, and purity of manners we were fully ascertained, into the sacred office of a Bishop in the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church of God, he having been duly chosen Bishop Coadjutor of Central New York.

Given under our hands and seals, in the City of Utica and State of New York, on the second day of October, A. D. 1902.

ATTENDING PRESBYTERS,

THE REV. SAMUEL HART, D. D., D. C. L.,

THE REV. PHILIP A. H. BROWN.

DEPUTY REGISTRAR,

THE REV. EDWARD HUNTINGTON COLEY.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES,

THE REV. WILLIAM COOKE.

On the day appointed for the Consecration, at eleven o'clock in the morning, a number of the Clergy and Laity assembled in the Chapel of Grace Church in the City of Utica.

The procession being formed, entered the Church while Hymns 491, "The Church's one foundation," and 493, "Oh! 'twas a joyful sound" were sung.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. Dr. Lockwood, the Rev. Dr. Eggar reading the Lessons.

The Introit was Hymn 288, "O, Spirit of the living God."

The Communion Service was begun by the Right Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, the Right Rev. the Bishop of New Hampshire reading the Epistle and the Right Rev. the Bishop of Colorado reading the Gospel. The Hymn before the sermon was No. 586, "Lord, speak to me that I may speak." The sermon was preached by the Right Rev. the Bishop of New York, from St. John xxi: 15,

The Consecration.

"Jesus saith to Simon Peter: Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these?"

The sermon being ended the Bishop Coadjutor-elect, vested in his rochet, was presented by the Bishops of New Hampshire and Nebraska to the Presiding Bishop, sitting in his chair near the Holy Table.

Upon demand of the Presiding Bishop for the testimonials of the Bishop Coadjutor-elect, the Rev. James K. Parker, Secretary of the Diocese of Central New York, presented and read the testimonials of the Convention of the Diocese, signed by a canonical majority of the Clergy and Lay Delegates.

The Rev. E. H. Coley, Deputy Registrar, read the Certificate of Election by the Diocese.

The Rev. John Brainard, D. D., President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, read the Canonical Form of the Consent of a Standing Committee, and testified that he presented the Consents in the words of the said Form of a majority of the Standing Committees of the Dioceses in the United States.

The Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., Secretary of the House of Bishops, read the Certificate of the Presiding Bishop of the House of Bishops that a majority of the Bishops had consented to the Consecration.

The Rev. W. W. Bellinger, D. D., read the Commission to consecrate issued by the Presiding Bishop of the House of Bishops.

The Bishop Coadjutor-elect then pronounced the required Promise of Conformity.

The Presiding Bishop read the invocation to Prayer, and the Right Rev. the Bishop of Ohio said the Litany.

The Presiding Bishop having examined the Bishop Coadjutor elect, the Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., and the Rev. Philip A. H. Brown the attending Presbyters vested him with the rest of the Episcopal habit.

The Bishop Coadjutor-elect kneeling down the Veni Creator Spiritus was sung over him, the Bishop of Western New York leading, the Bishops and Clergy answering by verses.

After Prayer the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Central New York, Presiding Bishop and the other Bishops present—The Right Rev. the Bishop of New York, the Right Rev. the Bishop of Western New York, the Right Rev. the Bishop of New Hampshire, the Right Rev. the Bishop of Nebraska, the Right Rev. the Bishop of Ohio, and the Right Rev. the Bishop of Colorado, laid their hands upon the head of the elected Bishop kneeling before them, the Presiding Bishop saying:

“Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. And remember that thou stir up the grace of God, which is given thee by this Imposition of our hands; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and sobriety.”

The Presiding Bishop then delivered the Bible to the newly Consecrated Bishop after which he was received within the Chancel and took his place among the other Bishops.

The Presiding Bishop then proceeded to celebrate the Holy Communion. While the alms were being taken the following Anthem was sung.

“O send out Thy light and Thy truth, that they may lead me and bring me into Thy holy hill and to Thy dwelling, and that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and my gladness.”

The Presiding Bishop was assisted in the distribution of the elements by the Right Rev. the Bishop of Western New York, and the Right Rev. the Bishop Coadjutor of Central New York.

The concluding Collect was said, and the Blessing of Peace was pronounced by the Presiding Bishop.

As the procession returned to the Chapel, Hymn 404. “I heard a sound of Voices,” and Hymn 412, “The King of love my Shepherd is,” were sung.

THE SERMON

Preached in Grace Church, Utica, at the Consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor of Central New York,

Oct. 2, 1902.

By the RIGHT REV. HENRY C. POTTER,

BISHOP OF NEW YORK.

Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me more than these ? —St. John xxi : 15.

There is a fine discernment in the distinction, as Sadler I think it is who makes it, between the official disclosures of Jesus after His resurrection, and that other, here, which is personal. Before, as we have accounts in this same Gospel, the Master had shown Himself to His disciples, and had spoken to them ; nay, had breathed on them ; and there is no reason to doubt that on one, at least, of these occasions the Apostle St. Peter had been present. But here the occasion was quite different, and it was utterly informal. Indeed in its tender and informal note it has hardly its match anywhere in St. John's whole story. The disciples have gone back to their old calling, and Peter has recovered his old self-confidence. "There were together," the story runs, "Simon Peter, and Thomas, Nathaniel of Cana, the sons of Zebedee and two others." With a rare and habitual modesty, you see, St. John does not name himself. "Simon Peter saith unto them, 'I go a fishing.' " It is as though he said, "What is the use of idling here ? Come, let us do something. I am going back to the task and business in which I am no novice." And the others,—not leaders but followers,—without his initiative, whatever else that he had not they had, at once respond, "We also go with thee." And then the rest of the scene,—was there ever anything like it for exquisite pathos and simplicity? They toil all night and take nothing. The morning breaks; and behold, someone is standing on the shore and calling to them: "Children," children,—word of infinite tenderness and love,—“have ye any meat? Cast the net on the right side of the ship.” In desperation they heed that distant bidding, and draw their net:—or rather, “are not able to draw it for the multitude of the fishes.” And then I think here is struck the most dramatic and pathetic note of all! Who was the stranger who knew their fisher’s art so much better than they themselves did? None of them can identify him, until one who describes himself as “that disciple whom Jesus loved,” exclaims, “It is—it is the Lord!” A quality surer than vision, more penetrating than insight,—more unerring than cleverness, had discerned and recognized one to whom his heart went out with inextinguishable homage and devotion, and Jesus is discovered, so to speak, by St. John.

And then there follows the scene upon the shore,—the fire, the fish upon the coals, the fishermen and Him who so lately had been their Master, and the absolute unreserve of all the talk. I recall it in this detail, because without taking note of that, we cannot, I think, understand it. It is impossible to read it all without seeing that Jesus is striving to win from one whose great gifts and altogether exceptional powers as a leader he unquestionably recognized, some expression that would be without the note of extravagance or exaggeration. “And when they had dined Jesus said,”—and so on. The man whom He interrogates must be, for the moment at any rate, plagued by no physical wants, restless with no consciousness of exhaustion or craving for food:—at ease; in repose; and capable of thinking and speaking with deliberation.

The Sermon.

And then comes that searching question, "Simon, of Jonas, lovest thou Me more than these?" I confess I have been amazed at the often and apparently easy misapprehension of those words, "more than these." They are very commonly read as though Jesus were asking Peter if his (Peter's) love to Him (Christ) was greater than (Peter's) love for his brethren, who were there with him. On the contrary, I think there can be no doubt that the words are a rebuke; and that their sting lay in the fact that they recalled protestations which had been followed by the worst perfidy, as when St. Peter had said, "Lord, though I should be offended in Thee, yet will not I!" And then had followed those vehement boasts of his superior and solitary loyalty with equally impassioned denials. "Then Peter began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man." And when Jesus meets His disciple for the first time, informs him, and speaks to him unreservedly, He gently but clearly rebukes his boasts of a devotion which never flowered with sincerity, and comparisons with others' fidelity which were soon discredited by a supreme baseness.

All this seems, verily, far enough away, from such an occasion as this, and such antecedents as those which surround us here (for I want to honor as it deserves the cheerful surrender which brings our brother-elect to this office), yet there is one note in it which has a very close relation to this occasion, and which is not unworthy of our recognition. St. Peter was more than once cowardly, but he was not essentially dishonest. When he cries, "Yea, Lord, though all men should be offended in thee yet will not I," it is no swagger, it is the utterance of a profound conviction. When other men run away, he means, even if left quite alone, I will stay behind, and to show the world what a true disciple I ought to be!

There is a resemblance here, men and brethren tween the new and untried disciple and the new and untried Bishop of profound significance and of wide and prevalent frequency. It has often occurred to me to wonder what would be the outcome if we could get the presbyters and deacons to outline for us, not their ideas of the Bishop's office and work, but their ideals. It would be still more interesting if, before he entered upon his office, we could persuade one who had been chosen to the office of a Bishop to tell us what kind of a Bishop he proposed to be. Of one thing I can assure you with absolute certainty. His portraiture of the ideal Bishop would be,—as indeed it ought to be,—absolutely unlike the career and character of any Bishop whom he ever knew,—which indeed is only another way of saying, what ought, also, to be forever true, that one's ideal of an office or a calling is higher and more resplendent than any realization of it which one has ever known.

But I have not yet reached the point at which I am aiming, and which I regard as pre-eminently pertinent to the service of this day. When St. Peter says "If all shall be offended in thee, yet will I never be offended," I do not understand him to be pluming himself so much upon his courage as upon his discernment. He could recognize his Master, if others could not, and once he had done that, there could be no doubt about his line of action.

Well, is not this the tone of the novice, always? There are a great many men who have no ambition to wear a Bishop's honors or to bear a Bishop's burdens. But they would like to exercise, his office for a little while, just to show those whose it is, how it ought to be administered. "If I were a Bishop I would stop this; I would enjoin that. I would compel obedience to this rubric, and waive compliance with that." In other words, my brother, my sister, presbyter, deacon, layman, laywoman, whoever you are who are so fond of saying this, you would administer the Episcopal office paternally. Well, the office of the Episcopate is a paternal office, and the Church may well pray God that the paternal note may never disappear out of it. When I was first consecrated I remember very well how startled I was to be addressed, both in letters and in word of mouth, by a dear and honored priest now gone to his reward, I mean the Rev. Dr. John Henry Hobart, son of that great Bishop, the lustre of whose deeds still lingers in this diocese of Central New York, in which and as its Bishop when it was a part of the mother diocese he ministered, as "dear and right reverend father." Dr. Hobart was old enough to be my father, and I looked up to him with unmixed reverence and love, but I could never persuade him to drop that form of speech which, as he said, expressed to him a very precious and sacred attribute of the Episcopate. It does! Forever it ought to! The Bishop who cannot go to his clergy and people in the paternal spirit, had better not go at all!

And yet, when this is said, all is not said, nor as I cannot but feel very keenly, no single word of that which greatly needs to be said. When we are criticizing Bishops and complaining that they do not do this, or stop that or say the other, we are, oftener than otherwise, talking or writing in utter forgetfulness of the limitations under which they are constrained to act. Yes, the Episcopal office is a paternal office—first and most. But it is a constitutional office as well; and our brother, here, soon to be consecrated, is called to be a Bishop whose powers are bounded and limited, conditioned and qualified at every turn, by certain canonical provisions which he may, indeed, despise, but which he cannot disregard. Presently we shall hear him take the Oath of Conformity. Do you remember how it runs? "In the name of God, Amen. I, Charles Tyler Olmsted, chosen Bishop Coadjutor of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York, do promise conformity and obedience to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." Do we know what that means? Do the brethren of the laity who are very fond of saying that the Bishop ought to do this, or that, or the other thing that, as the church is at present constituted, the Bishop cannot do unless they themselves,—the laity together with some other or others,—will first initiate the process, which must be a canonical process and which is alone competent in the premises? I am not now raising or discussing the question whether or no the constitution of the church, which ordinarily restrains the Bishop from acting otherwise than by canonical process, is right and wise,—though as to that I have not myself the smallest doubt; but I am simply endeavoring to make you recognize the fact that this our brother is coming this morning to this high office in limine. In the first place, he is to be a Bishop Coadjutor, and the policy of this diocese must continue to be determined by him who is its diocesan head, and who, during all these years, has ruled with such rare wisdom and tenderness.

But even if he were not an element, or if, at some future time,—long may it be distant,—he should see fit to make an assignment of all his powers to his Coadjutor that Coadjutor cannot toss the canon law of the church, whether in the digest or in the constitution and canons of this diocese, over the wall and say, "Now I am going to show the American Church how a diocese ought to be governed and administered!" From the moment that he takes the oath that I have recited he will be under the law, with all the rest of us; and when I use that phrase I do not mean all the rest of us Bishops merely, but the whole Church and all its members and officers. There is a fine lesson for the Episcopate in that soldier and commander of the Gospels who says: "I am a man under authority, and I say to this man, go, and he goeth." [St. Matthew, viii:9.] and the rest. That is an ideal statement of the relations of authority to service; and it is significant that the greatest empire that the sun has ever shone upon so early recognized it. Rome's leaders were chosen because they were willing to be Rome's servants: and constitutional government, whether in the state or in the church, early learned to say, "I am a man under authority."

I am saying all this because the times make it necessary that I should say it. We have witnessed the growth—rapid, impassioned and extravagant, sometimes—all over the face of the earth of the idea of constitutional government, and if you wish to see how rapidly it has grown in the church I advise you to trace the story of that growth, as it is recorded in the journals of our diocesan and general conventions. It is here, as it is in the wider realms of civic affairs, where there still survives the curious expectation that you may make men virtuous—or generous, or anything else—by law. Some day I wish we might discover some curious and patient priest or layman who would unearth for us, e. g., the history and, above all the efficacy of canons compulsory, imposing, e. g., upon parishes the obligation of making particular collections. There is not a priest within the sound of my voice at this moment who does not know that it is the habit of the reverend clergy to brush aside the demands of such canons as if they were so many impertinent mosquitoes! I did so when I was a parish rector, habitually, and I don't believe, brethren, that the majority of you, in this particular, are any more obedient than I was.

Well, what is the significance of such a fact? That we must deride and disobey all law? Nay, but that we may easily have too much of it; and that if you would have a Bishop act with promptness, decision and independence you must take care how you tie him up too much with canonical restrictions.

I cannot permit myself to say this, however, without adding straightway that I do not think that has been the tendency of the church in its canonical enactments with reference to Bishops. On the whole, I think it must be owned that, e. g., in the House of Deputies of the general convention there has been, as a rule, a very filial disposition to recognize the paternal relation of a Bishop to his flock, and to protect him in the exercise of it. But, alas, Bishops are not angels, though there is primitive warrant for calling them so, and it is not surprising that people who are living their secular lives under a constitutional government should feel constrained, sometimes, to invoke its protection in matters of ecclesiastical government when they find Episcopal authority exercised imperiously or intolerantly.

But the fact which, thus far, I have labored to bring out, and which on such a day as this we may well look frankly in the face—the fact, I mean, that, after all, a Bishop does not rule or serve independently of canonical obligations which are common to him, to his clergy, and to all the people—this fact is not the whole case, nor indeed the most precious part of it. It is a very significant feature of the incident from which I have taken my text, that though Jesus addresses St. Peter with a challenge which involves a comparison, Simon Peter declines that comparison altogether. “Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these?” asks Christ, and all the answer that He can draw from Simon Peter is, “Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love Thee.” And again, “Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love Thee,” and finally, “Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love Thee." St. Peter had no longer the audacity to institute comparisons, but he knew his own heart, and he knew—for that I think is the thing of pre-eminent significance in the whole interview—that love could unerringly translate itself, so that, whatever other spell a man might strive to serve with, that would make itself intelligible, first, to Him who knoweth all things; and then to the least of His children.

It is this, men and brethren, that must be our snpreme strength whenever we take up any great task for Christ. I cannot imagine one's coming to such tasks as that to which we are soon to set apart our brother, without shrinking and dismay. As one looks down the long bederoll which makes up the succes-ion in our American church he comes, over and again, and again, upon names which have, in their story, a note of august achievement. "Am I to strive to be like such an one, or such an one?" asks the young and untried Bishop as he scans the portrait gallery of these illustrious worthies? Nay, my brother, there is no one of them who is worthy of your imitation, so long, at any rate, as there lives Another "whose they were and whom they served." And the thing of most profound import to you and me, men and brethren, is the method which, in dealing with St. Peter and others who erred. He, the chief Shepherd and Bishop of our souls, pursued. There fell into my hand, the other day, a "Manual for Confessors," recommended I grieve to say, by persons in the Orders of the Church whose sons we are. I have no intention, here, of dwelling upon its characteristics, which had in them every trait of vicious and mischievous suggestion, but this question persistently recurred to me: Jesus dealt with all sorts of sinful people, and, as in the case of Simon Peter, with those whose perfidy had in it an especial and utter infamy, and in all His dealing there is just one note! We have it here in this case of His recreant disciple, and how He rings the changes on it! Ours is an age which, day by day, makes more and more of culture. Sin, we are told, is only a form of ignorance; as though the people whose culture was the most splendid and the most acute,—I mean the Greeks—had not been the most infamous! And then we turn back to the Cross of Christ, and touch there the mightiest spell of all! Something there, there is, which finds its potentially quite apart from learning or acquired graces, and something there, which, after all, was far the largest part of the power of the Sin of Man.

Nothing can take the place of it, in the life of the Church to-day, and, mechanicalized, as we seem to be in danger of becoming, some new piece of machinery appealing every day to the individual rector or Sunday school worker, I am not sure but that the Episcopate exists, quite as much as for anything else, to bring back to men's minds the image of Christ, by bringing back to them His call for love. We have changed many things, as we believe for the better, in this modern life of ours; but I am not sure that the tendency of many of our changes has not been to isolate the pastor from the people. There are very few rectors in this church this morning who will care to contradict the statement that the ordinary experience of the commencement of a pastorate or rectorship may be described as a "state of armed neutrality." The people are "sizing up" the parson, and making up their minds whether they are going to like or dislike him;—and meantime are treating him accordingly! And there are other instances where the relation of pastor and people is no longer a recent one, but where some painful and costly fidelity on the part of a pastor has earned him the dislike and antagonism of ungodly people. And yet, again, there is that commonest of all situations where the Bishop on his Visitation finds the "love of some grown cold," and a brilliant newcomer in a neighboring tabernacle drawing away the sensation-loving element in the congregation. It is situations such as these, I think, which are the great opportunities for a Bishop, and which courage and tenderness may wisely improve. The priest's lonely lot may wear another aspect, when he who is both Father and Brother comes near and touches and recognizes it! I am, myself, the son of a Bishop, and shall I say that I most revere his memory for his great intellect and his wide learning? No; it is rather because, whenever I go back to that great commonwealth of the whole of which he was once chief pastor, it is, though he has now been dead nearly forty years, to hear some fresh tale from priest or layman of talks which they had with him, long ago, on the road, on the street, on a train; and through which shone neither authority nor learning, but brotherhood! Ah, to see men's faces shining when you come and clouded when you go, believe me, men and brethren, this, for a Bishop, is the best reward of all! I have known Bishops who were good and godly men, doubtless, but whose coming to any parish was anticipated with dismay, even as their departure was hailed with joy! And yet never in the history of this land was there so rare an opportunity for the Episcopate as to-day! The Reformation, in breaking away from prelatical authority, went often to lengths which none deplore to-day more unreservedly than some of the wisest and best of those who are afflicted by its consequences; and an ecclesiastical government which has wholly eliminated the paternal idea may have gained more freedom, but it has entirely lost some other things which are more precious. It is impossible to follow the history of the founding of the church, and not own that the personal element in it was first and paramount. When St. Paul is chiding those, some of whom were "of Paul and some of Apollos and some of Cephas," it is impossible to read his words, and fail to see that he is striving to lead the thought of those to whom he writes up, through their devotion to particular early leaders, to the one Divine Leader! And when the church passes out of her earlier and fluid life into one that is at once more organized and more stable, there is, as Dr. Schaff, himself a Lutheran teacher and scholar, has pointed out,—no abrupt transition, no novel intrusion, but a natural and normal progress to the Episcopate of to-day. It is such a fact, I cannot but think, which lifts the office into its most august light, and makes the Bishop all men's servant, because, first, he is all men's father.

The Sermon.

At any rate, it ought not be hard to realize such a conception of the Episcopate here. It was my rare privilege, being then myself a young presbyter of the mother Diocese, to be present at the consecration of the first Bishop of this. A little while before he had been at work in Emmanuel Church in Boston, and I beside him in old Trinity. I was at that time secretary of the House of Bishops, and it was my official duty, as in charge of the testimonials of that body (as is Dr. Hart to-day), to be present at that service. I am sure that I shall never forget it; and that in it, which most impressed me was the obvious sense, apparent in all his speech and bearing, on the part of the Bishop-elect, of the vast burden that he was taking up. His presence here this morning restrains me from saying how nobly I think he has borne it; but even that shall not deprive me of the privilege of saying how true a father he has been to all his clergy and to all his flock in this great Diocese. Central New York was not early possessed by the Church whose sons and daughters we are; and when the Church came here, it is no disparagement to others to say that they looked at it as something of an intruder. That it brought much that other Christian bodies have not, and that, as time has gone on, the defects of these became more and more apparent, would have counted for little had it not been that as he who was the chief representative of the Church in this Diocese went to and fro on his official errands it became apparent that he stood for great ideals, and that it was as a Spiritual Force, incarnating the mind and heart of Jesus Christ, that he would fain promote its growth.

I do not wonder, my dear brother, that when bidden to come and stand beside him as his Coadjutor, you should have hesitated to do so. That was a characteristic incident that you related, when the other day in the New York Churchmen's Association, you told us of the letter to you from the venerable presiding Bishop in which he recalled the visit which, years ago, he and the late Dr. Francis Vinton had together made to Emmanuel Church, Boston, of which the Rev. Frederic Dan Huntington was then the Rector, and how Dr. Clark, as he and Dr. Vinton at the close of the service were walking away together, said, "Dr. Vinton, don't you wish that you and I could preach like that?"

Well, the rest of us, my brother, cannot do that; but we can make an Episcopate great by the love that shines through it. I recall with singular vividness the morning when, nearly twenty years ago, you came to me as to your Bishop, with a call from Grace Church, Utica, in your hands. You were then a Junior Assistant Minister in Trinity Parish, New York City, and you spoke frankly of the limitations of your work. I told you to go to Utica, you remember, and now they have called you back to serve Utica and all the rest. Your experience here, the warm place that, long ago, you won in the hearts of this people, and, added to this, the enlargement of your horizon as the Vicar of St. Agnes' Chapel in New York, have well fitted you, in my judgment, for the tasks that are before you; and you are bringing, as I know, to the Diocese of Central New York, a single and entire consecration of all your powers to the great work before you.

The Sermon.

May God give you the hearts of all your flock, and, day by day, strength for all your burdens. Those have been various, and some of them most difficult, which you have just laid down; and we of the mother diocese who are now to lose you, know well how grave and perplexing some of them have been. But you have borne them with a singular and beautiful courage and simplicity, and we who love you and, are now to surrender you, can ask no better thing for you or Central New York than that you shall give yourself to your new office and your wider work in the same unfaltering temper. May He who loved you and gave Himself for you show you how, in love and sacrifice for Him and them, to serve the flock to which, now, His voice is calling you!

JOURNAL.

FIRST DAY.

ZION CHURCH, ROME,)
Tuesday, June 14, 1904.)

This being the day appointed for the meeting of the Thirty-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Central New York, the Right Rev. Frederic D. Huntington, S. T. D., LL. D., L. H. D., Bishop of the Diocese; The Rev. Charles T. Olmsted, S. T. D., D. C. L., Bishop Coadjutor, and a number of the Clergy and Laity, assembled in Zion Church in the city of Rome at 4:30 o'clock P. M.

Evening Prayer was said by the Rev. D. C. Huntington and the Rev. J. H. Stirling. At the conclusion of Divine Service, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The Secretary called the roll of the clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, when seventy-five answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 20)

The credentials of Lay Delegates were presented and referred to a committee consisting of the Rev. J. R. Harding, Mr. Clarence L. Parker and the Secretaries.

On the Report of the Committee on Credentials the roll was called, when forty delegates, representing twenty-seven parishes, answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 21.)

Election of Secretary.

A quorum of the Clergy and Lay Delegates being present, the Right Reverend, the President, declared the Convention to be duly organized and ready for business.

The Convention proceeded to the election of a Secretary, when, on motion, the vote by ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. James K. Parker was chosen.

On nomination of the Secretary, the Rev. William Cooke was appointed Assistant Secretary.

The Rev. J. R. Harding, from the Committee on the Credentials of Lay Delegates, reported that several of the Parishes presenting Certificates were in arrears in their payment to the General Fund.

On motion the Delegates from five of these Parishes were admitted to seats in the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Casey, it was

Resolved. That all Clergy of this Church, and of any Church in communion with this Church, not canonically resident in this Diocese, and also Candidates for Holy Orders, and Representatives of missionary stations, who may be present, be admitted to honorary seats in the Convention.

Under this resolution there were present the Rev. G. W. McMullen of the Diocese of Long Island, the Rev. H. Van Allen of the Diocese of Albany and Mr. H. W. Foreman a Candidate for Holy Orders.

The Chair appointed the following Committees :

On the Admission of Churches into Union with the Convention—The Clergy Invited to Seats.

Rev. W. W. Bellinger, D. D., Messrs. H. B. Hubbard and G. T. Jack.

On Unfinished Business—The Rev. G. A. Shaw, Messrs. W. D. Dunning and J. D. Barrow.

On the Report of the Missionary Board—The Rev. E. H. Coley, Messrs. E. C. Delevan and Wm. M. Storrs.

On the Report of the Bible and Prayer Book Society—The Rev. E. W. Saphoré and Mr. Oliver Watson.

The Chair appointed the following :

STANDING COMMITTEE.

On the Constitution and Canons and Rules of Order—The Rev. G. H. McKnight, D. D., the Rev. R. M. Duff, S. T. D., the Rev. W. D. L. Wilson, Messrs. Chas. Andrews and A. C. Cox.

On motion, an adjournment took place until 7:30 o'clock this evening.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7:30 o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop-Coadjutor in the chair.

On nomination of the Secretary, Mr. F. L. Lyman was appointed Second Assistant Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Duff offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That if Christ Church, Clayton, will agree to pay its assessment for the General Fund for the past year, at this Convention, the Delegates be admitted into Union with the Convention.

Mr. W. D. Dunning read the Report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese (See Appendix I, A.)

The Secretary read the following Communications:

Communications.

DIOCESAN OFFICE,
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN. October 1, 1902.

To the Secretary of the Diocese of Central New York

DEAR SIR:—I hereby beg to inform you officially that at the recent Annual Council of the Diocese of Milwaukee, held at the Cathedral, Milwaukee, September 16th 17th, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz.:

"Whereas, Recent events that have been widely published and discussed in the public press, have illustrated anew the grave evils resulting from the neglect in this Church to make canonical provision for extra-diocesan Courts of Appeals in cases of the trial of a clergyman; a neglect that renders both the minister who may be defendant, and the Bishop who may act as trial judge or may pronounce sentence after trial, liable to the gravest injustice or suspicion of injustice, by reason of the impossibility of granting or receiving a new trial upon appeal to a higher court; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Diocese of Milwaukee, which has happily been free from any instances of the trial of any of her clergy for a long term of years, earnestly petitions General Convention to grant some form of relief, by provision for extra-diocesan Courts of Appeals, for the protection alike of the Bishops and the other clergy of this Church; and

"Resolved, further, that such relief can, in the opinion of this Diocese, be most satisfactorily effected by means of a wise provision for the grouping of Dioceses and Missionary Districts together in a Provincial System designed to embrace the whole country, by due provision of Canon, according to the terms of Article VII. of the Constitution; and

"Resolved, That the Secretary of the Council be and is hereby instructed to communicate this action to the Secretaries of the several Diocesan Councils, Conventions, and Synods of the Church in this country, with the request that it be brought to the attention of each of the said Diocesan bodies; and that this Diocese earnestly requests the co-operation of each of such bodies, if it shall seem good to any of them, in presenting to the General Convention of 1904 a body of petitions from every Diocese embodying the preamble and the first or the first and second of these resolutions, or others of like import, at their own discretion, to the end that the mind of the Church at large on this important and pressing matter may be distinctly shown; and this Diocese would appreciate the courtesy of any other Diocese that would inform their Secretary what action, if any, might be taken therein under this invitation. '

In obedience to this resolution, I respectfully request you to bring this communication to the attention of your Diocese (or Missionary District), at its next conciliar meeting, and will greatly appreciate the courtesy if you will inform me what action, if any, is taken in respect thereto, and under this invitation.

Very faithfully,

C. B. BERGIN WRIGHT,

Secretary of the Diocese of Milwaukee.

The Secretary of the Diocese of Central New York :

I desire to inform you officially that at the recent Convention of the Diocese of California, holden in Grace Church, San Francisco, January 28, 1904, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted :

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTION.

Whereas, There is a growing sentiment throughout the Church in favor of the use of the Revised Version of the Bible in public worship; and

Whereas, The Marginal Readings Bible authorized by the General Convention in 1901 has emphasized but not fully satisfied this sentiment; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of California hereby petitions the General Convention to take such action as may be necessary to permit the use of the Revised Version in the lessons in Morning and Evening Prayer.

I respectfully request you to bring this communication to the attention of your Diocese (or Missionary District), at its next conciliar meeting, and will greatly appreciate the courtesy if you will inform me what action, if any, is taken in respect thereto, and under this invitation.

Very sincerely,

MARDON D. WILSON.

Secretary Convention Diocese of California.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Brainard it was resolved that the above communications be referred to the committee on the Constitution and Canons.

The Treasurer of the Diocese read his annual report. (See Appendix I, D)

Mr. Seymour H. Stone offered the following amendment to Canon XI:

Resolved. First, That Canon XI be amended by substituting in the first line, of Section 1, for the nine words following the phrase —to provide for— these six words, viz: the necessary expenses of the Diocese; and also change the word "General" to "Diocesan" in the third line of Section 4, and in the caption of the Canon.

Second, That the phrase "General Fund of the Diocese," which occurs in the ninth line, Section 2, Canon II, be also changed to "Diocesan Fund;" and Third, That the word "Diocesan" be substituted for the word "General" in the last line Canon XXI.

The Rev. Dr. Duff offered the following amendment to the above proposed amendment, which was adopted:

Resolved. That the resolution offered by the Treasurer of the Diocese, touching certain changes in the Canon of the General Fund, be approved and that the word "expense" precede the word "fund" wherever it occurs.

A vote being taken on the proposed amendment to Canon XI as amended; it was carried by a Constitutional majority Bishop's Address—Election of Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

The Bishop read his Annual Address.

The Convention proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The Chair appointed as tellers to receive the votes of the Clergy: The Rev. Jesse Higgins and Dr. C. E. Chase, and to receive the votes of Laity, Mr. F. L. Lyman and the Rev. E. W. Saphore.

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger, from the committee on the Admission of Churches into Union with the Convention, presented the following report; which was adopted:

REPORT.

The Committee on the Admission of Churches into Union with the Convention reports that it has received a petition from the Congregation of St. Joseph's church at Rome, N. Y., asking to be admitted into Union with the Convention. Annexed to the said petition are the Documents required by Canon IV, "of the Admission of a Church into union with the Church in this Diocese." Your committee having examined the said documents and finding them canonically correct, therefore, respectfully recommends that St. Joseph's Church at Rome, N. Y., be admitted into Union with the Church in this Diocese of Central New York.

W. W. BELLINGER,

H. B. HUBBARD,

GEO. T. JACK.

On the name of the Parish being called by the Secretary the certificate of lay delegates was presented and referred to the Committee on Credentials.

Mr. C. W. Andrews read the report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund. (See Appendix I, G.)

On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for Mr. Chas. W. Andrews, Mr. Louis Krumbhaar and Mr. Hiram P. Bellinger, as Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

The Rev. Dr. McKnight, from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, presented the following report which, on motion, was adopted :

REPORT.

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons, having considered the resolution of Mr. A. H. Sawyer, offered at the last convention, suggesting that the Diocese of Central New York be incorporated under the "Religious Corporations Law," are of the opinion that such an incorporation is desirable; and recommend that a special committee of five persons be appointed to carry the same into effect, if, in the opinion of the committee, there are no legal objections to such incorporation. For that committee they propose the following names: Mr. A. H. Sawyer of Watertown, Mr. Chas. Andrews of Syracuse, Mr. Thos. R. Proctor of Utica, Mr. H. V. Bostwick of Ithaca and Mr. E. C. Delevan of Binghamton, and that the persons here named act as Trustees of the Diocese.

Mr. E. C. Delevan offered the following amendment to Canon XXI, which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons :

Resolved, That Canon XXI be amended by striking out the following words from the third and fourth lines, "and who is in need of assistance."

The Rev. Dr. McKnight offered the following resolution, which, on motion, was laid on the table :

Resolved, That a committee of three clergymen and two laymen be appointed to consider the expediency of merging the vested funds of the Diocese for the aged and disabled clergy, and the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen in the "General Clergy Relief Fund," and also directing all contributions for these objects to the same society, excepting the annual pension voted to the clergy who have reached the age of sixty-five years and have been for twenty-five years in the active service of the ministry of this Diocese.

The Tellers presented their Report, from which it appeared that the following named persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and they were therefore declared duly elected:

Standing Committee—Amendment to Constitution.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Rev. John Brainard, D. D.,	Mr. Azariah H. Sawyer,
The Rev. Henry R. Lockwood, S.T.D.,	Mr. John R. Van Wageningen,
The Rev. Theodore Babcock, D. D.,	Mr. George T. Jack,
The Rev. John R. Harding,	Mr. William D. Dunning.

The Rev. W. B. Clarke offered the following amendment to Article III of the Constitution, which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Article III of the Constitution be amended so that the first section shall read as follows: The members of any Convention shall be the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and all Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese, not under discipline, and lay delegates from the several Parishes, provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop, unless he has been canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

Resolved, That Section 2 be omitted and that Sections 3, 4 and 5 be numbered consecutively 2, 3 and 4

The Convention then, on motion, adjourned until nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

SECOND DAY.

WEDNESDAY, June 15, 1904.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment at nine o'clock A. M. Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. P. T. Olton, the Rev. R. M. Church and the Rev. Dr. Brainard, the Rev. Thomas Stafford reading the Litany.

The Bishop's Address

To the Thirty-Sixth Annual Convention.

The circuit of our year as a Diocese brings an occasion for fresh gratulation and admonition.

In statistics, I have confirmed 155 persons, the Bishop Coadjutor having confirmed 844, and the Bishop of Central Pennsylvania 3. Robert Mackie Hogarth has been made a Postulant; George C. Richmond, George H. Kirkland, Allen Grant Wilson and A. A. S. Moore have been transferred to other Dioceses; Ransom Moore Church, Douglas Matthews, Percy C. Olton, W. W. Raymond, Ernest Melville, A. R. B. Hegeman, A. H. Ormsbee and Thomas Duck have been received and J. H. Stirling has been ordained Priest and placed in charge. Frederick T. Henstridge and Wilson Edward Tanner were admitted to the Priesthood December 22, 1903. I have married one couple and baptized one infant.

The Diocese, like a parish or a family, may have other losses than that by public dishonor or by death. What we have much to deplore is a lack of a religious vitality, devotion and zeal proportioned to our privileges and our general prosperity. While humbly thankful that we have been spared distressing calamities, like defections from the historic faith, we must not forget that there are failures, inconsistencies, short-comings, to be acknowledged.

Calling to mind the fact that we stand with the best minds of the best thinkers and students, both of the Hebrew monotheism and Gentile speculation, we see that in the Church, we are in the midst of a ceaseless conflict between the divine and the human, between the natural and the spiritual, between what God made man to be and what man has made himself to be, and that we are as individuals responsible for the issue of the struggle. By any mental measurement, all the intellectual subtleties of the Athenian and Alexandrian philosophy were over-matched by a Nazarine carpenter and two fishermen on the banks of the Jordan and the Lake of Galilee with a tent-maker from Tarsus. The voice from the Mount of Olives and the Cross at Calvary sounds unaltered from age to age, and we have heard it, and we believe it. Even the wisest of the Neo-Platonists were responsible for the paradox, "This world is the best of all possible worlds and everything in it is a necessary evil," and neither Pantheism nor all the Dualism from the early Greeks to St. Paul has been able to reconcile that contradiction. It is most impressive and most pathetic to see nevertheless in history how the inwrought idea of a "Something," a power and a presence, beyond all mortal forces or phenomena has survived in spite of all theological theories and systems. By a few simple New Testament affirmations our foothold is established and our place made secure; "I came forth from God and am come into the world;" "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone, but if it die it bringeth forth much fruit;" "This is life eternal to know Thee the only true God and Jesus Christ whom Thou has sent;" "My doctrine is not mine but His that sent me;" "I and my Father are one."

At the return of our yearly Convention it is perhaps as natural to look backward as to look forward. To distinguish in the affairs of our Diocese—that which is permanent, or liable, only to slight changes, from what is shifting and temporary, is not easy ; nor is it very important. What is important is that we become, year by year, as our own lives and the Church-life of which we are a part run on, more settled, determined, and sure, in the truths which as Churchmen we hold, and in our conviction of their reality and their unalterable certainty. So swift and extraordinary is the whole scene in which we live, so mixed are the events, the changes, the discoveries, the novelties, all around us, that we have to stop and consider what this line of partition is between the transient phenomena and the abiding substance, in our religious inheritance. The very rapidity of the movement becomes a kind of fascination. Men come to think and speak of novelty as a positive good in itself, something to exult in and be proud of, apart from the intrinsic value of the new thing, the new custom, the new invention, the new "idea." The time was when observing and reflecting minds counted a period of quiet, of uniformity, and fixed conditions, a boon and a blessing. Now people are a little ashamed of it and apologize for it. They ask first, "What is the news?" As between the stationary and the unstable they want to know "what is going on."

In the Faith and practice of the Church, within our remembrance, men of our Communion presented it as one of its claims and advantages that it would always be found the same, in distinction from the Christian Bodies prevailing around it. At present it is not very uncommon to hear this Church commended as "progressive," "up to date," open to the influence of the age. It was lately pointed out that Bishop De Lancey deprecated the incipient disposition to distract the unity of the Household with societies, leagues, clubs, sodalities, numberless combinations, each with its own separate object, of one or another sex, or age, or fancy. What has happened within the half-century everybody knows. The claim to mental activity is pretty well established. The effect on absolute Truth, on character, on a conscious fellowship between men or society and God, on "the Faith once (for all) delivered to the Saints," is less clearly defined.

If anything is to be regarded as settled, among recent innovations, beyond Canons and Rubrics, it is that congregations, on Sunday forenoons, are to hear the reading of Morning Prayer with what is called the Ante-Communion. Good Churchmen have a right to complain if innovating or individualistic clergymen disturb this order. In a right adjustment of the several offices this should not be disregarded.

The power of the pulpit is weakened by two causes of decline. One of these is the common neglect of direct, vigorous intellectual and literary preparation for every sermon, due partly to the yielding of the preacher to the multiplied and distracting calls of modern society. The other is a broadening-out of the range of subjects which sermons are made to treat, far beyond the bounds of Apostolic or primitive example, or that of any period of sacred history:—a broadening which is expressly advocated by many prominent ministers,—but not generally by leaders of the Church.

Good things lose their excellence by excess. There seem to be tidal waves in social currents. At present, owing apparently to some atmospheric distemper, much that is worth doing, and ought to be done, gets over-done. If a thing is good, a meeting, a speech, a sermon, a recreation, a spectacle, an industry, then how can there be too much of it? Proportions are disregarded. The pleasure loses its relish. The equilibrium of a divine order is upset. Indulgence satiates and cloy. The subjective health of character is hurt. Digestion being surfeited, appetite itself is dulled, or becomes a disease. When attention is tired out, the listener's or spectator's capacity of edification shrinks or fails, time is lost, and truth suffers.

Bishop's Address.

Lately I was at a public function that lasted two hours and a quarter, a service of worship without Litany. What was necessary or germane to the occasion would occupy one hour and a quarter. The rest was superfluous, arbitrary, not rubrical or canonical, tediously ceremonial, consisting of needless interpositions intended for devotion but rather surprising, profitless pauses, dumb manipulations, musical novelties, not much as art and not justified by artistic skill, where, very often, the finer the execution the less the feeling of reverence or the thought of God. I felt wronged, imposed upon, and had to school myself to be patient, and so I not only missed benefit from what went on but was the less benefitted by what had gone before. The clergyman seemed at times to be occupied about something at the altar, but I did not know what it was. There is an animation in reading that is not irreverent or hurried, and a slowness that is.

It may as well be bluntly said that physical and not only mental conditions and reasons protest against this abuse. Prayer and praise ask for bodily composure and peace where they can be had. To irritate the nerves and organs is so far to desecrate the sanctity. Within a generation a common inordinate length of the sermon has been generally reduced. Whether the rubric "Then shall follow the sermon," is to be held as universally mandatory, or is simply directive as to where the sermon shall come in, if there is one, may be open to question, but at any rate the length of the "sermon," even down to five minutes, is subject to the clergyman's discretion. I have already urgently advised against displacing or dismembering the office for Morning Prayer as it stands.

Some ways of preventing an undue extension of the service beyond the mental or physical endurance of almost any worshipper can be found out by a sagacious clergyman who attends to the matter. To repeat every clause of the Gloria in excelsis just before the Benediction, after a service two hours long is not easily made a spiritual exercise. Every pause while the minister fumbles and fusses about the Holy Table is a wrong, and may be vexatious.

It would be easy to distribute the ordinary life of mankind into departments by naming the several occupations in which they are engaged,—the commercial, mechanical, agricultural, literary. The lines of division are not very distinct, and the classification is not exhaustive. There is another way of considering them, i. e., by the objects or ends or interests which they serve. We call them "causes." There will be a "cause" of labor, trade, education, science, discovery, physical nurture and development, morality, religion. We can study amusement as a "cause" by itself. It has relations with the others just named, certainly with morals and the moral life of nearly every class in the community. We need not take pains, therefore, to prove that recreation comes fairly and closely into the sphere of Christian responsibility. As Christians, or as Christian teachers we are concerned with it.

A provision and an aptitude for recreation are as evident in the natural constitution of man as the capacity and fitness for work, or study, or worship. Traces of this divine provision are plain in all history, all nations, tribes, countries and ages, from the beginning, and they are not out of harmony with the most serious and practical occupations of men's minds and hands. All of these are better, more wholesome and more secure for the recreative relish and influence.

An attempt to suppress or kill this instinct is vain or foolish, and is found to be fruitless. What is given to conscience and duty is to adjust the proportion between the work and the recreation, as to time and place and attention, as well as to engage in each in the right spirit, with a right purpose and by right means.

So much as this it seems needful to keep in mind if we are to hold any consistent or effectual ground as to the application of the Law of Christ and His Gospel to one large portion of our life.

For we must allow that it is large, and I think we shall agree that it grows larger, exacts more, and gains more, than in former periods of the communities where our lives are spent. There is a real difficulty and much chance for illusion and mistake, to be sure, in any comparative estimate of the present and the past. If the contrast does not present itself to others as it does to me, there will still remain incontrovertible and abundant evidence all about us that the conflict between worldliness and the will of God, in society, everywhere, is tremendous in its force, subtle in its policy, and fearful in what it portends.

It is a rich tribute that is paid to the play element in human life by the very name given to it. Re-creation places it, at least in its possibilities, in the rank of the great bounties of our Creator. The renewing of a personal existence lifts it into the dignity of its original birthright in God. The facts and phenomena, however, which justify apprehension are not far off. They are obvious enough for a clear and candid judgment as they lie in sight in the life time of the living generation, in city and village. Are not forms of entertainment now common which our fathers would have counted sinful? Are not modes of dress freely allowed, in women and by women, which though sometimes seen four-score years ago were rare and only tolerated? Are not some games in which the sexes share, children and youth, witnessed by those who have taken the vows of the Church, witnessed without reproof or protest, and only criticised in a cowardly privacy afterwards? By any just definition of gambling is there not gambling in a dozen ways practised in classes of society regarded, and expecting to be regarded, as "highly respectable?" To a wicked extent is not work done to get the means and for the sake of indulgence in pleasure, where the amusement ought to be indulged only for the better doing of the work? Is not fashion, by any fair definition, the actual master and ruler of social life and practices, rather than conscience, or God, or God's Bible? Shall we not all, men and women, agree that it would be better everyway for the world's labor if somehow, in the mind and spirit of the workman and the workwoman, the work could be more like play, and the play, in all the lightness and joy of it, more finely touched; if it were felt that, pleasant as it is, it is but recreation after all, is transient and secondary, not the harvest of life or the end of living?

Nature itself might teach, and indeed does teach, that work has a kind of value and benefit in itself, apart from the specific utility of the task. It is in the eternal, divine plan: "My Father worketh hitherto and I work." It is a watchword of a world-wide religion. What and how many outward calamities work averts! What inward evils, mischievous schemes, fierce passions, melancholy moods, sharp distresses, it subdues or alleviates!

It is a plausible saying of easy-going people, "Well, after all, we have got to take the world as it is." But have we? "Take it" for what purpose? To let it have its way? to live in it and at the same time let alone its lies, wink at its follies, and be dumb at its iniquities? Christ's followers, like Christ Himself, and His Apostles, and Christ's men, are not in the world for any such yielding and truckling unmanliness. We are to take the world as it is, not to conform to it and make ourselves a consenting part of it, but to help make it what it ought to be. Our Lord and His Gospel and His Cross have told us to take it and live in it for that.

Bishop's Address.

Beyond the plain path and explicit commands of Duty there is a region, quite familiar, of questions and choices and conduct where all of us have to consider and decide, or else go to sure destruction. We have to re-train folly, resist temptation, and hate and fight sin. In that sphere lies the realm of dramatic entertainment. Two persons, a young man and young woman, sit side by side in a decent assembly of men, women and children, in a place of amusement, where they have gone to be amused. Something in the speech or spectacle there is presented, said or seen, that is silently, swiftly, passed upon by the sense of right and wrong. It is the moral blemish in the play, the fly in the apothecary's ointment, the corrupt leaven in the neutral and otherwise harmless lump. But it is not harmless. Those two persons, however they really took it are the worse for it. The moral sense is a little less fine. The imagination is less clean. There is a spot on the white soul. That man is less virtuously brave; that woman is less sensitively chaste. In the ceaseless moral game, or contention, evil has got more than its share. The entertainment has cost too much.

Somehow it has come about, that even while this lawfulness of amusement has been generally conceded, the imitative, spectacular, theatric form of it has not secured the outspoken and unqualified approval of Church authorities and of the more devout class. It survives and prospers nevertheless. Church members speak of it as it were under their breath. They acknowledge that it is responsible for a large amount of immorality and illicit frivolity. They do not see how they can rightly separate between what is illicit and what is orderly, what is wrong and what is right. Till the stage, however, in the life and character of actors and actresses, is reformed or reforms itself, as some of the dramatic profession are wisely trying to reform it, there is truth in the saying that the dramatic stage and the Christian pulpit are not in a right relation to one another. On the one side it is said plausibly and fairly that there is in human nature, as the Maker has made it, a legitimate want of amusement and a relish for it; that God, in creating man a social creature, in furnishing materials and directions and occasions for it, has made room for it; that the theatre, the circus and the match-game are legitimate; that human life is safer and better for recreation; that, from the beginning, mimetic and dramatic performances have been known and have not been prohibited or condemned. When we see how many people make a labor of their amusement, how can we help wondering whether they would not better find amusement in their labor?

The Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary continues its careful attention to its charitable and benevolent objects. By the spirited observance of its eleventh anniversary in the month of May, under the auspices of the Local Assembly in Syracuse, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew gained a new accession of zeal and vigor.

The resignation of Miss Jackson of the charge of the Keble School, with the consequent retirement of Miss Andrus, her chief assistant, is a deprivation to me and to the Diocese, which we all cannot fail to regret. With signal wisdom, energy and cheerful patience, Miss Jackson has accomplished a term of devoted service to the Christian education of young women and girls, extending through the organized life of the Diocese, which is sure to be held in grateful remembrance in the hearts of successive classes of well-trained women within and beyond our local limits.

I recommend to the Clergy a studious and teachable re-reading of the offices in the Prayer Book. Scarcely a month passes without an occasion for a criticism of some disobedience or neglect of the canons or rubrics. If I am not mistaken, most of you need a third private reading of even the more familiar offices more than of a good deal of what you do read. In public reading emphasis is of itself an interpreter.

Among personal satisfactions, more than I can number and more than were deserved, is that of having reached my 85th birthday in health, the 35th year of my Episcopate. The required work of my calling has not been beyond my bodily strength and endurance. The relief afforded by the Co-adjutor, always ready and willing, is ample. There is room with me for reflection and reasonable rest, with freedom from troublesome anxiety. Spoken and written assurances and tokens of confidence and affection made the 28th of May bright and cheerful to me and my family, as the earth and sky were full of the blended beauty of Spring and Summer. The inevitable mortal decline is gradual, and so far is partial. All that is needful in the attention and assistance of the clergy is offered and provided, and the benefits are not wholly obscured by my keen regret at having learned so little in a lengthened life by experience and study, and at having forgotten so much of what I once knew. The Divine Providence to Christ's ministers never fails.

Address of the Bishop Coadjutor.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

Since the last Convention, in June, 1903, I have baptized five adult persons; confirmed 861, of whom 17 were for the Bishop of Albany; and received into the Communion of this Church five who had been confirmed in the Roman Catholic Church. At my request the Bishop of Central Pennsylvania confirmed three students of Cornell University, in St. John's Church, Ithaca, thus making in all 847 confirmations for this Diocese, besides those reported by the Bishop, and 852 added to its possible communicants. I have received four Postulants for the ministry; have admitted five persons recommended by the Standing Committee as Candidates for Holy Orders; ordained one Deacon, and one was ordained for us by the Bishop of Pennsylvania. Consent has been given to the Consecration of five Bishops, viz.: of Mississippi, Quincy, Newark, Coadjutor of New York, and Coadjutor of Albany, and it was my privilege to attend the services of Consecration of the two last named in their respective see cities. On December 8th, 1903, I officiated at the re-opening of St. Andrew's Church, New Berlin, after its renovation; and on January 15th, 1904, acting for the Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, and at his request, opened with solemn services St. James' Church, at Canton, in that Diocese.

I have taken part in five funerals, solemnized three marriages, and laid two corner stones, of House of Good Shepherd and St. Luke's Home and Hospital, in Utica.

It will be remembered that a Committee appointed

Address of the Bishop Coadjutor.

last year on the subject of Keble School for Girls in Syracuse, reported to the Convention that "in their estimation the interests of the Diocese demanded that an earnest effort be made to strengthen the foundations of that school, and to render it a distinctly Diocesan institution," and two resolutions offered by the Committee were adopted, to the effect that a Board of Trustees for the school should be appointed by the Bishop, and that the Diocese should assume the responsibility of providing $1,300 for school expenses during the ensuing year, and an effort be made to secure a permanent building. The "hope" was also expressed that "among the large number of former and present patrons of the school, many would be found who would be glad to assist in putting it on a firm basis." (Journal, 1903, p. 32.) It becomes my duty at this time to report, that all this has been faithfully carried out, except the last and most important point. A body of Trustees was appointed, the majority of whom gave time, thought and labor to this undertaking, some of them traveling from their homes in different parts of the Diocese to Syracuse or Utica and back again, in order to attend meetings from time to time; the sum pledged for the year's expenses was raised and paid in; and a very "earnest effort" was made to secure the larger amount of money required for a permanent building. But I regret to say that the "hope" which had been expressed with regard to that matter was not realized. Neither the present nor the former patrons of the school seemed ready to aid in the effort to any considerable extent, and it was found that there was not sufficient interest among the people of the Diocese to enable the Trustees to accomplish the purpose for which they had been organized in the limited time that was given them. It was necessary that the matter should be decided one way or the other before the responsibilities of another year were entered upon; and consequently the Trustees at their final meeting, finding themselves unable to take the school entirely into their own hands at that time decided to ask the Convention to discharge them from their duties. This action was taken with regret, but with no other feeling except that of satisfaction that they had done what they could, in an emergency which seemed to demand that something be done, but did not give the time necessary to overcome the difficulties that opposed them. It is to be hoped that the Church in this country generally will sometime awaken to the importance of maintaining such schools, and that the Diocese of Central New York will yet have a well-equipped institution for the education of girls as well as of boys. There are two private schools, one in Auburn and one in Binghamton, and also one in Geneva on our western border, to which it may be well to call attention.

In October, 1902, shortly after my Consecration, the Bishop put into my hands the relations of the Diocese with the Board of Missions of the General Church in the United States. I would say a few words, therefore, with regard to the apportionment plan of raising funds for the missionary work in the Domestic and Foreign fields. That plan, as you know, is now in the third year of its operation; and while we have not yet come up to the full measure of what is asked of us as a Diocese, we have reason to be encouraged by the considerable increase in our offerings. We had been giving something like $3,000 a year; but in 1902, the first year of apportionment, we gave $4,000; in 1903, $5,500; that is to say, there was an increase of 84 per cent. in the first two years. The last monthly report for the current year shows a little falling off, up to the first of May, from the standard of last year; but it may be that all the offerings had not been sent in when that report was made out; and at all events, since the fiscal year of the Board does not end till September 1st, there is yet time to retrieve our position and to go far ahead of anything we have yet done. Remember, dear brethren of the Clergy, that it depends largely upon you whether the names of your parishes shall be found among the honorable list of those, who "come up to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty." Take heed to the signs of the times; observe the "open doors" which the Lord has placed before us in the various parts of the world in these days; and let it not be said of us that we sit here, like Reuben among the sheep-folds, calmly listening to "the bleatings of the flocks," while others are entering in and doing the work, which is sure to result in time in the winning of the world for Christ. I hope that every congregation in the Diocese, which has not already done so, will at least have a collection, if not an adequate offering, for this object, and will send it before August 31st, to Mr. George C. Thomas, Treasurer, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York. And let me urge all the parishes, which have not paid the full amount of their apportionment, to consider the possibility of at least adding something to their gifts, remembering that the Spirit assures us in Holy Scripture, that what we withhold from such a cause tends, not to enrich, but to impoverish us; a poverty which will manifest itself, we may be sure, in our parish finances as well as in our spiritual lives.

Strenuous efforts are now being made by the energetic Assistant Treasurer of the General Clergy Relief Fund to increase the efficiency of that fund; and quite a large number of the Dioceses have united in combining their special funds with that, in order that the larger sums administered by fewer persons may accomplish greater results. There is, of course, room for difference of opinion with regard to our taking that step, but it is certainly worth considering; and I would suggest that the motion which was made on the subject last year be taken from the table, where it was laid, and fairly discussed either at this Convention, or next year. My own mind is by no means made up with regard to the proposed measure; but it seems to me that there must be some good reason which has induced so many other Dioceses to adopt it ; and at all events, I am sure that no more important question is now pressing upon the attention of the Church than this, viz. : What is to be done for the Clergy who are advancing in years? It is the fact that almost every parish whose Rector dies or breaks down, or removes to another cure, asks to have a "young man" to lead it ; not only so, but the parishes whose Rectors are growing old frequently take measures to be relieved of them in some way, in order to secure the services of younger and more vigorous persons. And it is often a dismal prospect which stares the older man in the face. He not only has the bitterness of knowing that his services are no longer desired, but he has nothing to look forward to for himself and his family, except the inadequate pittance which our small funds are able to bestow. And yet one cannot always blame the laity either, in their desire to have a change. They have their difficulties in the falling off of congregations and the consequent reduction of incomes, which make it necessary to take some steps to avoid financial embarrassment, and to secure the prosperity of their parishes. They are seldom able to pension their Rectors, or they think they are not ; and it becomes a problem what ought to be done. It is a hard question at best ; but, certainly, if our funds for the relief of aged Clergymen were more liberally supplied than they are, the threatened suffering in such cases would be very much reduced. I could wish that this Diocese might, for sweet charity's sake, give some effective and practical attention to this matter.

Request has been made that our Convention be informed of the approaching annual gathering of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Philadelphia, from September 29th to October 2nd, just before the opening of the General Convention of the Church in Boston. Most of you know what the Brotherhood is, and what an efficient auxiliary it is capable of being and of becoming more and more to the Church in its extension among men : and I can say with confidence that as many as may be able to go to Philadelphia will be most cordially welcomed.

(The suggestion has been made more than once heretofore that it might be well to hold our Convention alternately in the two cities of Syracuse and Utica, and have the Clergy entertained at the hotels at the expense of their respective parishes. It seems to me that the time has come when it would be well to have that suggestion seriously considered. There are certainly many reasons in its favor, and, so far as I can see, very few against it, and the Bishop has assured me that he also thinks well of it. I would ask, therefore, that a committee be appointed to take the matter into consideration, and to report either to this Convention, or to that of next year, as may seem desirable.)

With regard to the permissive use of the Revised Version of the Scriptures now agitating the minds of many in the Church, who are calling for action in the matter by the General Convention, my own opinion is that, having only just adopted at the last Convention the Marginal Readings Bible, we might better wait until we have given that a fair trial before taking further action which would render that practically valueless. It was the strong desire among our people to retain as far as possible the fine English of the King James' Version, while admitting such corrections in the rendering as seem to be very important, that led to the preparation of the marginal readings. The Committee having that in charge worked on it for six years, from 1895 to 1901, and in the last named year the General Convention authorized them to have it printed in various sizes and put forth for use in the Churches. Is it worth while to have three different versions possible in our services, according to the preference of any man who officiates?

I cannot close without alluding to the fact that the church in this country has been called upon to mourn the departure from this world, during the past year, of four of her prominent leaders; the aged and distinguished Presiding Bishop, Dr. Clark of Rhode Island, the eloquent and influential Bishop of Kentucky, Dr. Dudley, who was Bishop Clark's Assessor in the House of Bishops, while the missionary jurisdictions have lost Bishop Leonard of Salt Lake, in the domestic field, and Bishop Ingle of Hankow, in China. They were all men of lofty character, and of marked ability and singular devotion in their several spheres. Of the Clergy of our own Diocese also we have lost the Rev. Mr. Neide, the Rev. Mr. Strowger and the Rev. Mr. Winne—the two former were on the retired list, but Mr. Winne, though not in charge of a parish, was doing good work in Watertown and its vicinity. May the Lord give us grace so to follow the example of their steadfastness in faith and obedience to His Holy Commandments, that at the day of the general resurrection we and they may stand together at His right hand. Amen.

Report of Officers and Committees

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee

FOR THE CONVENTIONAL YEAR 1903-04.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that during the Conventional Year 1903-04, they have held six meetings, of which the first was held in St. Peter's Church, Auburn, the sixth in Zion Church, Rome, and the other four at the Vestry Room or Rectory of St. Paul's Church, Syracuse.

At the first meeting, held June 10th, 1903, all the members excepting the Rev. Mr. Harding being present, the committee was organized for the year, by the election of the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., President, and the Rev. H. R. Lockwood, S. T. D., Secretary.

At the second meeting, held September 21st, 1903, all the clerical members and Messrs Jack and Dunning were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Edwin Stevens Lines, D. D., as Bishop of Newark. Mr. Howard C. Ackerman was recommended for admission as a Candidate for Holy Orders, and the Secretary was instructed to record the giving, on the 23rd day of July, 1903, of the consent of a majority of the Committee to the sale or exchange of a piece of land belonging to Grace Church, Cortland; such sale or exchange being obviously conducive to the benefit of that parish.

At the third meeting, held December 14th, 1903, all the members excepting Dr. Babcock and Judge Sawyer being present, unanimous consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. David H. Greer,

Report of the Standing Committee.

D. D., as Bishop-Coadjutor of the Diocese of New York. The Rev. Messrs. Frederick Thomas Henstridge, and Wilson Edward Tanner, Deacons were recommended for advancement to the Priesthood. Messrs. George Ashton Oldham, and George Carlton Wadsworth were recommended for admission as Candidates for Holy Orders. The incorporation of the congregation worshipping at St. Joseph's Church, Rome, was unanimously approved and consented to.

At the fourth meeting, held February 15th, 1904, all the clerical members, excepting Dr. Babcock, were in attendance, and of the laity, Messrs. Jack and Dunning. Messrs. Charles Webster Hakes, M. D., and Leon Frank Haley were recommended to the Bishop for admission as Candidates for Holy Orders. An application having been received from the executrix of the estate of the late Mr. George J. Gardner, asking the Committee to authorize the Treasurer of the Diocese, on certain conditions, to execute to said executrix a release in behalf of the Diocese of its statutory lien upon certain property of the estate of the said Mr. Gardner. It was resolved that the matter be referred to the Chancellor of the Diocese for his judgment as to the power of this Committee to execute the release petitioned for.

At the fifth meeting, held May 16th, 1904, all the clerical members, and Messrs. Sawyer, Jack, and Dunning being present, it was announced that the petition presented at the last meeting regarding the claim of the Diocese on the estate of the late Mr. Gardner, had been withdrawn. A letter relating thereto, giving the opinion of the Chancellor of the Diocese as to the general powers of the Standing Committee was read, and it was ordered that it be placed for safe keeping and future reference among the valuable documents of the Committee. Unanimous consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Richard Henry Nelson, D. D., as Bishop-Coadjutor of the Diocese of Albany. On receipt of the required testimonials, Messrs. Walter Earl Cook, and Edward Alfred Evans were recommended to be admitted to the Order of Deacons. Papers requesting the recommendation of a Deacon for advancement to the Priesthood, on account of defective form and incompleteness of the term of candidature, were laid upon the table. An estimate of the amount required for the expenses of the Diocese, during the ensuing year, payable from the General Fund, was submitted as follows: Printing Journal of Convention and other Printing, $500; Rent of Episcopal Residence, $600; Salaries of Secretaries, $250; Expenses of Registrar, $25; Annuity as provided for in Canon XXI, $500; Salary of Treasurer, $300; Expenses connected with the General Convention, $650;—making a total of $2825. For the raising of this amount, it was voted to recommend to the Convention an assessment upon the several parishes and missions, at the rate in each case of two-and-three-tenths per cent. upon the last reported current expenses.

At the sixth meeting, held June 14th, 1904, all the members were present excepting Dr. Lockwood and Dr. Babcock. On motion, W. D. Dunning was elected Secretary pro tem. The report of the Committee for the year was read and approved and ordered presented to the Convention. Consent was given to the consecration of Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., as Bishop-Coadjutor of the Diocese of East Carolina. Mr. John B. Pitcher, late a minister of the Methodist denomination, was recommended for admission, as Candidate for Holy Orders.

H. R. LOCKWOOD,

Secretary.

Report of the Board of Managers—First District.B. Missions of the Diocese.(I) Report of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully submits the following report :

At a meeting of the Board in the Chapel of St. Peter's Church, Auburn, on June 10, 1903, the thirty-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese, then in session, having authorized the appropriation of $11,400 for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the current year, on motion, the assessments and appropriations for the Districts were made the same as last year, as follows :

First District, Assessed....	$1,450	Apportioned....	$1,900
Second District, "	2,550	"	2,300
Third District, "	1,600	"	1,500
Fourth District, "	2,100	"	1,800
Fifth District, "	1,200	"	1,700
Sixth District, "	1,100	"	2,000
	$10,000		$11,200

The sum of $200 was also appropriated for the Church Mission to the Deaf Mutes of the Diocese.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers in Clark Memorial Hall, Zion Church, Rome, at 3 o'clock, Tuesday, June 14, 1904, the following reports were read and the following day were presented to the Convention:

FIRST DISTRICT.

(JEFFERSON AND LEWIS COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Anson J. Brockway, Dean; the Rev. English Crooks, Ph. D., Secretary; Mr John M. Tilden, Treasurer; the Rev. E. W. Saphore and Mr. H. W. Boyer members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are in Jefferson County: Adams, Alexandria Bay, Antwerp, Brownville, Cape Vincent, Champion, Clayton, Dexter, Evan's Mills, Ellisburgh, Fredericks Corners, Lafargeville, Millen's Bay, Church of the Redeemer in Watertown, Redwood, Sackett's Harbor and Theresa.

Missions of the Diocese - First District.

In Lewis County: Constableville, Copenhagen, Greig and Port Leyden

We have nothing special to report this year as contrasted with the previous one. The Churches in the District are all served by earnest and faithful men. Everything is done that can be to sustain and increase interest in the promotion of the Kingdom of God. If the return is not commensurate with the labor bestowed, the fault lies rather in the peculiar conditions of our times, when material and sensuous objects are obtaining an ever-increasing hold on the general mind, and the claims of the Church and the Spirit are relegated to a secondary, if not an altogether forgotten, place. Nevertheless we have reason to be encouraged as we contemplate the Treasurer's report which shows that if we have not any conquests to account, we have not, at present, any losses to deplore.

Three well-attended and helpful Convocations have been held during the year—in September at Cape Vincent; in January at the Church of the Redeemer, Watertown; and in May at Clayton.

The report of the Treasurer of the District, in detail, will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board.

The financial summary is as follows:

Amount assessed upon the District.....	$1450.00
Amount assessed by the District.....	1476.30
Amount paid by the District.....	1537.05
Amount apportioned the District	1900.00

ANSON J. BROCKWAY, Dean.

ENGLISH CROOKS, Secretary.

SECOND DISTRICT.

(ONEIDA COUNTY AND PART OF MADISON COUNTY.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Wm. Cooke, Dean; the Rev. J. W. Clarke, Secretary; Mr. J. Francis Day, Treasurer; the Rev. W. W. Bellinger, D. D., and Mr. J. T. A. Doolittle, members of the Board of Managers.

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are—in Oneida County: Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Bridgewater, Camden, Clark's Mills, Whitesboro, Oriskany, Paris Hill, Clayville, Westmoreland, Durhamville, Holland Patent, New York Mills, Forestport, Chadwicks, Deerfield and St. Joseph's, Rome. In Madison County: Brookfield and Earlville.

Four meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year—two in Utica, one in Paris Hill and one in Oneida. Services are maintained in all the Mission Churches and Stations in the District with the exception of Brookfield, where occasional services are held.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks reports that services have been held regularly in St. Paul's Church, Paris Hill. The Annual meeting was largely attended and the treasurer's report showed all bills paid. With all the changes that are ever occurring in a country parish, St. Paul's seems to fairly hold her own.

The Rev. A. W. Allen reports that regular services have been held at Gethsemane Church, Westmoreland and St. James' Church, New York Mills with a celebration of the Holy Communion in each place once each month. A Sunday School has been continued at St. James'. Nearly all the money has been raised to pay for the repairs on St. James' Church and it is hoped to soon secure the balance.

The Rev. John Arthur reports that the work at St. Andrew's Durhamville, continues in a healthy condition. Regular Services and sessions of the Sunday School are maintained by the Missionary, assisted by Mr. A. D. Hamblin, Lay Reader, of Oneida, and the few faithful ones. By self-sacrificing personal effort the small flock gathered together the full sum asked of them under the apportionment for General Missions, as well as the assessment for Diocesan Missions.

The Rev. A. H. Rogers in charge of Grace Church, Earlville, reports that services have been held with almost uninterrupted regularity on Sunday afternoons, with the usual variable attendance. He has had valuable assistance from the Rev. Dr. Duff, Missionary for Chenango County, who has given an entire Sunday in each of the months from November to March inclusive. Recently a new board of Trustees, seven in number, were chosen at a meeting of the congregation, and an effort is being made to raise means toward the support of a resident Minister.

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

The Rev. B. T. Stafford in charge of St. Andrew's, Augusta and the Church of the Good Shepherd, Oriskany Falls, reports that the work in both places is in a prosperous state. The morning offerings have greatly increased at the Church of the Good Shepherd. Congregations have shown a gradual growth.

The Rev. Oliver Owen renders an encouraging report of the present condition of St. Mark's, Clark's Mills. Probably at no previous period in the history of this little Church has there been a greater and more enthusiastic spirit of confidence and hopefulness than now. There have been large and regular communions, and large congregations throughout the year. Debts are promptly paid. A beautiful brass Cross for the Altar, a fine chapel organ, and a set of white hangings for the Altar, Lectern and Pulpit, from the women of Clinton have been noticeable gifts for the year.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss reports that the congregation of St. Joseph's Church, Rome, was incorporated in December last. This step marks the material advance of the work as a general English mission since 1890 when the last German Incumbent was in charge. The cure is still far from being self-supporting but the step was regarded as desirable both from the standpoint of self-respect and self-reliance. The work was becoming unwieldy as an unorganized Mission. Thus far the step has been justified by a keener realization of responsibility, increased pledges and a pride in the business management of the funds raised locally. By action of the new Vestry Bishop Huntington is the Rector. Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss continues in charge as Vicar.

The Rev. Jesse Higgins reports that he has kept all the regular appointments of the Rev. W. B. Coleman at St. George's, Chadwicks since January 1st, with one exception, when a storm prevented. The attendance has been uniformly good; rarely under forty and sometimes as high as sixty. The Missionary assessment has been paid in full.

The Rev. F. C. Smith, Rector of Trinity Church, Boonville and Christ Church, Forestport, reports that the past year in Boonville has been in many ways a most prosperous year. The number of communicants within two years shows a decided increase. The attendance at the services has continued good. Services have been regular, Celebration on every Sunday and all Holy Days, and other services on the Fast Days. The Parish organizations have had a prosperous year. The Sunday School is doing good work and slight gains in numbers are occurring. Financially, the Church was never in better shape. Some needed repairs have been made and the Church property much improved. At Forestport the conditions are about the same as last year. The Parish may be said to be holding its own. There have been several removals of good and faithful members from the Parish. Services have been held on all Sundays and greater Holy Days except when the roads were impassable and it was impossible to reach the Church.

The Rev. William Cooke reports that St. John's, Whitesboro and St. Peter's, Oriskany have gone steadily on increasing in numbers and strength. Services have been regularly maintained on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays and on all Holy Days. Assessments for Diocesan Missions have been paid in full.

The Rev. J. W. Clarke in charge of St. Paul's, Deerfield, reports that regular services are held on Sundays, and occasional services on week days during Lent. The Sunday School under the charge of Mr. George M. Weaver continues in a prosperous condition.

The Rev. J. K. Parker, Rector of Grace Church, Waterville, reports that during the year he has held occasional services in the Union Church at Stockwell. He also made pastoral visits among the people. A Christmas Tree was held for the children and copies of the Parish Visitor were regularly distributed.

Trinity Church, Camden, has had no settled Rector since the resignation of the Rev. A. E. Dunham. Services have been supplied on alternate Sundays by the Rev. Mr. Raymond of Baldwinsville.

During the Summer, occasional services were held at Brookfield, and will be resumed the coming Summer.

During the absence of the Rev. Jesse Higgins from Holland Patent, Bridgewater and Clayville,—taking temporary duty at St. George's Church, Utica from January 1st to May 1st,—services have been maintained in Holland Patent by the Rev. Dr. Beauchamp of Syracuse, and in Clayville and Bridgewater by Mr. Walter S. Crocker, Lay Reader. The Rev. Mr. Higgins has resigned his field, his resignation taking effect May 1st. Beginning Trinity Sunday Rev. Arthur T. Schrader takes charge of the Service at St. Paul's Church, Holland Patent.

The financial summary is as follows:

THIRD DISTRICT.

(BROOME AND CHENANGO COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. George G. Perrine, Dean; the Rev. Charles D. Broughton, Secretary; Mr. William J. Russell, Treasurer; the Rev. H. S. Longley and Mr. John Anderson, members of the Board of Managers; the Dean, Secretary, Rev. H. S. Longley and Mr. Joseph E. Packard, the Finance Committee.

There are seventeen parishes and missions in the District of which the following have received assistance from the Board during the past year: Harpursville and Afton, Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point, Bainbridge, Guilford, Mt. Upton and Windsor.

There have been three meetings of Convocation during the year, namely, at St. Paul's Church, Oxford; Christ Church, Binghamton; and St. Peter's Church, Bainbridge.

St. Ann's Church, Afton—There has been a marked improvement in the condition of this Church under the administration of the Rev. Edwin L. Tanner, who has had charge since the 14th of June 1903. In addition to the regular services on Sundays, a Mission of one week's duration was held in January, which called out large and interested congregations. A special feature of the "Mission" was the Question Box, by means of which the History, Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the Church were brought prominently before the minds of the people, resulting, it is believed, in much good.

The regular services have been well attended, especially during Lent, and the Missionary has been much gratified by the spirit exhibited in complying with the Church's customs and abstaining from social gaieties during that season.

At Easter a handsome baptismal font was placed in the Church, the gift of Mrs. O. N. Swift and daughter, of Ithaca. The Church has recently been painted and other improvements made by the Ladies Guild. The Bell fund is rapidly increasing and it is hoped the bell will be in place before the end of the summer. Boxes have been sent to some distant missions since the last report. This Church records with sorrow the death of its faithful organist, Miss Amelia Clapper, the first week in Lent, and will erect an altar cross as a memorial of her. The Sunday School has been revived with Mr. Martin Shay as Superintendent.

St. Luke's Church, Harpursville—The progress here is encouraging. The Sunday Services have been usually well attended, also the week-day services during Lent. A Mission Week similar to that at Afton was held with equally good results. The Sunday School is making good progress under Dr. C. W. Hakes. The Ladies Guild has sent boxes to those in need and is doing its part in work for the Church. This Church has been deprived by death of one of its most valued members, Dr. A. A. Grey, a long time vestry-man and interested worker for the Church in which he was baptised and confirmed and a regular Communicant.

St. Peter's Church, Bainbridge—This Church is to be congratulated on the progress it has made and the work accomplished during the past year. There has been a gratifying increase in the attendance on the services and a marked improvement in the Sunday School. In addition to these tokens of spiritual activity, and no doubt in consequence of them, there has been a corresponding increase in offerings. The parish has met in full its apportionment for both Diocesan and General Missions. As there had been no offering for General Missions during the interregnum of the past year, the apportionment for two years came within twelve months, and both have been met, the congregation having contributed $60.00 for Diocesan Missions and $135.00 for the General Missions of the Church in one year.

An Oak Pulpit has been placed in the Church.

The losses by death and removal have been unusually severe and have been keenly felt. Mr. Joseph Juliand, having served the Church in Bainbridge as a Vestryman and Warden for 53 years, has been taken away by death. He will be sadly missed by those who for so many years were guided by his wise counsel and cheered by his gracious presence. Mr. Sands, the other Warden, has removed to another diocese. He also will be greatly missed.

Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point.--The Rev. David Curran

who has charge of these places, holds services regularly on Sundays, morning and evening at Whitney's Point and in the afternoon at Chenango Forks with occasional administration of the Holy Communion by the County Missionary. The Sunday School has been revived in Chenango Forks and the outlook is more encouraging there than at the last report. The Church in Whitney's Point has suffered a very severe loss in the death of Mr. F. E. Nowland, Warden and Choir Master, and Mr. Lafayette Bennett, Vestryman. Both of these men were zealous and faithful laborers for the Church.

Guilford and Mt. Upton—The condition of the Church in these places remains about the same as at our last report. At Bishop Olmsted's visitation in June 11 persons were confirmed, all of whom except two were heads of families. The Easter offering, including that of the Sunday School, amounted to a little over $115.00, of which $55.87 was for General Missions. What is known as The Endowment Fund now amount to between fourteen and fifteen hundred dollars. It is made up by birthday and thank offerings and growing pennies, and is steadily increasing at the rate of something over a hundred dollars a year. This plan of securing a permanent income cannot be too highly commended, especially to country parishes, whose strength is constantly depleted by removals to the cities. The Church in Guilford mourns the death, during the last few months, of three of its members, Silas Root in his 88th year, Miss Cora Hamilton, a young woman greatly loved by all who knew her, and Mrs. Elvira Burton, a life long member of the Church, widow of a former vestryman, who will be sadly missed by every member of the congregation.

The congregation in Mt. Upton, having no permanent place of worship, services have been held twice a month generally in private houses, except during the severe winter weather. It was visited by Bishop Olmsted during the Epiphany season.

Zion Church, Windsor—This parish, under the guidance of the Rev. John J. Andrew, is to be commended for zeal and patience, though in a village numbering 760 inhabitants and fine religious organizations, each striving for the mastery, no remarkable progress can be expected. The appointed services of the Church have been maintained, both Sundays and week days; seven were confirmed at the Bishop's last visitation; but the losses and gains for the last thirty years have been about equal.

There is a Parish Guild and a branch of the W. A., which meets semi-monthly for prayer and work. There have been material improvements made in the Church and Rectory, the Sunday School having secured a beautiful Bible for the Church, also a surplice. By the united efforts of the congregation, old and young, a solid silver Communion Service has been secured, and some valuable pieces of furniture presented to the Church by a member of the parish. Current expenses and obligations to the Diocese have been fully and promptly met Changes among the clergy of the district have been unusually numerous during the year, but the only Church at present without a rector is St. Andrew's, New Berlin, left vacant by the resignation at Easter of the Rev. George H. Kirkland.

The Rev. R. M. Duff, S. T. D., Missionary at Large for Chenango County, reports 141 services during the year; these services have been held in 21 different places, in Methodist, Baptist, Congregational and Universalist Churches and in Grange Halls and School Houses. He has celebrated Holy Communion 24 times, administered baptism 15 times, given instruction to three classes and presented six candidates for confirmation. Four Sunday Schools have been organized, many prayer books and church manuals distributed and 515 families visited. Several denominational Churches in Chenango County are now available for our services.

The report of the Treasurer of the District, in detail, will be found in the Report of the Treasurer of the Board.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

(ONONDAGA, OSWEGO AND CORTLAND COUNTIES, and the Townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.)

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

The officers of the Fourth District are: The Rev William DeLancey Wilson, Dean; the Rev. Henry S. Sizer, Secretary; Dr. Chas. J. Peters, Treasurer. The officers and the Rev. John T. Rose and the Rev. Herbert G. Coddington compose the Executive Committee.

The Secretary is the elected member of the Board of Managers. Dr. C. J. Peters is the lay member of the Board from this District. The mission stations in the Fourth District are: East Syracuse, Manlius, Jamesville, Marcellus, Cleveland, Constantia, Lacona, Redfield, Altmar, Mexico, Warners, Memphis, Pulaski, Canastota, Chittenango, St. Philip's Church for colored people, Syracuse; St. Luke's Mission, Syracuse; St. John's Mission, Phoenix; Church of the Good Shepherd, Onondaga Reservation, and St. John's Chapel, Oswego supported by the Church of the Evangelists in that city.

Stipends are given to all these except Constantia, Canastota, St. Andrew's Mission, Syracuse; St. John's Mission, Phoenix, Church of the Good Shepherd, Onondaga Reservation (maintained by the W. A.) and St. John's Chapel, Oswego.

Meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year as follows: In St. Mark's Church, Syracuse, May 5 and 6, 1903; in St. Paul's Chapel, Syracuse, July 6, 1903; in Zion Church, Fulton, October 12 and 13, 1903, and in Trinity Church, Syracuse, April 26 and 27, 1904.

Onondaga Castle—The Church of the Good Shepherd ministers to the Indians of Onondaga County. The salary of the missionary is paid by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, but the congregation meets the current expenses of the mission. The Rev Mr. Hayward reports regular and frequent services. This mission conducts the only Sunday School on the Reservation, and over seventy pupils are enrolled. Lace work is carried on successfully by the women; music and sewing classes are also conducted by the missionary's family.

St. Philip's Church, Syracuse—St. Philip's Church (for colored people) is still continuing in its good work. This mission is carried on under the direction of the Rev. Herbert G. Coddington, rector of Grace Church. Services have been conducted generally by lay readers from Grace Church, with Priestly services by the Dean and the Rev. J. E. Jonnson.

Marcellus—St. John's Church continues to prosper under the direction of the Rev. E. B. Mott. A former friend of the parish has given the parish an endowment of over $30,000. Work is about to be started on a rectory.

Jamesville—St. Mark's, Jamesville, has been attached to Trinity Church, Fayetteville, and placed under the care of the Rev. Ernest A. Melville.

East Syracuse—Emmanuel Church, East Syracuse, has suffered as no other parish in the Diocese by removals. There is prospect, however, of an increase in population, consequent on the improvements in the railroad yards. This will doubtless lead to an improvement in the condition of the mission. This work in connection with St. Luke's, Syracuse, is under the care of the Rev. J. E. Johnson.

East Onondaga (Valley)—St. Andrew's Mission, under the care of the Rev. D. C. Huntington, continues to thrive with youthful strength and enthusiasm. There is reason to hope that St. Andrew's in the near future will become a self supporting parish.

Memphis—Emmanuel Church, Memphis, shows signs of vigor and consequent growth. During the past year the offerings have increased fifty per cent. The Rev. F. B. Keable relinquished this work at Easter. Since that time occasional services have been held by the Rev. E. B. Mott of Marcellus. This mission is worked in connection with Jordan, and will doubtless have regular services again when a rector is called to the latter place.

Warners—The Rev. J. E. Ramsdell conducts regular services in St. Paul's Church, Warners. A number have been presented for Confirmation, and the work continues to prosper.

Phoenix—The Rev. H. G. Coddington of Syracuse, with the assistance of other Clergymen of the neighborhood and of Lay Readers conducts regular Sunday afternoon services in this place.

Altmar—St. John's Altmar under the charge of the Rev. B. E. Whipple is a good example of how large and strong relatively a mission may become in a small community. The Easter offering was larger than ever before, all expenses and salaries paid in full, as well as all assessments from the Diocese on the parish.

Chittenango—Services have been held during the year in St. Paul's Church by the Rev. G. A. Ottaway of Canastota.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

Cleveland—St. James, Cleveland. has been without regular ministrations since the removal of the Rev. B. T. Stafford about a year ago. The Rev. W. W. Raymond of Baldwinsville has held several services there, and there is hope that the regular ministrations of a resident Priest may be resumed. Owing to the isolation of this place it is difficult, if not impossible to connect it with any other parish and the removal of the glass works has produced serious industrial stagnation.

Lacona—The Rev. Daniel Daly reports satisfactory progress at Lacona. Owing to the severity of the weather he has not been able to conduct regular services at Redfield during the winter, but the work at that place has since been resumed.

Pulaski—St. James' Church, Pulaski has been in connection with Mexico under the charge of the Rev. W. N. Hawkins. Services are maintained each Sunday in both places.

Oswego—St. John's Chapel conducted by the Church of the Evangelists was opened by the Dean on the Feast of the Epiphany with appropriate services. The chapel had been closed for some six years. Services and Sunday School are held there now each Sunday afternoon.

No Services have been held at Constantia during the past year.

ter, Treasurer, the two latter being also members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are—in Cayuga County: Aurora, Cayuga, Union Springs, Port Byron, Weedsport, Moravia and Northville.

In Seneca County: Dey's Landing, Hayt's Corners, Romulus Kidder's, Willard and Willowdale.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, viz: At Cayuga Lake Park, Monday, July 6, 1903; Trinity Church, Seneca Falls, November 3 and 4, 1903, and St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, April 27 and 28, 1904.

St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, is in charge of the Rev. G. P. Sommerville, D. D. Apportioned to raise for Missions of the Diocese $75.00; paid $75.00; no further report received.

No report received from Weedsport and Port Byron.

Aurora, Cayuga and Union Springs are in charge of the Rev. W. H. Casey, M. A., and the work has gone on much as in past years. Amount apportioned for Aurora to raise for Missions of the Diocese was $65.00; the amount raised was $70.71. Cayuga's apportionment was $26.00; amount raised was $25.71. Union Spring's apportionment was $39.00; amount raised $3.00.

Calvary Church, Northville, was ministered to by the Bishop Coadjutor and some of the other clergy of the District during the month of August with a goodly attendance at all the services. It is hoped that some way may be opened whereby this faithful little flock may be ministered to more frequently. The amount contributed for Missions of the Diocese was $8.00, whereas the amount asked for was only $4.00.

Grace Church, Willowdale, reports that 50 Sunday Services and 11 week day Services have been held during the year. There have been 8 celebrations of the Holy Communion, 7 infant baptisms and 6 persons have been confirmed. The Canonical offerings have been well looked after. The full quota for Diocesan Missions, $40.00, has been raised, together with $5.00 for the Missionary Apportionment, $4.85 toward the General Fund, and $6.47 toward the Bishop Coadjutor's salary.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

Grace Church, Willowdale has also a motherly care over St. Andrew's (Mission) Church at Dey's Landing, reporting that twenty-five Sunday Services have been held at this point during the past Conventional year.

St. Stephen's Church Romulus has been served faithfully during the past year by Mr. Walter Jones as Lay Reader. The full amount ($35.00), apportioned for Diocesan Missions has been duly paid. The Dean has Celebrated the Holy Communion three times in this Church, and has also baptised two infants.

Christ Church, Willard, and Calvary Church, Hayts Corners, are in charge of the Secretary, who reports many losses by removal and death. Strenuous efforts have been made, however, to win others to Christ and his Church, and not without a certain measure of success.

These frequent losses that seem sure to come to all small parishes and missions have impressed upon the mind of the Missionary the importance of an Endowment Fund to provide for emergencies and to help tide over hard places. To this end, "Birth Day" Offerings have been asked of both parishioners and friends, and the fund has been started for each Church, though in a small way. In summing up, it should be noted that nine of the parishes and mission stations in this District have paid their assessment in full; two have paid more than their quota, and three have contributed nothing.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

(COUNTIES OF CHEMUNG, TIOGA AND TOMPKINS.)

The officers of this District are: The Rev. T. Ainslee Stevenson;

Missions of the Diocese - Sixth District.

Dean; the Rev. Charles H. McKnight, Secretary; Mr. H. V. Bostwick, Treasurer; Representatives on the Board of Managers the Rev. George H. McKnight, D. D., and Mr. H. V. Bostwick.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: Chemung County, Emmanuel Mission, Elmira; Big Flats, Millport, Horseheads, Wellsburg and Van Etten, Tioga County: Candor, Spencer, Waverly and Smithboro. Tompkins County: McLean, Slaterville Springs, Speedsville, Dryden, Groton and Trumansburg.

Three meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year. The June meeting was held at Waverly; in September the Convocation met for the first time in Dryden; the January meeting was held at Owego.

Full reports have been received from all stations except Trumansburg which has had the services of a lay reader from Hobart College during the year.

St. John's Parish, Ithaca, has sustained its Mission on West Hill during the year. The work has received the support of students in the University and is carried on by them under the direction of the clergy of the parish.

St. Mark's, Millport: The Rev. Thomas Stafford reports that the past year has been a successful one in this mission. All Diocesan assessments have been paid in full, and the Lenten offering for General Missions from the Sunday School was $6.62.

Morning and evening services have been held every Sunday with the assistance of a lay reader, and week-day services also, unless for a few weeks during the most inclement part of the winter. Up to February 1st last, the celebrations were monthly and since that time fortnightly. There has been a marked increase in Communion, this year out of a total of 95 Communicants 80 have communed.

Baptisms 10; Confirmations 7; Burials 3. Owing to removals and deaths there has been a decrease in financial support, but in every other respect there has been a decided gain. The opportunities for aggressive activity are many, and the outlook bright and hopeful.

Rev. N. S. Boardman reports as follows :

Missions of the Diocese—Sixth District.

Emmanuel, Elmira—The work here is continued regularly and progresses steadily, much encouraging the missionary.

There have been 7 baptized, two of which were adults. Six have been confirmed. Marriages 6. Burials 6. The old building has been repaired and moved back to make room for the contemplated new Church building.

Mr. William Pike and Mr. John W. Main have been efficient lay readers; the former assisting in Elmira, and the latter at Big Flats.

At Big Flats the work is conducted regularly. On a few occasions, when the Church was necessarily closed, cottage services were held. Two adults have been baptized.

St. Matthew's, Horseheads—During the Lent of 1903 services were held once a week. Regular services were begun in May at the request of the people and have continued without interruption since. Mr. William Dent, lay reader from Grace Church parish, Elmira, supplied the services on Sunday, and the missionary conducts a Wednesday service and gives a celebration once a month on Sundays.

Four adults have been baptized and one infant. Five have been confirmed, and there have been four burials.

The parish has sustained a severe loss in the death of its Junior Warden, Mr. Thomas Hubbard.

I wish to make mention, with gratitude, of the efficient and faithful services of the Rev. S. D. Borrum, Chaplain of U. S. Navy, retired; also of the faithful and self-sacrificing work of Mr. William Dent.

The parish now feels able to offer a $300 salary, provided they may have a clergyman settled there.

The Rev. Theodore Haydn, Missionary at McLean, Dryden, Slaterville Springs and Speedsville, reports as follows:

The financial showing for the past year is unusually good. All of the parishes in my charge have, I believe, paid their assessments for the General Fund and Salary of the Bishop Coadjutor promptly and in full.

Services are held as follows: Through the summer months every second Sunday in Slaterville, Speedsville and McLean; every Sunday in Dryden. In the winter months, Slaterville and McLean have two Sunday services each month, Dryden three and Speedsville one. The Holy Communion is usually celebrated once each month.

Missions of the Diocese - Sixth District.

There seems good prospect of gaining a permanent foothold in Dryden, the building of a Church during this year being contemplated; a large part of the money has already been pledged.

Zion Church, McLean, keeps up its former record of earnestness and devotion. The Chancel has been beautified by many gifts.

From this parish two faithful members have been removed by death, Mr. Wm. B. Hubbard, Junior Warden, and Mrs. Wm. F. DeCondres, Vice President of the W. A. of the District, and a most active worker in the parish.

St. John's Church, Speedsville, has also suffered a heavy loss through the death of Mr. John Cross, for more than fifty years Vestryman and Warden. By the terms of his will the parish will receive $1,000. Another member of the vestry and generous contributor, Dr. Ransom Johnson, ended his earthly labors recently.

The members of the parishes at Slaterville Springs and Dryden have been depleted by the removal of several Church families.

The past severe winter has not favored effective missionary work in a scattered field.

I would also report that at the request of the authorities, I officiated in the Chapel of the George Junior Republic at Freeville on the evening of Good Friday and celebrated the Holy Communion on the morning of Easter Day.

The Rev. T. Ainslee Stevenson, Dean reports that Grace Church, Waverly, passes the fiftieth year of its organization this coming summer; and for the past thirteen years has been largely maintained by an appropriation from the Board of Missions. There seems to be no way of inciting this well-to-do congregation to support itself, though much improvement is shown in increased offerings for Diocesan and General Church work. Regular services, with the exception of two Sundays, have been rendered during the past year, besides the unusual number of special services, and all the diocesan and general objects of beneficence have been heartily presented in the spirit that "there is that scattereth, and yet increaseth."

Missions of the Diocese—Sixth District.

Emmanuel Mission, Smithboro, has paid all assessments and the services have been regularly maintained by the few faithful members. At Christ Mission, Wellsburg, there is an increasing interest on the part of the people, with regular semi-monthly Sunday Services; four baptisms and one confirmation, and financial obligations have been promptly met.

The Dean, besides attending the three regular meetings of the Sixth Missionary District, has, by invitation, visited Emmanuel Mission, Elmira; Trinity Mission, Dryden; and Zion, McLean, where such faithful work is being done. The incorporated parish of the Church of the Epiphany, Trumansburg, has been satisfied with lay services during the past year. This parish has made no report to the Bishop for the three years last past, and has not paid the regular diocesan assessments in that time, although receiving regular income from the rental of the rectory, which would more than cancel these obligations.

The Rev. E. C. Hoskins reports for Spencer, Van Etten and Andor. It has been very difficult, more so than any previous winter, to carry on my work without interruption owing to the long distance between the parishes. All that I can say is that the conditions seem to remain "in statu quo," holding their own, with some moving out and others taking their places, especially in Spencer and Van Etten.

The report of the Treasurer of the District, in detail, will be found in the Report of the Treasurer of the Board.

The financial summary is as follows:

Amount Assessed upon the District.....	$1,100.00
Amount assessed by the District.....	1,032.00
Amount paid by the District.....	938.00
Amount apportioned to the District.	2,000.00
Amount appropriated by the District.....	2,091.00

T. AINSLEE STEVENSON, Dean.

CHARLES HAMILTON MCKNIGHT, Secretary.

It is a satisfaction to be able to say that an examination of the several reports just read will show that a very general and laudable effort is being made by the parishes and mission stations throughout the Diocese to meet in full their assessments for Diocesan Missions, and that this effort is very generally successful.

The work of the Church is diligently and earnestly carried on, often under great difficulties, especially in the rural districts where one cure sometimes embraces several stations far apart, and almost impossible of access, when the winter, as last year, is unusually severe. Here, too, the financial support is uncertain and fluctuating, owing to constant removals and death: and these losses are seldom made good. In a few places efforts have been made in a small way to begin the formation of an endowment fund to prepare to meet these difficulties. This example might well be followed in many other places. The history of the Van Wagenen fund ought to be an incentive. This fund has enabled Rev. Dr. Duff to do splendid work as general missionary for Chenango County; he has also found time to assist in some other places. A brief report of his work is given by the Dean of the 3rd District.

If the clergy in charge of missionary parishes and mission stations would be more prompt in sending in their reports to the officers of the several districts, it would be of great service to the Deans, and facilitate the preparation of this annual report.

Respectfully submitted by the Board of Managers.

JAMES J. BURD, Secretary.

The Committee to whom the consideration of the Report of the Board of Missions was submitted respectfully report that they heartily indorse the remarks of the secretary at its close and commend its general composition with two suggestions: First, that in the district reports, the work at each aided parish or mission be specially outlined (as has been done by all the district secretaries with one exception), in such reports, and that the district secretaries send such summaries of the Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

As was explained in my last annual report, The "Cash on hand" was mostly disbursed during the month succeeding the close of the fiscal year leaving in the hands of the Treasurer only several balances entrusted to his care and custody, but not subject to his discretion nor available for Diocesan expenses.

In considering the above statements it may be noticed that the largest item, except Diocesan Missions, is that of Diocesan Expense, and as hitherto, it is the feature of our financial affairs which seems to be least understood by large numbers of parish officers, and not a few of the clergy. The annual assessments upon the parishes, made to provide for the payment of this necessary expense, are based on the budget presented by the Standing Committee each year, and Canon XI seems to make perfectly clear the equitable basis, as well as the duty and manner of paying such assessments. Only a few parishes fully comply with the requirements of the Canon, the paying being, in many cases, deferred to the very end of the canonical year, and in not a few cases to the succeeding year. Many parishes seem to feel that they have done their full duty if they ever pay the assessments, and, of course, nearly every one is paid at sometime. No argument seems called for to show that payment at close of the year, or later, will scarcely save the credit of the Church for business integrity. The remark is often made, "Oh, the General Fund can wait," and surely it does wait, but is it commendable, or quite right to leave your debts waiting payment, and make voluntary gifts from moneys practically belonging to your creditors? It would seem that these assessments for expenses should have first place, and then "do your diligence gladly" in other directions.

The title "General Fund," inherited from the Mother Diocese, seems to carry a vague and indefinite meaning, not tending to a sense of responsibility and obligation, I therefore have prepared and will offer an amendment to the Canons, changing that title to "Diocesan Fund" wherever it occurs in the Canons, and hope it may have the constitutional vote required by Article IX for its adoption at this session, and thus help to remove the apparent misapprehension of the real character and importance of that fund.

Respectfully submitted,

SEYMOUR H. STONE, Treasurer.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

On behalf of the Committee on Auditing the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, I beg to report that I have this day exam-

HENRY BURDEN, 2nd.

X. Christmas Fund.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May, 1904.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The Trustees of the Christmas Fund present the following report for the year ending April 30, 1904, referring to the appended report of the Treasurer for financial details:

At a meeting of the Trustees on June 27, 1903, the nominations of the Convention to fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees were confirmed by election of Horace M. Greely to serve five years, Seymour H. Stone for the balance of Geo. J. Gardner's (deceased) term, Geo. T. Jack for the balance of J. Dean Hawley's (resigned) term, and G. Howard Avery for the balance of W. H. H. Neal's (resigned) term.

The new Board was then organized by the election of Trustee William Watkins as President, and Mr. George H. Avery as Secretary-Treasurer.

On motion, duly seconded, Trustees Greely, Jack and Avery were made a committee with power to order such repairs or improvements as seemed necessary to increase the rent on the property, 105 Phelps Place in this city.

After full discussion of the present condition of the affairs of the Fund, the minutes were read and approved and the Board adjourned subject to the call of the President.

The next meeting was held February 13, 1904. Present Seymour H. Stone, G. Howard Avery, George T. Jack, William Watkins and Horace M. Greely, composing a quorum. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary, Mr. G. Howard Avery, be and he hereby is, authorized to execute and deliver to Mrs. Genevieve G.

Christmas Fund—Report of the Trustees.

Fuller upon payment of the sum of $2,500.00, and interest to date, by her, to the Treasurer of this corporation, a release of the lien of this corporation upon the property of the late George J. Gardner located as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of the land owned by the said Gardner at the time of his decease on University Avenue and running thence east 214 feet, thence north 66 feet, thence west 82 feet, thence north 32 feet, thence west 132 feet, thence south along the line of University Avenue 93 feet to the place of beginning.

Nothing has been done regarding the above resolution, neither has there been any interest collected for the $5,000.00 claim against the Geo. J. Gardner estate. The money has been drawn from the two Savings Banks, but our statutory lien against the deceased's property will amply protect the Fund against any loss.

There has been but one change in the Clergy Beneficiaries, caused by the death of the Rev. George L. Neide. The Widowed Beneficiaries remain the same. The Convention is called upon to nominate one Trustee to take the place of Seymour H. Stone, whose time has expired, and who desires to be relieved.

The interest on the Robinson mortgage, due January 1, 1904, of $50.00, is still unpaid.

The Permanent Fund remains the same as last reported. The parish offerings exceed last year somewhat, and the total income now seems sufficient to continue the stipends as a present.

WILLIAM WATKINS, President.

G. HOWARD AVERY, Sec'y. and Treas.

No. 303 Hartson Street and part of lot 32 Rowland Street were obtained on the foreclosure of a Snavlin mortgage of $1,100: 113 Alce Street by the foreclosure of a $850 mortgage: the Kennedy Street lots by a foreclosure of a $700 mortgage in which this Fund had a 250 interest; this sale was made subject to prior mortgages amounting to about $2,800 held by the trustees: this last mortgage also covered 113 Hoefler Street and a Railroad Street house and lot, and this fund has an interest in these last two named pieces of property, after the payment of prior liens thereon.

The Snavlin mortgages of $1,200, in which this fund has a sixth interest, (action No. 3): of $500 (action No. 4): of $300 (action No. 2): of $600 (action No. 1): of 650 (action No. 22) have been foreclosed and the properties covered by the mortgages bought in by the trustees.

The S. R. Stevens mortgage of $1,100 (action No. 24) in which this fund has a $200 interest, is being foreclosed.

In September, 1903, Celia Hayes paid $350 cash on mortgage covering lots 80, 82, 84, 86, 88 and 90 Pierson Tract and gave a new mortgage of $1,000 covering the same property.

The Allen mortgage of $225 (Action No. 8), the E. F. Allen mortgage of $650 (Action No. 26), the C. S. Adams mortgage of $400 (Action No. 9), are being foreclosed.

The Snavlin mortgages of $650 (Action No. 11), of $400 (Action No. 10), of $150 (Action No. 7), and the Cramer mortgage of $435 (Action No. 6), have been foreclosed and the property bought in by the Trustees.

This fund has a 6-11 interest in the Elm street property. Lots 31 and 32, Oakland street, and the Austin Tract property were obtained on the foreclosure of two Snavlin mortgages—one for $650 and one for $750; the Rowland street property on the foreclosure of a $1,600 mortgage, and the Hartson street property on the foreclosure of an $800 mortgage. This Fund's interest in the Hartson street property is subject to a first mortgage belonging to the Stacy Fund of $422.34.

In October, the Hussey Fund paid $150 for the C. T. Snavlin mortgage and assumed by J. Lamano, and in January, Elizabeth Higgins paid $25 on her contract of sale.

$422.84 was advanced by this Fund to purchase a first mortgage held by the Syracuse Savings Bank on 303 Hartson street. This was done to prevent a foreclosure by the bank and to protect subsequent mortgages on the property, held by the Trustees.

In October last, Cora M. Snavlin paid $25.00 principal on her mortgage of $550.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

The Pattat mortgage of $400, (Action No. 28), and the Stevens mortgage of $1,100, in which this Fund has a $600 interest (Action No. 24), are being foreclosed. The two Snavlin mortgages of $300 each (actions 14 and 15), have been foreclosed and bought in by the trustees.

The Snavlin mortgage of $500 (action No. 16) which was a second mortgage on two of the pieces of property covered by it, (the prior mortgage being owned by the Trustees) was foreclosed and the property bought in by the Trustees.

The Warner mortgage of $700, in which this Fund had a $450 interest, was also foreclosed and the property on West Kennedy Street was bought in by Trustees, subject to prior mortgages held by the Trustees, amounting to about $2,800.

The Elm Street property was obtained on the foreclosure of two mortgages made by John and Nancy Cathers for $1,100, and this Fund has a 5-11 interest in the Elm Street property: this property has been sold by the Trustees under a contract of sale.

No. 113 Hoefler Street was bought in by this Fund on the foreclosure of a first mortgage held by the Syracuse Savings Bank and the surplus obtained from its sale is to be divided between the funds holding the second mortgage.

In December A. J. Brizee paid $100 on the Duane Limebeck mortgage of $1,200 and M. & C Travis have paid $10 on contract of sale.

The Trustees have been informed by Mr. Speed of Ithaca, one of the executors under the will of John Cross, deceased, that Mr. Cross bequeathed to the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church the sum of $1,000, to be invested by them and the income therefrom to be used for the support of church services in St. John's Parish, Speedsville, N. Y. As yet no distribution has been made of the estate.

The Trustees have also been informed by the Rev. Thomas Duck that under the will of his sister, Joanna Ross, that all of her real estate situated in the town of Varick, and adjoining St. Andrew's Church, Dey's Landing, was devised in trust for the use of her mother for life, and on her death for the use of Rev Mr. Duck. and after his death unto the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in trust for the benefit of St. Andrew's Church, Dey's Landing.

In March, 1904, there was received from Rev. C. W. MacNish a sum of money to be the beginning of Calvary Church Endowment Fund, Hayt's Corners, and another sum to be the beginning of the Christ Church Endowment Fund of Willards, N. Y.

Inasmuch as the income of the different funds is not due until January and July first of each year, it is proposed hereafter that the payments to those entitled shall be made on February and August first.

In case of one of the Funds,, there seems to be an impairment of principal, and it is proposed hereafter to deduct each year a small amount from the income and to add such amount to the principal to make up such impairments.

The term of office of Seymour H. Stone and Edward D. Brandegee, as Trustees of the Parochial Fund, will expire September first next, and successors to them are to be elected by this Convention

By reason of the resignation of Andrew H. Green, Trustee and late Treasurer, a vacancy exists which will also have to filled.

Respectfully submitted.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

We, the undersigned of the committee appointed to examine the report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, met at the office of the treasurer of said fund, Charles W. Andrews, Esq., in the City of Syracuse, on June 9, 1904, and carefully examined all the securities, investments, receipts and disbursements to May 1, 1904, and do hereby certify that the same are correct.

A number of the investments are in litigation, or in process of foreclosure, and a few of the funds show temporary impairment and some permanent loss.

We also certify that treasurer Andrews has with considerable care classified and arranged each fund and simplified his report in a very clear and business like manner.

B. Van Wagenen Fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The only two loans made during the current year are the Merithew and the Mallory. The former is additional to the $500 already held, secured by the same real estate. The latter, by payment of the loan contracted last year of $600 simply enlarges that by $100, the security being the same.

Reductions have been made in the following loans by payments viz:

McAdams.....	$299 16
Rogers.....	100 00
Davis.....	200 00
	—	$599 16

The payments made to Rev. Dr. Duff are in pursuance of an appointment by the Bishop as Missionary on this foundation, with written direction to the Trustee as to payments in accordance with the terms agreed upon.

The use of well toward the amount of its income practically suspends the increase of the fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

Your Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund of the County of Chenango, respectfully report that they have examined the account presented of the receipts and disbursements of the said Fund for the last Convention year, and find the same to be a correct statement thereof, vouchers having been submitted for all of the disbursements. They have also examined the list of securities given in said report and the securities themselves, and find them to correspond and the securities to be properly endorsed with the payments made thereon during the year, as shown by the report.

The Fund is invested in bonds secured by mortgages on real estate in the counties of Chenango, Chemung and Broome, in this state, and your committee are satisfied that the security is ample in each case. Mr. Brown of the committee has personal knowledge of many of the properties.

The history of the Fund shows that it has had an excellent management, and that its present size and condition are largely due to the superior business judgment and unremitting care and watchfulness of the Trustee.

The Fund now amounts to $39,061 20, and yields an annual income of nearly $1,800.

Dated June 10, 1904.

SEYMOUR H. STONE,

CHAS. W. BROWN,

Committee.

I. Registrar's Report.

During the year the contributions have been about as follows:

From the Bishop of the Diocese a number of Convention Journals and various pamphlets.

From the Secretary: Convention Journals of this and other Dioceses.

From the Secretaries or Registrars of other Dioceses: 30 Journals of this and other Dioceses.

From the Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., Registrar of the Diocese of Connecticut, a handsomely bound copy of the proceedings of the celebration of the Bishop Jarvis' Centenary and Bishop Brewster's Decennial.

By purchase: The History of the Diocese of Western New York by the Rev. Dr. Hayes.

Report of the Registrar.

From the Rev. Dr. Egar: "Christ, the High Priest of the Universe," a published sermon.

From various others: Year Books, Parish Papers, Catalogues and Church Papers.

The following distributions have been made:

To the New York State Library, Albany, N. Y.—C. N. Y. Journals of 1901 and 1902.

To the Rev. Dr. Hart, acting Registrar of the General Convention—C. N. Y. Journals of 1890-94-96, 1901-02.

To the Library of the Bishop of Vermont—C. N. Y. "Primary" Journal.

To the Rev. T. B. Berry, Registrar of the Diocese of Western New York—C. N. Y. Journals of 1899, 1894, 1895, 1897, 1898, 1899 and 1900.

To the Librarian of Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J.—A full set of Central New York Journals.

To the Superintendent of Schools, Newark, Ohio—C. N. Y. Journal, 1903.

To Mr. Charles W. Andrews, Syracuse, N. Y.—Central New York Journals (Primary), 1869-70-71 72-74-75-79-83.

The appropriation for two years having been paid to the Registrar, he has, with the kind assistance of the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary, prepared 79 volumes of Journals, a full set of issues of the Gospel Messenger, and some volumes of the Church Almanac for binding. When the work is done, the Diocesan Library will be in condition to furnish references to those desiring to use it for historical or other purposes. Duplicate copies of Journals have been retained and might well be placed in charge of one of the clergy or laity of Syracuse, for a reference library in that city.

The financial report is as follows:

Report of the Deaf Mute Commission to the Diocese of Central New York:

The third Annual Report of the Deaf Mute Commission is as follows:

The Diocesan Year 1903-04, has been a prosperous one, as the reports of the Missionary and the treasurer plainly show. Despite the very hard winter and the difficulty of travelling in all parts of the diocese, the Rev. Mr. Van Allen has been untiring in his labors, and has held even more services than last year. The only wonder is, how, in addition to his work in the dioceses of Albany and Vermont he finds time and strength to do so much here. It is very evident to us, that with the combined ministrations of three dioceses, and the increasing number of appointments, our Missionary's powers, physical and spiritual are already taxed to the utmost. Although he is still in the prime of life and vigor, and carries his heavy burden uncomplainingly and faithfully, yet sooner or later a division of his labors must come.

We believe, therefore, that the Diocese of Central New York should move on to the position already reached in Western New Work Among Deaf Mutes.

York, namely, to command the entire time of a missionary of our own. We say this in all due appreciation of what Mr. Van Allen is now doing, but it can be readily seen that our own diocese would be decidedly the gainer, if he could give all his time to us. There are yet many important points here which he is not able to visit in parishes regularly contributing to the Deaf Mute Work. Scattered in the smaller towns throughout the Diocese there are people who should be searched for and ministered to, but this can never be done under our present arrangement. Comparison of the Commissions' reports during the three years of its existence shows that the work is on a much more solid basis than ever before, so we venture the hope that within a few years at least the above plan may be consummated.

Our financial resources this year have been as follows:--The Missionary Board, $200.00; the Junior Auxiliary, $100.00; and contributions from 35 parishes, $270.13. These sums with $86.79 in the treasury May 1, 1903, amount in all to $656.92. From this we have again given Mr. Van Allen $500.00, leaving $154.16 towards the expenses of another year. This large balance is gratifying, as it will enable us to meet the monthly payments on the Missionary's salary through the summer, and until the Advent Offerings begin to come in. We wish to thank all those who have listened to our appeal, and to all such as have not responded we beg them to remember the importance of this mission among our Deaf Mute brethren. Without such services they are practically debarred from the life giving and comforting ministrations of the Gospel. We should also consider the fact that this branch of missionary enterprise is almost entirely in the hands of our own Church. It is the Church's burden, and as the Church has accepted it, she should by all means further it with that zeal and liberality worthy of the name we bear and the message we are privileged to give. All this should stir us to greater interest in its behalf and larger offerings for its support. Our appeal will be again made on the Sunday next before Advent, 1904, and we trust that the clergy will give due announcement of this offering, and encourage their congregations to help us in this work,—we remain,

C. A. TALCOTT, Treasurer.(2) Report of the Missionary to Deaf Mutes.

To the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf and Dumb in the Diocese of Central New York.

GENTLEMEN: During the past year the work of the Mission to the Deaf and Dumb of the Diocese has been carried on along the same lines as heretofore, and the record differs only in detail from that of the preceding year. Services have been maintained regularly in all the cities and larger towns of the Diocese where any considerable number of deaf people could be gathered; numerous calls have been made upon isolated families and individuals; much personal Missionary work not easily summarized has been done, and, in general the Missionary has given counsel, aid and encouragement, in matters secular as well as spiritual whenever opportunity offered.

I believe that there is every reason to feel satisfaction with the results of the year and hopefulness for the future. In spite of the unusual severity of the winter, which made travelling difficult and sometimes impossible, the aggregate of services held shows no falling off from the exceptionally favorable record of last year. The attendance at services, however, was seriously affected by the inclemency of the weather, and this emphasized the devotion of those who were faithful and constant in attendance in spite of all obstacles. With the return of normal weather conditions the attendance has been restored to its usual proportions.

As to the condition of the deaf people themselves, they have very generally shared in the prosperity of the country, and nearly all have had steady employment at good wages. The requests for financial assistance have been unusually few, and I have only twice or thrice been called upon for assistance in securing employment. Many of the deaf display an earnestness in the performance of their religious duties which is very gratifying, and although progress is necessarily slow and often interrupted, I believe that there is a steadily growing appreciation among them of what the Church is doing for them through the Mission and an increasing willingness to avail themselves of the privileges thus offered.

I have held services as follows : At Utica, 32 (of which 12 were Celebrations of the Holy Eucharist) ; at Syracuse, 24 (of which 7 were Celebrations) ; at Rome, 12 (of which 1 was a Celebration) ; at Oneida, 9 ; at Watertown, 7 ; at Oswego, 5 ; at Binghamton, 4 ; at Elmira, 4 ; at Fulton, 4 ; at Owego, 3 ; Baptismal services, 6 ; Confirmation service, 1 ; burial service, 1 ; marriage service, 1 ; services at the Gallaudet Home, 2 ; appointments kept but no service held, 3 ; total 118

In addition, I have made 124 calls, in the course of which I met 196 individuals. With a people so scattered as are the deaf, a personal call is often the only means of reaching some families and this part of my work is of no little importance.

There have been eight confirmations, all at a special service at Rome in June. Three candidates were presented for St. Paul's, Syracuse; one each for Trinity, Utica; Zion, Rome; and Christ Church, Binghamton, and two for parishes in the Diocese of Albany. Bishop Olmsted made his address to those confirmed entirely in the sign language and his ability to use their language and his readiness in utilizing it made a deep impression upon the deaf people, of whom about fifty were present. There have also been six baptisms during the year, two adult and four infant.

In July, at the request of the Rev. John Chamberlain, D. D., I visited the Gallaudet Home for Blind, Aged and Infirm Deaf Mutes at Wappinger's Falls, and celebrated the Holy Eucharist and read Evening Prayer for the inmates. This noble institution, a lasting memorial to the zeal and devotion of the late Rev. Dr. Thomas Gallaudet, is doing a most useful work, and is deserving of general sympathy and support. Several of the inmates are former residents of this Diocese, and I am hopeful that I can shortly secure the admission of two more deserving people, who desire to pass their declining years at the Home.

In July, I attended the annual picnic of the deaf of Central New York at Onondaga Lake, and, in August, the annual picnic of the graduates of the school for the deaf at Rome, which was held at Summit Park, Utica, and at which over one hundred deaf people were present. I have attended two social gatherings at Utica, at which most of the deaf people of the city, as well as many from Rome and Herkimer, were present. I have lectured once before the Diocesan Officers—Report of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Students' Literary Society of the school at Rome. In June, I was elected president of the Alumni Association of the school, and in the performance of my duties I have come in contact with a majority of the graduates, most of whom reside in this Diocese. I have attended a number of meetings of various kinds and in general have endeavored to aid all efforts of the deaf toward self-improvement. During the year I have been thrice called upon to assist deaf people in straightening out legal tangles, in which their ignorance of the law and legal language had involved them, and I am very grateful to Mr. Talcott, of the commission, and to Mr. Charles Andrews, of Syracuse, for advice and assistance generously tendered me in this connection.

In the course of my work I have come across several deaf children who, through either the ignorance or the carelessness of their parents, were being permitted to grow up without instruction. Such a state of affairs is deplorable, and I felt justified in addressing a circular letter to my brethren of the clergy asking their aid in having such children sent to school. I have received several responses, and with one exception the children concerned have been sent to good schools.

The offerings at my services have amounted to $103.10. My expenditures have been: For traveling expenses, $72.37; for postage and stationery, $21.02; for relief to deaf people, $5.12; total, $99.51.

In closing I must express my sincere appreciation of the assistance given me by the Woman's Auxiliary, and my thanks for the kindness and courtesy shown me, not only by the members of the commission, but by the clergy and laity also.

Very respectfully yours,

H. VAN ALLEN.

ports that during the past year he officiated at Holland Patent for several months, and elsewhere in the Diocese for most of the time, baptising a number of children and celebrating Holy Communion. For two months he was unable to work on account of serious illness. He has married two couples, attended several funerals, and been present at examinations of candidates for Holy Orders when possible.

THE REV. H. M. BROWN, residing at East Aurora, N. Y., reports that he has read service and preached on eight occasions during the past year

THE REV. S. D. DAY, residing at Sanford, Fla., reports that during the past year he has had charge of the Parish of the Holy Cross, Sanford, Fla., with the care of All Saints Mission, Enterprise, and St. Mary's, Mission, Lake Mary, in the Jurisdiction of Southern Florida, having on an average, four services each Lord's Day including one Celebration of the Holy Communion, with the exception of one month when he officiated in St. Paul's Parish, Westfield, N. J.

THE REV. ROBERT M. DUFF, S. T. D., Missionary for Chenango County, residing at Norwich, reports as follows:

Families visited, 515. Places visited for services where there are no Episcopal Churches, 16. Mission Churches visited for services, 4. Parish Churches visited for preaching, 19. Services held, 141. Baptisms—Adults, 4; infants, 11; total 15. Confirmation classes, instructed 3. Holy Communion celebrated, 24. Sunday Schools organized, 4. Church music (chanting) introduced into 3 denominational churches. County House visited 3 times. Miles traveled, 2,432. Prayer books, Church manuals and leaflets distributed very largely. Twelve denominational churches in the county are now available for the services of our church. Though the weather during the winter months was very severe, the Missionary was not obliged to omit any of the appointed services. Many unattached Church people have been discovered in various parts of the county. The work is arduous, as there is much religious indifference in the several districts, and much prejudice against our church. No large results from the work of the Mission can be looked for for sometime.

THE REV. F. T. HENSTRIDGE, residing at Syracuse, reports that on January 1, 1904, he was appointed by Bishop Huntington Chaplain of the Shelter for Unprotected Girls, Syracuse, and begs to make the following report, from January 1, 1904, to June 1, 1904: Services, 29. Baptisms—Adults, 7. Holy Communion—Public, 1. And of the Hospital of the Good Shepherd Syracuse: Holy Communion—Public, 5; private, 6; total, 11. Baptisms—Adults, 1; infants, 13; total, 14. Services—Sunday, 52; week day, 417; total, 469. He has made over 100 visitations of the sick and dying in this institution during the past year. Service is read every day in the Chapel at 6:45 A.M., Fridays, 6:45 P.M.; Sundays, 3:45 P.M.

THE REV. O. E. HERRICK, D. D., residing in Watertown, reports that during the year he has preached and administered the Holy Communion several times; baptised one child, and officiated at six funerals.

THE REV. WILLIAM W. RAYMOND reports that after taking residence in Baldwinsville in May, 1903, he held services by request in several vacant parishes of the Diocese. Being received canonically in December by Letter Dimissory from the Diocese of Michigan City, he held stated services on alternate Sundays at Camden and Cleveland by appointment of the Bishop. Such services have continued prosperously at Camden, with a little interruption in severe winter weather. Services at Cleveland were wholly discontinued after January 1, on account of inclement weather, and are now also difficult to revive by reason of financial distress through a bank failure.

THE REV. JOHN A. STAUNTON, residing in Philadelphia, Pa., reports that in the absence of the Rector, he had charge of St. Luke's Parish, Utica, for two months; that he did Missionary duty in the South from January to April, and that at other times during the Diocesan year he exercised his ministry as opportunity afforded.

THE REV. CHAS. H. TINDELL, residing in Brookline, Mass., reports that by reason of continued disability he has no special services to report.

Matron—"Sister Leonora" Miss L. M. Hoffman.

Chaplain—The Rev. J. J. Burd.

It is the aim of this institution to supply to the little ones entrusted to its care a good home, together with the much needed influence of a pure family life. Religious education is, of course, the primary object, and besides the daily devotions, it is the rule to have a weekly service and a catechetical instruction by the Chaplain. The House is grateful to the Bishop for his kindly interest shown in many ways.

Fifty six children have been cared for during the past year.

The new building is nearly finished and will be ready for occupancy by the first of September.

Shelter for Unprotected Girls, Syracuse.

Opened February 21, 1877. Incorporated, 1878.

Trustees—The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese; Mrs. H. L. Elsner, Secretary; Miss A. S. Huntington, Treasurer; Dr. Juliet E. Hanchett, Miss J. E. McIntosh, Mrs. F. R. Hazard, Mrs. I. G. Vann, Dr. J. C. Carson, W. S. Andrews, Charles W. Snow, Mrs. E. Bourcard, Miss Lizzie Gill, and Rev. Henry Hyde.

Superintendent—Miss A. A. Kendall.

Chaplain—The Rev. Frederic T. Henstridge.

The object of this institution is to train young and neglected girls in the ways of purity, industry and self control. They are taught sewing, laundry and housework and instructions in the elementary branches of education. Pains are taken to procure respectable situations at service for those who leave the house. The income is dependent upon annual subscriptions, occasional gifts, and a small sum for board from friends or the poor authorities.

Schools

St. John's School, Manlius.

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, President of the Board of Trustees; Col. William Verbeck, President; The Rev. A. C. Clarke, Chaplain.

St. John's School was founded in 1869 by the Rt. Rev. Frederic D. Huntington, S. T. D., Bishop of Central New York, and has ever since been a successful Church School of the highest grade. It is located at Manlius, N. Y., ten miles from Syracuse, on the line of the Syracuse, Ontario and New York R. R.

The Chaplain conducts all religious worship and instruction. The services are arranged and conducted, with the advice of the Bishop, as will best promote moral and religious growth.

There are five courses of study, a course in Civil Engineering, a Classical Course, a Special Course and a Grammar Course.

The President, Chaplain, Headmaster, Commandant, detailed by the War Department, and nine masters, constitute the Faculty.

APPENDIX V.

(A)

Constitution and Canons.

Constitution.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the Second Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committees shall be appointed.

Sec. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop or in the case above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, if he be present, and the officiating Ministers regularly admitted and settled in some Church within the Diocese, which is in union with the Convention; and of Lay-members, not exceeding three delegates from each parish or congregation in union with the Convention.

Sec. 2. All other Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese for the space of six months, and not under discipline, may be members of the Convention.

Sec. 3. The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

Sec. 4. But in case of Churches or Congregations organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

Sec. 5. The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the convention and the conditions under which union or representation shall be forfeited, may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV

Every Convention at its first morning session shall be opened with prayers and the Holy Communion, and the Bishop may at this time deliver his Annual Address or Charge.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Annual Convention from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Annual Convention, and until a successor be appointed. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of each Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1. In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and, except as provided in the next Section, may vote in one body; but if in any case it shall be required by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy as individuals, and the Laity as Parishes; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

Constitution.

Sec. 2. In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately by ballot, and according to the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering the Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing, and considered in the Convention; and if approved of, shall lie over till the next Annual Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

ARTICLE IX.

No amendment of the Canons shall be made during the session of the Convention in which the same shall be proposed, unless two-thirds of each order shall concur therein; but any amendment, if approved by a majority less than two-thirds, shall lie over for the consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Canons.

ADOPTED IN CONVENTION, 1869.

CANON I

Of a List of Ministers in the Diocese.

Section 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures, Parishes, Stations, or places of residence, designating those who are entitled to seats in the Convention; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry, shall have a place on the said list. And such list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and be prefixed to the Journal.

Sec. 2. The right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisors of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

CANON II.

Of the Members and Organization of the Convention.

Section 1. The evidence of the regular admission of a Clergyman into this Diocese shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention of a compliance with Section VII. of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest of the Canons of the General Convention; and the evidence of a settlement in a Church thereof shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention, of a compliance with the first and second sections of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest.

Sec. 2. The appointment of a Lay Delegate to the Convention of this Diocese shall be certified in writing by the Rector of the Parish or Church of which he is a delegate, or by one of the Wardens, or by the Clerk of the Vestry, or Trustees. This Certificate shall state in all cases that the person so certified is entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen—or would be so entitled if the Church which he is appointed to represent were not otherwise organized or incorporated—and that the said Parish or Church is not in arrears in payment of its assessment for the Diocesan Expense Fund, or (if it be in arrears) that it prays the Convention to remit the sum in arrears for the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

Sec. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

Sec. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President Pro Tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

Sec. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. Notice shall then be given to the Lay Delegates to place their certificates on the table. They shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members to be appointed by the President. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called and the names of these who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

Sec. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

Sec. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

Sec. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

CANON III

Of the Call of a Convention.

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Sec. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

Section 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

Sec. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

CANON V.Of the Secretary of the Convention.

Section 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

Sec. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section IV, Canon 20, Title I, of the Digest, a certificate to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary; together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

Sec. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Sec. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his office.

Sec. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

Sec. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an election is made by the Convention. The Treasurer may be removed at any time from his office by the Standing Committee for any neglect or misconduct, of which they shall be judges.

CANON VII.

Of Registers Parochial Reports, and the Removal of Communicants from one Parish to Another.

Section 1. The Parish Register, required by Section V, Canon 18, Title 1, of the Digest, shall specify the name and the time of the birth of the child baptized with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the parties married, and of two or more special witnesses of the same, and the place where the marriage was solemnized; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the Records of the Church.

Sec. 2. The Parish Register shall contain a list of the families and adult persons in the Cure as far as practicable, and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed from time to time.

Sec. 3. In every Parish and Missionary Station a list of the Communicants shall be kept which shall retain the names of all persons who shall have been admitted to the Holy Communion in that Parish or Station until they shall have ceased to be Communicants in the Cure by either (1) death, (2) removal or (3) repulsion and suspension or excommunication by competent authority. In the Annual Report of the Parish discrimination shall be made by means of separate items between those who shall have received the Holy Communion at least once within two years preceding such report, and all others whose names are on the list as above provided, but who shall not have received the Communion either in public or in private during the two years preceding the report, whatever may have been the occasion or cause of their neglect of their privilege and duty.

Sec. 4. The Annual Report shall also indicate all the additions to the list of Communicants during the past year, as well as the losses by death, removal, repulsion or suspension, as required by Section V, Canon 18, Title 1, and Section I, Canon 20, Title 1, of the Digest, and shall also contain, in addition to the value of churches and rectories, the amount of insurance thereon. Under the head of rector's salary and current expenses shall be included salary of ministers, choir expenses, wages of sexton, fuel and lights.

Sec. 5. In every case where a Parish is destitute of a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by the Wardens, or by some person appointed by the Vestry, whose duty it shall also be to prepare and forward to the Bishop the Annual Parochial Report.

Sec. 6. Communicants removing from one Parish to another, in the Diocese, shall procure a certificate as provided for in Canon 12, Title 2, Sec. 1, of the Canons of the General Convention.

Sec. 7. The same rule shall apply in this Diocese to Communicants who may wish to be transferred, without changing their residence from the list of Communicants in one Parish, so as to be received as Communicants in any other Parish or in any other place of worship where the Holy Communion is habitually celebrated.

Sec. 8. No Rector or other Minister in charge of any Parish in this Diocese shall receive as an habitual Communicant, or enter upon the list of Communicants under his charge, the name of any person who has been a Communicant in any other Parish in this Diocese without such a certificate or Letter Dimissory from the Parish to which said Communicant last belonged.

Canon VIII, IX

Sec. 9. Any communicant, not under censure or ecclesiastical discipline, shall be entitled to such a certificate or letter on application therefor to the Minister in charge of the Parish to which said Communicant belongs, and in case of a vacancy in the pastoral care of a Parish, and in case of any person under discipline the application shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese, or in the vacancy in the Episcopal office, to the President of the Standing Committee, and the answer and decision of the Bishop or of the President of the Standing Committee, as above provided, shall be final and conclusive.

CANON VIII.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

Section 1. The Convention shall, at its regular annual meeting next preceding the regular session of the General Convention, elect by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, four clergymen and four laymen, who shall be Communicants of the Church and residents of the Diocese, to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. The Deputies so chosen shall hold their office during the term of three years.

Sec. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies between the stated times of election, may be supplied by any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to signify to the Bishop, on some day within three weeks of the meeting of the General Convention, and at least one week before such meeting, the acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which, and in case of their inability or unwillingness to perform the duties of the appointment, all vacancies so occurring by desertions, sickness or death shall be filled by the designation of the Bishop, from the list of the Clergymen and Laymen actually belonging to the Convention in which the Deputies were appointed, and such person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

Sec. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the President of the Standing Committee.

CANON IX.

Of the Standing Committee.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention an election of a Standing Committee shall be made; which Committee shall consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of each order, each Parish having one vote by its delegates. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical Members and Lay Members of the Committee.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical Members of said Committee; in which case such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical Members alone; provided that no sentence shall be pronounced upon a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a true record of their proceedings and report the same annually to the Diocesan Convention. He shall preserve all books, journals and papers belonging to said committee, and transmit the same to his successor in office.

CANON X.Of the Diocesan Missions and Offerings.

Section 1. All members of the Church in the Diocese of Central New York constitute its Diocesan Missionary Society; and the Convention of the Diocese shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Sec. II. For Missionary purposes the Diocese shall be divided into six districts, as follows:

First District—Jefferson and Lewis Counties.

Second District—Oneida County, the Village of Oneida, and all the rest of Madison County except the townships including the Parishes of Cazenovia, Canastota, Chittenango and Perryville.

Third District—Broome and Chenango Counties.

Fourth District—Onondaga, Oswego and Cortland Counties, and the townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.

Fifth District—Cayuga and Seneca Counties.

Sixth District—Chemung, Tioga and Tompkins Counties.

Sec. III. 1 The principal officer of said Missionary District shall be called the Dean of the District. He shall be appointed every four years by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, after nomination in a regular Convocation of the same. Under the Bishop he shall have the oversight of all Missionary work in his District.

2. Each Missionary District shall annually elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, at its first regular Convocation after the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

3. If the office of Dean of any Missionary District become vacant, by removal or otherwise, the Bishop shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term.

Sec. IV. 1. In the general Missionary work of the Diocese, the Bishop shall be assisted by a Diocesan Board of Managers, consisting, together with the Bishop, of the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall also be the Treasurer of the Board, the six Deans, and six Clergymen and six Laymen, one of each from each Missionary District, to be elected severally by the Convocation of the District entitled to this representation. In any vacancy of the Episcopate, the Board of Managers shall elect one of its members to preside.

Canon X

2. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall consult for the promotion of the Missionary work of the Diocese. It shall, each year, through its Secretary, present to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual session, a report of the Missionary work of the Diocese during the Conventional year.

3. At each Annual Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall submit to the Diocesan Board of Missions for its action, an estimate of the sum required for the Missionary work of the Diocese during the current year. Immediately after the adjournment of the Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall meet and determine how much of the money voted by the Diocese for its Missionary work during the year shall be assessed to each District, and what part of it shall be given to the same for apportionment among its stipendiary Clergy. And this determination shall be published in the Journal of the Convention.

4. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall, through its Treasurer, prepare for publication in each Journal of the Convention, a table by districts, of all the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, the sum assessed to each District to be raised for Diocesan Missionary work, the amount assessed by the District to each Parish and Mission for the same, and the sum actually given for this purpose -y each Parish and Mission. It shall also contain the amount of Stipendiary Funds given to each district, together with the sum apportioned to each of its Stipendiary Parishes and Missions.

5. Other meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at the call of the Bishop, or in a vacancy of the Episcopate, of four Deans. Eleven members of the Board, including three Deans, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but no action of the Board shall be valid without the approval of the Bishop..

Sec. V. 1. Each Missionary District shall hold not less than two stated Convocations yearly. At the first of these, which shall be held as soon after the adjournment of the Annual Convention as the District may determine, appropriations shall be made by it in aid of the Missionary work in the said District under the advice or direction of the Bishop.

2. Each Parish and Missionary Station seeking aid from the Convocation shall make written application through its Vestry or Committee stating the facts necessary to a full understanding of the case, particularly the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the Parish or Station for the support of the Minister.

3. Each Missionary District shall be represented in its Convocation by the Clergy canonically resident, and by two Lay Delegates from each of its Parishes and Missions.

4. Each Missionary District shall have power to assess upon its own Parishes and Missions whatever sum may canonically be required of it for the Missionary work of the Diocese, and all moneys raised or collected for Diocesan Missions shall be promptly paid by the Treasurer of the District to the Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Managers, and by him paid to the Missionaries on the order of the Treasurer of the District.

Canon XI

5. At least two weeks before the Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Secretary of each Missionary District shall make report of the year's work of the District to the Secretary of the Board of Managers, including the items called for in Section IV, 4, of this Canon.

6. Any missionary District may with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special Missionary work, provided it shall first have complied with all canonical requirements, and shall be free to make its own regulations and conduct its own Missionary work in all ways not conflicting with the provisions of this Canon.

7. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman in charge of a Parish or Mission to attend all Convocations of his District, and to report to the same the Missionary work done in his Cure.

Sec. VI. 1. Offerings shall be made systematically in the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese as follows:

For the Communion Alms on the first Sunday in each month.

For the Board of Missions, Domestic or General, on a Sunday in Advent.

For the Christmas Fund, on Christmas Day.

For the Board of Missions, Foreign or General, on a Sunday after the Epiphany.

For the Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York, or the Bible and Prayer Book Society of New York, in the discretion of the Minister, on Whit Sunday.

For the increase of the Ministry, on Easter, or some other near and convenient Sunday.

For Deficiency in Income from the Episcopate Fund of the Diocese, on the fourth Sundays in March and September.

For the Mission among the Deaf-Mutes in the Diocese, on the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, or on the Sunday next before Advent.

2. Offerings for Diocesan Missions shall be made in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese on the third Sunday of each month, when one of the above named Sundays is not the third Sunday. All such offerings shall be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the District.

It is also recommended that the Minister of each Parish or Congregation, at the Episcopal visitation, ask an offering which shall be placed in the hands of the Bishop, to be used at his discretion for the benefit of needy persons, and which shall be called Bishop's Relief Fund.

CANON XI

Of the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Section 1. In order to provide for the necessary expenses of the Diocese, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the

Canon XII

Diocese to present to the Standing Committee on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, an estimate of the amount of money that will be needed during the ensuing year to meet the current expenses and expenses of the Convention, adding thereto the liabilities of the Diocese chargeable to said fund, if there be any.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said Committee, upon receipt of this estimate, to assess this amount upon the Parishes and Churches of the Diocese, at the rate of an uniform per-cent. upon the amount last previously reported to the Convention and printed in the Journal under the head of "Rector's Salary and Current Expenses" as defined in Canon VII, Sec. 4, not including any amount that may have been given to the Parish or Church, or its Minister, by the Missionary Board of the Diocese, or by any other Missionary organization. And it shall be the duty of said Committee to report to the Convention the schedule of assessments thus apportioned and when the Convention shall have adopted the same, with such amendments as it may deem necessary, it shall be binding upon the Parishes and Churches, and shall be printed as an appendix to the Journal.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall notify each Parish and Church of the quota thus assigned to it, and it shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of each Parish or Church, or the Minister and Trustees—if there be no Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen—to see that the amount thus due the Diocese, be forwarded to the Treasurer in quarterly installments, so that the whole amount be paid before the first day of May in each year.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present to the Secretary of the Convention, at the opening of each Session, a list of such Parishes or Churches as are in arrears to the Diocesan Expense Fund with the amount of such arrears, that the same may be placed in the hands of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, and each such Parish or Church, shall be excluded from representation in the Convention, until such arrears are paid in full, unless the sum in arrears be remitted by the Convention itself, for reasons which are satisfactory to the Convention.

CANON XII

Of the Christmas Fund.

Section 1. All moneys raised or contributed for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy, shall be paid to the Corporation known as "The Trustees of the Christmas Fund of the Diocese of Central New York." And it shall be the duty of the Convention at each of its annual meetings to nominate by ballot one person to act as Trustee in the said corporation to fill the vacancy which by the by-laws of said corporation will then occur, and to nominate in like manner other persons to fill any other vacancies in the said board that may have occurred during the year since the last Annual Convention.

Sec. 2. In every Parish in the Diocese there shall be made annually, on Christmas day, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy of the Diocese, and for the benefit of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy of the Diocese. It shall be the duty of every

Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the Congregation, and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

Sec. 3. All appropriations for the Relief of Disabled Clergy shall be made by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, on the certificate of the Bishop that the individual has labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than three years, (except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese and having never removed therefrom), and is disabled by age or physical infirmity from having a parochial charge; but no appropriation shall be made for a larger sum than five hundred dollars per annum, and it shall be paid semi-annually, on the first of January and July.

Sec. 4. All appropriations for the benefit of the widow or children of a deceased Clergyman shall be made by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund on the certificate of the Bishop, that the person or persons is the widow or minor child or children of a deceased Clergyman who was a canonical resident of the Diocese at the time of his death, and who had labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than one year. (except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese and having never removed therefrom), but no appropriation for this purpose shall be made for a larger sum than three hundred dollars per annum, to be paid semi-annually, on the first of April and October; and no appropriation shall be paid to the widow after she is married again, or to orphan or orphans after having attained the age of majority.

Sec. 5. The Trustees of the Christmas Fund shall have power to appropriate a sum not exceeding fifty dollars towards the funeral expenses of a deceased beneficiary.

Sec. 6. All moneys belonging to the Fund and not needed for present relief shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security upon real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings, the appraisal to be made by an appraiser appointed by the Trustees for the purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State, or of the United States; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of said Trustees and their successors in office, as Trustees of the Fund; and they shall have the power from time to time to change such securities or investments.

Sec. 7. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees of the Christmas Fund, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate committee according to Canon XIV, signed by said Trustees or a majority of them.

CANON XIII.

Of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate.

Section 1. There shall be five Trustees appointed by the Convention to whom the management and care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate in this Diocese shall be entrusted. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to appoint a President and Secretary; and no act of said Trustees shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees by a majority of the same and recorded by their Secretary in a book to be kept as the record of their proceedings, and to be opened to the inspection of the Convention. The said Trustees shall hold their office during the pleasure of the Convention; and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees shall from time to time be filled by the Convention.

Sec. 2. All moneys belonging to the Fund for the support of the Episcopate shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon securities on real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings; the appraisal to be made by one appraiser, appointed by the Trustees for that purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State or of the United States; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said Trustees and their successors in office as Trustees of said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities and investments.

Sec. 3. The salary of the Bishop shall be paid quarterly, by the Treasurer of the Diocese, on the first days of July, October, January and April, in each fiscal year, and the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund shall remit quarterly, in anticipation of such payments, all sums received by them as income of said Fund, and the receipt of said Treasurer shall be a proper voucher for said Trustees in rendering their annual report to the Convention of this Diocese.

Sec. 4. With a view to the further increase of the principal of the said Fund, such portions of the contributions of the Diocese as may be given or appropriated for that purpose shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the order of the said Trustees, to be invested by them for accumulation and without diminution, until the further order of the Convention; and all moneys remaining in the hands of said Trustees for investment shall be deposited in some safe bank in this State, to the credit of the President and Secretary of the Board.

Sec. 5. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate Committee according to Canon XIV.

CANON XIV.

Of the Fiscal Year and Financial Reports

Section 1. The fiscal year of the Diocese shall begin on the first day of May annually, and end on the thirtieth day of April following. And the Treasurer of the Diocese and all Trustees having in charge any funds belonging to the Diocese shall annually make their reports to the appropriate Standing Committees on or before the fifteenth of May in each year.

Sec. 2. Standing Committees shall be appointed at each Annual

Canons XF, XVI

Convention to consider and report to the Annual Convention next ensuing, as follows:

1. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, consisting of three Laymen.

2. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, consisting of three Laymen.

3. On the report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, consisting of three Laymen.

4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, consisting of three Laymen.

5. On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, consisting of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of each of these several committees to meet in each year at some time between the fifteenth of May and the meeting of the next Annual Convention, at the place where the Treasurer resides, or where the funds are held, and make an examination into all books, papers, vouchers, etc., relating to the respective funds held by the Treasurer or Trustees, and prepare a report to be presented to the Annual Convention next ensuing. An abstract of each report with such resolutions as may be proposed, and the reports of the Standing Committees constituted by this Canon shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Convention in time to permit him to cause the same to be printed, and sent to the Clergy and Lay Delegates, one week before the meeting of the Convention.

CANON XV.

Of Vacant Churches.

Section 1. Whenever a Church becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Bishop.

Sec. 2. The Bishop shall appoint those of the Clergy in the Diocese, who can with most convenience discharge the duty, to supply such vacant Parishes as have been reported to him, at such times as may be deemed convenient and proper. It shall be the duty of such vacant Churches thus supplied to defray all the expenses incident to such occasional services.

CANON XVI.

Of Elections

Section 1. All the Officers of the Convention shall be elected by ballot. Election by ballot may be dispensed with by an unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

Sec. 2. To facilitate the stated election by ballot, the Secretary shall provide sheets of paper with printed headings, containing the titles of the various offices to be filled by ballot, for the use of the members of the Convention; and all such officers may be voted for at one balloting. No printed ballots shall be allowed.

Canons XVII, XVIII

Sec. 3. In all cases of failure or omission to elect officers by the Convention, the persons last elected shall continue in office until others be chosen.

Sec. 4. In case of vacancies in office, occurring during recess, it shall be competent for the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, to fill ad interim, any position which the Convention, if in session, might fill.

CANON XVII.

Of Attending the Meetings of the Convention.

Section 1. Whereas, the regular attendance of the Clergy and Laity at the meetings of the Convention is of essential consequence to the interests of the Church, this duty is hereby enjoined upon them.

Sec. 2. And whereas it is often necessary to travel a considerable distance to the place of meeting of the Convention, it is hereby made the duty of the different Parishes to make provision for the expenses of their Clergy in attending the Convention, either by a collection in Church on Sunday, or by some other mode.

Sec. 3. No member of this Convention shall leave the same during its session without having applied for and received leave of absence.

CANON XVIII

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop

Wherever any Minister of the Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceedings in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

Section 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever from public rumor, or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case—a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is, in their opinion, sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

Sec. 2. A presentment being made in any of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as to constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts some of which do, and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time and from place to place, (but always within the Diocese,) as they shall think necessary.

Sec. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

Sec. 4. If at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if after one adjournment or more it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

Sec. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial as before mentioned he shall be considered as denying them.

Sec. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn until another day.

Sec. 7. When the Board proceeds to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced; which evidence shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer authorized by law to administer oaths may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses, that they will testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Board may disperse with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

Sec. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness can not be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a commissary to take the testimony of such witness. Such commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness; and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the commissary and enclosed under his seal and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

Sec. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by them or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be without delay communicated to the accused; and the original decision, together with evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some Church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

Sec. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the fact shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

Sec. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Sec. 12. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee; and for that purpose shall, after final decision be delivered to their Secretary.

CANON XIX.

Of the Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Bishop may nominate for the approval of the Convention a

11. Miscellaneous business.

THIRD AND SUBSEQUENT DAYS.

- III. On the third and any subsequent day, after Morning Prayer, the Order of Business shall be as follows:
 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes of the preceding day.
 2. The disposal of the Unfinished Business of the Convention in the order above prescribed for the Second Day; the business, if any, however, which was under consideration at the time of adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

GENERAL RULES.

IV. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

V. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded it shall be stated by the President before the debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing when required by the President or any member.

VI. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

Rules of Order.

VII. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received, except to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order here named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

VIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate; but any matter thus laid on the table may be called up again during the same session on the motion of any member who voted in the affirmative.

IX. On the question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members and the Churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journal.

X. Any five votes may require the ayes and nays to be taken by orders, and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XI. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XII. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention; nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XIII. All Reports of Committees shall be in writing, and shall, upon reading or presentation of the same, become the property of the Convention without any motion for acceptance, and any report recommending action by the Convention shall be accompanied with a Resolution.

XIV. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XV. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect, unless by the vote of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XVI. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XVII. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 6 to 7:30 in the evening.

APPENDIX VI.

(A)

Organization of Parishes.

(1.) An Act in Relation to Religious Corporations, Being Chapter Three Hundred and Fifty-eight of the General Laws.

Special Provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches.

Section 30. The Meeting for Incorporation.

31. The Certificate of Incorporation.
32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.
33. Annual Elections.
34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of parishes hereafter incorporated.
35. Changing date of annual elections, number and terms of Office of Vestrymen and terms of Churchwardens of Parishes heretofore incorporated.
36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.

Section 30. The meeting for incorporation.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Congregation, and of electing the first Churchwardens and Vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Organization of Parishes.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such Parish or Congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such Parish or Congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating Minister, or if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the Chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated Parish or Congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the Vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are Communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be Churchwardens thereof: one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

Sec. 2. Section thirty-one of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 31. The Certificate of Incorporation.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county and the town, city or village in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;

Organization of Parishes.

6. The names of the Vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;

7. The names of the Churchwardens elected at such meeting, and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the Clerk of the County, so specified therein, the Churchwardens and Vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the Rector, when there is one, shall form a Vestry and shall be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its governance.

Such corporation shall be an Incorporated Church, and may be termed also an Incorporated Parish.

Sec. 3. Section thirty-two of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—No meeting of the Vestry or Trustees of any Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church, shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the Rector in writing either personally or by mail; or, if there be no Rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the Churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the Vestry or Trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient, provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the Vestry or Board of Trustees there must be present either:

1. The Rector, at least one of the Churchwardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen, or

2. The Rector, both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen, or

3. If the Rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the Rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one Churchwarden and a majority of the Vestrymen, or both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen.

But if there be a Rector of the Parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

The presiding officer of the Vestry or Trustees shall be the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the Churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the Churchwardens be present; or the Churchwarden present if but one be present.

At each meeting of the Vestry or Trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The Vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a Churchwarden or Vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The Vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the Parish or Church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a Rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the Rectorship of the Parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the Rector.

Sec. 4. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 33. Annual Elections of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church hertofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the Rector of the Parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating Minister or by a Churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the Parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and Vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the Rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Churchwarden be present, a Vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the Parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such Parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as Churchwarden unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as Vestryman unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the Vestrymen of the Parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated, two Churchwardens and the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one Churchwarden or of but one-third of its Vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each Churchwarden and Vestrymen shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

Sec. 5. Section thirty-four of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of Vestrymen of such Parish be changed to either three, six or nine Vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual meeting of such Parish and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of Vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of Vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of Vestrymen to be elected at such annual election one-third of such increased number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not effect the term of office of any Vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

Sec. 6. Section thirty-five of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of Vestrymen and terms of office of Churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the Annual Election be changed to a secular day in the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of Vestrymen be changed to three, six or nine, and that the terms of office of the Churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next Annual Election of such Parish and be submitted to such meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified at such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the Parish; the number of Vestrymen so decided on, and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect Churchwardens so that the term of one Warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning, with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the Vestrymen and Churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election, shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of Vestrymen and manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years, one-third thereof to hold office for two years, and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one Churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of Vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one Churchwarden.

Sec. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

tions of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish heretofore incorporated shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of sections thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

Sec. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2.) An Act to Amend the Religious Corporations Law.
Became a Law April 19, 1900.

Section 1. Section eleven of Article one of Chapter seven hundred and twenty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act in relation to religious corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws," and known as the religious corporations law, as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Sale, mortgage and lease of real property of religious corporations.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale mortgage or lease of its real property unless the Rector of such Church, if it then has a Rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese to which such Church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the Standing Committee, with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. * * * The petition of the Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church * * * shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

(3.) Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

To all to whom these Presents may Concern:

We, the undersigned, whose names and seals are affixed to this instrument, do hereby certify, that on the [Second] day of [June] in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and [ninety five], the men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York worshipping in [the School House of School District Number (5) in the Town of Verona in the County of Oswego, in the State of New York,] not already incorporated, met at their usual place of worship aforesaid, for the purpose of incorporating themselves under the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An Act in relation to Religious Corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws, in pursuance of notice duly given specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof which had been publicly read in the time of morning service, on two Sundays next previous to such meeting, by * [the Rector] at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, and which was also posted in a conspicuous place on the outer door near the main entrance to such place of worship.

And we further certify that at such meeting, not less than six men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation aforesaid, and not already incorporated, and duly qualified to vote at such meeting, met for the purpose aforesaid.

And we further certify that { [the Rev. John Williams, the Rector of the said Church or Congregation,] presided at the said meeting and received the votes.

And we further certify that the number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting was [three, six or nine]

And we further certify that at the said meeting the following persons were elected Churchwardens and Vestrymen, for the term of office set opposite their names respectively, by a majority of the votes of the persons present at the said meeting qualified to vote, viz.:

The certificate thus made out, and signed and sealed, must be duly acknowledged by the parties signing and sealing the same, before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgement, or proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate, to be recorded in the County where the Church or place of worship is situate.

Being thus signed, sealed and acknowledged the certificate must be recorded by the Clerk of the County or by the officer whose duty it is, or may hereafter be made, to record such instruments in the County in which the Church is situate.

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(B)

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(1.) An Act for the Incorporation of Societies to Establish Free Churches. Passed April 30, 1854.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Section 1. Any seven or more persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of them being residents of this State, who shall associate themselves for the purpose of founding and continuing one or more Free Churches, may make, sign and acknowledge, before any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds of land to be recorded in this State and may file in the office of the Secretary of State, and also of the Clerk of the County in which any such Church is to be established, a certificate in writing, in which shall be stated the name or title by which such society shall be known in the law, the purpose of its organization, and the names of seven trustees of whom not less than five shall be persons who are not Ministers of the Gospel, or priests of any denomination, to manage the same; but such certificate shall not be filed unless with the written consent and approbation of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the district in which any such Church shall be intended to be established, or in the city of New York, of a Judge of the Superior Court of the said city, to be indorsed on such certificate.

Sec. 2. Upon the filing of such certificate, the persons named therein as trustees and their successors, being citizens of the United States and residents of this State, shall be a body politic and corporate, with all the rights, powers and duties, and subject to all the restrictions and obligations and other provisions, so far as the same may be applicable and consistent with this act specified and contained in the act entitled "An Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies," passed April 12, 1848, and the act amending the same passed April 7, 1849, except that the limitation in the first of the said acts of the value of the real estate that may be held by any society in the city or county of New York, incorporated under this act, shall not be applicable to any Church edifice erected or owned by such society, or the lot of ground on which the same may be built, and except that the provision in the first of the said acts, in relation to the personal liability of the trustees, shall be applicable only to the trustees who shall have assented to the creation of any debt.

Sec. 3. Any vacancies occurring in the said Board of Trustees shall be supplied by the remaining trustees at any legal meeting of the members; but there shall always be at least five members of the Board who are not ministers of the Gospel or priests of any denomination.

Sec. 4. The seats or pews in every Church building or edifice owned or occupied by any corporation organized under this Act shall be forever free for the occupation and use during public worship, of all persons choosing to occupy the same, and conducting themselves with propriety; and no rent, charge or exaction shall ever be made or demanded for such occupation or use; nor shall any real estate belonging to such corporation be sold or mortgaged by the trustees thereof, unless by the direction of the Supreme Court, to be given in the same manner, and in the like cases, as provided by law in relation to religious corporations.

(2.) Certificate of Incorporation of Free Churches.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, male persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are residents of the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have associated ourselves together for the purpose of founding and continuing a Free Church in the City [or town] of —, State of New York that the name or title by which such society shall be known in law was determined to be the Free Church of the —, in the — of —. That the purpose of its organization is the ministering of the Word and Sacraments according to the doctrines and worship and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. That the following are the names of seven trustees who are to manage the affairs of the said Church and body corporate, five of whom are not Ministers of the Gospel or Priests of any denomination, namely:

[Signed in duplicate by all, and to be acknowledged, not proved, and to be approved by a Judge of the Supreme Court of the district, and filed in the office of the County Clerk, and a duplicate in the office of the Secretary of State.]

Acts relating to the incorporation of the Trustees of the Episcopate, Parochial and Christmas Funds, and the Bible and Prayer Book Society may be found in any Journal of the Convention prior to 1896.

OF THE

Thirty-seventh Annual Convention

1907

S. T. D., L. L. D., L. H. D.,
FIRST BISHOP OF CENTRAL NEW YORK.

Frederic Dan Huntington was born in Hadley Mass., May 28, 1819, the youngest of seven sons of the Rev. Dan Huntington and his wife, Elizabeth Porter Phelps. The Rev. Dan Huntington, a graduate of Yale College and for a time tutor in that institution, was for a number of years an orthodox Congregational Minister, but subsequently became a Unitarian of the Channing type. The son, after studying at the Hopkins Academy, was graduated from Amherst College in 1839 as the Valedictorian of his class, and from the Harvard Divinity School in 1842. He was at once ordained and settled as pastor of the South Congregational (Unitarian) Church of Boston. In 1855 he became preacher to Harvard College and the first Plummer Professor of Christian Morals. In 1843 he served as Chaplain to the Massachusetts Legislature. On March 25, 1860, he withdrew from the Unitarian denomination and was Confirmed by the Bishop of Massachusetts. Receiving Holy Orders he immediately organized Emmanuel Church, Boston, and was its Rector until he was elected First Bishop of the new Diocese of Central New York. He had previously been elected Bishop of Maine but had declined the office. He was consecrated to the Episcopate in Emmanuel Church, Boston, on the 8th of April, 1869. Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, then Presiding Bishop, was the Chief Consecrator; Bishop Coxe, of Western New York, was the preacher; and Bishop Eastburn of Massachusetts, Bishop Horatio Potter of New York, Bishop Clark of Rhode Island, Bishop Randall of Colorado, Bishop Neely of Maine, Bishop Morris of Oregon, Bishop Littlejohn of Long Island, and Bishop Doane of Albany, joined in the Laying on of Hands. The Rev. Walter Ayrault and the Rev. Joseph M. Clarke were the attending presbyters.

The next day Bishop Huntington ordained his eldest son to the Priesthood, and on the Sunday of the Good Shepherd Confirmed fifty-three of his old parishioners at Emmanuel Church. On April 15th he commenced his visitations in Central New York Confirming fifty-three persons in Grace Church, Utica, of which the Rev. Dr. E. M. Van Deusen was Rector.

At the time when Dr. Huntington was made Bishop there were in the Diocese one hundred and six parishes and missions and seventy clergymen. At the time of his death the parishes numbered one hundred and forty-five and the Clergy one hundred and seventeen.

On the 8th of April, 1894, by a happy coincidence the Sunday of the Good Shepherd, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Bishop's Consecration, was observed throughout the Diocese. Historical addresses were delivered in the parish churches and an offering of more than $4,000.00 was made as a testimonial of esteem and affection. This celebration was appropriately concluded at the annual Diocesan Convention on Wednesday, June 13, in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, when there were present three Bishops and ninety-eight other clergymen, and ninety-nine lay delegates representing fifty-eight parishes of the Diocese. The Anniversary sermon was preached by Bishop Henry C. Potter, of New York, and addresses were made by Bishop A. Cleveland Coxe, of Western New York; the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., president of the Standing Committee, and Mr. Wm. M. White, of Utica.

On September 4, 1843, Dr. Huntington was married to Miss Hannah Dane Sargent, daughter of Captain Epes Sargent. Seven children were born to them of whom five lived to maturity, the Rev. George Putnam Huntington, D. D.; the Rev. James Otis Sargent Huntington, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross; Miss Arria Sargent Huntington, Miss Ruth Gregson Huntington (Mrs. Archibald L. Sessions) and Miss Mary Lincoln Huntington.

Bishop Huntington died on July 11, 1904, at his home in Hadley, Mass. His eldest son, the Rev. Dr. George P. Huntington, died on the same day at his home in St. Thomas' Rectory, Hanover, N. H. Funeral services for father and son, the Bishop and the Priest, were held at the homestead on Thursday, July 14, Bishop Charles Tyler Olmsted, officiating, and burial was made in the Cemetery of Old Hadley.

On the following Sunday memorial services were held in all the parishes of Central New York.

Memorial Sermon.

The following sermon, memorial of Bishop Huntington, was preached by the present Bishop of the Diocese in Grace Church, Utica, on Sunday, October 2d, 1904, being the second anniversary of his consecration in that Church.

v

"Be ye followers of me, as I am also of Christ."

Romans XI. I.

Two years ago to-day many of you were present in this Church and saw the then aged Bishop of the Diocese walk down from the Chancel to the front door, leaning on the arm of his newly consecrated Coadjutor; and no doubt your hearts were touched, as were the hearts of all who witnessed it, by the pathos of the spectacle. There were at that time, I imagine, few who thought that Bishop Huntington would live and continue his work for nearly two years more. And yet we have seen him struggling on, keeping up a wonderful activity both of body and mind, administering from his study the affairs of the Diocese, going about to confirm, sometimes quite large classes, in a number of Churches in the city and vicinity of Syracuse, presiding throughout the whole session of the next Diocesan Convention, and opening and taking part in the second one, two years after the election of the Coadjutor, and delivering at the latter his annual address with singular force of voice and expression. That address was indeed a remarkable exhibition of the strength of his will and of the persistency of his endurance, as well as of the clearness and power of his mind. But it was really the finishing up of his long and interesting career. It was the last bright flickering of the light in the presence of his assembled Diocesan representatives, before it sank down into the socket and went out from this earthly scene forever. Just one month from that day when his forceful words were heard so distinctly by the Convention in Zion Church, Rome, his mortal remains were laid to rest in the old cemetery at Hadley.

And we are come to-day, dear brethren, to think of him, and to speak of the good example that he has left us. Possibly some people may think that words enough have been spoken and printed about him already; for every Church newspaper and magazine, very many daily papers, and almost every pulpit in the Diocese, as well as some in other Dioceses, have memorialized him and treated of his character and work in every phase; so that there is really little or nothing that is new left to be said on the very fruitful theme. But still, I think you will all recognize the appropriateness of the present occasion, as it has been arranged through the courtesy of your Rector and in accordance with the wish of those most nearly interested.

The sermons preached in the various parishes of the Diocese on the Sunday after the Bishop's death, furnished an opportunity to the Clergy who had served under him, some of them since the beginning of his episcopate, many of them since they received their orders from his hands, to give expression to their own thoughts and feelings, and to speak to their own parishioners while the emotions produced by his death were still fresh in their hearts.

To-day, nearly three months having elapsed, and the Clergy and people having returned from their vacations, it seems fitting that we should have what may be called, in one sense, a Diocesan memorial; not of course by an assemblage of the whole, which would be impossible, but in one of the representative Churches, where the Bishop's Co-adjutor and successor may have an opportunity to express himself. That is the purpose and significance of our service this evening.

HIS EXAMPLE

And the aspect of the subject to which without further preliminary I wish to call your attention is, as I have intimated, those things in the life and character of Bishop Huntington in which it is our especial duty in Central New York to endeavor to imitate him. That is the application which the Scriptures and the Church make of the lives of the saints.—“Be ye followers of me,” says St. Paul, or, “Imitators of me,” according to the new marginal reading—“as I also am of Christ;” and the Prayer Book teaches us to thank God for the good examples of all those who have gone before, and to pray for grace to "follow them in all virtuous and Godly living." Neither the Apostle, nor the Liturgy, you observe, gives any intimation that they were wholly without fault; they merely ask for imitation of them in that which is good—"Whereinsoever I follow the Divine Master, therein do you try to follow me"—that is evidently St. Paul's meaning, and it is easy to see the force of the exhortation. Christ Himself has often seemed to men too high and difficult a pattern, because He is divine and perfect, but what one mere man can accomplish in the way of imitating Him, that another man can also accomplish, if he be willing to make the effort. Character is not so much that which comes by nature, as that which we attain by struggle, that which is impressed upon us by experience; our better desires working with the grace of God to overcome that which is worse within us. It is that which a man does, in the face of many difficulties and against adverse circumstances, which makes him admirable and sets him up as an example for other people. In other words, so far as he follows Christ, as St. Paul puts it, he is worthy of being followed by those who behold him.

HIS INTELLECT

Now you will all agree with me that Bishop Huntington not only tried to follow his Master in every way, but that in many ways he was signally successful. And first, let us observe how he used his intellect. It is very evident that he regarded his mind as a talent to be devoted, like every other God-given faculty, to God's glory and to man's improvement, and consequently he made use of his great thoughts by spoken word and printed page for the attainment of those ends. No words were too beautiful whereby to tell of God's goodness, of Christ's love, of the comfort and uplifting power of the Christian faith. No language was too strong whereby to condemn evil, or to show forth the misery of a life of sin and its direful consequences in society and in the state. He was thought by some to be pessimistic, because of his strong denunciations of modern decadence, but was he really any more pessimistic than the Hebrew prophets were, and did he not, like them, with true optimism always point to the eventual overcoming of evil with good? And observe that he did use his intellect, and did not allow it to control his will, or to draw him away by its attractive enticements. He was born into a form of religion in which the intellect is given full play to lead whither it will—a philosophy, in fact, more than a religion. But he saw the weakness of such a system. He became convinced that in the divine scheme for the regeneration of mankind there are other authorities co-ordinate with, to say the least, if not superior to, the reason, and hence, great and difficult as the change must have been, requiring immense courage and conscientious conviction, he adopted the principle that the reason must work with the Scriptures and the Church for the accomplishment of Christ's mission in the world; and there probably was never a more firm believer in the mystery of the Incarnation of the Son of God, nor a more staunch upholder of the order and authority of the Church. As an illustration of this struggle and of this victory in him, I remember well the text of the first sermon I ever heard him preach. It was at an ordination of Berkeley Divinity School students, when I was in college, and the Bishop was still Rector of Emmanuel Church, Boston. The text was those remarkable words of St. Paul to the Corinthians, in which he tells of the nature of our spiritual warfare—"Casting down reasonings and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." Plainly the moral nature dominated him even in the intellectual realm, and made him understand the important truth that it is not safe for a man to be carried away whithersoever his intellectual fancy or prejudice may lead him. And I consider that a fine example for a Christian man.

HIS CONSCIENCE.

Again it was the same strong, moral purpose which governed him in his physical activities. He was gifted with an excellent constitution and had great powers of endurance; but doubtless he enjoyed ease, and in the midst of labor longed for rest, as men usually do. Yet he never spared himself; indeed, it seemed to us sometimes as if he might have made his work easier than he did. Probably none of you know so well as I do exactly what his work was, going into every nook and corner of the Diocese, and then going again every year, even when there seems but little to be done. That, of course, was to have been expected in the earlier years, before old age approached; and it was in the later period, when infirmity had sapped his strength, that the test came, and it was wonderful to see the Bishop still going on even then. You all know how long it was before he would consent to have help; and when it came he still did not feel that he ought to be relieved entirely. No doubt this looked like the peculiarity of old age to some people, but I am convinced that in his case it was largely due to the strong conscientiousness, which had been the habit of his life, which would not let him absolve himself from responsibility, nor from labor, so long as he could possibly bear it. It was only in March last, after two severe attacks of illness, that he was urged to give up an appointment for confirmation in Oswego, and allow me to take it; and in his letter to me consenting to the change he said: "There are few public occasions from which I would not gladly be honorably excused." When I saw his tired body lying in its coffin I felt like exclaiming, "honorably excused at last!" That was probably the deepest feeling in his heart about it. It was his duty, and he ought to go through with it. Was it not that which shone out, more than anything else, in that last address at the Convention? "I must work my work while the day lasts, for the night cometh wherein no man can work." They are the Master's own words, and therein the Bishop followed Christ. And I tell you, brethren, there is no more sorely needed lesson in the world to day than that; conscientious devotion to the duty which God has laid upon us. One of the strong temptations of our age is to self-indulgence and all kinds of self-pleasing; to work, if one's bread and butter depend on it, but to play, to take vacation, if one possibly can. And I believe that while we may well be proud of our late Bishop on account of his many brilliant gifts, we have still more reason to thank God that he had a conscience.

HIS SPIRITUALITY AND SIMPLICITY.

But, above and back of these things, there was another trait in Bishop Huntington's character, on which these rested and from which they derived their inspiration, and that was his spirituality. It may be truly said of him, as was written of Moses of old, "he endured as seeing Him who is invisible." The paradox of that saying was not paradoxical to him at all. God, and the spiritual realm in which God particularly dwells, were the most real and permanent things to him. He was absolutely convinced that "with God is the well of life," and that "in His light only can we see light." Hence his estimate and his use of the things of this life. Intellect, talent, time, physical strength, pleasure, ease, rest—all were valuable only as seen in that light. Hence also, undoubtedly, his great personal simplicity, of which much has been said by others. It is true that he had an inherited strain of puritanism, so that the tendency to a simple life was in his nature and came easy to him. But we do not find that all the sons of the Puritans are addicted to simplicity to-day. A few of them may still retain something of the spirit of Martin Marprelate in their hostility to Bishops in the Church, but they do not maintain in their palaces in the cities and along the coast of New England the personal and domestic plainness of that Bishop, whose summer home still stands on the banks of the river at Hadley, from which the Bishop himself has departed. And what a splendid pattern that home is for the people, in the Church as well as outside of it, who are straining after show in these days, and often spending the last cent of their income, and more too sometimes, to decorate their persons, their homes, and their whole establishments, up to the pitch of the modern style! It is a grand thing to have had among us, in such prominent position, a man who really believed that "the things which are seen are temporal" and perish with the using, and was therefore happy to give his chief attention to those other things which, though they were "unseen" for so many years of his life, were so real and "eternal" in his estimation, that we may well believe they were no surprise to him when his eyes at last opened, and he saw them in the Paradise of God. Let us give thanks to our Heavenly Father for his good example.

JOURNAL.

FIRST DAY.

GRACE CHURCH, UTICA, }
Tuesday, June 13, 1905. }

This being the day appointed for the meeting of the Thirty-seventh Annual Convention of the Diocese of Central New York, the Rt. Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, S. T. D., D. C. L., Bishop of the Diocese and a number of the Clergy and Laity assembled in Grace Church in the city of Utica at 4:30 o'clock p. m. Evening Prayer was said by the Rev. W. R. McKim and the Rev. W. H. Hutchinson. At the conclusion of Divine Service the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The Secretary called the roll of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, when seventy-seven answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 20.)

The credentials of Lay Delegates were presented and referred to a committee consisting of the Rev. J. R. Harding, Mr. Parry Kennard and the Secretaries

On the report of the Committee on Credentials the roll was called, when fifty-four Lay Delegates, representing thirty parishes, answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 21.) ent, the Right Reverend, the President, declared the Convention to be duly organized and ready for business.

The Convention proceeded to the election of a Secretary, when, on motion, the vote by ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. James K. Parker was chosen.

On nomination of the Secretary, the Rev. William Cooke was appointed Assistant Secretary and Mr. F. L. Lyman Second Assistant Secretary.

The Rev. J. R. Harding, from the Committee on the Credentials of Lay Delegates, reported that several of the certificates of Lay Delegates were defective in form, and also that several parishes presenting certificates were in arrears in their payment to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

The Rev. W. De. L. Wilson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That in view of the fact that during the time the arrears in assessments to the Diocesan Expense Fund accumulated at St. James' Church, Cleveland, was without a Rector, and had but few services, St. James' Church, Cleveland, be forgiven its arrears to this Convention, and its delegates be admitted to seats in this Convention.

On motion it was

Resolved, That delegates from Christ Church, Jordan and Trinity Church, Elmira, whose certificates were defective in form be admitted to seats in the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Bellinger it was Resolved, That the delegates from Trinity Church, Lowville, which parish is in arrears in its payment to the Diocesan Expense Fund, be admitted to seats in the Convention.

Place of Meeting of the Convention.

On motion an adjournment took place until 7 :30 o'clock this evening.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7 :30 o'clock.

The Convention reassembled, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese in the chair.

The Rev. Dr. Duff offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Chair appoint a Committee of three, with power to confer with the delinquent parishes and to report tomorrow morning.

Under this resolution the Chair appointed the following Committee: The Rev. Dr. Duff, the Rev. Dr. Bellinger and Mr. E. C. Delavan.

The Rev. Dr. Lockwood read the report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. (See Appendix A.)

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger, from the Special Committee appointed at the last Convention, to consider the advisability of holding the Convention of the Diocese alternately in the two cities of Syracuse and Utica, presented the following

REPORT :

At the Thirty-sixth Annual Convention of this Diocese held at the City of Rome in June, 1904, the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That a Committee of six, to consist of three clergymen and three laymen, be appointed to consider the suggestion made by the Bishop Coadjutor in his address as to the advisability of holding the Convention of the Diocese alternately in the two cities of Syracuse and Utica, and having the Clergy entertained at the hotels at the expense of their respective parishes. This Committee to report at the next Convention."

Place of Meeting of the Convention.

Under this resolution the Chair appointed the following committee: The Rev. Dr. Bellinger, the Rev. E. W. Saphore, the Rev. H. G. Coddington and Messrs. E. C. Delavan, R. T. Turner and F. P. Taber.

Pursuant to the resolution, your Committee met at the Parish House of Grace Church, Utica, Tuesday, June 13, 1905, at 3 p. m.. There were present the Rev. Dr. Bellinger, Rev. Mr. Coddington, Rev. E. W. Saphore, Messrs, F. P. Taber and E. C. Delavan.

On motion Mr. Delavan was appointed Secretary of the Committee.

The following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, The Bishop of the Diocese is given the power by the Constitution to determine where the Annual Convention of the Diocese shall be held, we therefore recommend that Article 1, Sec. 1, of the Constitution of the Diocese be amended to read as follows:

"There shall be held a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the second Tuesday in June, in the year 1906, and each year thereafter, alternately in the cities of Syracuse and Utica, beginning at 4:30 p. m., and with such parish as shall be determined by the Bishop, or, in the case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee."

Your Committee finds that the matter referred to in the second part of the resolution, under which it is acting, is covered by Canon 17, Sec. 2. It, therefore, recommends that Sec. 2 of Canon 17, be amended to read as follows:

"And, whereas, it is often necessary to travel a considerable distance to the place of the Convention, it is hereby made the duty of the different parishes to make provision for the traveling expenses of their clergy in attending the Convention, either by a collection in church on Sunday or by some other mode. Further, the clergy attending Convention shall be entertained at hotels, and the expense of such entertainment shall be provided through an assessment of $250.00, which shall be added each year to the budget of the Diocesan Expense Fund; and the parish in which the Convention is held shall be entitled to draw upon the Treasurer of the Diocese for the expenses of such entertainment to an amount not exceeding the aforesaid $250.00."

MINORITY REPORT.

I concur in the foregoing report of the committee as to the advisability of holding the Annual Convention alternately at the central and convenient cities of Syracuse and Utica, but I believe it is unwise to amend Section 2 of Canon 17 as proposed, or assume to declare that it is the duty of the parishes of the city in which the convention shall be held to furnish free entertainment. It seems to me far better to leave all this to the charity, ability and good judgment of the several parishes concerned than to assume to prescribe such duty by Canon.

ROBERT T. TURNER.

On motion the above report was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

The Rev. J. R. Harding offered the following resolutions which were referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That a Committee of three clergymen and two laymen be appointed by the Bishop at this Convention to prepare a Canon, providing for the change of the Missionary System of this Diocese from the present Convocational to that of the Archdeaconry system.

Resolved, That such a plan include that of salaried Archdeacons, who shall give their entire time to the work.

Resolved, That this Committee be ready to report at the next meeting of the Convention in 1906.

Proposed Amendment to Canon VIII.

Resolved, That the proposed Canon if adopted take the place of our present Canon X.

The Rev. Mr. Harding offered the following amendment to Canon VIII which on motion was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

SECTION 1. After the words "to the General Convention" the following clause be inserted. "In like manner the Convention shall elect four clergymen and four laymen as Provisional Deputies to act as hereinafter mentioned. The Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their office during the term of three years."

SEC. 2. After the word "Deputies" insert or "Provisional Deputies."

SEC. 3. After the words "Clergymen and Laymen" insert "Elected as Provisional Deputies", and strike out the words "Actually belonging to the Convention in which the Deputies were appointed."

The Rev. A. J. Brockway offered the following resolution, which on motion was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Canon VII. SEC. 3. Be amended by the substitution of the words, "the year" for the words "two years" in lines 9 and 12 of the said section.

The Rev. E. H. Coley offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Standing Resolution of the Convention on page 34 of the Journal of 1903, and amended on page 38 of the Journal of 1904 be and is hereby repealed.

Mr. Geo. M. Weaver offered the following amendment to Canon XIII, which on motion was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

the Episcopate shall be loaned by the said trustees upon securities on real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings; the appraisal to be made by one appraiser, appointed by the trustees for that purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State or of the United States, or in any securities in which Savings Banks are authorized to invest the moneys deposited with them under the laws of this State; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said trustees and their successors in office as Trustees of said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities and investments.

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger offered the following resolution which on motion was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That the Committee on the Constitution and Canons be requested to report to this Convention such changes in the Rules of Order as will expedite the Organization of the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss it was

Resolved, That all Clergy of this Church, and of any Church in communion with this Church, not canonically resident in this Diocese, and also Candidates for Holy Orders, and Representatives of missionary stations, who may be present, be admitted to honorary seats in the Convention.

Under this resolution there were present the Rev. A. E. Dunham of the Diocese of Western New York, the Rev. Horace T. Owen of the Diocese of North Carolina; the Rev. James Empringham of the Diocese of Ottawa, Canada, and Messrs. Geo. C. Wadsworth, Harry Idle, Edward W. Parmelee and H. W. Foreman, Candidates for Holy Orders.

The Rev. F. C. Smith, from the Special Committee on Sunday School Work presented the following.

Committees Appointed.

REPORT.

The Committee on Sunday School Work begs leave to Report that no definite work was attempted owing to the indefinite authority under which it was organized, but makes the following recommendations to the Convention.

Resolved, That a Sunday School Commission consisting of eight clergymen, and six laymen, be appointed by the Bishop, who shall undertake the work belonging to such Commission, and Report the same from time to time to the Convention

Resolved, That the sum of $100 be appropriated for the incidental expenses of such Commission.

JAMES J. BURD,
F. C. SMITH,
F. L. LYMAN.

The Rev. W. DeL. Wilson,
The Rev. Henry N. Hyde,
The Rev. Harry S. Longley,
The Rev. A. R. B. Hegeman.

The Rev. E. H. Coley presented the report of the committee appointed to consider the merging of the Christmas Fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund and offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the recommendation of the Chairman of the Committee be referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons and that the Special Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

The Committee to whom was referred at the last Diocesan Convention, the question of merging all the funds and directing all contributions, for the aged and disabled clergy, and their widows and orphans, into the Gen'l Clergy Relief Fund, beg leave to report:

Relief of Clergy.

First of all they call the attention of the Convention to the fact that hitherto, and now the aid given in this direction is exceedingly meagre, that facts show not a few of the aged and infirm clergymen in destitute circumstances, that neither diocesan help nor general help has thus far been at all adequate to a comfortable support which has been a great reproach upon a Church with such numbers and abundant wealth. We hold that it is just as much the duty of the Church to care for her veterans, as her soldiers in the field, for men who have worn themselves out in her service, as for men now in the midst of their labors, just as much as it is the duty of the State to care for its officers of the Army and Navy when retired for age; indeed we see at the present time great Rail Road Corporations and Insurance Companies providing pensions for their superannuated employees, and now Mr. Carnegie comes forward and gives a million of dollars to endow a fund for the support of retired professors of our Colleges. In the meantime the Church leaves her servants and officers in penury we might say, comparative starvation. This Diocese for example contributing through the Christmas Fund not to exceed the paltry sum of Two Hundred Dollars annually for his support or his widows and orphans, and we believe that we compare favorably with other dioceses which have a like provision.

Now, we believe that one reason if not the main reason why the present state of things exists in regard to this matter, is the want of unity in action, the cross purposes which obtain, the various methods adopted and the frequent calls made for the same object. Quoting from the Report of the Gen'l Clergy Relief Fund, "The Church for example has a half dozen or more corporations doing excellent work for widows and orphans alone, or for the clergy alone; but necessarily limited by reason of locality or payment of premiums; a half dozen or more, semi-insurance plans in various dioceses, forty or more diocesan funds, and these sometimes divided into two funds, one for the clergy and another for the widows and orphans, and so on." This shows how utterly discordant this work is carried on and it would seem obvious to every one who would give it any thought that it would be far better for the Church to concentrate its efforts and direct its contributions into one channel and in view of this fifty dioceses have swung into line on behalf of the General Clergy Relief which is established by the General Convention and working under its administration, and therefore representing the whole Church. In order that all may understand and appreciate this organization we can not do better than quote the statement made by the Assistant Secretary the Rev Alfred J. P. McClure in the Churchman for May 1904.

Relief of Clergy.

The Church, in its official capacity, has provided, by profoundly wise legislation, in its general canons for an uniform, comprehensive annuity or pension and relief fund for the clergy and their families throughout the whole Church. The machinery comprises an automatic pension at 64, when sufficient money is provided.

It is the only pension and relief fund for which the General Convention has ever legislated

- (a) for which the General Convention provides Trustees triennially;
- (b) for which it sets apart a definite day for offerings;
- (c) recommends a portion of the Communion Alms;
- (d) gives the royalty on the Hymnal.

This General Fund has the same status in the General Canons as the Missionary Society.

The General Clergy Relief Fund has in the last four years:

- (a) Merged with it the organizations for relief of about 50 Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions;
- (b) increased the number of annuitants to over four hundred;
- (c) and the annuities paid three and four fold.

It is the only fund in the Church which gives a pension or annuity without payment of dues or fees or premiums or age requirements or diocesan limitations:

- (a) to the young disabled clergyman;
- (b) to the old disabled clergyman;
- (c) to the widow of a clergyman;
- (d) to the orphan of a clergyman; and it is to-day dispensing more money than any other society of the kind in the whole Church.

The statistics of clerical changes prove that only a small percentage of clergymen remain in one Diocese all their lives, therefore the relief fund they have built up in their early ministry is frequently the very fund to which they cannot appeal in later years when they need it. Through no fault of their own, the great body of the clergy are ineligible to local funds by reason of removals or Canonical requirements, or they are debarred by the fund's inadequacy. This is the reason THE GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND has nearly 400 annuitants while the largest local funds have but a score.

Relief of Clergy.

It ought to be clearly understood that the General Clergy Relief Fund created by the representatives of the Church has all the necessary machinery and authority for successfully doing this work, and that it ought to be supported and protected in its efforts, now that it has reached an "effectual and hopeful stage in its progress."

Do not confuse with other funds and societies limited geographically and as to persons helped.

Central Office: Church House, Twelfth and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. ALFRED J. P. MCCLURE, Asst. Treas.

In view of this report we desire to emphasize the three particulars:

First: It is the only Society for the objects named which has the endorsement of the Church in her highest legislative body—the General Convention.

Secondly: It is truly Catholic in spirit, broad as the Church itself. As the Secretary says, "it applies no tests, attaches no conditions requires no payments or membership dues, admits of no forfeitures, but offers its aid to all Clergymen of the Church who may be disabled, whether by age or infirmity, and to the families of all clergymen who die in Communion of the Church.

Thirdly: Constituted in this manner, with these broad sympathies, and benefactions, we believe that as the years go on it would receive large contributions and endowments, which would enable it to make ample provision for the aged Clergy, their widows and orphans and to wipe out the stigma that has so long rested upon it, in view of their penury and distress.

We therefore offer the following resolutions.

Resolved, That all Vested funds of this diocese for the support of aged and disabled clergy their widows and orphans (including the Christmas Fund) be merged in the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Election of Treasurer.

Resolved, That an offering be made for this Fund by every parish in the diocese, on Quinquagesima Sunday, these funds will still come to the annuitants of this diocese.

Resolved, That an annual offering be made in every parish of this diocese for the General Clergy Relief on Quinquagesima Sunday as recommended by the General Convention.

Resolved, That Canon 12th of this diocese entitled "Of the Christmas Fund, is hereby repealed.

(Signed) GEORGE H. MCKNIGHT.

The Rev. Dr. Reed offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That on the death of a Clergyman of this Diocese the Secretary of the Convention take order to notify the brother Clergy of the deceased of such demise, and of the date of burial.

The Rev. Dr. Reed offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the Clergy and parishes of the Diocese refrain from employing ways and means for raising money for religious uses that reflect upon the dignity and character of the Church.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of the Treasurer of the Diocese. On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for Mr. F. L. Lyman as Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Chair appointed the following:

STANDING COMMITTEES.

On Christian Education—The Rev. J. J. Burd, the Rev. F. C. Smith, the Rev. H. G. Coddington, Messrs. F. L. Lyman and W. S. Crocker.

Standing Committees Appointed

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese—Messrs. W. H. Moore, Henry Burden and P. W. White.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate—Messrs. T. H. Stryker, H. A. Davis and Louis Krumbhaar

On the Report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund—Messrs. H. B. Hubbard, Wm. A. Stansfield and C. W. Mott.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund—Messrs. J. W. Tilden, John Anderson and G. J. Mager.

On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund—The Rev. G. G. Perrine, S. H. Stone and C. W. Brown.

On nomination of the Bishop the Hon. Chas. Andrews was elected Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Rev. J. J. Burd read an abstract of the report of the Board of Managers for Missions, and offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the sum of $11,700 be appropriated for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and that the sum of $10,000 be assessed upon the districts.

Mr. F. L. Lyman offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that it would be an advantage in many ways to have the business sessions of the Diocesan Convention held in a hall or rooms other than a place used for public worship, and that the Committee of Arrangements be requested, when practicable, to have the business sessions so held.

Mr. T. R. Proctor moved that the above resolution be laid on the table and the motion was lost. The vote being taken on the resolution offered by Mr. Lyman it was adopted.

The Rev. Dr Lockwood offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Incorporation of the Diocese.

Resolved, That the budget for the ensuing year, as reported by the Standing Committee, with the addition of $250 voted by the Convention for expenses of the Convention be and is hereby adopted, and that there be and is hereby ordered therefor an assessment upon the parishes equal in each case to one and nine-tenths per cent. of their last reported current expenses.

The Rev. Dr. Lockwood offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That inasmuch as Trinity Church, Camden, has paid its full assessment this year for the Diocesan Expense Fund its past delinquency to this fund be permanently cancelled, on the ground that said deficiency was incurred during a period in which there was no Rector, and but few services were held.

Mr. E. C. Delavan presented the report of the Committee on the Incorporation of the Diocese as amended, so that the legal title shall read, "The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York," and it was adopted. (See page 34.)

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this Convention be extended to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Grace Church, Utica, for their hospitality, and especially expression of appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Proctor for the reception and luncheon of this day's session.

The Rev. W. DeL. Wilson offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Committee on the Constitution and Canons be requested to report to the Convention of 1906 such change in the name of the Bishop's Relief Fund as will more clearly express its purpose.

The Rev. J. J. Burd offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Adjournment.

Resolved, That 1,300 copies of the JOURNAL of this Convention, together with the Constitution and Canons, and various forms and legislative acts of incorporation, be printed under the direction of the Secretary and distributed as directed by Canon V.

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention, through the Secretary, desires to express its sympathy to the Rev. Geo. H. McKnight, D. D., and the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., now suffering from serious illness, regretting their absence from their customary places in the Convention.

On motion the Rev. Dr. McKnight was elected a Trustee of the General Theological Seminary.

The Convention then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the reading of the minutes and the usual devotions.

On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

The Bishop offered prayers and pronounced the benediction, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

CHARLES T. OLMSTED,

President of the Convention.

JAMES K. PARKER, Secretary.

WILLIAM COOKE, Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop's Address

To the Thirty-seventh Annual Convention.

Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity:

Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ!

Beginning with the usual record of annual labors, I would report that since the last Convention I have baptized 3 infants, solemnized 1 marriage, taken part in 13 funerals, and confirmed 1,112 persons. Three were confirmed by Bishop Huntington, and 4 received, making a total of 1,119.

I have also ordained 4 Deacons and 2 Priests, as follows, viz: Mr. Floarda Howard, Jr., ordered Deacon in Grace Church, Utica, October 2, 1904. Messrs. John Benton Pitcher, Frederick William Feary and Walter Earl Cook, ordered Deacons in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, December 18th, 1904, and the Rev. Henry Capen Staunton and Edward Alfred Evans, Deacons, ordained Priests in Grace Church, Utica, June 1st, 1905. The Standing Committee has recommended for Ordination to the Diaconate Messrs. Chas. K. Gilbert, Chas. Webster Hakes, M. D., Geo. Ashton Oldham and Edward W. Parmelee, and, Providence permitting, they will be ordained in Calvary Church, Utica, next Sunday.

Messrs. Roy Irving Murray, Harry Idle, formerly a Methodist Minister, Albert Broadhurst and John Clark Dean, have been admitted Candidates for Orders; and Messrs.

Bishop's Address.

Ernest J. Hopper, Murray Elmer McLellan, and Harry Stephen Pierce have been received as Postulants.

We have received by transfer from other dioceses the Rev. J. Malcolm Smith, Vermont, Ivan Merlinjones, Iowa, Henry W. Crydenwise, Cen. Pa., Wm. D. Manross, Vermont, William H. Hutchinson, Conn., Wm. R. McKim, Salina, and have transferred to other dioceses the Rev. John W. Craig, Newark, John Arthur, Iowa, Frederick B. Keable, Penn., T. A. Stevenson, W. New York, David Curran, Kansas, and F. Howard, Jr., Del. The Rev. S. H. Synnott, D. D., and B. E. Whipple, have retired from active work. Sister Clara, a Deaconess, from the District of Laramie, has been assigned to work at the House of the Good Shepherd, Utica.

I have given consent to the Consecration of the Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., as Bishop of East Carolina, the Rev. Charles Edward Woodcock, D. D. as Bishop of Kentucky, and the Rev. James Henry Darlington, D. D., as Bishop of Harrisburg. On September 29, 1904, I formally—opened the House of the Good Shepherd, Utica, and on November 8th, laid the corner-stone of Grace Church, Elmira.

And now, the principal thing that confronts us is the loss which this Diocese has sustained in its personnel during the past year. First of all, in time as well as in rank, was the death of the Bishop himself, who for thirty-five years had stood at the head, the first Bishop of Central New York, and had so ably, so courageously, and so patiently administered its affairs. I have heretofore taken occasion to speak in a public way of him and his work, and what was said at that time will be printed in the Journal of this Convention. The Standing Committee have also expressed themselves concerning the Bishop in a minute which has been read to the Convention, and a biographical sketch has been prepared which will find a place likewise in the Journal, so that it is unnecessary to repeat, or add to, the remarks already abundantly made on the subject. Every one who was present at the Convention in Rome last June will remember the Bishop's presence there, and the remarkable vigor and impressiveness with which he delivered his address—a literary production which showed no sign of intellectual decay, no loss of logical acumen, and his standing on his feet for nearly forty minutes in its delivery indicated a remarkable degree of physical endurance, so that no one could have anticipated the speedy ending of his earthly career. But just one month from that day, on July 14th, he was laid to rest with his fathers, in his ancestral burying place at Hadley. Then it was that the full weight of diocesan responsibility came upon his successor, who for nearly two years had been trying to share it with him, and I confess that I sometimes wonder how he managed to carry it alone so long as he did, when the burden of years had so greatly increased upon him, and his strength must have been constantly failing. His courage was certainly admirable. There is one very noteworthy circumstance about Bishop Huntington's departure, and that is that he did not go alone. Mr. Geo. B. Sloan, of Oswego, well known in this Convention, died the day before the Bishop; the Rev. Dr. George Huntington, the Bishop's oldest son, passed away the same day about four hours after his father; and from that time on, along through the autumn and winter and spring, one after another his friends and fellow-workers have followed after him, as if he had been beckoning to them to go where he was, viz.: Judge Sawyer, of Watertown, the Rev. William B. Coleman, of Utica; Mr. Robert J. Hubbard, of Cazenovia, Mrs. Brandegee, of Utica, Mrs. C. H. Doolittle and Miss Savage, of the same place, the Rev. Dr. Babcock, of Syracuse, and Mr. Henry W. Millar, of Utica. All of these were deeply interested in the Diocese, and most of them actively engaged in its temporal or spiritual affairs. Judge Sawyer was Chancellor, member of Standing Committee, and deputy to General Convention. Mr. Hubbard was deputy to General Convention, trustee of St. John's School, and of the Parochial Fund. Mr. Millar was a trustee of the Episcopate Fund; and they were all vestrymen or wardens in their respective parishes. The Rev. Mr. Coleman had been Rector of St. George's Church, Utica, for twenty-two years. He was a faithful and earnest worker, a sincere and devout man. The Rev. Dr. Babcock was one of the oldest Presbyters of the Diocese, and among those who have been longest connected with it. He had held several positions of honor and responsibility—was at one time Rector of Trinity Church, Watertown, then Principal of St. John's School, afterwards Rector at Jamesville, and for many years a member of the Standing Committee, one of the Examining Chaplains, and finally Dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School. He was always genial and pleasant in his manners, devoted and faithful in attention to his duties, and he has gone to his rest full of years, enjoying the esteem and affection of all his brethren. You will see, therefore, that there has been an unusual depletion in our ranks, especially among the faithful laymen. It is hard to lose such men from our parishes and from our Diocesan Councils—it seems as if their places could not easily be supplied. But we may remember for our comfort, that the Lord cares for His Church in one age as well as in another, and though He may permit us to suffer loss for a while, He will surely repair it in His good time, and repair it, too, out of the material which the time itself presents. While, then, we mourn for those that are gone, and pay all loving respect to their memory, we must close up the ranks and press on to that which lies before us, developing new recruits into trained and useful leaders. It is not material that we lack, either personal or financial, so much as the hopeful and optimistic spirit to realize our own powers. One is often struck with the tone of discouragement which seems to pervade some of our parishes. The people think they cannot do this, or cannot do that, and because they think so, of course the needed thing is not done. But let a new worker come in, a man of faith and of enthusiasm, or let the people once bestir themselves to make the effort which a present worker urges upon them, and behold the thing is begun, the thing is continued, and finally what was supposed to be impossible is accomplished. They are able because they think they are able, and they look on in wonder at themselves! We have had several illustrations of this in our Diocese recently, and I have no doubt others are simply waiting to be realized. If we believe that the Church is God's institution, worthy of our best efforts, we must put forth those efforts in the spirit of hopefulness, remembering that the Lord only helps those who help themselves. And while we cultivate this spirit, there are one or two other virtues that need to be emphasized. Our clergy are a hardworking, faithful set of men, living in many cases on very narrow margins of income, and often finding it difficult to meet their financial obligations. One thing, it seems to me they need to make more of than they sometimes do, for their own comfort and peace of mind, and that is the constant reality of their divine vocation—to realize not only that they were called at the outset to do the Lord's work, but that they are called now to do the particular work in which they are engaged. There may be obscurity—there may be limitations—there may be difficulty of support—but no position is without its difficulties, and it is a great source of strength to a man to be able to rest confidently in the assurance that the present difficulties are those to which he is called, the present flock, be it large or small, is the flock to which he is divinely appointed to minister, and that there is some work worth doing which the Lord would have him do in that place where he is until He shall be pleased to call him to another. And the thing which, it seems to me, the people need to add to their hopefulness, is a realizing sense of what the Church is and is intended for in any community. The Church is not a social, or literary club, composed of a few select congenial members, who agree to support a certain kind of weekly entertainment for themselves, and withdraw their support when the entertainment ceases to be satisfactory to them. On the contrary, the Church is the Kingdom, or household, of God, into which men are born by the operation of the Holy Ghost in a divinely appointed Sacrament, that therein they may grow in the grace and likeness of God; and Church buildings are erected in each community that this Family of God may assemble there on the Lord's day to worship Him, to be instructed in His Word, and to be fed with the spiritual food of the Body and Blood of Christ; and since the Lord Himself hath ordained that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel, and that they who minister at the Altar should be partakers with the Altar, it is an essential element of the Church's constitution that the man who ministers must be assured his support. We have what is called the "Voluntary System" in the Church in this country. It is well, no doubt, and accords with our free American method in everything. But we should remember that, as the republican form of government demands the highest moral character in the men who conduct it, and depends for its permanence on the maintenance of that character; so in the Church, the voluntary method demands a high degree of faithfulness to Christian principle, and the exclusion of all selfish fancies and grudges of every sort. The Church can not exist and do its proper work on the factional principle; and it is a serious question whether the Church does any good to those who allow themselves to be governed by that principle. If one set of people in a parish will not go to Church when another set does go, it is much to be doubted whether Church going is of any value to any of them — they might better disband, be converted, and start over afresh on the Christian principles of love and forbearance towards one another, and of devotion to God and to the Church rather than to their own sweet wills.

Bishop's Address.

Bishop's Address.

Bishop's Address.

Bishop's Address.

The subject of improving the methods and the teaching of our Sunday Schools, which has been particularly discussed in the Second District, was brought to the attention of the other Convocations, and will be spoken of probably in this Convention. Without at all reflecting on the good work of the past, and without intending to imply that new machinery will always produce new results in spiritual work, I would say this, that the Sunday School needs more attention than it gets in some places, and that a more scientific method, and a plan for the teaching of the teachers, would undoubtedly be found helpful everywhere, unless attention has already been given to these things. No hard and fast system can be applied to every school; the same grading and course of study will not answer for small and large schools alike; but new interest can be aroused more zeal can be enkindled, scholars can be increased in numbers, and teachers can be enlarged in knowledge of what to teach and how to teach it. I therefore commend it to your consideration as to how these results can be best attained.

The General Convention of 1904 in Boston was one of the most celebrated of the triennial gatherings of the Church in this country, chiefly for its missionary spirit, and for the presence of the Archbishop of Canterbury, the first of his line to visit America. Some of the legislative acts of the Convention are worthy of note, especially the adoption of a newly revised body of Canons, among which we may specify the Canon on Courts of Review, and the amendment to the Canon of Divorce and Re-marriage, which last, though not all that some of us could have wished, was certainly a step in the right direction, making re-marriage after divorce more difficult, and excusing any Clergyman from officiating at such a function if he wishes to be excused. And it is time for us to take a strong stand in this matter, brethren of the Clergy, if we would rescue family life from the destruction which threatens it in so many instances in our land; time for the laity, too, to take their stand, both by resisting the temptation for themselves, and by discouraging others in that social way, than which nothing can be more effectual.

But the missionary enthusiasm which characterized the Convention was especially remarkable, and there was one feature of it to which I would call particular attention. You are familiar with the triennial Thank Offering of the W. A., which has grown in amount at each Convention from $2,000 in 1889 to $150,000 in 1904. On motion of the excellent Treasurer of the Board of Missions, Mr. Geo. C. Thomas, it was resolved in Boston to raise a Thank Offering from the men of the Church during the ensuing three years, to be presented in Richmond in 1907, in gratitude to God for His mercies to our country and our Church during the 300 years since the landing of the colony at Jamestown in 1607. It is quite worth while to mark that event, when the Book of Common Prayer of English speaking people began to be used on our Atlantic Coast, thirteen years before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth. And while the General Convention of that year will celebrate it by a pilgrimage from Richmond to the site of the original Church at Jamestown, now in ruins, nothing could be more appropriate as an expression of our appreciation of the superabundant blessings which we enjoy in this country, than a gift of some of the wealth that has been poured into our laps so lavishly, for the extension of the Church and the increased use of the Prayer Book among our own fellow citizens and throughout the nations of the world. A well developed plan for the bringing of this object to the knowledge of the people in all our parishes has been devised, and a District Committee has been appointed in this Diocese to have charge of it here; notices have been sent to all the Clergy asking their co-operation; and I am in hopes that both Clergy and Laity will recognize the timeliness of the proposition, and will take active steps to present a worthy offering in 1907. This is one of those things which call for the laying aside of small sums of money daily, or weekly, or monthly as may be most convenient, from this time till the Convention assembles; and when we contemplate the fact that, (as it is said), $20,000, 000 a year is spent in this country for chewing gum, and that that vast sum is collected for such an absolutely unnecessary article, chiefly in nickels, by the slot-machines and news-boys on the railroads, and that too very largely from poor people, it seems trifling to urge that the people of this Church are already so heavily taxed for the support of its enterprises, that they cannot do much for this extraordinary purpose.

I would also take this occasion to call your attention to the fact, that it is the purpose of the Secretaries of the Board of Missions to arrange a Conference in this Missionary Department some time in the autumn, similar to those which have been held in the West. The time and place have not yet been decided upon; but I trust that both the Clergymen and laymen of this Diocese will show their interest in it and do what they can to make it effective. Let me remind you, too, that the next General Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held in Chicago in the autumn, when it is hoped the largest attendance ever had will be realized, seeing that Chicago is the Brotherhood's native place, and the forward movement which has recently taken place will arouse an unusual enthusiasm for the work.

Bishop's Address.

The Church at large has been recently much disturbed by defections from the Christian Faith as contained in the Apostle's Creed, on the part of some of the Clergy. It has heretofore been publicly proclaimed that the "ethical" thing for a Clergyman to do, if he loses his faith, is to stay where he is, and let the Church put him out if it can. I believe that most men will find it impossible to understand the state of mind which such a position discloses. We live in a free country, where men can preach what they please, provided they do not instigate rebellion, provided also they have not solemnly bound themselves to preach a certain form of truth. But when a man stands up before God and the Church and promises to conform to the doctrine of Christ as this Church hath received the same, and when he constantly repeats his adherence to that faith in the service of the Prayer Book, and then goes into his pulpit and denies the simplest, plainest, most incontrovertible statements of that doctrine, and tries to induce other people, the people whom the Church has committed to his care, to make the same denial, and still holds on to the position which he gained by his promise of conformity—the law of the land may not touch him—the Church in the laxity of her discipline may let him go on—but he may rest assured that the large majority of his fellow citizens will fail to recognize the honesty of such a proceeding. And there is no need of any man putting himself in such a compromising position, in a country where there is a sect ready-made for every intellectual vagary. The Protestant Episcopal Church believes the Apostles' Creed in its natural sense—if any man does not believe it he can easily go where he will find those that agree with him, and need not wear a livery which proclaims him false. And if the Church herself cannot preserve the faith once for all delivered to the saints, she becomes recreant to her trust, she loses her character, and is no longer worthy of our allegiance.

May the grace of God be with you all. Amen.

APPENDIX I.

Report of Officers and Committees.

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee

FOR THE CONVENTIONAL YEAR 1904-05.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that during the Conventional year 1904-05, they have had eight meetings, of which the first was held in Zion Church, Rome, the eighth in Grace Church, Utica, and the other six in St Paul's Church, Syracuse.

At the first meeting, held June 15th, 1904, all the members, excepting the Rev. Dr. Babcock and the Rev. Dr. Lockwood, being present, the Committee was organized by the election of the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., President, and Mr. Wm. D. Dunning Secretary pro tem. Mr. Frederick W. Feary presented the testimonials required by Canon, and a certificate was signed recommending his admission by the Bishop as a candidate for Holy Orders,

At the second meeting held July 13th, 1904, and attended by all the members, excepting the Rev. Dr. Lockwood, action was taken as follows in regard to the death of Bishop Huntington: "The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Central New York, mindful of the death of the Bishop of this Diocese, who departed this life on Monday, July 11th, 1904, at twenty minutes past four, at the home of his childhood, Hadley, Mass, aged eighty-five years, one month and fifteen days, places upon record the following minute: 'The news of the death of our venerable and b-loved Father in God will be received with deep emotion in all parts of the Church in the United States and throughout the Anglican Communion. Bishop Huntington adorned the high office, which he held for more than thirty-five years, with every virtue of the Christian character. He administered his Diocese with great ability and with remarkable wisdom. His influence was widely felt During his episcopate a wonderful growth appeared in every part of the field in which he labored He left his charge a prosperous, peaceful and united household. His name will always be conspicuous among those of the most eminent pastors of the Flock of Christ.'"

On motion it was resolved that the Committee recommend the payment, by the Diocese, to the late Bishop's family of an amount equivalent to a continuation of his salary to the 1st of January, 1905, and that they also recommend the payment by the Diocese of the expenses of the Bishop's funeral.

At the third meeting, held July 28th, 1904, the Rev Dr. Lockwood, Judge Sawyer and Mr. Van Wagenen being absent it was resolved, on motion, that it is the sense of this Committee that the Treasurer be authorized to pay to the family of the late Bishop the salary for the full quarter ending August 1st, 1904.

The President of the Committee was authorized by resolution, to issue a circular urging upon the parishes the payment in full of assessments for the current year for the Coadjutor's salary. The action of the members giving individual consent to the mortgaging of the Rectory of Trinity Parish, Seneca Falls, for the repair of the Church was ratified, and ordered to be recorded among the transactions of the Committee. A message of sympathy was sent to the Rev. Dr. Lockwood expressing the regret of his associates at his continued illness, and their hope of his returning soon to his place among them.

At the fourth meeting, held September 19th, 1904, and attended by all the clerical members, excepting the Rev. Dr. Lockwood and by Mr. Jack and Mr. Dunning, of the laity, the Secretary was instructed to include among the minutes of this meeting the giving by the Committee, since the previous meeting, of written consent to the placing of a mortgage on the church property of St. John's Parish, Marcellus. A letter from Mrs Huntington expressing for herself and her family very grateful appreciation of the action taken by the Committee in connection with the Bishop's death, was read and ordered to be preserved among the Standing Committee papers. Canonical testimonials having been presented by Mr. Roy Irving Murray, he was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted a candidate for Holy Orders. It was resolved that should the Bishop find that all canonical requirements preliminary to ordination to the Diaconate have been complied with in the Diocese of Southern

Report of the Standing Committee.

Virginia, in the case of Mr. Floarda Howard, who has been transferred to this Diocese as a candidate for Priest's Orders, and that he would have been ordained at once had he remained in Southern Virginia, it is recommended that he be made a Deacon in this Diocese without further requirements. The item of "Current Expenses, including Rector's Salary," as given in the report of one of the endowed parishes of the Diocese, was called to the attention of the Committee, with particular reference to Diocesan assessments upon the parish. The matter, after discussion, was decided to be a proper subject for consideration by the Convention.

At the fifth meeting, held December 5th, 1904, all the members were present. The vacancy in the membership, created by the death of Judge Sawyer, was filled by the election of the Hon. Charles A. Talcott of Utica. The signing of a paper since the last meeting, giving the consent required by Canon to the placing of a mortgage on the real estate of All Saints' Parish, Syracuse, was ordered to be recorded. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Edward Woodcock, D. D., of Detroit as Bishop of the Diocese of Kentucky. Satisfactory testimonials having been received, recommendation was made of the Rev. David Curran, Deacon, for advancement to the Priesthood; of Mr. John B. Pitcher and Mr. Frederick W. Feary for ordination to the Diaconate, and of Mr. Edward Wilson Parmelee for admission as a candidate for Holy Orders. The following memorial was read and unanimously adopted:

"A sense of irreparable loss pervades the meeting of the Standing Committee to-day. We miss the cheerful greeting of our late associate, Judge Sawyer, the uplifting influence of his presence and the guidance of his wisdom, which never went astray "

It is about twenty-two years since Judge Sawyer became a member of the Standing Committee, and rarely, in all these years has he failed to appear at our quarterly and special meetings, often at the sacrifice of business calls and personal convenience. Many an instance would our records reveal, when his legal knowledge has settled questions which bristled with difficulties, and his wise judgment and sound common sense have led us to safe and happy conclusions.

When, in 1895, the office of Chancellor was created, and Bishop

Report of the Standing Committee.

Huntington named Judge Sawyer for the position, his nomination was unanimously confirmed by the Convention, and the Diocese secured the benefit of his large experience in both civil and ecclesiastical law, which so eminently qualified him for the position of Chancellor. We all know what a tower of strength he was to the Bishop of the Diocese, when, a few years ago, he became involved in a painful controversy.

Looking at Judge Sawyer in his home life, in his parochial activities, and in his relations to the Diocese of Central New York, we find a Christian gentleman whose example is well worthy of imitation. What untold blessings his life as a Christian layman has conferred upon the Church and the Community, and how nobly did he fulfil the promise of his early Christian training by the devotion of his later years. And as it seemed to bring to his heart its richest joys to serve the church, in any department of her work; so will a host of earthly friends, who are parted from him for a season, always think of him as one whom the Great Head of the Church has called to stand in the House of the Lord, forever.

It is ordered that this minute be entered on the records of the Committee, and a copy be sent to the family of the late Judge Sawyer as a token of our loving sympathy."

At the sixth meeting, held March 3d, 1905, all the members, excepting Dr. Brainard and Mr. Talcott, being present, the consecration of the Rev. James Henry Darlington, D. D., Bishop elect of the Diocese of Harrisburgh, was consented to. A resolution was adopted looking to the printing in the convention Journal of a suitable biographical sketch of the late Bishop Huntington. Unanimous approval was given to the restoration, by the Bishop, of the name of the Rev. Albert Cusick, Deacon, to the Clergy list of the Diocese. The Secretary was instructed to record among the official acts of the Committee the giving of their consent, since the last meeting to a mortgage on the real estate of Trinity Church, Binghamton. The Rev. Edward H. Coley, rector of Calvary Church, Utica, was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Babcock. The following memorial was placed upon record, and sent to Dr. Babcock's family.

"Coming from the solemn services connected with the burial, to-day, of our late beloved associate, the Rev. Dr. Theodore Babcock, to this meeting, in the deliberations of which he had been summoned to participate, we are impressively sensible of the severity and nearness of the stroke, which, twice within half a year, has taken out of this world, one of our number. During the nearly nineteen years of his membership in this committee, Dr. Babcock was so seldom away from its meetings, and always took so interested and prominent a part in the transacting of its business, that his future absence will be, for a long time, very deeply felt.

His clear and well-stored mind, his good practical sense, his loyalty to Church principles, his knowledge of ecclesiastical history and Canon law, his great influence and activity in the organization of our Diocese, the intimacy and prominence of his almost continuous connection with its whole subsequent history, and his personal relations, through various offices which he held, with nearly all persons in regard to whom the Committee might be called to take action fitted him, in a high degree for assisting in the wise and intelligent discharge of our duties.

And to this helpfulness in council, his cheerful spirit, his sociability and kindness of heart, added the pleasantness of good companionship. In our recollections of Dr. Babcock there will always be conspicuous the sweet temper and genial sympathies, which he retained, in singular freshness, through the latest years of his great age, and which attracted to him the affectionate friendship of the younger as well as of the older clergy.

We desire to include in this tribute to his memory a record of our appreciation of the genuineness of his religious character, and of our thankfulness to God for the example kept so long before us, of faith and patience, of loyalty to our Saviour Christ, and earnestness in the work of His Church. Sorrowing that we shall see his face no more, and sympathizing with his family in their saddening sense of loss, we share with them the confidence and comfort of assured belief that he whom they and we so loved, now delivered from the burden of the flesh, is in joy and felicity, realizing the blessedness of those who die in the Lord, and reaping the rewards of good and faithful service."

At the seventh meeting, held May 15th, 1905, and attended by Dr. Lockwood and Mr. Harding, of the Clergy, and by Messrs. Van Wagenen, Jack and Dunning, of the laity, the Rev. Henry C. Staunton and the Rev. Edward A. Evans, Deacons, were recommended for advancement to the Priesthood, and Mr. Charles Kendall Gilbert, for ordination to the Diaconate. Action upon other papers presented, requiring the vote of three fourths of the Committee, was put over to the meeting in June. An estimate of the amount required for expenses of the Diocese during the ensuing year payable from the Diocesan Expense Fund, was submitted as follows: Printing Journal of Convention and other printing, \$500; Bishop's traveling expenses, \$300; Salaries of Secretaries of Convention, \$250; Registrar, \$25; Treasurer of Diocese, \$300; $\frac{1}{3}$ of expenses for General Convention, \$200; making a total of \$1,575. To raise this amount, it was voted to recommend to the Convention, an assessment upon the parishes and Missions, equal in each case, to one and three tenths per cent. of their last reported current expenses including rector's salary.

At the eighth meeting, held June 13th, 1905, all the members, excepting Dr. Brainard, were present. The Rev. Mr. Harding was chosen President Pro Tem. An application and certificate, as designated in Canon 2, Sec V. [III], having been presented, unanimous consent was given to the granting to Mr. Harry Idle of the dispensation allowed to certain postulants by that Canon, and, on presentation of the required testimonials, Messrs. Albert Broadhurst, John Clark Dean and Harry Idle were recommended to the Bishop, for admission as Candidates for Holy Orders; and Messrs. Charles W. Hakes, M. D., Edward Wilson Parmelee and George Ashton Oldham, for ordination to the Diaconate. On motion it was resolved to add to the estimate of expenses for the ensuing year, as adopted at the last meeting, the sum of $500 for an annuity as provided for in Canon XXI; and to increase the rate of assessment then recommended four tenths of one per cent, making the total assessment one and seven tenths per cent. The Secretary was requested to send to Dr. Brainard a message of fraternal sympathy and of regret for his inability through ill health, to give us the pleasure of his presence, and discharge the duties of his office as our President. The Secretary's report of the work of the Committee for the year was read and approved, and ordered to be presented to the Convention.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

H. R. LOCKWOOD, Secretary.

Report of the Board of Managers—First District.B. Missions of the Diocese.(I.) Report of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully submits the following report:

At a meeting of the Board in the Chapel of Zion Church, Rome, on Wednesday evening, June 15th, 1904, the thirty-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese having authorized the appropriation of $11,400.00 for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the current year, on motion the assessments and appropriations for the Districts were made as follows:

First District, Assessed....	$1,350	Apportioned....	$1,900
Second District, "	2,650	"	2,400
Third District, "	1,500	"	1,500
Fourth District, "	2,400	"	2,000
Fifth District, "	1,000	"	1,600
Sixth District, "	1,100	"	1,800
	$10,000		$11,200

The sum of $200 was also appropriated for the Church Mission to the Deaf Mutes of the Diocese.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers in the Chapel of Grace Church, Utica, on Tuesday, June 13th, 1905, the following reports were read, and the next day were presented to the Convention:

FIRST DISTRICT.

(JEFFERSON AND LEWIS COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Edwin W. Saphore, Dean; the Rev. C. N. Tyndell, Secretary; Mr. John M. Tilden, Treasurer; the Rev. Thomas Duck and Mr. W. H. Boyer, members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are, in Jefferson County: Adams, Alexandria Bay, Antwerp, Brownville, Cape Vincent, Champion, Clayton, Dexter, Evans Mills, Ellisburg, Frederick's Corners, Lafargeville, Millen's Bay, Church of the Redeemer in Missions of the Diocese—First District.

Watertown, Redwood, Sackett's Harbor and Theresa. In Lewis County: Constableville, Copenhagen, Greig and Port Leyden.

The Missions in Port Leyden and Greig are now under the Pastoral care of the Rev. F. Curtis Smith of Boonville. These places seem to be in excellent condition owing to the strenuous work of those in charge.

The people of Alexandria Bay are also responding to the energetic work of the Minister-in-charge—the Rev. Thomas Duck of Theresa. There are still three vacancies in the District, which we hope may be filled in the not-distant future.

A spirit of unanimity seems to be gaining foothold,—and with it a spirit of new life. Only when we all come to a full realization of the duty of Brotherly Love can we do our fullest for the King of Love. The reports this spring were full of hope and vigorous life.

Several communicants have been found in and about Alexandria Bay Church,—and the nucleus of a class for confirmation also formed. A Sunday School of about twenty-five members, under the authority of the Rector of St. John's, Cape Vincent, has been formed in Carleton Island, where there are a dozen Church families.

The "Union Church" building at Millen's Bay (now known as Riverview) is to undergo quite extensive repairing this summer.

Services were given in Adams from time to time by the Rev. Messrs. Brockway, Saphore and Tyndell, and the clergy of Trinity Parish, Watertown, conduct services regularly at Great Bend and Glen Park.

Financially, the District is in excellent condition. We have overpaid our assessment and underdrawn our appropriation. A financial summary is as follows:

Amount assessed upon the District.....	$1350 00
Amount assessed by the District.....	1340.97
Amount paid by the District.....	1493 97
Amount apportioned the District	1900.00

*Missions of the Diocese—Second District.SECOND DISTRICT.

(ONEIDA COUNTY AND PART OF MADISON COUNTY.)

The Officers of the District are: The Rev. William Cooke, Dean; the Rev. J. W. Clarke, Secretary; Mr. J. Francis Day, Treasurer; the Rev. W. W. Bellinger, D. D., and Mr. J. T. A. Doolittle, members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are—in Oneida County: Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Forestport, Bridgewater, Chadwicks, Clayville, Camden, Whitesboro, Paris Hill, New York Mills, Oriskany, Durhamville, Holland Patent, Westmoreland, Deerfield, and St. Joseph's, Rome. In Madison County: Brookfield and Earlville.

Four meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year—two in Utica, one in Whitesboro and one in Oriskany Falls.

During the year the Dean has celebrated the Holy Communion at Holland Patent three times, Chadwicks six times, Camden three times, Boonville once, Bridgewater three times, Westmoreland three times and Brookfield once. He has visited and preached twice at Holland Patent and once each at Trenton, Boonville and Forestport.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks reports that services are well attended at St. Paul's Church, Paris Hill. All financial obligations in Parish and Diocese have been fully met. The ability of the Parish to give and do is not changed practically from the last report.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtis reports that services have been maintained with regularity in St. Joseph's Church, Rome, and with the usual attendance upon the same. There is preaching twice on Sunday, together with a catechising of the children of the parish. The attendance upon the evening service during the past winter has been far better than the winter before. The sum of $675.00 has been raised and paid upon the Mortgage on the Rectory and Guild Hall, leaving a balance due of $1,000.00, which it is expected to have paid off by January 1st, 1906. The faithful of St. Joseph's deserve every commendation for keeping up to the increased standard of local support. In February last, an iron mill, upon which a considerable number of the families of St. Joseph's depended for their support, was destroyed by fire. That the offerings of the people have suffered no falling off by reason of this, speaks well for the spirit of self sacrifice and devotion of the people.

The Rev. F. C. Smith reports that conditions in Trinity Church, Boonville, remain about the same as last year. It may be said, however, that conditions are in a more stable condition, the main effort of the work at present being directed toward that end. The Parish has recently been re-incorporated with the diminished number of Vestrymen, and it is believed that this will be a step which will increase the working capacity of the Parish. It is hoped during the present year to take steps looking towards the reducing of the stipend, which is now received for the support of the Rector. Electric lights have been installed and paid for, and the Church property is in good condition. At present the Rector is assisted in this Parish and Christ Church, Forestport, by a layreader, Mr. E. W. Parmelee, a candidate for Orders. There is nothing new to report from Christ Church, Forestport, which, as reported before, is continually growing less and less in numbers. Those that remain, however, are faithful. Services have been held on all but three Sundays, and a week day service was maintained during Lent.

The Rev. J. B. Pitcher reports that regular services have been maintained in Trinity Church, Camden. During Lent, extra services were held. A house and lot in the village of Camden has been conveyed to the Church for the use of the Parish as a Rectory. The property is valued at $1,700.00 and is subject to a mortgage of $1,000.00.

The Rev. Wm. Cooke reports that the year closes in St. John's Church, Whitesboro, with Assessment for Diocesan Missions paid in full and all other indebtedness paid. Regular services have been maintained every Sunday morning, and on alternate Sunday evenings, with Fridays and Holy days. A marked increase has been seen in the attendance since regular Sunday morning services have been held.

The Rev. J. W. Clarke reports that regular services have been held in St. Paul's Chapel, Deerfield on the alternate Sunday afternoons. The Sunday School, under the charge of Mr. George M. Weaver, is held every Sunday and continues in a prosperous condition.

The Rev. A. W. Allen resigned from Gethsemane Church, Westmoreland, December 1st, 1904, since which time regular services have been maintained by a Lay Reader, the Dean celebrating the Holy Communion. The Sunday School shows a marked increase in numbers.

Services were regularly maintained in St. Andrew's Church, Durhamville, by the Rev. John Arthur until March 1st, when he left the Diocese for Iowa.

Occasional Services have been held in St. Timothy's, Brookfield by the Rev. R. M. Duff, S. T. D., and the Dean.

No written reports have been received from the other Mission Parishes and Stations in the District.

The Rev. B. T. Stafford is in charge of St. Andrew's, Augusta and the Church of the Good Shepherd, Oriskany Falls.

The Rev. A. W. Allen is in charge of St. James', New York Mills and St. Peter's, Oriskany.

The Rev. E. A. Evans is in charge of St. George's, Chadwicks, St. John's, Clayville and Christ Church, Bridgewater.

The Rev. J. H. Geare is in charge of St. Paul's, Holland Patent.

The Rev. C. J. Lambert, of Sherburne, is in charge of Grace Church, Earlville.

THIRD DISTRICT.

(BROOME AND CHENANGO COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. George G. Perrine,

Missions of the Diocese--Third District.

Dean; the Rev. Charles D. Broughton, Secretary; Mr. William J. Russell, Treasurer; the Rev. Harry S. Longley and Mr. John Anderson, members of the Board of Managers; the Dean and Secretary, ex-officio, and the Rev. A. R. B. Hegeman, Mr. William H. Shaal and Mr. Joseph E. Packard, Finance Committee.

There are seventeen parishes and missions in the District of which the following have received assistance from the Board during the past year; Harpersville and Afton, Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point, Bainbridge, Guilford, Mount Upton and Windsor.

There have been three meetings of Convocation within the year, namely, in Grace Church, Whitney's Point; Trinity Memorial Church, Binghamton; and Emmanuel Church, Norwich.

Afton, St. Ann's Church—This Church, under the faithful oversight of the Rev. Edwin Lee Tanner, continues to prosper. The services are well attended, an active branch of the Woman's Auxiliary is doing good work, there appears to be a very commendable readiness on the part of all to conform in every way to the customs and requirements of the Church, and abandoning all secular methods of raising money, the people are contributing liberally in the Christian way. The Easter offering is to be used in purchasing a fine Chalice and Paten for the Church as a memorial of Bishop Huntington. All canonical offerings are taken and all assessments for diocesan purposes have been fully met.

Harpersville—St. Luke's Church. This parish which, with two exceptions, is the oldest parish in the diocese, having been founded in 1799 by the Rev. Philander Chase afterwards first Bishop of Ohio, is also under the charge of the Rev. Edwin Lee Tanner. Though small and without much wealth of material things, a more loyal and devoted congregation is not to be found. A fund has been gradually accumulated from the gifts of the congregation for the improvement of the Church building. It is something very much needed, but the amount now on hand is only about $100 and at least as much more will be required to do the work. The Sunday School is being cared for under the faithful superintendence of Charles W. Hakes, M. D., who is also a Lay Reader and candidate for orders. The Woman's Auxiliary has sent boxes to the needy and entertained the District Branch at its annual meeting in May. All dues, parochial and diocesan, have been fully paid and offerings made for general objects.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

Bainbridge—St. Peter's Church. Under the pastoral care of the Rev. Wilson E. Tanner, there is much evidence of steady growth and improvement. The Sunday School gains slowly in numbers and efficiency, and for the first time in several years there are no losses in the parish but on the contrary some additions. There is also an improvement in the attendance at the services, which on Sundays shows an average of about 40 per cent. of the members. All canonical offerings have been made, all dues to the parish and diocese have been paid, and the Advent offering for General Missions was almost sufficient to meet the apportionment for the parish. The Easter offering for Church repairs was a little over $200 and included gifts of more people in the parish than commonly take part in an offering. It is the largest sum given at a single service in the history of the parish.

Chenango Forks, St. John's Church—The services here during most of the year have been supplied by the Rev. Dr. Duff, Mr. R. A. Young as Lay Reader, and by the Dean.

Whitney's Point, Grace Church—The Rev. David Curran has had charge of this Church during the past year. He gave up his work there on the first of May last and was transferred to the Diocese of Kansas. Since he left the Dean has supplied one Sunday service and Mr. R. A. Young another. Until another arrangement can be made, Mr. Pierce, by the Bishop's appointment as Lay Reader, will take the Sunday service here and at Chenango Forks. The amount pledged to the missionary and the assessment for Diocesan Missions have been paid.

Guilford, Christ Church—The condition of the Church in Guilford is one of moderate but steady progress. The services of the Church have been maintained without intermission and the attendance has been good, but might easily be improved, especially on Sunday evenings. A branch of the Woman's Auxiliary is doing good work here and contributing liberally in labor and money to the relief of the needy at home and abroad. The Endowment Fund, which was begun about fifteen years ago, and is made up of free will offerings, birthday and thank offerings, amounted, at the beginning of May, 1905, to $1,551.53. The income of this fund, except what was required to keep the Church property insured, is added each year to the principal, and that with the offerings amounts to something over $100 per annum and is constantly increasing. The Easter offering, including $13.07 from the Sunday School, amounted to $148.48, nearly half of which was devoted to General Missions.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

This is the largest offering made in this Church for a good many years, and perhaps the largest in the history of the parish. The Church and Rectory have been painted and repaired at an expense of a little over $200. The report of the Treasurer shows that all financial obligations to the parish, the Diocese and the Church at large, including the apportionment for General Missions, have been fully paid.

Mount Upton—Grace Church. There are at present ten members of this Church, five adults and five children. The services are supported by the income of the Fenno Tudor Fund and a small appropriation for Diocesan Missions, the offerings of the congregation being devoted to canonical objects. This Church has a fund, known as the Mt. Upton Building Fund, of between $700 and $800. The few faithful members, who for the present meet for worship in the Baptist Church rented for this purpose, would be greatly pleased as well as benefitted if they could have a Church of their own, but the amount on hand is so small, their ability to contribute so limited and the prospect of a permanent congregation so uncertain, that it has not yet seemed prudent to build and incur a debt which would be apt to paralyze the life which at present exists.

Windsor - Zion Church. The services have been maintained in this Church faithfully and without intermission except on one or two Sundays during Lent, when the Rector was too ill to attend to his duties. The attendance at the services has been what may be called normal. There has been considerable activity and interest in Church work among the members, and some improvements and additions to Church property have been made. A branch of the Woman's Auxiliary holds regular meetings and gives cheerfully of its time and means to the Missionary work of the Church. The canonical offerings are taken regularly, and the parish has paid in full its assessment for Diocesan Missions.

The Rev. Dr. Duff, Missionary for Chenango County, has held services during the year in many places, among which may be mentioned North Norwich, South Otselic, East Pharsalia, Earlville, Smyrna, South Plymouth, South Edmeston, Columbus, Rockwell's Mills, Rockdale, Vallonia Springs, Page Brook, Lower Geneganslet, Brisbin and Woods' Corners, besides officiating in exchange with many of the Rectors of settled parishes. These services have for the most part been held in denominational Churches and school houses and wherever opportunity could be found. They have generally been well attended and much interest shown in them. During a temporary vacancy in the Church at Chenango Forks he has held frequent services and administered the Holy Communion there and at Whitney's Point; and McDonough, through his assistance, has been able to keep up its Sunday School, meet its financial obligations and contribute something to Diocesan and General Missions.

The Board of Managers for Missions directed the following report to be incorporated in this report:

REPORT.

MAY, 1904, TO MAY, 1905.

The Chenango County Missionary reports that during the past year he has held services in many little hamlets and settlements in the county) where the Church is not established. The services have been held for the most part in denominational Churches, lent for that purpose, and have been generally very well attended, and much interest has been shown in the "ways" of our Church by those to whom the Church heretofore was an unknown quantity. Services have also been held occasionally in some of the Missions of the Church.

Two classes for confirmation have been presented and another class awaits the visitation of the Bishop. Several persons, men, women and children, have been baptized, many prayer books have been distributed, Church Guilds have been formed and Sunday Schools established. The singing of the canticles of the Church has also been introduced into some of the denominational Churches. The Missionary finds that nearly all the denominational ministers possess Prayer Books, and freely confess that they find them very useful in their ministrations. One uses the form for family prayer in the Prayer Book, another the General Confession, some have the Jubilate sung and the Gloria Patri is usually sung at one of the services and, as is well known, parts of the burial and the marriage service are in very wide use among our denominational brethren.

Very many house to house visits have been made by the Missionary during the past year.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

(ONONDAGA, OSWEGO, CORTLAND COUNTIES, AND THE TOWNSHIPS OF MADISON COUNTY NOT INCLUDED IN THE SECOND DISTRICT.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. William DeLancey Wilson, Dean; the Rev. Julian E. Ramsdell, Secretary; Mr. J. H. H. Young, Treasurer. These officers and the Rev. John T. Rose and the Rev. H. G. Coddington constitute the Executive Committee.

The Secretary and Treasurer are the elected members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Stations in the Fourth District are: East Syracuse, Manlius, Jamesville, Marcellus, Cleveland, Constantia, Lacona, Redfield, Altmar, Mexico, Warners, Memphis, Pulaski, Chittenango, Phoenix, East Onondaga, St. Luke's and St. Philip's, Syracuse. The Good Shepherd, Onondaga Reservation and St. John's, Oswego, received no aid from the District. Calvary, Homer, has been aided to the extent of $100 this year because of temporary loss of income of their Endowment Fund.

Meetings of the Convocation have been held three times during the year, at the Reservation July 6th, at Cazenovia October 11th and 12th, and conjointly with the District B. W. A. at Marcellus May 9th and 10th.

Emmanuel, East Syracuse, with St. Luke's, Syracuse, continues in the charge of the Rev. J. E. Johnson. Some growth is to be expected at the former, as the population is increasing rapidly.

Christ Church, Manlius, more than maintains its own under the ministry of the Rev. Geo. D. Ashley, and is gradually approaching self support.

Missions of the Diocese - Fourth District.

St. Mark's, Jamesville, has been attached to Trinity, Fayetteville, under the care of the Rev. Ernest Melville, who reports encouragement because of the devotion of the few members of the Mission and of the promised increase in population consequent on the increased manufacturing industry.

St. John's, Marcellus, under the guidance of the Rev. E. B. Mott, reports the building and occupation of a convenient Rectory, and shows continued progress towards self support in asking that its stipend of $150 be reduced by $50 each year for the next three years. This example is commended to other Missions.

St. John's, Cleveland, under the ministry of the Rev. Thomas Stafford, shows remarkable signs of new life. The congregations have increased greatly and the offerings have been more than doubled within the year.

We hope that the influence of minister and people may be felt in the other part of the station and that services may be resumed at Constantia.

The Rev. Daniel Daly, because of increasing years and infirmities, has held but few services at Redfield during the year, and his work at Lacona has been seriously interrupted.

St. John's, Altmar, after having been brought to a most admirable state of organization, has been called upon to give up the services of its pastor, the Rev. B. E. Whipple, because of advancing age. The services are supplied by Mr. Harry Cole, a candidate for Holy Orders.

Grace Church, Mexico, has had but one or two services since last November because of inability on the part of the people to heat the Church. Previous to that time services were held by the Rev. W. N. Hawkins of Pulaski.

Services are maintained regularly at St. James', Pulaski, by the Rev. W. N. Hawkins who has also celebrated the Holy Communion at Lacona as occasion offered.

St. Paul's, Warners, is a good example of a new mission, showing what can be done in many small villages, by a missionary who is supported by a few devoted people. It is rapidly coming to be the leading religious organization of the village. The services are supplied by the Rev. J. E. Ramsdell of Baldwinsville.

Services have been held somewhat irregularly at Memphis the last year because of the failure of the vestry at Jordan to secure a rector, as afternoon services are held by the rector of Christ Church.

St. Paul's, Chittenango, continues to be served by the Rev. Geo. A. Ottaway of Canastota.

St. John's, Phoenix, under the care of the Rev. H. G. Coddington of Grace Church, Syracuse, with the assistance of clergymen and lay readers, has been fortunate to secure the services of the Rev. James Empringham, a Canadian clergyman residing in Syracuse for the time being. There is a prospect of the purchase of property that can be used for a chapel, in the near future.

St. Philip's, Syracuse, has been supplied by the Rev. James Empringham since the removal of the Rev. Floarda Howard to Wilmington, Del.

St. Andrew's, East Onondaga, has been transferred to the District by its founder, the Rev. D. C. Huntington of All Saints, Syracuse, and has been attached to the Church of St. John the Divine, under the Rev. W. D. Manross. There is growth and promise of the erection of a suitable chapel in the near future.

St. John's Mission, Oswego, is prospering in its humble field under the care of the Rev. H. Sizer of the Church of the Evangelists. A bell has been purchased and is the only one in that part of the city to summon people to God's service.

The Mission to the Onondaga Indians, under the Rev. W. S. Hayward, continues to do its much needed work. Instruction is given in making lace, in sewing and in singing.

As will be seen from the Treasurer's report, the following parishes have paid their assessment to Diocesan Missions in full:

Cazenovia, Chittenango, Baldwinsville, East Onondaga, East Syracuse, Jamesville, Jordan, Manlius, Marcellus, Memphis, Onondaga Castle, Skaneateles, Syracuse All Saints, Church of the Saviour, Grace, St. John's, St. Mark's, St. Paul's, St. Philip's, Trinity, Warners, Altmar, Cleveland, Fulton, Lacona. (26).

Missions of the Diocese--Fourth District.

St. Paul's and St. John's, Syracuse, have paid in excess of assessments.

Cortland, Chittenango, Fayetteville, Calvary Syracuse, Pulasqui, Christ Church and Evangelists, Oswego (7) have paid in part only -

Homer, Canastota, Mexico and Redfield (4) have paid nothing.

The financial summary is as follows:

In Seneca County: Deys Landing, Hayts Corners, Kidders, Romulus, Willard and Willowdale.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the past year, viz: At Cayuga Lake Park, Tuesday, July 12th; St. John's Church, Auburn, Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 9th and 10th, and St. Peter's Church, Auburn, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 2d and

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, is in charge of the Rev. G. P. Somerville, D. D., from whom, no report has been received.

Weedsport and Port Byron, except during the first few months of the fiscal year, have been without regular ministrations. There being no one in charge will account for there being no report from these points. It is reported, however, that since the close of the fiscal year the Bishop has found an efficient Lay Reader in the person of Mr. L. C. Wadsworth, of Syracuse, who under the guidance of the Dean of the Fourth District, has resumed the Services of both these Churches, and it is hoped that his efforts may be appreciated by the people, and the work prospered.

The Churches at Aurora, Cayuga and Union Springs are in charge of the Rev. W. H. Casey, from whom, no report has been received.

Calvary Church, Northville has received ministrations only during the month of August, 1904. The zeal and faithfulness of the little flock is to be commended, however, inasmuch as the work of the Woman's Auxiliary has been kept up, and many of the canonical offerings, especially those for Diocesan and General Missions have been duly made. It seems a pity that more cannot be done for these people in the way of ministrations than has been the case for some years past.

Grace Church, Willowdale keeps up its wonted reputation for faithfulness and good works. Services have been held regularly every Sunday, and a few week days. All the Diocesan Assessments have been paid. 8 have received Holy Baptism, and 4 have been Confirmed. There have been 3 marriages and 3 deaths.

St. Stephen's Church, Romulus has been served very acceptably during the past year by Mr. Albert Broadhurst, a student at Hobart College, and whose Lay Reading has been under the guidance of the Dean of the District. Mr. Broadhurst reports that in addition to meeting their assessments for Diocesan Missions, they have given for Domestic Missions, $7.32; for the Bishop's Relief Fund, $1.00; the Bishop Co-adjutor's salary, $7.94.

The Holy Communion has been celebrated six times. Though there have been no baptisms during the past year, yet there are some that are awaiting the Sacrament, which, among other things, bespeaks the importance of having the Mission placed in charge of some one who can minister the priestly offices.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

St. Andrew's Church, Dey's Landing has been served either from Romulus or Willowdale during 33 Sundays of the year, especially, during the spring, summer and autumn.

The Church property is insured, and there is no indebtedness.

Calvary Church, Hayt's Corners is in charge of the Secretary of the District, whose encouragements from the faithfulness of the little flock seem to compensate for the losses that continue to take place both from death and removal.

The assessments have been met, and the Church property has been kept insured.

Christ Church, Willard is also in charge of the Secretary.

Its list of communicants and congregation are made up almost wholly from the officers and employees of the Willard State Hospital, and hence is subject to constant changes.

With the assistance of a Lay Reader the rector has been able to hold services twice on each Lord's Day, except during the heat of summer; and by this means a much larger number of people are brought under the influence of the Church, than would otherwise be possible. The assessments for Diocesan Missions have been duly paid, and goodly Offerings have also been made for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

The financial summary of the District is as follows, viz:

Amount assessed upon the District	$1000 00
Amount assessed by the District	1053.00
Amount paid by the District	994.33
Amount appropriated by the District	1600.00

(COUNTIES OF CHEMUNG, TIOGA AND TOMPKINS.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. N. S. Boardman, Dean.

Missions of the Diocese—Sixth District.

the Rev. Theodore Haydn, Secretary; Mr. H. V. Bostwick, Treasurer; Representatives on the Board of Managers, the Rev. G. H. McKnight, D. D., and Mr. H. V. Bostwick.

The Missions of the District are: Emmanuel, Elmira, Big Flats, Millport, Horseheads, Wellsburg, Van Etten, Candor, Spencer, Waverly, Smithboro, Trumansburg, McLean, Dryden, Slaterville Springs and Speedsville.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held. The June business meeting was held in Ithaca, the September meeting at Emmanuel, Elmira; and the January meeting at Trinity, Elmira. The presence of the Presiding Bishop at the September meeting and of Bishop Brewer of Montana at the January meeting added greatly to the interest and value of these Convocations.

The District has been greatly handicapped in carrying on its missionary work by the reduction in the amount apportioned to the District, made by the Board of Managers. Had it not been for the faithful and efficient services of the Lay Readers' League, organized in Elmira at the beginning of the year, several Missions would necessarily have been closed. The members of the organization are pledged to read the services once a month wherever the Dean may direct.

The Dean has visited most of the Missions of the District during the year.

He reports as follows:

Emmanuel, Elmira: This Mission has passed a successful year. Eleven have been baptized and six confirmed.

St. Mark's, Millport: The year has been one of encouraging growth. With the assistance of Lay Readers two Sunday services and Sunday School have been maintained. A great loss has been sustained in the death of Dr. Bailey, a devout communicant, for many years a trustee, and an earnest supporter of the Mission from its infancy. Twelve have been baptized and eight confirmed.

St. Matthews, Horseheads: Regular lay services have been carried on under the supervision of the Dean. The Bishop hopes soon to be able to place a clergyman in charge of this Mission and of St. John's, Big Flats. The death of the Rev. S. D. Borrum will long be felt because of his interest in the welfare of this parish.

St. John's, Big Flats: This Church has been closed since January 1st, up to which time services had been regularly maintained. In September a confirmation class was presented to Bishop Tuttle.

Candor, Spencer and VanEtten: The Rev. E. C. Hoskins has maintained regular services in this difficult field.

Epiphany, Trumansburg: The Rev. W. E. Cook reports: Work at Trumansburg is progressing favorably. The congregation has worshipped in the Chapel all winter because of the difficulty of heating the Church. In order to keep the Church from falling down it will be necessary to expend several hundred dollars in repairs. Although this was a heavy tax upon a congregation very small numerically, it has set about this task in earnest, and now has sufficient funds in hand to put the exterior of the stone Church in good condition. The parish has met all its obligations in full and looks forward toward the future with hope and resolution. The prospects are brighter than in several years past.

Grace Church, Waverly, Christ Church, Wellsburg, Emmanuel, Smithboro: These parishes have been under the charge of the Rev. H. W. Crydenwise since last fall. He finds reason for encouragement in the interest manifested by the people and the increasing attendance upon Divine Service.

St. Thomas', Slaterville Springs, which has been under the charge of the Rev. Theo. Haydn for the past three years, is, in connection with St. John's, Speedsville, to be again made a separate missionary field, the Bishop having appointed the Rev. A. J. Schrader to the charge of these parishes. St. Thomas', Slaterville Springs, has lost heavily through removals, and there is an apparent lack of interest on the part of the people which makes the outlook for the future rather discouraging.

St. John's, Speedsville, has also lost several families by removals and two of its most devout communicants through death. Bitter dissensions among the people have seriously injured the parish.

Zion, McLean, continues its record of faithfulness. New hangings have been provided for the Church. The Easter offering was for General Missions, and for the third year this parish has overpaid its apportionment. The location of a manufacturing industry the village, which is soon to be established, will doubtless give an opportunity for growth.

Trinity Mission, Dryden: The new Church, which is well under way and which will be completed in June, will be dedicated to the memory of Bishop Huntington as the first Church erected in the Diocese since he entered into rest. There is every indication that when thus permanently established this Mission will grow and prosper. The Easter offering is here also devoted to General Missions and for the third time also the apportionment has been more than met.

The Missionary in charge has several times celebrated the Holy Communion at the George Junior Republic, Freeville, and has also presented three candidates for Confirmation from the same place. Services were also held on the evening of Good Friday. The Superintendent of this institution is a Churchman, and looks after the children of the Church with faithfulness.

The financial summary is as follows:

Amount assessed by the District.....	972.00
Amount paid by the District.....	1010.35

N. S. BOARDMAN, Dean,

THEODORE HAYDN, Secretary.

We would respectfully repeat the recommendation made by the Committee on the Report of the Board of Managers to the Convention of 1904, namely, that the officers of the several Districts be requested to send in their reports concerning the missionary work of their District to the Secretary of the Board of Managers for Missions at least two weeks before the meeting of Convention, as called for by the Canon.

Respectfully submitted by the Board of Managers.

JAMES J. BURD, Secretary.

Missions of the Diocese—Treasurer's Report.

The Committee to whom was referred the report of the Secretary of the Board of Missions, have examined the report with considerable interest and are gratified to find the Mission work in a most excellent condition. Frequent services, well attended, the frequent celebration of the Holy Communion and increased interest evidence a healthy growth in the Church's work. A number of the Districts have paid sums in excess of their assessments, and this is taken as a most encouraging sign.

Your Committee recommend that the Secretaries of the several districts be requested as called for in the Canon to return their reports for the year to the Secretary of the Board of Missions at least two weeks before the meeting of the Convention, and they also request that these reports contain in detail reports of the District Treasurer. The Deans of the several districts are urged to use all possible influence in the several parishes and mission stations to pay the amounts for Diocesan Missions.

E. H. COLEY,

E. C. DELAVAN.

In addition to the above tabular exhibit I am able to report that $1000, more has been paid on the balance due from the Gardner Estate, and the same has been paid on our loan from the Christmas Fund, and duly endorsed on the note given for that loan. The remaining $2000, still due from the Gardner Estate, with accrued interest, $175, to Jan. 1, 1905, was included in a Mortgage given to secure the claim of the Christmas Fund, and when that mortgage is fully paid, will offset and release our note still held by the Trustees of that Fund.

The matter of Diocesan Assessments,—or rather their payment,—seems yet an open question,—as, up to this date (June 5) I hold, as almost the only assets of the Diocese, the unpaid arrears of such assessments, amounting to $2,558.88, of which $1,490.54 are last year's assessments, and $1,068.34 of earlier date, but none older than 1901-2 at which Convention all previous arrears were cancelled. Of course, a small portion of this amount may be reasonably expected to be paid before the Convention of 1905. But the above statement is an indication of how lightly the duty of loyally and promptly meeting such assessments is regarded by a majority of the Clergy and Parish officers. Last year assessments were laid upon 143 Parishes in strict accord with Canon XI, and of that number only 57 are now fully paid, while 86 are still in arrears for the above amount. I sincerely hope that my successor may be able to make a more encouraging report.

One more example.

The action of the Standing Committee at the Special Meeting, called on the death of Bishop Huntington in July last, advising the Treasurer to use any surplus from the Coadjutor Fund (after it had served its original purpose) to carry out their recommendation, viz. paying the funeral expense, and continuing the salary to the late Bishop's family till Jan. 1, 1905, left your Treasurer in an embarrassing position, as there was no surplus till later than that date, and not enough has yet accumulated to make good their recommendation, although the total arrears of the Coadjutor Fund amounts to $1265.11, sufficient, if paid to meet that need and reduce the Diocesan Expense Assessment for this year at least a thousand dollars, as that assessment having been laid on precisely the same basis as the Diocesan Expense Fund, any surplus would logically and equitably be incorporated into that fund. On the contrary it now appears necessary to draw from that fund to complete their recommendation, unless there shall yet come enough from the Coadjutor Fund. Surely assessments seem to be unpopular; but what better method of meeting our financial necessities can be suggested?

Respectfully submitted,

SEYMOUR H. STONE, Treasurer.

The Committee for auditing the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese met in Syracuse on June 2nd, 1905, and would respectfully report that they compared the trial balance with the ledger, and find the report as submitted by Mr. Stone correct.

(1) Report of the Trustees.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May, 1905.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The Trustees of the Christmas Fund, Diocese of Central New York respectfully submit their report for the year ending April 30th, 1905 as follows: Referring to the appended report of the Treasurer for the financial details.

Christmas Fund—Report of the Trustees.

At a meeting of the Trustees held June 25th, 1904, the nomination of the Convention to fill the vacancy on the board was confirmed by the election of Mr. Frank L. Lyman to serve five years, filling vacancy caused by expiration of Trustee Seymour H. Stone's term.

The new board was then organized by the election of Trustee William Watkins as President, and G. Howard Avery as Secretary and Treasurer.

It was the expression of the meeting that the statutory lien on the Geo. J. Garduer Estate should be put in the form of a mortgage and the secretary was so instructed. This mortgage was secured covering all that property situated at the corner of University Avenue and Madison Street, now owned by Mrs. Genevieve G. Fuller, amount being $5,437.69. This also secures the balance on the Diocese lien against the Gardner estate of $2,000.00 and interest. Prior to the drawing of this mortgage we received from the Garduer estate $2,500 in cash and for the Diocese $1,000.00 in cash on this lien by releasing ninety-eight front feet on University Avenue.

An application from the Parish House Corporation, Grace Church for a loan of $4,500.00 on the Parish House lot was read and approved, the Secretary being empowered to have the necessary bond and mortgage drawn and executed. This was done and dates from September 27th, 1904.

An informal discussion of the conditions of the fund then followed. The minutes of the last meeting being read and accepted the meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the President.

There has been no change in the beneficiaries, there remaining eleven widowed and two clergy, amounting to $1,850 a year. The convention is called upon to nominate one Trustee in place of William Watkins, whose term expires.

The interest on the Robinson Mortgage due Jan. 1, 1905 of $50.00 is still unpaid.

The permanent fund remains the same as last reported. The Parish offerings are $71.09 short of last year but anticipate we will be able to continue the stipends the same as in 1904.

WM. WATKINS, President.

G. HOWARD AVERY, Sec'y and Treas.

It was necessary to make large expenses on the Pattison street house, but it is in fine condition. The tenants pay $10 a month rent. By reason of sickness they are back on rent to May 1, 1905, $62.00.

A total of $387.23 has been paid for taxes and repairs on the Pattison street house. This Fiske Fund had a second mortgage on this property of $600. All of these expenses have, however, been paid by the Daboll Fund (and all rents have been received by this Fund). The property is supposed to be worth upwards of $1,500, and upon the sale of the premises these disbursements will be paid back to this Fund before any payment is made to the Fiske Fund.

Large sums had to be spent in repairs of William St. house in painting, plumbing, roofing and repairs, and the principal was further impaired. By an oversight the interest on the R. R. bond due in April has not been collected.

The Johnson and Fiske Funds each has a half interest ($750) in the Brandt mortgage of $1500. On January 1, 1904, there was $217.26 back interest due. Since that time only $80.67 interest has been paid, ($24.00 of which was paid since May 1, 1905, and is not included here) It has been thought best hitherto not to foreclose in the hope that this amount due may be paid.

If the William Street house is sold, it is hoped that enough may be realized to largely diminish the impairment of principal.

For repairs on William Street houses, taxes, insurance, etc., upwards of $438.58 had to be paid for the preservation of the property

One half of this amount will be paid back by the Fiske and Wheeler Funds on July 1st, as they have entire interest in one house and lot.

The item of $62.50 for cement walk on Newell Street was for an improvement ordered made by the City of Syracuse.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

The principal has been raised in amount to $25,700.00 in order to maintain a round figure. This advance is $88.01, making the real impairment only $101 51. The impairment is determined by the amounts recovered in the sale of the real estate holdings and any sums realized over amounts set opposite the various pieces of property now held by this fund will quickly wipe it out. There is $6.75 to be recovered from the Pierrepont Fund as interest on Clark mortgage which will still further reduce amount of impairment.

During the year two pieces of property have been disposed of; that at 113 Alice St. selling for $900.00, $300 in cash and $600 mortgage assumed by Vincent Lamana, and that at 523 Ulster Street selling for $525 cash.

Action No. 24 in process of foreclosure at the time of last report has been completed, from the sale of which this fund realized $52.55 in cash and a $200 interest in mortgage given by W. W. Wright.

Daniel Day has reduced the amount of his mortgage to $50 and C. B. Smith, to $375.

The Mary Staunton mortgage has been paid in full, amounting to $140.

T. W. Taylor owes $34.33 back interest, and this mortgage will doubtless have to be foreclosed. The Robertson (now Hookway) interest was not paid in January.

Lona Martin has paid $25 principal on one mortgage. Action No. 9 has been foreclosed and property bought in by trustees. This was the C. S. E. Adams mortgage of $400. Action No. 26 has been discontinued, John Foley giving a new bond and time extended 3 years. Action No. 8 has not been foreclosed as yet pending payment by Emma Allen. By error the July interest on Clark mortgage (P. M. Fund) of $6 75 was deposited in this fund and is to be transferred to the P. M. Fund. There is still due on the Higgins contract of sale $1465.

It has been the practice in the past to have the interest on the Moore and Winston mortgages paid directly to the beneficiary. In consequence such interest has not been received by the Treasurer and is not accounted for by him.

We would suggest that this practice is improper, and hereafter such interest should be paid to the Treasurer.

The Limebeck mortgage has reduced $300 00 in amount and the Spicer mortgage $100 00.

Foreclosure action No. 24 has been completed from which was realized $157 61 in cash and the Wright mortgage of $600 00. This fund had interest of $602 73.

Action No. 24 has been completed, the Trustees buying in the premises known as 211-13 William Street in Solvay, N. Y. This fund had an interest of $1 000. There is a large two family house on the premises renting for $14 a month from which this fund receives 5-7 of income. A large number of repairs were necessary to be made upon the acquisition of this property and this fund will pay its share on July 1st as noted in Johnson Fund.

There is still due on the Higgins contract of sale $1,465 00. The interest on the Robertson (now Hookway) mortgage was not paid in January,

About May 1, 1904, the property at 321 Shuart Avenue was sold to Michael and Catherine Travers, the purchasers giving a mortgage for $335 70, agreeing to pay in cash back taxes and interest amounting to $40 70. The mortgagors paid $23 85, but failed to pay the balance of $16 85. Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Travers decided to obtain a loan of $400 in the Syracuse Saving Bank and to pay us up in full, but upon an examination of the search it was found that George Warner had a tax deed of the premises prior to, and which was cut off by the foreclosure of the mortgage by the Trustees.

In order that the Travers might make the improvements on the house which they desired, it was deemed best to increase our loan to $400. So a quit-claim deed to the Travers was obtained from George Warner and wife, the Travers giving the Trustees a note in the sum of $64 30, making the entire loan $400.

For the interest which various funds have in these properties see report of May 1, 1904.

The disbursements here shown include all taxes on the properties. 617 W. Newell St. and 102 Meadow St. are both undesirable pieces of property and it is with difficulty that they are kept occupied. The occupant of 102 Meadow St. is in arrears, but is now paying up.

In August $100 00 was advanced from the P. M. Fund to meet payment of improvements.

This will doubtless be met by July 1st.

The vacant property now held by the various funds, obtained on foreclosures, amounts to upwards of $12,000.

By the last will of Joanna Ross, admitted to probate in the Surrogate's office of Seneca county, all of her real estate situated in the town of Varick adjoining St. Andrew's Church, Dey's Landing, was devised to the Rev. Thomas Duck in trust for the benefit of Eliza T. Duck for life, remainder to Thomas Duck for life, and remainder to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund for the benefit of St. Andrew's Church, Dey's Landing, in such manner as may be designated by the Bishop.

In October, 1904, the premises were sold to Delight W. Stone of Romulus, N. Y., for $850, of which amount $300 was paid in cash and the balance of $550 by a bond and mortgage, which was made payable to Eliza T. Duck for life, remainder to Thomas Duck for life, and remainder to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

The $300 had to be used in paying the indebtedness of the testatrix.

Because of the taxation of bonds and mortgages during the last year, none of the moneys received by the Trustees, except a small amount, the investment of which was found necessary to close out certain of our real estate interest, have been invested in bonds and mortgages.

It has been suggested by our Treasurer that the Treasurer of this Fund should hereafter be required to give a Surety Company bond for the faithful performance of his duties, in at least the sum of $25,000, and in such additional sum as the Trustees may hereafter, from time to time, require, the premium on such bond to be paid from the Fund.

We heartily concur in this suggestion. It is almost needless to say that a treasurer of a business corporation having upwards of $100,000 under his control would be required, as a matter of course, to give such bond. The peculiar sacredness of this trust certainly requires every precaution to be taken to protect the interests both of the donors and the beneficiaries, so that the moneys and property committed to our charge should be safeguarded in every way.

We therefore would ask the Convention to authorize us to direct such bond to be given.

By reason of the death of Robert J. Hubbard, one of the Trustees, a vacancy exists which will have to be filled.

The term of office of William D. Dunning and A. C. Chase as trustees expires on September 1st next, and successors are to be elected by this Convention.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. D. DUNNING,
H. P. BELLINGER,
LOUIS KRUMBHAAR,
C. W. ANDREWS,

June 6th, 1905.

The undersigned of the committee appointed to examine the statement of the Trustees of the parochial Fund, met at the office of Charles W. Andrews, treasurer of said fund, in the City of Syracuse on June 12th, 1905, and after a careful examination of all the investments, securities, receipts and disbursements to May 1st, 1905, do hereby certify the same correct to the best of our knowledge and belief.

Van Wagenen Fund—Report of the Trustee.

Unlike a year ago, there are no pending litigation^s or foreclosures, and while some investments still show probable impairment or loss, we believe that in time the gains on the better investments will reduce some of the apparent depreciation.

We find that the vacant real estate and, to some extent, non-productive property aggregates $12,671.86. This the treasurer is as rapidly as possible converting into active and interest bearing investments.

We are pleased to state that the treasurer has, with much care and considerable labor, kept strict account of each fund, thereby very materially aiding the committee in their duty of examination.

June 12th, 1905.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN M. TILDEN,

GEORGE J. MAGER.

G. Van Wagenen Fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

The continuation of the Rev. Dr. Duff by the late Bishop of the Diocese and now by his successor, on this foundation, has proved both fortunate and wise.

His remuneration and disbursements connected with the administration of the Mission have amounted to $1,520, which has been paid by the Trustee. The only other charge has been the rent of a safe deposit box.

New loans have been taken to the extent of thirty-four hundred dollars.

The Hoban, $1,000, is a short loan secured by temporary assignment of a loan of $2,900, based upon a good farm in the town of Preston in this County.

The Willoughby, $3,000, is secured by first lien on a farm of upwards of 200 acres in the same town. The mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's office of this County August 18th, 1899, Book 126, Page 2.

Van Wagenen Fund—Report of the Trustee.

Two other loans have been slightly enlarged for the accommodation of the owners of the properties, the security in each case being abundant.

The foreclosure of the Fritz contract, which has been a source of annoyance for a score of years, results in a loss of about fifty dollars of principal, and of a similar amount of accrued interest.

The Van Deuzen contract for the same face value, on the same land, is made with a man believed to be reliable and able to comply with its agreements.

The Mallory and Moore loans have been disposed of and payments made on the Scudder-Shapley, Andrews and Rogers, as shown in detailed statement.

The latter shows that net income of $2,123.28 has been collected, and the fund increased $555.01, the total footing of thirty-three loans with cash now on hand being $39,616.21.

No loan is nine months in default of interest except that at the head of the list, and that one is no farther behind than at this time a year ago.

J. R. VAN WAGENEN,

Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary

Fund of the County of Chenango.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

Your standing committee on the report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund of the County of Chenango, respectfully report, that they have examined the accounts presented of the receipts and disbursements of said Fund for the last Convention year, and find the same to be a correct statement thereof, vouchers having been submitted for all of the disbursements. They have also examined the list of securities given in said report and the securities themselves and find them to correspond and the securities to be properly endorsed with the payments made therein during the year as shown by the report.

The Fund is invested in bonds secured by mortgages on real estate in the counties of Chenango, Chemung, Schuyler and Broome in this state, with but one exception, and your committee are satisfied that the security is ample in each case.

Respectfully Submitted,

GEORGE G. PERRINE,
CHAS. W. BROWN,
SEYMOUR H. STONE.

H. Registrar's Report.

There has been received by the Registrar since the last report :
Journals and pamphlets from the library of the late Bishop

Huntington.

Five boxes of miscellaneous books, journals and pamphlets, from the library of the late Dr. Babcock.

Central and Western New York Journals from Miss Mary Jackson of Utica.

Sketches of New Hampshire church history from the Secretary of that diocese, and 17 journals from the Secretaries of other dioceses.

There have been distributed :

To Rev. Charles W. Hayes, D.D., Central New York Journals from 1899-1904 inclusive.

And to the New York State Library Central New York Journals from 1899-1904 inclusive.

Through the kindness of Mrs. C. T. Olmsted a gas stove has been placed in the library and the same generous friend is binding the unbound volumes of the Spirit of Missions for diocesan use.

79 volumes have been bound during the last year and the library is becoming valuable and accessible for those who desire to consult it for statistical or other information.

X. Work Among the Deaf Mutes.

Report of the Deaf Mute Commission to the Diocese of Central New York :

We hereby present our Fourth Annual Report :—

A perusal of the full and careful report of the Missionary, Rev. Mr. Van Allen, leaves us very little to say. We are convinced that he gives us as much of his time as he can spare consistent with his obligations to the dioceses of Albany and Vermont. There are several points in our diocese which we would like him to visit, but these he has had to omit on account of the pressure upon him from his other two fields. It is increasingly evident as we intimated in our last report, that to do the work here with due attention to all parts of the diocese, the missionary ought to be free to give us his entire time. At present however, he does not see his way clear to relinquish either Albany or Vermont, and we must be content with the present arrangement. The Treasurer's statement shows the source and disposition of our resources. We wish to acknowledge our obligation to the Missionary Board for $200 00; the Junior Auxiliary $100 00, and the Parishes $258 20. We have given Mr. Van Allen $500 00, leaving a balance of $195 36. This again places us in a position to meet our monthly expenses until the annual offerings are received. Thank-

C. A. TALCOTT, *Treasurer.Report of the Missionary to the Deaf Mutes.

To the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf and Dumb in the Diocese of Central New York:

GENTLEMEN: As your Missionary among the deaf and dumb of the Diocese I have the honor to submit the following report of my work during the past year:

One hundred and twenty-one services have been held, a slight increase over the number held during the preceding year. These services have been distributed as follows: In Syracuse, 34 (of which 11 were

Report of the Missionary to Deaf Mutes.

Celebrations of the Holy Eucharist); in Utica, 35 (of which 12 were Celebrations); in Rome, 15 (of which 1 was a Celebration); in Oneida 9; in Oswego, 6; in Watertown, 7; in Binghamton, 4; in Fulton, 3; in Auburn, 3; in Elmira, 2; in Philadelphia, 2; and in Oxford, 1. In addition, I have made 211 personal calls upon deaf-people, and in this way have talked with 313 individuals. In former reports I have alluded to the importance of these calls, which in many localities constitute the only effective means of reaching the people, and the large increase in their number during the past year represents a very considerable extension of the Missionary's activity and influence.

There have been four baptisms during the year, one adult at Philadelphia, and one infant at Utica, one at Rome, and one at Philadelphia. There have been three marriages, two at Utica, and one at Fulton. There was one burial, an infant at Rome. I have a class of three persons nearly ready for presentation to the Bishop for Confirmation, and I hope to be able to present them early in the summer.

During the past year I have served as president of the Alumni Association of the School at Rome, and my duties have brought me into very pleasant relations with nearly all the graduates, most of whom are more or less closely connected with our Mission. The annual reunion of the Association in June was a very pleasant affair, and the annual picnic, held at Sylvan Beach in August, drew a large attendance from all parts of Central New York.

There have been the usual social activities among the deaf, which I have assisted and encouraged as far as I could. I have attended three social gatherings at Utica and one at Syracuse. On New Year's eve, a reception was given to the deaf people of Utica at Trinity Parish House, which was well attended in spite of the severe weather.

The offerings at services amounted to $114 09; which have been more than sufficient to pay the traveling and other expenses of the Missionary. The latter have been smaller than usual, amounting to only $69.20.

In September I was invited to deliver the principal address at the biennial meeting of the New England Gallaudet Association, which was held at Portsmouth, N. H. The meeting was one of the most pleasant and interesting gatherings of the deaf which I have ever attended and I had an excellent opportunity to observe the changes and improvements in the education of the deaf during the past quarter of a century. My address, which was an attempt to deal with some of the current problems affecting the deaf, was very kindly received. In the course of this visit in the East I had the pleasure of renewing some old friendships, not only with clergy formerly resident in this Diocese, but also with some deaf people formerly connected with our Mission here.

During the year I have held occasional services in the Diocese of Western New York for my brother Missionary, the Rev. Mr. Smielau, and he has reciprocated by holding several services for me at places in the extreme southern portions of my field which I find it somewhat difficult to visit regularly. This arrangement has proved very helpful and convenient, and I hope that it can be continued, in an informal way, during the coming year.

I have given considerable time and labor to assisting the deaf to extricate themselves from various difficulties in which their ignorance of the law and of legal language had involved them, one special case being where the title to the entire little property of a deaf man was in dispute. I am under great obligations to Mr. C. W. Andrews, of Syracuse, for very valuable and generous advice and assistance in this connection. The deaf are very often made the prey of selfish and designing persons, and the Missionary is frequently able to give much needed help and advice. It is to be regretted, however, that his help and advice are usually asked for when it is too late entirely to avoid the consequences.

I believe that the record of the past year is a very satisfactory one, and that it justifies a high degree of hopefulness in regard to the future. The attendance at services has been very good, the interest and devotion of the people appear to be slowly and steadily growing, and the people themselves have worked together as unitedly and harmoniously as could be expected in view of the fact that they are so few and widely scattered and bound together by no more real and substantial tie than that of a common affliction. With increasing experience, the conviction has grown that work among the deaf and dumb is a mission pure and simple, that it must always remain so, and that the more strictly purely missionary methods are adhered to the more successful it will be. For this reason, I have abstained from burdening the work with elaborate organization, costly both in money and effort, have asked as little as possible from my people beyond consistent Christian lives and devotion to the church and her ways, and I have tried to keep steadily in view as the end of my efforts, the absorption of these people, as far as circumstances will permit, into the ordinary life of the church as represented in the parish. The deaf are isolated enough, as it is, by the mere fact of their deafness, and it seems to me that it would be a mistake if not a positive wrong to further isolate them by providing them with a "church" of their own. I have tried to work along the line of least resistance, stimulating, encouraging, instructing, and advising, and I believe that the almost entire absence of friction and the steady, if gradual, progress that has been made in so many directions is the best justification of the policy adopted.

I desire to express my appreciation of the generous interest taken in my work by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, and my thanks for the kindness and courtesy shown me on every hand, by the Bishop, the Clergy, and by the members of the Commission.

Very respectfully yours,

H. VAN ALLEN.

R. Report of Committee on Christian Education.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York, June 13, 14, 1905.

TO THE BISHOP, CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE CONVENTION OF THE

The question which has been placed in the hands of this committee is one that should be of great moment to every Churchman. Never has the religious and secular press given more of its space to the consideration of this question in all its phases. We believe that the indifference of the masses of the present day is due to their ignorance in respect to the fundamental facts of the Gospel. These fundamental facts of the Gospel are looked upon as mere Theological dogmas, which may, or may not have any real bearing on the practical religious life. An unbelieving, materialistic coterie of men have dyed the word dogma with a coloring that conjures up in men's minds a belief that a dogmatic statement is one that may be illogical, unhistorical as regards certain facts, and that its statements to be considered among mere speculative philosophies. We need to impress men more and more that "Christianity is the logical exponent of facts."

Report of Committee on Christian Education.

We are living in an age that is intensely practical. Men are looking always for results from their endeavors. The merchant watches his methods and soon abandons one that does not bring good profits, and the same is seen in all other departments of life's work. With the growth of this spirit, we began to see great changes in the Church. By these changes the great theological writers seem silenced. The great theological teachers did a great work for the Christian world, but men grew tired of theory, and looked for the theory to give results in the practical life of the followers of Christ. To this call the Church was not deaf. When this great change was seen in the life of the Church she could no longer feel her full duty done when she had only ministered to the spiritual needs of man. During the last half century she has realized that her mission to man was to minister to the whole man, Body, Soul and Spirit.

So the Institutional Church has spread its influence and power in every center of Church work. It satisfies man's desire for practical results in Christian work. We cannot but feel thankful when we see the Church rising to the fuller appreciation of her whole duty. But in doing this has she been neglectful of her duty as a teacher of the great facts of the Gospel? If her broader sphere of action has left little time for the Theological quibbles of the Continental Reformers and the Puritan Divines we may be thankful; but in this zeal for her enlarged work she must always remember that she is the teacher of the revealed word of God. The power to do this greater work came from her faith in the Living Christ, life was given to her work by the power of the Holy Spirit, and the work has grown by the Christian Gospel, and lives and will live only by the power of the Gospel

Report of Committee on Christian Education.

The popular theory for a good life is to appropriate the words and example of our Lord and live by them. Many believe that they can rise to the fulfilment of the whole life without ever hearing His voice speaking through the Spirit. We can never rise to the highest things of life if we forget the distinction that will ever exist between the highest, noblest, truest, best that any nature can show in this world, and the promptings of the Holy Spirit. We cannot rely on temperance, manliness and justice which may be the best products of an unsanctified heart, and all of which Paganism might have taught us if the Son of God had never come on this earth. We are living under the grace of the Spirit, and the Spirit of God can do more than ever can come under the realm of sense. If the Church in her institutional work preaches this Gospel of the world, she neglects the direct exercise of her teaching power, she has only risen to the sense of her greater duty by neglecting her first and chief duty.

So we believe that it is necessary always for the Church in the midst of all her work touching man's varied life, to see that the sublime truths of the Gospel are not overlooked as the controlling factors of her work, and as the potent agents to make it effective and enduring. The Church is endeavoring to bring man to consider his social, economic and political duties from the high plane of her conception of duty, and in all ways to have a better philosophy of life. In all this work we need to be mindful that we do not only regard man as a physical and an intellectual being, and become unmindful of the necessary moral perceptions, and his conscience, and thus leave him under no high spiritual obligation to do right. The Church must be the educator of her children. A leading New York journal gave expression to the same thought when it said that "this question was a religious one. Education according to everybody," it said, "is such a training as will fit man for the work of his life. But what the work of his life is, is purely a religious inquiry. Education must, therefore, in some sense be religious." The remark is inspired by an unusually clear perception of what education is.

As the Church labors on this problem of the philosophy of life, which is the problem of every new sect and philosophy, it must be the duty of her teachers to see that her teaching is not only the Gospel of Benevolence, and her theology merely the teaching of ethics, for by so doing she will remove God from all concern and connection with His creatures, and leave them to work out the problem of life without light and without His aid.

Report of Committee on Christian Education.

The Church must give to men more and more the revealed truth of God concerning the philosophy of life, she must be striving ever to fix the principles of the Gospel in the hearts of her children that they may grow with her growth, and strengthen with her strength, and become a part of her life.

To do this the Church must be able to reach the children. Some of her work with them may be direct, but much must be of an indirect character. The priest in a small parish might be able to be in close touch with all the children of the parish, and be indeed a "Father in God" to them; but the Priest in a large parish, with all its manifold duties and multiplicity of calls cannot have a very close knowledge of the individual children in his fold.

Those responsible must be brought to feel keenly the duty that rests upon them to see that the children are brought up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." If the ordained man has no cooperation from those directly responsible for the children, little can be accomplished with many of the children. Do we have that cooperation?

The work of training the child in spiritual things must begin in the home. The home training presents itself under two heads.

First: There is the time of training before the child is conscious of personal responsibility. Then there is the time of personal responsibility, and then the child cooperates with you.

How many homes there are where in the early days of the child's life much is said and done that will not be perpetrated in later years. Any one familiar with the little child knows how soon they begin to observe, and appreciate all that goes on about them. Sooner than many suspect they begin to take notice of the tones and looks of the parents, and older members of the family. The home, in all these days, before personal responsibility can be demanded, must breathe from its life love. All that meets the eye and sounds on the ear should breathe love. If all is harsh, unclean and revengeful and evil passions abound, and faces are dark, we need not be surprised if lower passions of the child appear to predominate. If all is worldliness how can we expect divine influence to grow? The first lessons are to be learned in the home. Like awakens like. The first impressions are the lasting ones. In the home Heaven should be brought to Earth.

Report of Committee on Christian Education.

Just as soon as the child arrives at the time of personal responsibility it should be made to feel that it is the Lord's child, and not a child of this world, but that it is a member of the Household of faith. The responsibilities of life must be at once impressed on them.

The home should lay up the form of sound words in the childhood days. The home must teach them in the early days to rejoice at the cradle in Bethlehem, and weep at the Cross. The great facts of Christianity should be impressed upon them, the reasonableness of them they will find out in later days. It is an error of our time which seeks to bring all divine truth under the comprehension of the intellect of man. If all these truths of God are to be hidden until the time of full intellectual development, it will not be at all wonderful if the man never comes to a comprehension of the greater mysteries of God.

We believe that one of the greatest losses of our day is the fact that the custom of family prayer has been so universally omitted from the home life. The gathering of the household around the family altar is one of the greatest powers to make an impression on the little child. We do not see as many family pews as in the past. There can be no doubt that the children are not trained in the habit of public worship. Can we wonder then that when they are older, and their own agents, that they, and their children do not find a regular place in the public services of the Church.

What we have said of the parents, also, in a modified sense, can be said to the Godfathers and Godmothers. Has not this spiritual relation, in a large measure, lost its true meaning? How many who make these solemn promises before God feel that a great responsibility rests upon them? How many see that their Godchildren learn the creed, the Lord's prayer and the ten commandments? How many feel the responsibility, and make a prayerful effort to see that the child is brought to lead a Godly and a Christian life? If the child's parents, guardians and relations were taken away, how many would feel that they, and they alone of all the world, stood pledged before God to see that child was provided with a Christian home? Should we not lay greater emphasis on the undertaking of this important duty.

We believe that the Church gives too little consideration to the Sunday School. We know that the Sunday School does not meet with the approbation of a very small minority in the Church. Of all the fields of work in the parish it is frequently one of the most perplexing. How often it is the one discouraging feature of the parish work. We feel that the Church at large and the Diocese have given too little consideration to such an important part of her work. If the Sunday School has not been successful what has been done to overcome the difficulties? Why in nearly all the parishes of the rural, and in many of the city districts, do the Sunday Schools of the denominational bodies excel those of the Church? Because they have given more time to the question, and more of the best talent in those bodies are engaged in the work.

The children are compelled to attend the public schools, or private schools, and the parents see that they are regular and punctual. The Sunday School attendance is purely voluntary, and the parents being often non Church going people assume an indifferent authority in regard to the regular and punctual attendance of their children. But it is not so on Monday morning. Then, they must be ready to go to the secular school. Now what is the impression left with the child? They see that thirty minutes a week is the allotted time allowed to the study of the Eternal verities of God, and that that time is not always enforced by the Father or Mother. Five days a week and several hours a day are spent in secular study, and with this duty the child is most seriously impressed by the constant presentation of the schoolday advantages, and the insistence of Father and Mother that they shall attend. Can such a situation impress the young mind with the seriousness and the vital necessity of knowing and weaving into the character the great truths of our Christian faith?

We must also add a word on the preparation of the lessons. Any one associated with the Sunday School work knows how few scholars appear with their work prepared. Where is the fault? Is it not with the parents that they do not see that the children make some preparation in the work assigned?

We believe that the parish authorities give too little attention to the Sunday School. Large sums of money are spent for music and in other ways to adorn the service, and carry on the parish work. How many vestries appropriate money adequate to the needs and relative importance of the Sunday School. If an experienced organist and choirmaster are required, would it not be well to consider whether it would be advantageous to have experienced teachers in the Sunday School? We speak with grateful appreciation of the love, selfsacrifice and devotion that characterizes the work of many of the teachers in our Sunday Schools. We have many good teachers that inspire their classes with ideals of life, and many a faithful teacher may be able to leave a deep impression on the boy or girl that has been under his charge, which will be helpful and make them better men and women for that association. But is that all that we require in our Sunday School work? To fulfill the requirements of a good Sunday School teacher we do not want good character only, we need the head as well as the heart. Our public school teachers are not chosen alone for their eminent moral qualities, but they must have qualifications to teach the subjects in which they are expected to give instruction. Why should it not be the same in the Sunday School? Why should not we pay our Sunday School teachers? Why should we not require a qualified standard for teaching the great truths of God?

We believe that much would be accomplished in bettering our Sunday Schools if some of our Sunday School commissions would issue a course of study for the teachers, and have them take it in some such way as the Chautauqua course is taken, and then require an examination of the student under the direction, let us say, of the parish Priest where the person lives. Then let the Sunday School that can afford to do so pay these teachers, and let them not only teach, but have the responsibility of looking up absentees, and thus keep in touch with the scholars and with their parents. Such a course would be a long step in meeting the arguments against the inefficiency of the Sunday School. With such a system the Sunday School hour no longer would consist of a few words on the lesson, and then end with a general conversation on most every other subject save the one that has called them together. Further we believe that such an arrangement would promote system in the school, and with this we could adopt more generally the graded system, and promote the scholars on merit.

The question of obtruding spiritual matters into the public school has of late received considerable attention. Christian men on all sides see the evils of the present arrangement, but all seem powerless to find a way out of the difficulty. We all realize that it is a great problem. Jews, Greeks, Infidels, Heretics and Christians of every name, these last, a sad commentary on the divided condition of Christendom, all these in the same room in the school make it a difficult problem to solve. But its very difficulty should make us the more eager to undertake its solution. To say as many have done that the Church is responsible and must do all the Spiritual work is very true. The Church wants to do this work. How can she do it?

Report of Committee on Christian Education.

We see that few parents bring their children to Church, and that the Sunday School arrangements are far from being ideal. Five days in the week the child is in school, and there, in many instances, it is receiving the chief foundation stones on which it is to build its future character. In many of these structures the corner stone is missing. That upon which all else should be builded is never laid, namely, a strong faith in the Christian truths. Studiously these are avoided. This most important training is left out in the making of our future citizens and rulers. We cannot wonder that so many of our young people are in ignorance of the truths of the Gospel, when of all the time given to the duties of the week, only a few minutes are given to the things of God. If a few generations ago men were stronger in the faith, if materialistic philosophy was not as prevalent as it is today, if men went to Church more, and occupied their minds more with the things of religion, it was, we believe because they were learning day by day of the things of God with the secular knowledge that was imparted to them. It was because the education of the day was developing three sided men, bringing out the power of Body, Soul and Spirit, and not two sided men, touching only the Body and the intellect.

We are not presumptuous enough to offer any solution to this question. We believe that a writer in one of our religious papers has made a suggestion that is worthy of consideration. The suggestion was practically this. Give at least one half day of each week from the public school work for religious instruction. Have the authorities compel, with the consent of the parents, the children to repair to their respective places of worship, and there be instructed in religious matters. Surely such an arrangement would be impressive to the child, and secure much good result, providing that the work was well done, with a graded system, and competent instructors.

President Eliot of Harvard University not very long ago spoke of the increase of crime, and that, in spite of the fact that so much larger a proportion of the people had enjoyed the benefits of an education. He was seeking for an explanation. Does not the answer to the question lie in the one sided development of the education of to-day? The training of the body and the drawing out of the mental faculties, never will impart alone sufficient strength and power to the highest nature of man. Where can that strength and power come from but from the Incarnate Lord? Natural love of right. Natural strength of conscience are not sufficient. It was because man had not the power in himself, that a divine power came down from heaven. To live by this power the child must be daily living so as to be brought under this power and receive its influence.

Many parents, even when the child does not attend the public schools, and is sent away to a private school or when the time has come for the higher education at the College or University, do not turn to the educational institutions of the Church, but the child is turned to some secular institution. Unless our Church schools and colleges are greatly inferior to the others would it not be of inestimable benefit to have the voice of Christian men sound in the ear during the daily round of duty, to have the chairs of philosophy not unmindful of the Christian religion? If our schools and colleges are inferior then it is the duty of the Church to see that she is not behind in this all important matter.

We are living in an age of scientific research. Men's hearts are troubled over many matters. Many are drifting hopelessly on the sea, for they have no anchor to hold them fast. When the craft was set afloat the anchor was not given to them. If we go out to the work of life fortified with the Catholic faith we can face all the problems without apprehension. It is only the enlarged views which faith imparts that will enable the scientific man, and every one of us, as it did the great Newton, to see God, and feel His power, whether it be written on the rocks or in His Divine Word.

In concluding our report we cannot but express our disappointment that the Bishop was obliged to close the doors of Keble School in Syracuse. Lack of interest on the part of the Diocese made it impossible for the Bishop to attempt to assume the responsibilities of the school. For more than a quarter of a century it had wrought a good work in the Diocese. It has sent many young women from its Christian home surroundings with strong Christian faith, to become Christian home builders. If the Diocese had been conscious of the need of Christian schools would the doors of this old institution have been compelled to close?

We must not close this report without bearing witness to the efficient work, and high standard of scholarship and Christian gentlemanliness that is maintained in St. John's School, Manlius. It is still under the efficient Headmastership of Colonel William Verbeck. This one Church educational institution in our Diocese should command our support and interest. It has arisen from its disaster from the ravages of fire, and with characteristic courage it has gone on Number of services held, 153. Holy Communion, 25. Baptisms 7. Confirmations, (2 classes) 11. Marriage, 1. Burials, 4. Sunday Schools, 4. Church Guilds formed, 3. Places visited for holding services and preaching, 27 (including two in Broome county and one in Madison County) House to house visits, 598. Services have been held at intervals in 12 denominational churches, occasional services in 6 mission churches, and occasional preaching in 7 Parish churches in the county. An additional class for confirmation awaits the visitation of the Bishop. About 50 prayer books have been distributed. The services held in the little hamlet meeting houses, in various parts of the county, have been well attended and there is an increasing interest in the "ways of the church" wherever these services have been maintained.

THE REV. O. E. HERRICK, D. D., Chaplain U. S. A., Retired, residing at Watertown, reports that since the date of the last Convention he has read the service, preached, and administered the Holy Communion several times, and that he has married four couples, and officiated at seven funerals.

THE REV. G. H. KIRKLAND, residing at Kennett Square, Pa., reports that during the year he has officiated for a number of months at St. John's Church, Kelton, and has frequently assisted in the services in the Church of the Advent, Kennett Square.

THE REV. E. W. MUNDY, D. LITT., residing at Syracuse, reports that during the year he has held one service at the Hospital of the Good Shepherd in that city.

THE REV. A. H. ORMSBEE, residing at Charlton, N. Y., reports that during the first half of the Convention year, he held regular services at Copenhagen and Champion. Since the first of November, 1904, he has served as Missionary at Charlton in the Diocese of Albany.

THE REV. W. W. RAYMOND, residing at Baldwinsville, reports that under the direction of the Bishop of the Diocese and at the request of brethren desiring assistance he has supplied services as follows: In the Church of the Saviour, Syracuse, during July and August, 1904, in the absence of the rector, took charge of Christ Church, Jordan, and Emmanuel Church, Memphis, during November and December, 1904, and January, 1905; took charge of the Church of St. John the Divine, Syracuse, during February, March and April, 1905; catechised classes at The Shelter, Syracuse, during the spring

It is the aim of this institution to supply to the little ones entrusted to its care a good home, together with the much needed in fluence of a pure family life. Religious education is, of course, the primary object, and besides the daily devotions, it is the rule to have a weekly service and a catechetical instruction by the Chaplain. The House is grateful to the Bishop for his kindly interest shown in many ways.

Seventy-four children have been cared for during the past year.

The handsome new building was formally dedicated by Bishop Olmsted on September 29th with a beautiful benediction service of prayer and praise, followed by a celebration of the Holy Communion in the Chapel, which was very largely attended by friends of the institution.

Shelter for Unprotected Girls, Syracuse.

Opened February 21, 1877. Incorporated 1878.

Trustees—The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese; Mr. Charles Andrews, President; Mrs. H. L. Elsner, Secretary; Mrs. Enrico Burkhart, Treasurer; Dr. Juliet E. Hanchett, Miss J. E. McIntosh, Mrs. F. R. Hazard, Mrs. I. G. Vann, Dr. J. C. Carson, Charles W. Snow, Rev. Henry Hyde, Mrs. Karl Schwartz and Miss A. S. Huntington.

Superintendent—Miss A. A. Kendall.

The object of this institution is to train young and neglected girls in the ways of purity, industry and self-control. They are taught sewing, laundry and house work and instructed in the elementary branches of education. Pains are taken to procure respectable situations at service for those who leave the house. The income is dependent upon annual subscriptions, occasional gifts and a small sum for board from friends or the poor authorities.

APPENDIX V.

(A)

Constitution and Canons.

Constitution.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the Second Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committees shall be appointed.

Sec. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop or in the case above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The members of any Convention shall be the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and all Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese, not under discipline, and lay delegates from the several Parishes, provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he has been Canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

Constitution.

Sec. 2. The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

Sec. 3. But in case of Churches or Congregations organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

Sec. 4. The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the convention and the conditions under which union or representation shall be forfeited, may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention at its first morning session shall be opened with prayers and the Holy Communion, and the Bishop may at this time deliver his Annual Address or Charge.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Annual Convention from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Annual Convention, and until a successor be appointed. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of each Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1. In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and, except as provided in the next Section, may vote in one body; but if in any case it shall be required by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy as individuals, and the Laity as Parishes; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

Constitution.

Sec. 2. In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately by ballot, and according to the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering the Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing, and considered in the Convention; and if approved of, shall lie over till the next Annual Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

ARTICLE IX.

No amendment of the Canons shall be made during the session of the Convention in which the same shall be proposed, unless two-thirds of each order shall concur therein; but any amendment, if approved by a majority less than two-thirds, shall lie over for the consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Canons.

ADOPTED IN CONVENTION, 1869.

CANON I.

Of a List of Ministers in the Diocese.

Section 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures, Parishes, Stations, or places of residence, designating those who are entitled to seats in the Convention; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry, shall have a place on the said list. And such list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and be prefixed to the Journal.

Sec. 2. The right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

CANON II.

Of the Members and Organization of the Convention.

Section 1. The evidence of the regular admission of a Clergyman into this Diocese shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention of a compliance with Section V. of Canon 15, of the Digest of the Canons of the General Convention; and the evidence of a settlement in a Church thereof shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention, of a compliance with the first and second sections of Canon 14.

Sec. 2. The appointment of a Lay Delegate to the Convention of this Diocese shall be certified in writing by the Rector of the Parish or Church of which he is a delegate, or by one of the Wardens, or by the Clerk of the Vestry, or Trustees. This Certificate shall state in all cases that the person so certified is entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen—or would be so entitled if the Church which he is appointed to represent were not otherwise organized or incorporated—and that the said Parish or Church is not in arrears in payment of its assessment for the Diocesan Expense Fund, or (if it be in arrears) that it prays the Convention to remit the sum in arrears for the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

Sec. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

Sec. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President Pro Tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

Sec. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. Notice shall then be given to the Lay Delegates to place their certificates on the table. They shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members to be appointed by the President. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called and the names of those who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

Sec. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

Sec. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

Sec. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

Canon III, IV.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Sec. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

Section 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

Sec. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

CANON V, VI

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

Section 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

Sec. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section II, Canon 47, of the Digest, a certificate to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary; together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

Sec. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Sec. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his office.

Sec. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

Canon VII.

Sec. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an election is made by the Convention. The Treasurer may be removed at any time from his office by the Standing Committee for any neglect or misconduct, of which they shall be judges.

CANON VII.

Of Registers, Parochial Reports, and the Removal of Communicants from one Parish to Another.

Section 1. The Parish Register, required by Section III, Canon 15, of the Digest, shall specify the name and the time of the birth of the child baptized with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the parties married, and of two or more special witnesses of the same, and the place where the marriage was solemnized; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the Records of the Church.

Sec. 2. The Parish Register shall contain a list of the families and adult persons in the Cure as far as practicable, and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed from time to time.

Sec. 3. In every Parish and Missionary Station a list of the Communicants shall be kept which shall retain the names of all persons who shall have been admitted to the Holy Communion in that Parish or Station until they shall have ceased to be Communicants in the Cure by either (1) death, (2) removal or (3) repulsion and suspension or excommunication by competent authority. In the Annual Report of the Parish discrimination shall be made by means of separate items between those who shall have received the Holy Communion at least once within two years preceding such report, and all others whose names are on the list as above provided, but who shall not have received the Communion either in public or in private during the two years preceding the report, whatever may have been the occasion or cause of their neglect of their privilege and duty.

Sec. 4. The Annual Report shall also indicate all the additions to the list of Communicants during the past year, as well as the losses by death, removal, repulsion or suspension, as required by Section III, Canon 15, and Section I, Canon 47, of the Digest, and shall also contain, in addition to the value of churches and rectories, the amount of insurance thereon. Under the head of rector's salary and current expenses shall be included salary of ministers, choir expenses, wages of sexton, fuel and lights.

Sec. 5. In every case where a Parish is destitute of a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by the War-tens, or by some person appointed by the Vestry, whose duty it shall also be to prepare and forward to the Bishop the Annual Parochial Report.

Sec. 4. Communicants removing from one Parish to another, in the Diocese, shall procure a certificate as provided for in Canon 19, Section 1 of the Canons of the General Convention.

Sec. 5. The same rule shall apply in this Diocese to Communicants who may wish to be transferred, without changing their residence, from the list of Communicants in one Parish, so as to be received as Communicants in any other Parish or in any other place of worship where the Holy Communion is habitually celebrated.

Sec. 6. No Rector or other Minister in charge of any Parish in this Diocese shall receive as an habitual Communicant, or enter upon the list of Communicants under his charge, the name of any person who has been a Communicant in any other Parish in this Diocese without such a certificate or Letter Dimissory from the Parish in which said Communicant last belonged.

Sec. 7. Any Communicant not under censure or ecclesiastical discipline shall be entitled to such a certificate or letter on application therefor to the Minister in charge of the Parish to which said Communicant belongs, and in case of a vacancy in the pastoral care of a Parish and in case of any person under discipline the application shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese, or in the vacancy in the Episcopal office to the President of the Standing Committee, and the answer and decision of the Bishop or of the President of the Standing Committee as above provided, shall be final and conclusive.

CANON VIII.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

Section 1. The Convention shall, at its regular annual meeting next preceding the regular session of the General Convention, elect by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, four clergymen and four laymen, who shall be Communicants of the Church and residents of the Diocese, to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. In like manner the Convention shall elect four clergymen and four laymen as Provisional Deputies, to act as hereinafter mentioned. The Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their office during the term of three years.

Sec. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies between the stated times of election may be supplied by any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to signify to the Bishop on some day within three weeks of the meeting of the General Convention, and at least one week before such meeting, the acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which, and in case of their inability or unwillingness to perform the duties of the appointment, all vacancies so occurring by declensions, sickness or death shall be filled by the designation of the Bishop, from the list of the Clergymen and Laymen elected as Provisional Deputies, and such person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

Sec. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the President of the Standing Committee.

CANON IX.

Of the Standing Committee.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention an election of a Standing Committee shall be made; which Committee shall consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of each order, each Parish having one vote by its delegates. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical Members and Lay Members of the Committee.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical Members of said Committee; in which case such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical Members alone; provided that no sentence shall be pronounced upon a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a true record of their proceedings and report the same annually to the Diocesan Convention. He shall preserve all books, journals and papers belonging to said committee, and transmit the same to his successor in office.

CANON X.

Of the Diocesan Missions and Offerings.

Section 1. All members of the Church in the Diocese of Central New York constitute its Diocesan Missionary Society; and the Convention of the Diocese shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Sec. II. For Missionary purposes the Diocese shall be divided into six districts, as follows:

First District—Jefferson and Lewis Counties.

Second District—Oneida County, the Village of Oneida, and all the rest of Madison County except the townships including the Parishes of Cazenovia, Canastota, Chittenango and Perryville.

Third District—Broome and Chenango Counties.

APPENDIX V.

(A)

Constitution and Canons.

Constitution.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the Second Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committees shall be appointed.

Sec. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop or in the case above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The members of any Convention shall be the Bishop,

Canon X.

Stipendiary Fund given to each district, together with the sum apportioned to each of its Stipendiary Parishes and Missions.

5. Other meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at the call of the Bishop, or in a vacancy of the Episcopate, of four Deans. Eleven members of the Board, including three Deans, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but no action of the Board shall be valid without the approval of the Bishop..

Sec. V. 1. Each Missionary District shall hold not less than two stated Convocations yearly. At the first of these, which shall be held as soon after the adjournment of the Annual Convention as the District may determine, appropriations shall be made by it in aid of the Missionary work in the said District under the advice or direction of the Bishop.

2. Each Parish and Missionary Station seeking aid from the Convocation shall make written application through its Vestry or Committee stating the facts necessary to a full understanding of the case, particularly the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the Parish or Station for the support of the Minister.

3. Each Missionary District shall be represented in its Convocation by the Clergy canonically resident, and by two Lay Delegates from each of its Parishes and Missions.

4. Each Missionary District shall have power to assess upon its own Parishes and Missions whatever sum may canonically be required of it for the Missionary work of the Diocese, and all moneys raised or collected for Diocesan Missions shall be promptly paid by the Treasurer of the District to the Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Managers, and by him paid to the Missionaries on the order of the Treasurer of the District.

5. At least two weeks before the Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Secretary of each Missionary District shall make report of the year's work of the District to the Secretary of the Board of Managers, including the items called for in Section IV, 4, of this Canon.

6. Any missionary District may with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special Missionary work, provided it shall first have complied with all canonical requirements, and shall be free to make its own regulations and conduct its own Missionary work in all ways not conflicting with the provisions of this Canon.

7. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman in charge of a Parish or Mission to attend all Convocations of his District, and to report to the same the Missionary work done in his Cure.

Sec. VI. 1. Offerings shall be made systematically in the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese as follows:

For the Communion Alms on the first Sunday in each month.

Canon XI.

For the Board of Missions, Domestic or General, on a Sunday in Advent.

For the Christmas Fund, on Christmas Day.

For the Board of Missions, Foreign or General, on a Sunday after the Epiphany

For the Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York, or the Bible and Prayer Book Society of New York, in the discretion of the Minister, on Whit Sunday.

For the increase of the Ministry, on Easter, or some other near and convenient Sunday.

For Deficiency in Income from the Episcopate Fund of the Diocese, on the fourth Sundays in March and September.

For the Mission among the Deaf-Mutes in the Diocese, on the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, or on the Sunday next before Advent.

2. Offerings for Diocesan Missions shall be made in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese on the third Sunday of each month, when one of the above named Sundays is not the third Sunday. All such offerings shall be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the District.

It is also recommended that the Minister of each Parish or Congregation, at the Episcopal visitation, ask an offering which shall be placed in the hands of the Bishop, to be used at his discretion for the benefit of needy persons, and which shall be called Bishop's Relief Fund.

CANON XI.

Of the Diocesan Expense Fund

Section 1. In order to provide for the necessary expenses of the Diocese, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Diocese to present to the Standing Committee on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, an estimate of the amount of money that will be needed during the ensuing year to meet the current expenses and expenses of the Convention, adding thereto the liabilities of the Diocese chargeable to said fund, if there be any.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said Committee, upon receipt of this estimate, to assess this amount upon the Parishes and Churches of the Diocese, at the rate of an uniform per-cent. upon the amount last previously reported to the Convention and printed in the Journal under the head of "Rector's Salary and Current Expenses" as defined in Canon VII, Sec. 4, not including any amount that may have been given to the Parish or Church, or its Minister, by the Missionary Board of the Diocese, or by any other Missionary organization. And it shall be the duty of said Committee to report to the Convention the schedule of assessments thus apportioned and when the Convention shall have adopted the same, with such amendments as it may deem necessary, it shall be binding upon the

Canon XII.

Parishes and Churches, and shall be printed as an appendix to the Journal.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall notify each Parish and Church of the quota thus assigned to it, and it shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of each Parish or Church, or the Minister and Trustees—if there be no Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen—to see that the amount thus due the Diocese, be forwarded to the Treasurer in quarterly installments, so that the whole amount be paid before the first day of May in each year.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present to the Secretary of the Convention, at the opening of each Session, a list of such Parishes or Churches as are in arrears to the Diocesan Expense Fund with the amount of such arrears, that the same may be placed in the hands of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, and each such Parish or Church, shall be excluded from representation in the Convention, until such arrears are paid in full, unless the sum in arrears be remitted by the Convention itself, for reasons which are satisfactory to the Convention.

CANON XII.

Of the Christmas Fund.

Section 1. All moneys raised or contributed for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy, shall be paid to the Corporation known as "The Trustees of the Christmas Fund of the Diocese of Central New York." And it shall be the duty of the Convention at each of its annual meetings to nominate by ballot one person to act as Trustee in the said corporation to fill the vacancy which by the by-laws of said corporation will then occur, and to nominate in like manner other persons to fill any other vacancies in the said board that may have occurred during the year since the last Annual Convention.

Sec. 2. In every Parish in the Diocese there shall be made annually, on Christmas day, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy of the Diocese, and for the benefit of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy of the Diocese. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the Congregation, and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

Sec. 3. All appropriations for the Relief of Disabled Clergy shall be made by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, on the certificate of the Bishop that the individual has labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than three years, (except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese and having never removed therefrom), and is disabled by age or physical infirmity from having a parochial charge; but no appropriation shall be made for a larger sum than five hundred dollars per annum, and it shall be paid semi-annually, on the first of January and July.

Sec. 4. All appropriations for the benefit of the widow or chil-payment of its assessment for the Diocesan Expense Fund, or (if it be in arrears) that it prays the Convention to remit the sum in arrears for the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

Sec. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

Sec. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President Pro Tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

Sec. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. Notice shall then be given to the Lay Delegates to place their certificates on the table. They shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members to be appointed by the President. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called and the names of those who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

Sec. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

Sec. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

Sec. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

Canon III, IV.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Sec. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

Section 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

Sec. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

Canon V, VI.

CANON V.Of the Secretary of the Convention.

Section 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

Sec. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section II, Canon 47, of the Digest, a certificate to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary; together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

Sec. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Sec. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.Of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his office.

Sec. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

Canon VII.

Sec. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an election is made by the Convention. The Treasurer may be removed at any time from his office by the Standing Committee for any neglect or misconduct, of which they shall be judges.

CANON VII.

Of Registers, Parochial Reports, and the Removal of Communicants from one Parish to Another.

Section 1. The Parish Register, required by Section III, Canon 15, of the Digest, shall specify the name and the time of the birth of the child baptized with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the parties married, and of two or more special witnesses of the same, and the place where the marriage was solemnized; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the Records of the Church.

Sec. 2. The Parish Register shall contain a list of the families and adult persons in the Cure as far as practicable, and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed from time to time.

Sec. 3. In every Parish and Missionary Station a list of the Communicants shall be kept which shall retain the names of all persons who shall have been admitted to the Holy Communion in that Parish or Station until they shall have ceased to be Communicants in the Cure by either (1) death, (2) removal or (3) repulsion and suspension or excommunication by competent authority. In the Annual Report of the Parish discrimination shall be made by means of separate items between those who shall have received the Holy Communion at least once within two years preceding such report, and all others whose names are on the list as above provided, but who shall not have received the Communion either in public or in private during the two years preceding the report, whatever may have been the occasion or cause of their neglect of their privilege and duty.

Sec. 4. The Annual Report shall also indicate all the additions to the list of Communicants during the past year, as well as the losses by death, removal, repulsion or suspension, as required by Section III, Canon 15, and Section I, Canon 47, of the Digest, and shall also contain, in addition to the value of churches and rectories, the amount of insurance thereon. Under the head of rector's salary and current expenses shall be included salary of ministers, choir expenses, wages of sexton, fuel and lights.

Sec. 5. In every case where a Parish is destitute of a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by the Wardens, or by some person appointed by the Vestry, whose duty it shall also be to prepare and forward to the Bishop the Annual Parochial Report.

Canon VII, VIII.

Sec. 6. Communicants removing from one Parish to another, in the Diocese, shall procure a certificate as provided for in Canon 39, Section I, of the Canons of the General Convention.

Sec. 7. The same rule shall apply in this Diocese to Communicants who may wish to be transferred, without changing their residence from the list of Communicants in one Parish, so as to be received as Communicants in any other Parish or in any other place of worship where the Holy Communion is habitually celebrated.

Sec. 8. No Rector or other Minister in charge of any Parish in this Diocese shall receive as an habitual Communicant, or enter upon the list of Communicants under his charge, the name of any person who has been a Communicant in any other Parish in this Diocese without such a certificate or Letter Dimissory from the Parish to which said Communicant last belonged.

Sec. 9. Any communicant, not under censure or ecclesiastical discipline, shall be entitled to such a certificate or letter on application therefor to the Minister in charge of the Parish to which said Communicant belongs, and in case of a vacancy in the pastoral care of a Parish, and in case of any person under discipline the application shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese, or in the vacancy in the Episcopal office, to the President of the Standing Committee, and the answer and decision of the Bishop or of the President of the Standing Committee, as above provided, shall be final and conclusive.

CANON VIII.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

Section 1. The Convention shall, at its regular annual meeting next preceding the regular session of the General Convention, elect by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, four clergymen and four laymen, who shall be Communicants of the Church and residents of the Diocese, to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. In like manner the Convention shall elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as Provisional Deputies to act as hereinafter mentioned. The Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their office during the term of three years.

Sec. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies between the stated times of election may be supplied by any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur,

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to signify to the Bishop, on some day within three weeks of the meeting of the General Convention, and at least one week before such meeting, the acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which, and in case of their inability or unwillingness to perform the duties of the appointment, all vacancies so occurring by declensions, sickness or death shall be filled by the designation of the Bishop, from the list of the Clergymen and Laymen elected as Provisional Deputies, and such person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

Sec. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the President of the Standing Committee.

CANON IX.Of the Standing Committee.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention an election of a Standing Committee shall be made; which Committee shall consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of each order, each Parish having one vote by its delegates. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical Members and Lay Members of the Committee.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical Members of said Committee; in which case such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical Members alone; provided that no sentence shall be pronounced upon a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a true record of their proceedings and report the same annually to the Diocesan Convention. He shall preserve all books, journals and papers belonging to said committee, and transmit the same to his successor in office.

CANON X.Of the Diocesan Missions and Offerings.

Section 1. All members of the Church in the Diocese of Central New York constitute its Diocesan Missionary Society; and the Convention of the Diocese shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Sec. II. For Missionary purposes the Diocese shall be divided into six districts, as follows:

First District—Jefferson and Lewis Counties.

Second District—Oneida County, the Village of Oneida, and all the rest of Madison County except the townships including the Parishes of Cazenovia, Canastota, Chittenango and Perryville.

Third District—Broome and Chenango Counties.

Canon X.

Fourth District—Onondaga, Oswego and Cortland Counties, and the townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.

Fifth District—Cayuga and Seneca Counties.

Sixth District—Chemung, Tioga and Tompkins Counties.

Sec. III. 1 The principal officer of said Missionary District shall be called the Dean of the District. He shall be appointed every four years by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, after nomination in a regular Convocation of the same. Under the Bishop he shall have the oversight of all Missionary work in his District.

2. Each Missionary District shall annually elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, at its first regular Convocation after the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

3. If the office of Dean of any Missionary District become vacant, by removal or otherwise, the Bishop shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term.

Sec. IV. 1. In the general Missionary work of the Diocese, the Bishop shall be assisted by a Diocesan Board of Managers, consisting, together with the Bishop, of the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall also be the Treasurer of the Board, the six Deans, and six Clergymen and six Laymen, one of each from each Missionary District, to be elected severally by the Convocation of the District entitled to this representation. In any vacancy of the Episcopate, the Board of Managers shall elect one of its members to preside.

2. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall consult for the promotion of the Missionary work of the Diocese. It shall, each year, through its Secretary, present to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual session, a report of the Missionary work of the Diocese during the Conventional year.

3. At each Annual Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall submit to the Diocesan Board of Missions for its action, an estimate of the sum required for the Missionary work of the Diocese during the current year. Immediately after the adjournment of the Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall meet and determine how much of the money voted by the Diocese for its Missionary work during the year shall be assessed to each District, and what part of it shall be given to the same for apportionment among its stipendiary Clergy. And this determination shall be published in the Journal of the Convention.

4. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall, through its Treasurer, prepare for publication in each Journal of the Convention, a table by districts, of all the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, the sum assessed to each District to be raised for Diocesan Missionary work, the amount assessed by the District to each Parish and Mission for the same, and the sum actually given for this purpose by each Parish and Mission. It shall also contain the amount of Canon X.

Stipendiary Fund given to each district, together with the sum apportioned to each of its Stipendiary Parishes and Missions.

5. Other meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at the call of the Bishop, or in a vacancy of the Episcopate, of four Deans. Eleven members of the Board, including three Deans, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but no action of the Board shall be valid without the approval of the Bishop..

Sec. V. 1. Each Missionary District shall hold not less than two stated Convocations yearly. At the first of these, which shall be held as soon after the adjournment of the Annual Convention as the District may determine, appropriations shall be made by it in aid of the Missionary work in the said District under the advice or direction of the Bishop.

2. Each Parish and Missionary Station seeking aid from the Convocation shall make written application through its Vestry or Committee stating the facts necessary to a full understanding of the case, particularly the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the Parish or Station for the support of the Minister.

3. Each Missionary District shall be represented in its Convocation by the Clergy canonically resident, and by two Lay Delegates from each of its Parishes and Missions.

4. Each Missionary District shall have power to assess upon its own Parishes and Missions whatever sum may canonically be required of it for the Missionary work of the Diocese, and all moneys raised or collected for Diocesan Missions shall be promptly paid by the Treasurer of the District to the Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Managers, and by him paid to the Missionaries on the order of the Treasurer of the District.

5. At least two weeks before the Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Secretary of each Missionary District shall make report of the year's work of the District to the Secretary of the Board of Managers, including the items called for in Section IV, 4, of this Canon.

6. Any missionary District may with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special Missionary work, provided it shall first have complied with all canonical requirements, and shall be free to make its own regulations and conduct its own Missionary work in all ways not conflicting with the provisions of this Canon.

7. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman in charge of a Parish or Mission to attend all Convocations of his District, and to report to the same the Missionary work done in his Cure.

Sec. VI. 1. Offerings shall be made systematically in the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese as follows:

For the Communion Alms on the first Sunday in each month.

Canon XI.

For the Board of Missions, Domestic or General, on a Sunday in Advent.

For the Christmas Fund, on Christmas Day.

For the Board of Missions, Foreign or General, on a Sunday after the Epiphany

For the Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York, or the Bible and Prayer Book Society of New York, in the discretion of the Minister, on Whit Sunday.

For the increase of the Ministry, on Easter, or some other near and convenient Sunday.

For Deficiency in Income from the Episcopate Fund of the Diocese, on the fourth Sundays in March and September.

For the Mission among the Deaf-Mutes in the Diocese, on the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, or on the Sunday next before Advent.

2. Offerings for Diocesan Missions shall be made in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese on the third Sunday of each month, when one of the above named Sundays is not the third Sunday. All such offerings shall be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the District.

It is also recommended that the Minister of each Parish or Congregation, at the Episcopal visitation, ask an offering which shall be placed in the hands of the Bishop, to be used at his discretion for the benefit of needy persons, and which shall be called Bishop's Relief Fund.

CANON XI.

Of the Diocesan Expense Fund

Section 1. In order to provide for the necessary expenses of the Diocese, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Diocese to present to the Standing Committee on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, an estimate of the amount of money that will be needed during the ensuing year to meet the current expenses and expenses of the Convention, adding thereto the liabilities of the Diocese chargeable to said fund, if there be any.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said Committee, upon receipt of this estimate, to assess this amount upon the Parishes and Churches of the Diocese, at the rate of an uniform per-cent. upon the amount last previously reported to the Convention and printed in the Journal under the head of "Rector's Salary and Current Expenses" as defined in Canon VII, Sec. 4, not including any amount that may have been given to the Parish or Church, or its Minister, by the Missionary Board of the Diocese, or by any other Missionary organization. And it shall be the duty of said Committee to report to the Convention the schedule of assessments thus apportioned and when the Convention shall have adopted the same, with such amendments as it may deem necessary, it shall be binding upon the

Canon XII.

Parishes and Churches, and shall be printed as an appendix to the Journal.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall notify each Parish and Church of the quota thus assigned to it, and it shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of each Parish or Church, or the Minister and Trustees—if there be no Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen—to see that the amount thus due the Diocese, be forwarded to the Treasurer in quarterly installments, so that the whole amount be paid before the first day of May in each year.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present to the Secretary of the Convention, at the opening of each Session, a list of such Parishes or Churches as are in arrears to the Diocesan Expense Fund with the amount of such arrears, that the same may be placed in the hands of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, and each such Parish or Church, shall be excluded from representation in the Convention, until such arrears are paid in full, unless the sum in arrears be remitted by the Convention itself, for reasons which are satisfactory to the Convention.

CANON XII.

Of the Christmas Fund.

Section 1. All moneys raised or contributed for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy, shall be paid to the Corporation known as "The Trustees of the Christmas Fund of the Diocese of Central New York." And it shall be the duty of the Convention at each of its annual meetings to nominate by ballot one person to act as Trustee in the said corporation to fill the vacancy which by the by-laws of said corporation will then occur, and to nominate in like manner other persons to fill any other vacancies in the said board that may have occurred during the year since the last Annual Convention.

Sec. 2. In every Parish in the Diocese there shall be made annually, on Christmas day, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy of the Diocese, and for the benefit of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy of the Diocese. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the Congregation, and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

Sec. 3. All appropriations for the Relief of Disabled Clergy shall be made by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, on the certificate of the Bishop that the individual has labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than three years, (except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese and having never removed therefrom), and is disabled by age or physical infirmity from having a parochial charge; but no appropriation shall be made for a larger sum than five hundred dollars per annum, and it shall be paid semi-annually, on the first of January and July.

Sec. 4. All appropriations for the benefit of the widow or children of a deceased Clergyman shall be made by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund on the certificate of the Bishop, that the person or persons is the widow or minor child or children of a deceased Clergyman who was a canonical resident of the Diocese at the time of his death, and who had labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than one year, (except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese and having never removed therefrom), but no appropriation for this purpose shall be made for a larger sum than three hundred dollars per annum, to be paid semi-annually, on the first of April and October; and no appropriation shall be paid to the widow after she is married again, or to orphan or orphans after having attained the age of majority.

Sec. 5. The Trustees of the Christmas Fund shall have power to appropriate a sum not exceeding fifty dollars towards the funeral expenses of a deceased beneficiary.

Sec. 6. All moneys belonging to the Fund and not needed for present relief shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security upon real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings, the appraisal to be made by an appraiser appointed by the Trustees for the purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State, or of the United States; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of said Trustees and their successors in office, as Trustees of the Fund; and they shall have the power from time to time to change such securities or investments.

Sec. 7. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees of the Christmas Fund, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate committee according to Canon XIV, signed by said Trustees or a majority of them.

CANON XIII.

Of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate.

Section 1. There shall be five Trustees appointed by the Convention to whom the management and care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate in this Diocese shall be entrusted. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to appoint a President and Secretary; and no act of said Trustees shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees by a majority of the same and recorded by their Secretary in a book to be kept as the record of their proceedings, and to be opened to the inspection of the Convention. The said Trustees shall hold their office during the pleasure of the Convention; and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees shall from time to time be filled by the Convention.

Sec. 2. All moneys belonging to the Fund for the support of the Episcopate shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon securities on real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings; the appraisal to be made by one appraiser, appointed by the Trustees for that purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State or of the United States; or in any securities in which Savings Banks are authorized to invest the monies deposited with them under the laws of this State; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said Trustees and their successors in office as Trustees of said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities and investments.

Sec. 3. The salary of the Bishop shall be paid quarterly, by the Treasurer of the Diocese, on the first days of July, October, January and April, in each fiscal year, and the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund shall remit quarterly, in anticipation of such payments, all sums received by them as income of said Fund, and the receipt of said Treasurer shall be a proper voucher for said Trustees in rendering their annual report to the Convention of this Diocese.

Sec. 4. With a view to the further increase of the principal of the said Fund, such portions of the contributions of the Diocese as may be given or appropriated for that purpose shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the order of the said Trustees, to be invested by them for accumulation and without diminution, until the further order of the Convention; and all moneys remaining in the hands of said Trustees for investment shall be deposited in some safe bank in this State, to the credit of the President and Secretary of the Board

Sec. 5. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate Committee according to Canon XIV.

CANON XIV.

Of the Fiscal Year and Financial Reports.

Section 1. The fiscal year of the Diocese shall begin on the first day of May annually, and end on the thirtieth day of April following. And the Treasurer of the Diocese and all Trustees having in charge any funds belonging to the Diocese shall annually make their reports to the appropriate Standing Committees on or before the fifteenth of May in each year.

Sec. 2. Standing Committees shall be appointed at each Annual Convention to consider and report to the Annual Convention next ensuing, as follows:

1. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, consisting of three Laymen.
2. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, consisting of three Laymen.

3. On the report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, consisting of three Laymen.

4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, consisting of three Laymen.

5. On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, consisting of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of each of these several committees to meet in each year at some time between the fifteenth of May and the meeting of the next Annual Convention, at the place where the Treasurer resides, or where the funds are held, and make an examination into all books, papers, vouchers, etc., relating to the respective funds held by the Treasurer or Trustees, and prepare a report to be presented to the Annual Convention next ensuing. An abstract of each report with such resolutions as may be proposed, and the reports of the Standing Committees constituted by this Canon shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Convention in time to permit him to cause the same to be printed, and sent to the Clergy and Lay Delegates, one week before the meeting of the Convention.

CANON XV.

Of Vacant Churches.

Section 1. Whenever a Church becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Bishop.

Sec. 2. The Bishop shall appoint those of the Clergy in the Diocese, who can with most convenience discharge the duty, to supply such vacant Parishes as have been reported to him, at such times as may be deemed convenient and proper. It shall be the duty of such vacant Churches thus supplied to defray all the expenses incident to such occasional services.

CANON XVI.

Of Elections.

Section 1. All the Officers of the Convention shall be elected by ballot. Election by ballot may be dispensed with by an unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

Sec. 2. To facilitate the stated election by ballot, the Secretary shall provide sheets of paper with printed headings, containing the titles of the various offices to be filled by ballot, for the use of the members of the Convention; and all such officers may be voted for at one balloting. No printed ballots shall be allowed.

Sec. 3. In all cases of failure or omission to elect officers by the Convention, the persons last elected shall continue in office until others be chosen.

Canon XVII, XVIII.

Sec 4. In case of vacancies in office, occurring during recess, it shall be competent for the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, to fill ad interim, any position which the Convention, if in session, might fill.

CANON XVII.

Of Attending the Meetings of the Convention.

Section 1. Whereas, the regular attendance of the Clergy and Laity at the meetings of the Convention is of essential consequence to the interests of the Church, this duty is hereby enjoined upon them.

Sec. 2. And whereas it is often necessary to travel a considerable distance to the place of meeting of the Convention, it is hereby made the duty of the different Parishes to make provision for the travelling expenses of their Clergy in attending the Convention, either by a collection in Church on Sunday, or by some other mode. The Clergy attending Convention shall be entertained at hotels, and the expense of such entertainment shall be provided through an assessment of $250, which shall be added each year to the budget of the Diocesan Expense Fund, and the Parish in which the Convention is held shall be entitled to draw upon the Treasurer of the Diocese for the expenses of such entertainment to an amount not exceeding the aforesaid $250.

Sec. 3. No member of this Convention shall leave the same during its session without having applied for and received leave of absence.

CANON XVIII

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of the Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceedings in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

Section 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever from public rumor, or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case—a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is, in their opinion, sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

CANON XVIII

Sec. 2. A presentment being made in any of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as to constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts some of which do, and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time and from place to place, (but always within the Diocese,) as they shall think necessary.

Sec. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

Sec. 4. If at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if after one adjournment or more it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

Sec. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial as before mentioned he shall be considered as denying them.

Sec. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn until another day.

Sec. 7. When the Board proceeds to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced; which evidence shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer authorized by law to administer oaths may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses, that they will testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

Sec. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness can not be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a commissary to take the testimony of such witness. Such commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness; and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the commissary and enclosed under his seal and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

Sec. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by them or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be without delay communicated to the accused; and the original decision, together with evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some Church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

Sec. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the fact shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

Sec. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Sec. 12. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee; and for that purpose shall, after final decision be delivered to their Secretary.

CANON XIX.Of the Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Bishop may nominate for the approval of the Convention a person skilled in ecclesiastical and civil law to be the Chancellor of the Diocese, whose office shall be to act as legal adviser and counsellor to the Bishop, the Standing Committee, ecclesiastical courts and the Convention, when called upon to do so.

CANON XX.Of Parochial Limits.

No Parish of this Church shall be organized in any town, city or village where one already exists, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, and no edifice for public worship shall be erected by said Parish within one-half mile of the Church building already in existence.

CANON XXI.Of the Retirement of a Minister from the Active Duties of his Office.

Any Clergyman of this Diocese, in good standing who has reached the age of sixty-five years, and desires to retire from the active duties of the Ministry by reason of disability shall, on the recommendation of the Bishop be entitled upon his retirement, to receive a pension of $500 per annum, payable quarterly by the Treasurer provided he has been engaged twenty years in the work of the Ministry in this Diocese. The amount needed for such pension shall be added to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Rules of Order.

THIRD AND SUBSEQUENT DAYS.

- III. On the third and any subsequent day, after Morning Prayer, the Order of Business shall be as follows:
 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes of the preceding day.
 2. The disposal of the Unfinished Business of the Convention in the order above prescribed for the Second Day; the business, if any, however, which was under consideration at the time of adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

GENERAL RULES.

- IV. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

Rules of Order.

V. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded it shall be stated by the President before the debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing when required by the President or any member.

VI. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

VII. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received, except to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order here named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

VIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate; but any matter thus laid on the table may be called up again during the same session on the motion of any member who voted in the affirmative.

IX. On the question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members and the Churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journal.

X. Any five votes may require the ayes and nays to be taken by orders, and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XI. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XII. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention; nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XIII. All Reports of Committees shall be in writing, and shall, upon reading or presentation of the same, become the property of the Convention without any motion for acceptance, and any report recommending action by the Convention shall be accompanied with a Resolution.

XIV. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

Rules of Order.

XV. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect, unless by the vote of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XVI. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XVII. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 6 to 7:30 in the evening.

APPENDIX VI.

(A)

Organization of Parishes.

(1.) An Act in Relation to Religious Corporations, Being Chapter Three Hundred and Fifty-eight of the General Laws.

Special Provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches.

Section 30. The Meeting for Incorporation.

31. The Certificate of Incorporation.
32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.
33. Annual Elections.
34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of parishes hereafter incorporated.
35. Changing date of annual elections, number and terms of Office of Vestrymen and terms of Churchwardens of Parishes heretofore incorporated.
36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.

Section 30. The meeting for incorporation.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Congregation, and of electing the first Churchwardens and Vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Organization of Parishes.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such Parish or Congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such Parish or Congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating Minister, or if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the Chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated Parish or Congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the Vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are Communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be Churchwardens thereof; one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

Sec. 2. Section thirty-one of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 31. The Certificate of Incorporation.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county and the town, city or village in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;

Organization of Parishes.

6. The names of the Vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;

7. The names of the Churchwardens elected at such meeting, and term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the Clerk of the County, so specified therein, the Churchwardens and Vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the Rector, when there is one, shall form a Vestry and shall be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its govern*ance.

Such corporation shall be an Incorporated Church, and may be termed also an Incorporated Parish.

Sec. 3. Section thirty-two of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—No meeting of the Vestry or Trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church, shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the Rector in writing either personally or by mail; or, if there be no Rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the Churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the Vestry or Trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient, provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the Vestry or Board of Trustees there must be present either:

1. The Rector, at least one of the Churchwardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen, or

2. The Rector, both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen, or

3. If the Rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the Rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one Churchwarden and a majority of the Vestrymen, or both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen,

But if there be a Rector of the Parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

The presiding officer of the Vestry or Trustees shall be the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the Churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the Churchwardens be present; or the Churchwarden present if but one be present.

At each meeting of the Vestry or Trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The Vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a Churchwarden or Vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The Vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the Parish or Church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a Rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the Rectorship of the Parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the Rector.

Sec. 4. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 33. Annual Elections of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church hertofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the Rector of the Parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating Minister or by a Churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the Parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and Vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the Rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Churchwarden be present, a Vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the Parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such Parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as Churchwarden unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as Vestryman unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the Vestrymen of the Parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated, two Churchwardens and the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one Churchwarden or of but one-third of its Vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each Churchwarden and Vestrymen shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

Sec. 5. Section thirty-four of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of Vestrymen of such Parish be changed to either three, six or nine Vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual meeting of such Parish and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of Vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of Vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of Vestrymen to be elected at such annual election one-third of such increased number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not effect the term of office of any Vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

Sec. 6. Section thirty-five of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of Vestrymen and terms of office of Churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the Annual Election be changed to a secular day in the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of Vestrymen be changed to three, six or nine, and that the terms of office of the Churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next Annual Election of such Parish and be submitted to such meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified at such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the Parish; the number of Vestrymen so decided on, and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect Churchwardens so that the term of one Warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning, with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the Vestrymen and Churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election, shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of Vestrymen and manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years, one-third thereof to hold office for two years, and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one Churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of Vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one Churchwarden.

Sec. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

tions of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish heretofore incorporated shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of sections thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

Sec. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2.) An Act to Amend the Religious Corporations Law.
Became a Law April 19, 1900.

Section 1. Section eleven of Article one of Chapter seven hundred and twenty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act in relation to religious corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws," and known as the religious corporations law, as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Sale, mortgage and lease of real property of religious corporations.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale mortgage or lease of its real property unless the Rector of such Church, if it then has a Rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese to which such Church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the Standing Committee, with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. * * * The petition of the Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church * * * shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

(3.) Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

To all to whom these Presents may Concern:

We, the undersigned, whose names and seals are affixed to this instrument, do hereby certify, that on the [Second] day of [June] in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and [ninety five], the men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York worshipping in [the School House of School District Number (3) in the Town of Verona, in the County of Oneida, in the State of New York,] not already incorporated, met at their usual place of worship aforesaid, for the purpose of incorporating themselves under the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An Act in relation to Religious Corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws, in pursuance of notice duly given specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof which had been publicly read in the time of morning service, on two Sundays next previous to such meeting, by * [the Rector] at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, and which was also posted in a conspicuous place on the outer door near the main entrance to such place of worship.

And we further certify that at such meeting, not less than six men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation aforesaid, and not already incorporated, and duly qualified to vote at such meeting, met for the purpose aforesaid.

And we further certify that † [the Rev John Williams, the Rector of the said Church or Congregation,] presided at the said meeting and received the votes.

And we further certify that the number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting was [three, six or nine]

And we further certify that at the said meeting the following persons were elected Churchwardens and Vestrymen, for the term of office set opposite their names respectively, by a majority of the votes of the persons present at the said meeting qualified to vote, viz.:

A. B. for term of one year

[Thomas Clark,]	[SEAL.]
[William Smith,]	[SEAL.]

The certificate thus made out, and signed and sealed, must be duly acknowledged by the parties signing and sealing the same, before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgement, or proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate, to be recorded in the County where the Church or place of worship is situate.

Being thus signed, sealed and acknowledged the certificate must be recorded by the Clerk of the County or by the officer whose duty it is, or may hereafter be made, to record such instruments in the County in which the Church is situate.

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(B)

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(1.) An Act for the Incorporation of Societies to Establish Free Churches. Passed April 30, 1854.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Section 1. Any seven or more persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of them being residents of this State, who shall associate themselves for the purpose of founding and continuing one or more Free Churches, may make, sign and acknowledge, before any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds of land to be recorded in this State and may file in the office of the Secretary of State, and also of the Clerk of the County in which any such Church is to be established, a certificate in writing, in which shall be stated the name or title by which such society shall be known in the law, the purpose of its organization, and the names of seven trustees of whom not less than five shall be persons who are not Ministers of the Gospel, or priests of any denomination, to manage the same; but such certificate shall not be filed unless with the written consent and approbation of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the district in which any such Church shall be intended to be established, or in the city of New York, of a Judge of the Superior Court of the said city, to be indorsed on such certificate.

Sec. 2. Upon the filing of such certificate, the persons named therein as trustees and their successors, being citizens of the United States and residents of this State, shall be a body politic and corporate, with all the rights, powers and duties, and subject to all the restrictions and obligations and other provisions, so far as the same may be applicable and consistent with this act specified and contained in the act entitled "An Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies," passed April 12, 1848, and the act amending the same passed April 7, 1849, except that the limitation in the first of the said acts of the value of the real estate that may be held by any society in the city or county of New York, incorporated under this act, shall not be applicable to any Church edifice erected or owned by such society, or the lot of ground on which the same may be built, and except that the provision in the first of the said acts, in relation to the personal liability of the trustees, shall be applicable only to the trustees who shall have assented to the creation of any debt.

Sec. 3. Any vacancies occurring in the said Board of Trustees shall be supplied by the remaining trustees at any legal meeting of the members; but there shall always be at least five members of the Board who are not ministers of the Gospel or priests of any denomination.

Sec. 4. The seats or pews in every Church building or edifice owned or occupied by any corporation organized under this Act shall be forever free for the occupation and use during public worship, of all persons choosing to occupy the same, and conducting themselves with propriety; and no rent, charge or exaction shall ever be made or demanded for such occupation or use; nor shall any real estate belonging to such corporation be sold or mortgaged by the trustees thereof, unless by the direction of the Supreme Court, to be given in the same manner, and in the like cases, as provided by law in relation to religious corporations.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2) Certificate of Incorporation of Free Churches.

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, male persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are residents of the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have associated ourselves together for the purpose of founding and continuing a Free Church in the City [or town] of——, State of New York that the name or title by which such society shall be known in law was determined to be the Free Church of the——, in the—— of——. That the purpose of its organization is the ministering of the Word and Sacraments according to the doctrines and worship and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. That the following are the names of seven trustees who are to manage the affairs of the said Church and body corporate, five of whom are not Ministers of the Gospel or Priests of any denomination, namely:

[Signed in duplicate by all, and to be acknowledged, not proved, and to be approved by a Judge of the Supreme Court of the district, and filed in the office of the County Clerk, and a duplicate in the office of the Secretary of State.]

Acts relating to the incorporation of the Trustees of the Episcopate, Parochial and Christmas Funds, and the Bible and Prayer Book Society may be found in any Journal of the Convention prior to 1896.
